Celebrate Two Saints with a Week of Giving

Give to the Food Pantries and Poor of Naples During Saint Patrick's Day and Saint Joseph's Feast

We are doubly blessed each year to honor the Feast Days of Saint Patrick and Saint Joseph in the same week. This year, those days fall on Wednesday, March 17 (Saint Patrick's Day), and Friday, March 19 (Saint Joseph's Feast). Saint John the Evangelist will provide an opportunity to celebrate these Masses during our 9:00 a.m. Daily Mass on each of those days. Please join us in this celebration as it is also an opportunity to give to support the poor and hungry right here in Naples.

Saint Patrick's Day Support for Saint Vincent DePaul Society Services to the Local Poor

Our Saint Vincent DePaul Society has been extremely active during this past year. The Pandemic has hit the marginalized and working poor of Naples tremendously hard, as seen in the massive lines for food and supplies across the area. They have even instituted a distribution directly in several neighborhoods where families cannot drive to pick up the food. Here is a message from Carl, our SVDP President:

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH

Sacrament of Baptism. The Diocese requires that parents seeking baptism for their child attend a baptism preparation class. To schedule a baptism class, please call the office at (239) 566-8740.

Sacrament of Matrimony. Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice. Tricia Schwarz: tricia@sjecc.com.

Anointing of the Sick/Funeral Arrangements. Call the parish office. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

St. John says, "Whoever does what is true [good], comes into the light." Coming to the light is conditional on doing the truth. It's not one who speculates about the truth but the one who does the truth who comes to the light. The shortest journey to the light is by doing the good. But we don't always act like this in practice.

Normally what we do is we try to achieve a state of inner peace and then do the peaceful deed. We try to attain a state of joy and gratitude and then do the joyful and grateful thing. But often we have to do the opposite. We have to perform a peaceful act in order to achieve inner peace. We have to do the joyful or grateful deed in order to experience inner joy and gratitude. In the same way, if we are in darkness, and we do the good deed, then most certainly the light will shine for us. The following true story beautifully illustrates this.

In the Lithuanian city of Kovno there lived a Jewish professor. Though he had been an agnostic all his life, the professor began to be more and more troubled by the sad, neglected condition of the Jewish graveyard in the city. Since the holocaust of Jews by the Nazis and the harassment of them by the Soviets, no one had taken care of their graves. So, out of the goodness of his heart, the professor himself decided to do so.

Whether or not he was aware that tending graves is a mitzvah, that is, a traditional good deed, we do not know. In any case, the good man acquired a spade, a sickle, and shears, and began the job of making the graveyard worthy of those buried in it. At first he was on his own, but as the weeks went by, other Jews joined him in the work. Most of these were once observant Jews but had become agnostics like the professor. Eventually there were some two hundred of them, all doing the true thing. As they worked, a beautiful thing happened. Their Jewish faith came alight in them. Practically all of them became observant Jews once more.

Anyone who does wrong, hates the light and avoids it. But those who do good, love the light and come out into it. How many of our deeds are done in the light? How many of them could bare the scrutiny of the light?

We have to accept that there is darkness in our lives and in our world. We have to recognize that darkness and learn how to live in relationship with it. It is futile to wait for the darkness to go away. We wish it would. But we have to accept that it is here, and will always be here.

What we mustn't do is call the darkness light. When we do that we get trapped by it. When we call it darkness we can learn how to live so that the darkness does not overcome us. When everything is permissible we have failed to distinguish between light and dark.

People who have come to know the love and joy of God do not deny the darkness, but they choose not to live in it. They trust in the light that shines in the darkness, and know that a little light can dispel a lot of darkness. And the light of Christ is such that no darkness can overpower it. If we do the good thing, then the light will shine for us.

Help Us Reach 40% Participation in Serving the Community Through the CFA

The Catholic Faith Appeal, or CFA, is the collaboration of 61 Catholic Parishes in Southwest Florida to serve and protect the poor, neglected, forgotten, and outcast in our region by assisting with the Mission of the Diocese of Venice, including Catholic Charities. Our generosity supports Catholic Education and Seminarians, as well as to feed, clothe and provide shelter to the marginalized, the aged, and the unborn.

While we have met our goal in years past, it has been through the efforts of a small minority of our Parish Family. Father Tom has set a goal for our Parish to double our previous level of participation and have over 40% of our Families contribute this year. Please prayerfully consider how you can give to increase our participation for these worthy efforts. If we exceed our goal, those funds would be returned to the Parish, so every dollar counts.

