Saint John the Evangelist Catholic Church

Solemnity of Mary, The Holy Mother of God January 1, 2023

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Ukraine Prayer

Loving God, We pray for the people of Ukraine, for all those suffering or afraid, that you will be close to them and protect them. We pray for world leaders, for compassion, strength and wisdom to guide their choices. We pray for the world that in this moment of crisis, we may reach out in solidarity to our brothers and sisters in need. Amen

Pray for the Military

Mother of God

When Mary became Mother of God, she changed our perceptions of God and humanity. Some aspects of our faith are absolutely beyond rational comprehension Parts of our faith are meant to stir the soul; they are poetry. Such is the case with today's feast, the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God. The very expression "Mother of God" cannot be understood as one understands a mathematical formula or a scientific fact. Consider it for a moment: a human giving birth to God-it's beyond the powers of the mind. But just because the scientific mind cannot grasp it and the rational fact-finding side of us must pause does not mean this doctrine is untrue. It communicates truth to a heart and soul that are opened through meditation. Taken in this way, Mary as Mother of God can tell us something of our God, something about ourselves, and something about where we must search for God.

This feast tells us something of our God. The very idea that a human gives birth to God tells us about God's desire to be one with creation, most particularly one with human creatures.

Humanity could never achieve, earn or even aspire to this event. One theologian said that we can only receive, only be ready, only allow something to happen to us. Mary summed this up for all ages when she was told by an angel that she would give birth though she did not know man. Mary said, "I am the servant of the Lord. Let it be done to me as you say." On our own, we could not achieve it. But God wills this unity; God desires to be one with us. That Mary is the Virgin Mother of God informs us once again that God is revealed as love, one who desires unity with us. St. Augustine once said that, if we wanted to know about God, we should meditate on love, "The very same love with which we love." Today we can consider the love of a mother and her son, Mary and Jesus, and thus learn about our God. An invitation is offered to each of us here to consider our loving relationships, since God has become one with us as love.

This feast can tell us something of ourselves. Though no one could ever earn the right to be Mother of God, though all humanity could not achieve it, once having taken place, the event changes our conception of ourselves. Karl Rahner wrote this of the incarnation: " .. it is forbidden to man to think little of himself because he would be thinking little of God. "

Since the day that a peasant girl from Galilee gave birth to God, no one should ever again degrade us. Consider some of the limits placed upon us improperly and unjustly:

Some say that humanity cannot enjoy true peace because violence is part of our nature and war has been with us always. A believer could simply retort that Mary became Mother of God and since that day it is wrong to degrade humanity. To degrade humanity is the same as blaspheming against God.

Some contend that the world cannot provide a good life for everyone, that some will go without even the necessities or that some will never reach their potential. But one who venerates Mary as Mother of God can answer that Mary sang about her own experience of God's care for the lowly and the poor. And further, Mary had been told by an angel that "nothing is impossible with God." This feast can direct us in our continual search for God. To arrive at her place in the history of salvation, Mary did not go to some mountaintop to see a guru, did not make a retreat or go on a pilgrimage. She did not visit a spiritual director or even her parish priest. She did not start a crusade or take on the social order. All of these may be good and sometimes necessary, but Mary took a different route. Karl Rahner sums up Mary's way: " ... we have to say of the God whom we profess in Christ that he is exactly where we are and only there is he to be found." Mary became pregnant, gave birth to a child, and thus played her role in salvation history. God came to Mary where she was, and she experienced God there.

The same can be true for each of us. God's desire to be with us means that our lives can be holy where we are: as parents and spouses, as neighbors, friends, as workers and voters. In day-to-day activities, God is found.

Today is New Year's Day. It is a good day to celebrate Mary as Mother of God As we begin a new year, we might pause to reflect on the meaning of this feast because it may just give us the boost we need for a new year: We are loved by God; our daily lives are being made holy by God; and there are no limits to what we can be-all because God became one with us through Mary whom we celebrate as Mother of God.

Readings for the Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, The Mother of God

Reading I Nm 6:22-27

The LORD said to Moses: "Speak to Aaron and his sons and tell them: This is how you shall bless the Israelites. Say to them: The LORD bless you and keep you! The LORD let his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you! The LORD look upon you kindly and give you peace! So shall they invoke my name upon the Israelites, and I will bless them."

Responsorial Psalm Ps 67:2-3, 5, 6, 8

R. (2a) May God bless us in his mercy.
May God have pity on us and bless us;
may he let his face shine upon us.
So may your way be known upon earth;
among all nations, your salvation.
R. May God bless us in his mercy.
May the nations be glad and exult because you rule the peoples in equity;
the nations on the earth you guide.
R. May God bless us in his mercy.
May the peoples praise you, O God;
may all the peoples praise you!
May God bless us,
and may all the ends of the earth fear him!
R. May God bless us in his mercy.

