

St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

November 24, 2024

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the Spirit of Our Lord Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers - even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Readings for Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Reading I

Dn 7:13-14

As the visions during the night continued, I saw one like a Son of man coming, on the clouds of heaven; when he reached the Ancient One and was presented before him, the one like a Son of man received dominion, glory, and kingship; all peoples, nations, and languages serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not be taken away, his kingship shall not be destroyed.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 93:1, 1-2, 5

R. The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

The LORD is king, in splendor robed;
robed is the LORD and girt about with strength.

R. The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

And he has made the world firm,
not to be moved.

Your throne stands firm from of old;
from everlasting you are, O LORD.

R. The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

Your decrees are worthy of trust indeed;
holiness befits your house,
O LORD, for length of days.

R. The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

Reading II

Rv 1:5-8

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead and ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood, who has made us into a kingdom, priests for his God and Father, to him be glory and power forever and ever. Amen. Behold, he is coming amid the clouds, and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him. All the peoples of the earth will lament him. Yes. Amen.

"I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "the one who is and who was and who is to come, the almighty."

Alleluia

Mk 11:9, 10

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is to come!

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

Jn 18:33b-37

Pilate said to Jesus,
"Are you the King of the Jews?"

Jesus answered,

"Do you say this on your own or have others told you about me?"

Pilate answered,

"I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests handed you over to me. What have you done?"

Jesus answered, "My kingdom does not belong to this world. If my kingdom did belong to this world, my attendants would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not here."

So Pilate said to him,

"Then you are a king?"

Jesus answered,

"You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

Fr. Tom's Gospel Reflection

The title of today's feast emphasizes the kingship of Jesus. As we look at the prayers for this Mass, we find that Jesus is addressed as "King of the universe," "King of creation," and "universal King." His kingdom is of "truth and life," "holiness and grace," and "justice, love and peace." In what appears to be a contrast to the theme of kingship, the Scripture readings today focus on the image of Jesus as shepherd and the final judgment.

This feast of Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, is a relatively recent addition to the liturgical calendar. It was instituted in 1925 by Pope Pius XI in response to the growing trends of secularism and materialism. It is a reminder of the fundamental belief that Jesus Christ, the Risen Lord, is the essential life-giving force that governs all creation both as king and as shepherd.

The prophet Ezekiel wrote during the Babylonian exile approximately 600 years before the birth of Jesus. During the time of their oppression, he reminded the Israelites of God's promise to save them. God will do this, not as a king or a great warrior, but rather as a gentle shepherd - one who will tend his flock and rescue them from all of the places where they were scattered. The strays, the injured and the sick will be looked after. God will judge between the rams and the goats, and the sleek and the strong will be destroyed. How can a shepherd do this? It can only come about when the shepherd is the Lord our God.

Saint Paul begins his address to the Corinthians by reminding them that Christ has been raised from the dead. Because of this, all who fall asleep in Christ will also be raised from the dead at the end of time. When will this occur? No one knows the day or the hour. Saint Paul says that the final judgment will come when Christ has brought all power and sovereignty under his authority and destroyed death.

Paul had good reason to address his message to the people at Corinth. Corinth was a bustling commercial center where just about anything could be bought or sold. For the Christians in Corinth, the temptation to fall back into their old ways was always present. Paul reminded them of their dignity as believers in the Risen Lord, and that they would be held accountable at the last judgment for the way they chose to live their lives.

We return to the image of Jesus the shepherd in today's Gospel. This time however, Jesus is seen as the shepherd who will separate the sheep from the goats at the last judgment. And how will he decide who will be chosen and who will be rejected? His answer is straightforward. Those who feed, clothe, give drink, welcome others and visit prisoners will be chosen. Those who fail to treat Jesus this way will cut themselves off from their relationship with God. Jesus presents this choice to each of us. How will we treat the least in our midst?

Jamaica Outreach Program

"The Gift of Sight"

During our October-2024 eye care mission to Kingston, I found 12-year-old Deaghane and his mother hanging around outside the St. Pius X eye clinic. They had no appointment to see the eye doctor and we were already overbooked; we couldn't squeeze him in because we had already cancelled some patients' appointments. One look at this young boy's busted eyeglasses, held together with super-glue and packing tape, and I knew we had to do something.

After some probing, I learned his mother could obtain a copy of his old prescription but she couldn't afford the $25 fee the local clinic charged to get a copy. We gave her $25 and they came back later with the record. We chose a new frame for Deaghane and he will get new glasses from JOP in a few months. BUT WAIT, THERE'S MORE!

Paul Connor is JOP's Optical Chairman, our own Mr.-Fix-It, and he loves a challenge. One of Deaghane's lenses was still intact, so Paul took it out and put it into a temporary frame. The left lens was useless but, fortunately, Paul's old stock of lenses included Deaghane's prescription. However, the lens cutting machine Paul used in the past was broken, so Paul spent most of the afternoon manually cutting the left lens to fit the temporary frame.

Deaghane is a polite and very well-spoken young man who does well, even with poor vision, in the 6th grade at St. Andrew Technical school.

He and his mom are so very grateful to you, our donors, for giving him "the gift of sight" and the opportunity to continue to excel in school.

DIOCESE OF VENICE SAFE ENVIRONMENT POLICY

The Diocese of Venice states that, “all employees, covered volunteers and religious brothers and sisters must be electronically fingerprinted. Eligibility for employment/ volunteer work/ministry will be contingent and conditioned upon a satisfactory background investigation. A reasonable effort shall be made to update the criminal history background information every five (5) years”. The Diocese classifies a covered volunteer as “any unpaid adult person engaged or involved in a Diocesan activity in which he/she is entrusted with the care and supervision of children or allowed unsupervised access to children or vulnerable adults” (e.g. when screened personnel not present).