Car Raffle Ticket Sales at Masses Next Weekends!

Are you excited for our First Edition, First Ever All-Electric Volkswagen, the ID.4? If you have not had the chance to pick up your raffle tickets for this one-of-a-kind opportunity to win this amazing vehicle, we will have ticket sales at Masses for the next two weekends, March 20, 21, 27, and 28. We encourage payment by credit card to make the process faster. We will have a socially distanced ticket purchase process outside the church. The drawing will be on Holy Saturday, April 3, 2021, at 9:00 a.m. You can learn more about the car and watch the drawing live at:

Week of Giving

Celebrate Two Saints with a Week of Giving

I just wanted to share a few photos from our work today and the first of monthly delivery's, moving forward, to these neighborhoods. We served 94 Families and over 200 adults and children. Each family received 9lbs of rice, 6lbs of beans, 5lbs of flour and 1/48oz bottle of water.

In the end, it is a 100 percent SVDP effort with our parish family and conference providing the money, and volunteers to serve the neighbors, and the council providing the logistics of food purchase, pick up and delivery to the neighborhoods.

We are blessed to be part of a parish family that enables us to love those in need!

*Blessings to you,
Carl Monticelli*

Saint Vincent DePaul members will be at the doors after the 9:00 a.m. Saint Patrick's Day Mass on Wednesday, March 17, in order to receive your generosity for their mission to serve the poor of Naples.

Knights of Columbus Food Pantry Support During the Saint Joseph Feast Celebration

Traditionally, our Knights of Columbus Council 11281 celebrates the Italian (and other nationalities) Feast of St. Joseph with a dedicated Mass and Reception, replete with favorite foods, music, and dancing long into the night. The proceeds of that evening helped to fund the tremendous work the Knights provide to the local food pantries in the area.

However, due to the continuing COVID-19 Response, it would not be appropriate to have such a celebration. Instead, please join the Knights at our 9:00 a.m. Daily Mass on Friday, March 19, for special music marking the occasion. The Knights will be at the doors after Mass to receive your generosity in assisting with their food pantry support program.

Let's Finish the Church Together by Easter!

Can you believe that it has been less than two years since we began our effort to Finish the Church, to complete our loan to the Diocese for the complete restoration and renovation of our Church? In that short time, we have raised over $2 million! We have a challenge for our Parish Family, can we Finish the Church, raising almost $300,000 left, by Easter? We believe we can, with your help. Many of you have already given in some way. Perhaps you would be able to focus your weekly or monthly generosity to our Parish Family to Finish the Church for Lent as part of your Lenten Sacrifice (Almsgiving). There are several easy ways to contribute to Finish the Church:

1. Use the monthly Finish the Church envelopes that are provided in your mailing for your giving.
2. Write your checks to Saint John the Evangelist and place "Finish the Church" in the Memo Line to mail or bring to the church.
3. Use our Online Giving System: <https://stjohntheevangelist.weshareonline.org/FinishOurChurch>. If you already have online giving established for your Offertory (normal) giving, you can modify it by logging in and changing the Collection it is set for by Choosing "Finish Our Church." If you have any questions about this option, please contact our Business Manager, JP Boucher, at jp@sjecc.com.

God Bless You and All You Love!

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault,

through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father; you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word
and my soul shall be healed.

Scripture Readings

Reading 1 2 Chr 36:14-16, 19-23

In those days, all the princes of Judah, the priests, and the people added infidelity to infidelity, practicing all the abominations of the nations and polluting the LORD's temple which he had consecrated in Jerusalem.

Early and often did the LORD, the God of their fathers, send his messengers to them, for he had compassion on his people and his dwelling place. But they mocked the messengers of God, despised his warnings, and scoffed at his prophets, until the anger of the LORD against his people was so inflamed that there was no remedy. Their enemies burnt the house of God, tore down the walls of Jerusalem, set all its palaces afire, and destroyed all its precious objects. Those who escaped the sword were carried captive to Babylon, where they became servants of the king of the Chaldeans and his sons until the kingdom of the Persians came to power. All this was to fulfill the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah: "Until the land has retrieved its lost sabbaths, during all the time it lies waste it shall have rest while seventy years are fulfilled."

In the first year of Cyrus, king of Persia, in order to fulfill the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah, the LORD inspired King Cyrus of Persia to issue this proclamation throughout his kingdom, both by word of mouth and in writing: "Thus says Cyrus, king of Persia: All the kingdoms of the earth the LORD, the God of heaven, has given to me, and he has also charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever, therefore, among you belongs to any part of his people, let him go up, and may his God be with him!"

