A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Sacrament of Matrimony. Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice. Tricia Schwarz: tricia@sjecc.com.

Anointing of the Sick/Funeral Arrangements. Call the parish office. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

Among all our readings today, our Gospel seems to dominate; so much so, that we could fail to notice or pay attention to the words of our first reading from the prophet Isaiah. In many ways, this short passage, taken from the Song of the Suffering Servant, sets the scene for the second reading and the Gospel. Taken together, all our Scripture passages point to one common question: Does suffering have meaning?

Surrounded by the impact of suffering, we often seek to try to explain it or at least understand it, even when no such explanation is possible. As people of faith, suffering seems to go against our most basic image of a loving and caring God, and we find ourselves wondering: How could a loving God let this happen? Throughout history, humanity has struggled with this question and has come up with a variety of answers, some of which are helpful, others simply not so.

For some, suffering is simply the punishment for sin; for others, it is a moment of trial, a test to measure our heroic virtue and faithfulness to God. Others see it as a moment of grace whereby God strengthens our inner beings. Still others are happy to see it as a great mystery, beyond their comprehension. However we see it, we have to admit that in moments of personal suffering, these explanations may not bring comfort or justification.

As people of faith within the Roman Catholic tradition, we often seek meaning through the lens of Sacred Scripture. Listen again to the words of Isaiah—The Lord was pleased to crush him in infirmity; and in the words of the Letter to the Hebrews—Christ has been tested in every way, let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help. At first glance, we might not find much solace here, but then when we look through the eyes of the suffering of Jesus, we see that these words do not seek to explain suffering but to help us realize that even in moments of pain and suffering good can emerge. The Suffering Servant does not suffer in vain but will justify many. Justification here has more than its legal sense of being acquitted and being restored to right relationship with God. Because of this justification, we can now confidently approach the very throne of God.

This theme of finding value in suffering can also be found in our gospel passage. The disciples are basking in the privilege and status of being chosen followers of Jesus, and so they seek the ultimate glory of special seats in the Kingdom. What they are surprised to hear is that leadership and authority are not about glory or special status but service and self-giving. Here, in a radical way, Jesus reverses the worldwide view of power. Here suffering and service, symbolized in the cup of suffering, become the hallmark of Christian discipleship.

So, if leadership and discipleship are given new meanings, is it too much to ask if suffering also has another meaning in the context of our relationship with Christ? Yes, it remains a reality in our lives and no matter how innocent or blameless we may feel, it is an unwelcome visitor at all times. But in Christ we can begin to use it for a greater purpose, to learn from it and to join our sufferings with his for the justification of others. No moment of human suffering goes unnoticed by God. Indeed, that we suffer speaks of our human condition; how we suffer speaks of our faith in Christ. What gives us hope is that in Christ's suffering, he triumphed over sin and death in the Resurrection. Our hope is that we, too, will one day share in that victory with him in heaven.

Catholic Faith Appeal

Help Us Reach 40% Participation in Serving the Community Through the CFA

The Catholic Faith Appeal, or CFA, is the collaboration of 61 Catholic Parishes in Southwest Florida to serve and protect the poor, neglected, forgotten, and outcast in our region by assisting with the Mission of the Diocese of Venice, including Catholic Charities. Our generosity supports Catholic Education and Seminarians, as well as to feed, clothe, and provide shelter to the marginalized, the aged, and the unborn.

While we have met our goal in years past, it has been through the efforts of a small minority of our Parish Family. We have set a goal for our Parish to double our previous level of participation and have over 40% of our Families contribute this year. Please prayerfully consider how you can give to increase our participation for these worthy efforts. If we exceed our goal, those funds would be returned to the Parish, so every dollar counts.

We ask that you prayerfully consider giving to the CFA to help us meet or exceed our goal! Checks should be made out to: The Catholic Faith Appeal with the memo line "Saint John the Evangelist Catholic Church." You can also give online directly on the Diocese website: dioceseofvenice.org/ways-to-give/cfa/. Please remember to choose "St. John the Evangelist Parish in Naples" in the Designation choice. Contact Colleen Donnelly, our Operations Manager, if you need assistance with a CFA gift.

The Divine Gift Boutique Celebrates Fall!

Bring in the Fall season with gifts from the Divine Gift Boutique that act as daily reminders of God's blessings. We are pleased to offer unique Fall hand-made gifts, angels, religious holiday items, lighted gifts, pumpkins, wall signs, and much more! Our boutique is filled with festive seasonal home decorations and host gifts.

Our Divine Gift Boutique regularly offers unique religious and sacramental gifts, such as crucifixes, rosaries, statues, holy cards, Celtic gifts, and medals. We stock the renowned Trappist preserves made by the Roman Catholic priests and brothers of St. Joseph's Abbey in Spencer, Massachusetts. Additionally, we are proud to provide beautiful hand-made gifts crafted by one of our very own sewing ministry members.

