A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

Many opportunities arise each day that afford us no second chance. In order to take advantage of them, one must seize the moment. Sad to say, many times people just fail to respond, and lose out on the opportunity. How many buying opportunities, travel opportunities, even work opportunities are lost because people fail to respond promptly? Connections are never made and meetings never take place because people fail to take action. Often, these people look back with regret and disappointment at what might have been.

Our God places an array of opportunities before his people; opportunities to choose life. God not only gave us life, He redeemed our lives and showed us the path to everlasting life. He also keeps calling us to choose the path of life. So many opportunities have been laid before God's people throughout the ages to respond to Him. God sent numerous prophets. He gave His laws and teachings. He continues to work great signs and wonders before us. He offers us forgiveness of sins and blesses us with His choicest blessings. Some seize these moments and choose the path of life, while others turn further away from the Lord.

Our Scripture readings today give us examples of people who seized the moment in choosing the path of life. The account of Jonah and the Ninevites clearly shows the opportunity that God laid before Nineveh through the prophet Jonah. The city and all its inhabitants would be destroyed unless they repented. The people of Nineveh seized the moment. The great and the small repented of their sins, and they lived. The story makes it clear that there would be no second chance. Only a prompt response would put them on the path of life – and they responded.

The call of the Apostles to follow Jesus was another blessed opportunity from God. We hear in the Gospel how Jesus laid this opportunity before Peter, Andrew, James, and John. Despite any apprehensions they might have felt due to family or work, they seized the moment. They abandoned their former way of life and followed Jesus. There was little time to think about it. Their prompt response placed them in the path of life, alongside the Lord.

Each of us was given new life in Christ in the sacrament of baptism. Since then, God has placed, and continues to place, opportunities before us to choose the path of life again and again. We are called to seize the moment; to use today to grow in faith. Today is the day to love your spouse in the same way that Christ does; to form your children in faith; to visit a sick friend or someone who is grieving. These are the opportunities in daily life through which God calls us to live out our faith. A prompt response to his call can help keep us on the path of life and bring joy. A missed opportunity can leave us looking back with regret and disappointment in our Christian life.

As we look at the various opportunities God places before us each day, the words of today's second reading remind us that the time is running out ... the world in its present form is passing away. We are to seize every opportunity to repent, every opportunity to follow Christ, and every opportunity to choose the path of life.

Vatican Modifies Distribution of Ashes for Ash Wednesday

The health situation caused by Covid-19 continues to force changes on daily life, which are also reflected in the Church's sphere.

Ahead of the beginning of Lent, on Wednesday, February 17, the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments has published a note detailing how Catholic priests are to distribute ashes.

Instructions

After blessing the ashes and sprinkling them with holy water in silence, the priest addresses those present, reciting once the formula found in the Roman Missal: "Repent, and believe in the Gospel" or

"Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return."

At that point, the note continues, the priest "cleanses his hands, puts on a face mask, and distributes ashes to those who come to him or, if appropriate, he goes to those who are standing in their places."

He then sprinkles the ashes on each person's head "without saying anything."

Sanctity of Life

Please join us in praying the Rosary for Life in the designated area in Church following the 9:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday, January 24th. You may also join us from home as this prayer time will be live streaming.

Sanctity of Life announcement:

Today we celebrate the wonderful gift of life, created by God to garner dignity and respect.

The life of the unborn child is brought into focus as we view our role in advancing the culture of life in our church, community, and country. We may be moved to volunteer with our local pregnancy resource center, to pray for the unborn and their mothers, to work toward legislative solutions to protect the unborn, or to simply give encouragement to a young mother with her baby struggling in the grocery store. Let us always ask "What would Jesus do?"

Please consider supporting vital resources in our community (Community Pregnancy Clinics, Sunlight Home, Providence House, Action for Life and Project Rachel – for post-abortion healing) and always pray for God's will to be done in our country and in the world.

A Year of St. Joseph – A Beautiful Prayer to St. Joseph

To you, O blessed Joseph, do we come in our tribulation, and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse, we confidently invoke your patronage also.

Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities.

O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ; O most loving father, ward off from us every contagion of error and corrupting influence; O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness.

As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection, so that, supported by your example and your aid, we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness, and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven.

Amen.