Reading II Gal 4:4-7

Brothers and sisters:

When the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, to ransom those under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. As proof that you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying out, "Abba, Father!" So you are no longer a slave but a son, and if a son then also an heir, through God.

Alleluia Heb 1:1-2

R. Alleluia, alleluia. In the past God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets; in these last days, he has spoken to us through the Son. R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Lk 2:16-21

The shepherds went in haste to Bethlehem and found Mary and Joseph, and the infant lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known the message that had been told them about this child. All who heard it were amazed by what had been told them by the shepherds. And Mary kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart. Then the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, just as it had been told to them. When eight days were completed for his circumcision. he was named Jesus, the name given him by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

Angels We Have Heard on High/ GLORIA

Verse 1. Angels we have heard on high Sweetly singing o'er the plains, And the mountains in reply Echo back their joyous strains.

> Refrain Gloria in excelsis Deo! Gloria in excelsis Deo!

Verses 2. Shepherds, why this jubilee? Why your joyous strains prolong? Say what may the tidings be Which inspire you heav'nly song. Come to Bethlehem and see Him whose birth the angels sing;
 Come, adore on bended knee
 Christ, the Lord, the newborn King.

4. See him in a manger laidWhom the angels praise above;Mary, Joseph, lend your aid,While we raise our hearts in love.

Hail Mary: Gentle Woman Carey Landry

Introduction

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women and blest is the fruit of your womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of death. Amen.

Refrain

Gentle woman, quiet light, morning star, so strong and bright, gentle Mother, peaceful dove, teach us wisdom; teach us love.

 You were chosen by the Father; you were chosen for the Son.
 You were chosen from all women and for woman, shining one.

 2. Blessed are you among women, blest in turn all women, too.
 Blessed they with peaceful spirits.
 Blessed they with gentle hearts.

Text: Based on Luke 1:28, 42. Text and music © 1975, 1978, Carey Landry. Published by OCP. All rights reserved.

What Child Is This GREENSLEEVES

 What child is this, who, laid to rest, On Mary's lap is sleeping?
 Whom angels greet with anthems sweet, While shepherds watch are keeping?

Refrain

This, this is Christ the King, Whom shepherds guard and angels sing; Haste, haste to bring him laud, the babe, the son of Mary.

2. Why lies he in such mean estate Where ox and ass are feeding?Good Christian, fear: for sinners here The silent Word is pleading.

3. So bring him incense, gold, and myrrh, Come peasant, king, to own him; The King of kings salvation brings, Let loving hearts enthrone him.

Text: 87 87 with refrain; Bramley and Stainer's Christmas Carols New and Old, 1871; William C. Dix, 1837–1898. Music: Trad. English melody, 16th cent.; Bramley and Stainer's Christmas Carols New and Old, 1871.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us.

O Little Town of Bethlehem ST. LOUIS

 O little town of Bethlehem, How still we see thee lie!
 Above thy deep and dreamless sleep The silent stars go by; Yet in thy dark streets shineth The everlasting Light;
 The hopes and fears of all the years Are met in thee tonight.

2. For Christ is born of Mary, And gathered all above,
While mortals sleep, the angels keep Their watch of wond'ring love.
O morning stars, together Proclaim the holy birth!
And praises sing to God the King, And peace to all on earth.

3. How silently, how silently, The wonderous gift is giv'n! So God imparts to human hearts The blessings of his heav'n. No ear may hear his coming, But in this world of sin, Where meek souls will receive him, still The dear Christ enters in.

> 4. O holy Child of Bethlehem! Descend to us, we pray;
> Cast out our sin and enter in; Be born in us today.
> We hear the Christmas angels The great glad tidings tell;
> O come to us, abide with us, Our Lord Emmanuel!

Text: 86 86 76 86; Phillips Brooks, 1835–1893, alt. Music: Lewis H. Redner, 1831–1908.

Let There Be Peace on Earth Sy Miller / Jill Jackson

 Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me. Let there be peace on earth, the peace that was meant to be.
 *With God as our Father, brothers all are we;
 *Let me walk with my brother in perfect harmony.

2. Let peace begin with me, let this be the moment now.
With ev'ry step I take, let this be my solemn vow: To take each moment and live each moment in peace eternally. Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me.

A Family Community of Faith, Excellence & Service since 1981

If you heard someone you know is pregnant and considering abortion, what would you do?

Help her find the closest pregnancy help center. There is a list on the diocesan website below under Walking with Moms in Need or have her use the QR code below which will direct her to the list. The center will give her accurate information about her options, confirm her pregnancy and show her the child in her womb via ultrasound, all for free. They will help her with other community resources, parenting classes, baby items and other needs.

Walking with Moms in Need is a nationwide program in the Catholic Church to connect pregnant women with pregnancy help centers. Join the effort to walk with her!

Parish volunteers can also coordinate efforts with the center to help her stay connected to her church or discover a faith community that cares about her.