Located just inside the church entrance, The Divine Gift Boutique is open Saturdays 2:30-6:15 p.m. and Sundays 8:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m. We are looking forward to serving you!

St. John Confirmation Youth Plan to Attend Diocesan Youth Rally in November

This November, St. John will send High School Youth that are preparing for the sacrament of Confirmation to the Diocesan Youth Rally Annual event in Port Charlotte, Florida. Teens from all over the Diocese will join together to hear great speakers, enjoy fellowship, Mass, Eucharistic Adoration, and much more!

As part of the 2-Year Confirmation preparation program at St. John, youth attend at least one Youth Rally over the period of their 2-year preparation. This allows them time to get to know other teens in our parish, as well as others throughout the Diocese. Currently in our Confirmation program, we have approximately 110 youth preparing to receive the sacrament of Confirmation. While the majority of the youth are freshman and sophomores in high school, we do have juniors and seniors preparing as well. Teens interested in joining the Confirmation preparation program for the 2022-2023 School Year, should look for registration information in the Spring of 2022. For more information and details about our Confirmation program at St. John, please visit our website at www.sjecc.com, and go to the SACRAMENTS tab and then CONFIRMATION.

We are so blessed at St. John to have an amazing team of over 20 volunteers preparing our youth for their special day. Something new we have added this year is our Parent Education Component. Parents may attend separate parent sessions while their youth is in session.

Parents discuss the lesson their teens are learning about that day, as well as spend some time in prayer and fellowship. On Confirmation Class Sundays, the entire group of parents and youth attend the 5:00 p.m. Mass together immediately following the formation sessions. It is truly a blessing!

If any parishioners currently hold a CDL License and might be interested in driving our St. John Bus with our Youth from time-to-time, please contact Natalie at natalie@sjecc.com. Diocesan volunteer clearance is a prerequisite. Thank you!

Psalm Basics for Catholics
Seeing Salvation History in a New Way
By John Bergsma

Jesus prayed the Psalms.

And two thousand years later, we Christians still pray these poem-songs. At every mass and in the liturgy of the hours, the psalms are sung, chanted, and prayed. They touch every aspect of our human existence from worship to sadness to fear and to hope. Let's learn to pray the prayers Joseph and Mary taught their little son.

Join WoW every Thursday at 9:30 in the Alexandria Room, Claussen Center.

The more active members we have, the more we can accomplish.

At St. John, Knights serve parish ministries, help with special projects, and sponsor parish events such as the Lenten Fish Bake, dinner dances, Tootsie Roll drive for the disabled, and Christmas toy collection. Behind the scenes they support our clergy, fund parish equipment, assist in events for our youth, and help the less fortunate with time and treasure.

You can learn more about the Knights of Columbus and our local Council at St. John before and after each of the Masses October 30 & 31. Stop and talk with a Knight, look for their maroon shirts. Requirements are few; rewards are many!

For more information about the Knights, send a message to kocinfo@kocouncil11281.org, or call (239) 228-3938 and leave a message. We'll respond promptly.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

October 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

World Mission Sunday, organized by the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, will be celebrated the weekend of October 23 and 24, 2021. This annual Eucharistic celebration joins Catholics worldwide into one community of Faith, inviting us to recommit ourselves to the Church's missionary activity through prayer, participation in the Eucharist, and sacrifice.

Pope Francis' message for World Mission Sunday this year reflects on the theme, "We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:20). He encourages us, as Christians, not to keep the Lord to ourselves but to be men and women who, by their testimony of life, help to renew our baptismal commitment to be generous and joyful apostles of the Gospel.

Throughout the world, Churches and parishioners with low economic means need your prayers and assistance. In Africa, thousands of young men are preparing for the priesthood, and in Asia, millions of children receive an education from Religious Sisters. In Latin America, Catechists travel to remote areas to bring the Good News of God's great love to families, and in the Pacific, religious leaders bring the Lord's mercy and peace to those in need.

The World Mission Sunday Collection in the Diocese of Venice in Florida will take place on the weekend of October 23 and 24, 2021. Along with your prayers, won't you please support the Missions in the most generous way you are able? Thank you for your kind response and prayers!

I take this opportunity to extend to you the assurances of my continued consideration, as well as my prayers.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault,

through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Scripture Readings

Reading I Is 53:10-11

The LORD was pleased to crush him in infirmity. If he gives his life as an offering for sin, he shall see his descendants in a long life, and the will of the LORD shall be accomplished through him.

Because of his affliction he shall see the light in fullness of days; through his suffering, my servant shall justify many, and their guilt he shall bear.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 33:4-5, 18-19, 20, 22

R. (22) Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Upright is the word of the LORD, and all his works are rustworthy. He loves justice and right; of the kindness of the LORD the earth is full.