2022 Mass Intention Book Opens January 25, 2021

As our Parish Family has continued to expand and attract more members to our church, one question we have been consistently asked is: "How can I have a Mass said for a loved one?" This has been challenging in the past, with some confusion as to how to ask for a Mass Intention, the person or family the priest prays for during a Mass. There has also been difficulty in requesting Masses due to the volume of requests we receive on an annual basis, far more than the amount of Masses celebrated at Saint John.

Our clergy and staff have come up with some consistent guidelines to assist in ensuring as many people as possible can receive the prayers of our Parish Family, especially for those who have lost a loved one and desire to memorialize them. These policies will be in effect beginning with the 2022 Mass Intention requests, which we are opening for requests beginning January 25, 2021:

1. Only one (1) Mass Intention can be provided for each

Mass.

- Each individual can request up to five (5) Masses a year.
- An individual or family can have up to five (5) Mass Intentions said for them in a year.
- Mass Intentions are provided in a first come, first served fashion for the dates and Mass times requested.
- Mass Intention requests must be made at the Front Office of Saint John, and cannot be requested of the priests in the Church or in other locations. You may call or walk into the Office during our normal business hours to select your Mass Intention(s).
- Mass Intentions are $10 a Mass. This is a Diocesan requirement. If additional gifts would like to be provided over that amount, a separate payment should be provided. Cash can only be given in exact change, and checks and credit cards can be used as well.

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Scripture Readings

Reading 1

Jon 3:1-5, 10

The word of the LORD came to Jonah, saying: "Set out for the great city of Nineveh, and announce to it the message that I will tell you." So Jonah made ready and went to Nineveh, according to the LORD'S bidding. Now Nineveh was an enormously large city; it took three days to go through it. Jonah began his journey through the city, and had gone but a single day's walk announcing, "Forty days more and Nineveh shall be destroyed," when the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast and all of them, great and small, put on sackcloth.

When God saw by their actions how they turned from their evil way, he repented of the evil that he had threatened to do to them; he did not carry it out.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 25:4-5, 6-7, 8-9

R. (4a) Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Your ways, O LORD, make known to me; teach me your paths, Guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my savior.

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Remember that your compassion, O LORD, and your love are from of old. In your kindness remember me, because of your goodness, O LORD.

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Good and upright is the LORD; thus he shows sinners the way. He guides the humble to justice and teaches the humble his way.

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Reading 2

1 Cor 7:29-31

I tell you, brothers and sisters, the time is running out. From now on, let those having wives act as not having them, those weeping as not weeping, those rejoicing as not rejoicing, those buying as not owning, those using the world as not using it fully. For the world in its present form is passing away.

Alleluia

Mk 1:15

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent and believe in the Gospel.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

Mk 1:14-20

After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel."

As he passed by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea; they were fishermen. Jesus said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." Then they abandoned their nets and followed him. He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him.

Verse 1)

You call me out upon the waters
The great unknown
where feet may fail
And there I find you in the mystery
In oceans deep my faith will stand
(to Chorus)

Verse 2)

Your grace abounds in deepest waters
Your sov'reign hand will be my guide
Where feet may fail
and fear surrounds me You've never failed and you won't start now

Bridge)

Spirit lead me where my trust is without borders
Let me walk upon the waters, wherever you would call me Take me deeper than my feet could ever wander
And my faith will be made stronger in the Presence of my Savior (repeat, then Chorus)

And I will call up-on your Name and keep my eyes a-bove the waves. When o - ceans rise, my soul will rest in your em - brace, for I am yours and you are mine.

Verse 1)

Awake from your slumber!
Arise from your sleep!
A new day is dawning
for all those who weep
The people in darkness have seen a great light
The Lord of our longing has conquered the night (to chorus)

Chorus)

Let us build the city of God
May our tears be turned into dancing!
For the Lord, our light and our love
Has turned the night into day!

Verse 2)

We are sons of the morning;
we are children of day
The One who has loved us has brightened our way
The lord of all kindness Has called us to be
A light for his people
To set their hearts free.
(to chorus)

Prayer for Comfort in Suffering

Faithful God, remember your promise to give your people hope. I need your hope when I feel hopeless. My comfort in suffering is this: that your promises will preserve my life. You have never broken a promise. You have never gone back on your word. Soothe me with the certainty of your faithful love. Help me to know that you will never turn your back on me. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord, Amen.
