WORSHIP AID EDITION
To Know, To Love, and To Serve God in His Church and Our Community.

2nd Collection for Jamaica Outreach February 27-28

The poor in Jamaica are desperately hungry due to Covid-19's raging impact on unemployment and children not getting free school lunches. Bishop Burchell called the situation "unbearable." A new class of poor has emerged from those now unemployed in the tourism industry. This is in addition to the always-poor served by Jamaica Outreach Program (JOP).

In the past year, JOP contributed to the Archdiocese of Kingston's "Love in Action" project, which seeks to distribute food and toiletries to indigents and those most in need. They focus their efforts on young mothers and the elderly. JOP also funded food for the hungry in the Montego Bay diocese. JOP has also funded tablets and internet cards to enable needy students to get some online learning.

Please consider making a donation in the "virtual" 2nd collection on the weekend of February 27-28.

- Envelopes marked JOP or checks (memo JOP) can be dropped in the regular collection baskets at the church doors
- Donate online at www.JamaicaOutreach.org/give
- Mail a check payable to Jamaica Outreach, PO BOX 110581, Naples, FL, 34108

The poor served by this St. John's ministry are eternally grateful for your past and future support.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

In the old city of Jerusalem, the golden Dome of the Rock dominates the ancient skyline. The gold-encrusted dome covers a Muslim mosque and a site that is sacred, not only to believers of Islam, but to Christians and Jewish people as well. Beneath the floor of the sanctuary is a large rock.

Archeologists and biblical scholars believe this is the Mount, or Moriah, where Abraham prepared to sacrifice his son Isaac, which we heard about in today's first reading. Not far from there is the Basilica of the Holy Sepulcher, built over the rock of Calvary, where God sacrificed His only Son for our sins. Moriah and Calvary are joined together as unique examples of sacrificial love.

In today's second reading, Saint Paul posed the question to the Romans, If God is for us, who can be against us? Abraham must have wondered whether God was for him or against him when he was instructed to take his son and go to the land of Moriah to offer sacrifice. Becoming a father was the answer to prayers that Abraham had offered for more than 80 years. God heard Abraham's prayers and gave him a son when he was almost 100 years old. Now that same God was asking the gift be returned. Abraham is rightly called our father in faith because he does not doubt, nor does he question. He faithfully sets out to do the Father's will, no matter how much it will cost him.

Pleased with Abraham's display of faith, God sends an angel to stop the sacrifice, and Abraham is forever blessed for his faithfulness. Stories such as those in the Old Testament are key to a better understanding of the events that would later unfold in the New Testament. Abraham's willingness to sacrifice his son Isaac on Moriah is unmistakably connected to God the Father's willingness to sacrifice His only Son, for our salvation, at Calvary.

That sacrifice was foretold by Jesus three times before it actually came about. The first time He does so in the Gospel of Saint Mark occurs shortly before this passage about the Transfiguration. Though Jesus spoke of death, He also promised that He would rise on the third day, but the resurrection meant nothing to His disciples at the time. They knew only that their master was going to die, and they could not do anything to stop it. The Transfiguration, in effect, is about the deeper meaning of the life and death of Jesus. It was to bring about new life.

At the Transfiguration, the Apostles are privileged to receive a glimpse of how Jesus will appear in resurrected glory. Although they are amazed and terrified at the same time, the presence of Moses, the patriarch, and Elijah, the great prophet, assures them that Jesus is the fulfillment of Old Testament prophecy. God speaks from the heavens just as He did during the baptism of Jesus. He tells them, This is my beloved Son. Listen to Him. The Apostles may still not fully understand who Jesus is or what He is about, but there is no doubt that He is God's son. Their faith is strengthened, and the long way of the cross, the journey to Jerusalem, continues.

As we continue our journey through this Lenten season, we seek transformation – conversion. The Apostles' perspectives on their life and mission changed completely during their time atop Mount Tabor. We pray that our life and sense of mission may be strengthened by our Lenten observance.

Ministry Spotlight

Knitting and Crocheting Ministry Serves Our Community

During these uncertain times, St. John the Evangelist Church is blessed to have the talented women of the Knitting and Crocheting Ministry designing and constructing items that can be used by others – from the tiniest baby God created to the elderly.

To date, the ministry has delivered more than 200 baby blankets, many of those to Immokalee Women's Center. During the latest cold weather snap, sweaters, hats, and knitted blankets were taken to Catholic Social Services and distributed to those in need here in our own community.

In addition, "lappans" (lap afghans) and prayer shawls have been donated to Naples Green Village Memory Care and Assisted Living Facility.

Though many of our members have chosen not to attend our weekly ministry sessions, they are still using their God-given talents to knit and crochet at home for others who are less fortunate.

Most of the materials we use are supplied by the crafters themselves, but we also receive donations of yarn and knitting needles/crochet hooks from people who are no longer using them. We are delighted to receive these donations.

Many of the members have been knitting and crocheting for years, yet many crafters are new to the art. If you would like to learn to knit or crochet, please stop by, and we will be happy to help you learn. Contact Sharon Camp at 239-438-7867 or e-mail her at sharon@naples.net.

Join us for our monthly Encounter on the Mountain: A Holy Hour of Praise and Adoration on Thursday, March 4, 2021, at our new time, 7:00 p.m. in the church or online at sjecc.com. The theme of the night is "At the Cross" with our pastor, Father Tom, leading adoration.