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

See, the eyes of the LORD are upon those who fear him, upon those who hope for his kindness, To deliver them from death and preserve them in spite of famine.

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Our soul waits for the LORD, who is our help and our shield. May your kindness, O LORD, be upon us who have put our hope in you.

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Reading II Heb 4:14-16

Brothers and sisters: Since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way, yet without sin. So let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help.

Alleluia Mk 10:45

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

The Son of Man came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Mk 10:35-45 or 10:42-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." He replied, "What do you wish me to do for you?" They answered him, "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left." Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I drink or be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?" They said to him, "We can." Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink, you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right or at my left is not mine to give but is for those for whom it has been prepared." When the ten heard this, they became indignant at James and John. Jesus summoned them and said to them, "You know that those who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."

OR:

Jesus summoned the twelve and said to them, "You know that those who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. Help Needed: Homebound Ministry

WE NEED YOU!!!! The Homebound Ministry is in need of additional Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist to bring Holy Communion to our parishioners who are unable to attend Mass. Interested persons must be vaccinated. Volunteer application packets are available in the Parish Office. If you have questions or would like further information, please feel free to email Lisa Godlasky at Lisa@sjecc.com. Thank you and God bless you!

Join us for First Friday Adoration at our monthly Encounter on the Mountain: A Holy Hour of Praise and Adoration on Friday, November 5, 2021 at 7:00 p.m. in the church or watch online at sjecc.com.

The theme of the night is "Thy Will Be Done." This night will be filled with praise and worship music, reflection and meditation, and more! This is a beautiful way to spend some time with the Lord and allow Him to speak to your heart. Rest in His loving presence.

Verse 1) What do you want of me, Lord? Where do you want me to serve you? Where can I sing your praises. I am your song. Jesus, Jesus, you are the Lord. Jesus, Jesus, you are the way.

Verse 2) I hear you call my name, Lord, and I am moved within me. Your Spirit stirs my deepest self. Sing your songs in me. Jesus, Jesus, you are my Lord. Jesus, Jesus, you are the way.

Verse 3) Above, below, and around me. Before, behind and all through me your Spirit burns deep within me. Fire my life with your love. Jesus, Jesus, be warmth of my heart. Jesus, Jesus, you are the way.

Verse 4) You are the light in my darkness. You are my strength when I'm weary. You give me sight when I'm blinded. Come see for me. Jesus, Jesus, you are my light. Jesus, Jesus, you are the way.

Verse 5) I am your song and servant, Singing your praises like Mary. Surrendered to your spirit Let it be done to me! Jesus, Jesus, let it be done to me! Jesus, Jesus, you are the way.

Communion Song This Is Jesus Jim Cowan

Chorus 1) This is Jesus. Emmanuel God is with us. In this sacrament, Come receive Him adore Him. This is Jesus our Lord.

Verse 1) Bright Star of David, Radiance of God. Now become the living bread, The body of the Lord. Come in adoration. Receive with trembling hands. The sacrament most holy, The banquet of the Lamb.

Verse 2) Drink of living waters Flowing from the Lord Taste the cup of blessing Partake of precious blood River of salvation Holy cleansing tide Fountain of redemption Flowing from the Savior's side

Saint John the Evangelist Concert Series

Dan Miller - Dan Heck Quartet

October 22, 2021 (Friday)

Dan Miller is bringing together a wonderful group of musicians for an evening of hard swinging acoustic jazz music at Saint John the Evangelist Church in Naples including guitarist Dan Heck, bassist Brandon Robertson, and drummer Paul Gavin.

They played concerts at SJECC in 2018 and 2019 and look forward to returning to perform once again for this great audience. They will play a program of music that celebrates the Great American Songbook (George Gershwin, Jerome Kern, Cole Porter) as well as jazz music's greatest composers (Duke Ellington, Charlie Parker, Dizzy Gillespie).

This is a group of musicians who play with passion and fire and whose goal is to swing with authority. Join them for a night of standards, ballads and blues.

Reserve your tickets online at <https://saintjohntheevangelist.com/concerts>

Health Screenings Available at St. John

There is a simple, convenient way for you to get preventive health screenings and learn your risk for stroke, heart disease and other chronic conditions. We are pleased to host Life Line Screening on Monday, November 8th at St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church.

These painless screenings go beyond your regular checkup to identify dangerous plaque buildup or blockage, a major risk factor for stroke and heart disease. The screenings are accurate, affordable, and will give you valuable information about your health that you can share with your doctor.

This five-screening package is offered for only $149 and takes 60-90 minutes to complete. To receive a $10 discount register by calling toll free 1-888-653-6450, text the word "circle" to 797979, or visit www.lifelinescreening.com/communitypartners.