St. John the Evangelist also requires the following volunteers to go through the background screening process (through fingerprints):

- Volunteers who handle cash, credit cards, and other financial transactions
- Volunteers who are entrusted with confidential information, such as donor records and parish registration forms
- Volunteers who serve, distribute, and administer the Holy Eucharist

Report any abuse against minors to the Florida Department of Children and Families at 800-962-2873. If Diocesan personnel or volunteers are involved, also notify the Diocesan Victims Assistance Coordinator, Susan Benton, at 941-416-6114.

NOVENA IN HONOR OF OUR SORROWFUL MOTHER

NOVENA TIME

The first Friday of every month* after the morning Mass at St. John the Evangelist Church, 625 111th Ave N, Naples, FL 34108

WHY CHOOSE A NOVENA DEDICATED TO MARY?

Mary plays an important role in our salvation and we plea for her intercession so that we may follow her example in following Christ her Son. Our church is dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary. People are looking for someone who cares for them and the Sorrowful Mother has her arms open to welcome and listen.

WHY A NOVENA SPECIFICALLY TO HONOR OUR SORROWFUL MOTHER?

Mary has promised to grant seven graces to the souls who honor her by meditating on her tears and sorrows.

MARY'S SEVEN PROMISES:

1. I will grant peace to their families.
2. They will be enlightened about the divine mysteries.
3. I will console them in their pains and I will accompany them in their work.
4. I will give them as much as they ask for as long as it does not oppose the adorable will of my Divine Son or the sanctification of their souls.
5. I will defend them in their spiritual battles with the infernal enemy and I will protect them at every instant of their lives.
6. I will visibly help them at the moment of their death, they will see the face of their Mother.
7. I have obtained from my Divine Son that those who propagate this devotion to my tears and dolours, will be taken directly from this earthly life to eternal happiness since all their sins will be forgiven and my Son and I will be their eternal consolation and joy.

Books for this Novena will be available in our Gift Shop

This perpetual Novena in Honor of Our Sorrowful Mother will bring people closer to Christ and His Sorrowful Mother.

Eucharistic Revival

The four pillars for St. John the Evangelist Year of Parish Revival are: Reinvigorate Worship, Personal Encounter, Robust Faith Formation, and Missionary Sending.

Reinvigorate Worship

Attentiveness to full preparation, reverent celebration, and offering many opportunities for parishioners to experience the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist more profoundly.

Personal Encounter

Active encouragement and facilitation for increased participation in Eucharistic Adoration by our parishioners.

Robust Faith Formation

Providing opportunities in our Faith Formation and Youth Ministry for instruction about the Eucharist; and personal engagement for our children, young adults, and their families. Providing parishioners resources to learn more about the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

Missionary Sending

Welcoming our parishioners and their families when they are drawn to the Church for sacraments. Proactive outreach and welcome to non-Catholics to join our Church. Attentiveness to our Eucharistic Ministry to encourage ongoing learning and to engage more volunteers for Eucharistic Ministers who bring Christ to all in our Parish, both at Mass and to those who are not able to attend Mass.

Adult Faith Formation

Advent is a special season for the Church. The 1st Sunday of Advent is December 1st. Advent is the time when the world prepares to celebrate the coming of Christ. We often lose sight of the point of this season because we get so caught up in our preparations, and we find ourselves no more transformed on Christmas Day than we were at the start of Advent.

One way our parish is seeking to prepare for Jesus' birth and experience true transformation in this powerful season is by engaging in a new program from Ascension. This program is Rejoice! An Advent Pilgrimage into the Heart of Scripture, Year C. This year, we will explore the Sunday Mass readings through daily reflections, prayer, and journaling, with weekly prayer videos presented by Fr. Mark Toups and his friends Rebecca Abboud and Fr. Patrick Riviere. We have the opportunity to walk together as a parish this Advent, opening our hearts to hear what God is saying to us in this hectic but blessed season.

On four more Wednesdays continuing on November 20th in the Nazareth Room of the Pulte Family Life Center, join Sue Hamilton as she facilitates this study from 9:30-10:45AM. Feel free to grab some breakfast and bring into the session with you! Each participant will have the opportunity to purchase a Rejoice Journal for $10. Rejoice! is filled with beautiful art and meaningful meditations, to use throughout the Advent season.

Rejoice! is an opportunity for our whole community to enter the season of Advent intentionally and receive the grace God is waiting to give us in this holy season. Kindly let us know you are participating with an email to AFF@sjecc.com. Walk-ins always welcome!

Rejoice Wednesdays Session Dates:

December 4th, 11th & 18th -9:30-10:45AM- Nazareth Room of the Pulte Family Life Center

Rejoice Study Journals on Sale in the Gift Boutique, Parish Office OR at the next Session - $10

*This journal makes a great independent study through Advent. Get a copy while supplies last.

7 SECRETS OF DIVINE MERCY

7 SECRETS OF DIVINE MERCY, by Vinny Flynn is a powerful book that offers us an invitation to understand Divine Mercy as an overflow of love from the Holy Trinity that can transform our lives. It is easy to understand and guides us on how to LIVE Divine Mercy.

November Saints-November 25th – St. Catherine of Alexandria

Catherine was a brilliant young princess born around 287 in Egypt. During that time, Emperor Maxentius was brutally persecuting Christians. At the age of 18, Catherine visited him to denounce his cruelty. Hundreds, including the emperor's own wife, were converted by her eloquence and faith. The furious Maxentius ordered Catherine to be executed by a spiked wheel. But when Catherine touched the wheel, it shattered! Maxentius then had her beheaded. Her Feast Day is November 25th .