This special Lenten Holy Hour will have some psalms and prayer from Vespers with a reflection, silent prayer, and praise and worship music. This is will be wonderful opportunity to receive the Sacrament of Confession during Lent, as confessions will be available through the evening. This is a beautiful way to spend some time with the Lord during the Lenten season.

2021 SJE Car Raffle: First Ever All-Electric VW ID.4

After the tremendous success of our first-ever car raffle earlier this year, Saint John the Evangelist wanted to find a unique and eco-friendly way to enhance our annual program and continue to support our Catholic Faith Appeal goal. We are very blessed to have a special relationship with Volkswagen of Naples, and they presented this special opportunity: the Brand-New Volkswagen ID.4, the first ever all-electric production vehicle from VW!

Actual Vehicle Awarded May Differ from Vehicle Shown in Terms of Color and Options

The price is $20 a ticket or a pack of 6 for $100, which can be picked up in the office during our normal business hours. Please stay tuned for special post-Mass hours for raffle tickets as well. We will open the office for ticket sales on some Saturdays and Sundays so all our Parish Family can participate in the excitement!

This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to both save the environment and snag an original first-ever vehicle, all while supporting our Catholic Faith Appeal Goal. Come get them while you can!

Special Feature Video: Heads Up Display

With the new augmented reality head-up display, Volkswagen is merging the virtual and real worlds. The innovative system superimposes selected symbols onto the outside world and displays them dynamically. Volkswagen is the first car manufacturer in the world to introduce this technology in the compact segment, and is therefore making it affordable for many customers. The new convenience function will be introduced first in the all-electric ID.3 and ID.4 models.

Faith Formation

Little Lights Shine Brightly at First Reconciliation

Last week we celebrated the second group of candidates for First Reconciliation. It was a special evening with Fr. Paul and Fr. Tom guiding the children during this special time. Fr. Paul reminded the children of just how special they were and that God created them in His own image. He explained that by turning back to God, we can live the life that God has planned for us and stay close to him in friendship. We are blessed to have had the beautiful music of Gary and Jennine, as well as the loving support and kindness of our faithful catechists. Please keep all these children in your prayers as they prepare to receive their First Holy Communion in May.

Faith Formation Lenten Mission: CRS Rice Bowl Project

Please join us in this Lenten Service Project by taking a cardboard Rice Bowl box today. Your treasure may be returned during Holy Week or after Easter! Thank you for your generosity! Additional boxes may be picked up in the parish office or in the Faith Formation Office.

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault,

through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Scripture Readings

Reading 1

God put Abraham to the test. He called to him, Abraham!" "Here I am!" he replied. Then God said: "Take your son Isaac, your only one, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah. There you shall offer him up as a holocaust on a height that I will point out to you."

When they came to the place of which God had told him, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it. Then he reached out and took the knife to slaughter his son. But the LORD's messenger called to him from heaven, "Abraham, Abraham!" "Here I am!" he answered. "Do not lay your hand on the boy," said the messenger. "Do not do the least thing to him. I know now how devoted you are to God, since you did not withhold from me your own beloved son." As Abraham looked about, he spied a ram caught by its horns in the thicket. So he went and took the ram and offered it up as a holocaust in place of his son.

Again the LORD's messenger called to Abraham from heaven and said: "I swear by myself, declares the LORD, that because you acted as you did in not withholding from me your beloved son, I will bless you abundantly and make your descendants as countless as the stars of the sky and the sands of the seashore; your descendants shall take possession of the gates of their enemies, and in your descendants all the nations of the earth shall find blessing—all this because you obeyed my command."

Responsorial Psalm

116:10, 15, 16-17, 18-19

R. (116:9) I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

I believed, even when I said, "I am greatly afflicted."
Precious in the eyes of the LORD is the death of his faithful ones.

R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.
O LORD, I am your servant; I am your servant, the son of your handmaid; you have loosed my bonds.

To you will I offer sacrifice of thanksgiving, and I will call upon the name of the LORD.

R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

My vows to the LORD I will pay in the presence of all his people, In the courts of the house of the LORD, in your midst, O Jerusalem.

R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

Reading 2

Rom 8:31b-34

Brothers and sisters: If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all, how will he not also give us everything else along with him?

Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones? It is God who acquits us, who will condemn? Christ Jesus it is who died—or, rather, was raised—who also is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us.

Verse Before the Gospel

Cf. Mt 17:5

From the shining cloud the Father's voice is heard: This is my beloved Son, listen to him.

Gospel

Mk 9:2-10

Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them. Then Elijah appeared to them along with Moses, and they were conversing with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Rabbi, it is good that we are here! Let us make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." He hardly knew what to say, they were so terrified. Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; from the cloud came a voice, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them.

As they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them not to relate what they had seen to anyone, except when the Son of Man had risen from the dead. So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what rising from the dead meant.

Prayer for Comfort in Suffering

Faithful God, remember your promise to give your people hope. I need your hope when I feel hopeless. My comfort in suffering is this: that your promises will preserve my life. You have never broken a promise. You have never gone back on your word. Soothe me with the certainty of your faithful love. Help me to know that you will never turn your back on me. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord, Amen.