Responsorial Psalm 137:1-2, 3, 4-5, 6

R. (6ab) Let my tongue be silenced, if I ever forget you!

By the streams of Babylon we sat and wept when we remembered Zion. On the aspens of that land we hung up our harps.

R. Let my tongue be silenced, if I ever forget you!

For there our captors asked of us the lyrics of our songs, And our despoilers urged us to be joyous: "Sing for us the songs of Zion!"

R. Let my tongue be silenced, if I ever forget you!

How could we sing a song of the LORD in a foreign land? If I forget you, Jerusalem, may my right hand be forgotten!

R. Let my tongue be silenced, if I ever forget you!

May my tongue cleave to my palate if I remember you not, If I place not Jerusalem ahead of my joy.

R. Let my tongue be silenced, if I ever forget you!

Reading 2 Eph 2:4-10

Brothers and sisters: God, who is rich in mercy, because of the great love he had for us, even when we were dead in our transgressions, brought us to life with Christ — by grace you have been saved —, raised us up with him, and seated us with him in the heavens in Christ Jesus, that in the ages to come He might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not from you; it is the gift of God; it is not from works, so no one may boast. For we are his handiwork, created in Christ Jesus for the good works that God has prepared in advance, that we should live in them.

Verse Before the Gospel Jn 3:16

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might have eternal life.

Gospel Jn 3:14-21

Jesus said to Nicodemus: "Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life."

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the verdict, that the light came into the world, but people preferred darkness to light, because their works were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come toward the light, so that his works might not be exposed. But whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God.

Naught be all else to me, save that thou art
Thou my best thought, by day or by night
Waking or sleeping, thy presence my light

Riches I heed not, nor vain, empty praise
Thou mine inheritance, now and always
Thou and thou only first in my heart
High King of heaven, my treasure thou art

Be thou my wisdom, and thou my true word
I ever with thee and thou with me, Lord
Thou my great Father, and I thy true son
Thou in me dwelling and I with thee one

High King of heaven, my victory won
May I reach heaven's joys, O bright heaven's sun
Heart of my own heart, whatever befall
Still be my vision, O ruler of all

Did You Feel the Mountains Tremble? Martin Smith / Delirious?

CCLI Song No. 1097028.

© 1994 Curious? Music UK. All rights Reserved. Used with permission under CCLI License No. 2008891.

Verse 1) Did you feel the mountains tremble? Did you hear the oceans roar when the people rose to sing of Jesus Christ, the risen One?

Verse 2) Did you feel the people tremble? Did you hear the singers roar when the lost began to sing of Jesus Christ, the saving One?

Pre-Chorus) And we can see that, God, you're moving, a mighty river through the nations; and young and old will turn to Jesus. Flung wide, you heavenly gates: prepare the way of the risen Lord! (Chorus) Chorus) Open up the doors and let the music play Let the streets resound with singing! Songs that bring your hope, songs that bring your peace, Dancers who dance upon injustice!

Verse 3) Do you feel the darkness tremble when all the saints join in one song, and all the streams flow as one river to wash away our brokenness?

Pre-Chorus 2) And here we see that, God, you're moving; a time of jubilee is coming, when young and old return to Jesus. Flung wide, you heavenly gates: prepare the way of the risen Lord! (Chorus)

Join us for a very special Encounter on the Mountain: A Holy Hour of Praise and Adoration on Thursday, April 8, 2021, at 7:00 p.m. in the church.

The theme of the night is "Jesus, I Trust in You," and we will be singing the Divine Mercy Chaplet. We will also have confessions throughout the evening. This is a special night of encountering our Lord's mercy with praise and worship music, singing the Divine Mercy Chaplet as a parish family.

Scripture Readings for the Memorial of Saint Patrick

Reading 1 1 Pt 4:7b-11

Beloved: Be serious and sober-minded so that you will be able to pray. Above all, let your love for one another be intense, because love covers a multitude of sins. Be hospitable to one another without complaining. As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace. Whoever preaches, let it be with the words of God; whoever serves, let it be with the strength that God supplies, so that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 96:1-2a, 2b-3, 7-8b, 10

R. (3) Proclaim God's marvelous deeds to all the nations.

Sing to the LORD a new song; sing to the LORD, all you lands. Sing to the LORD; bless his name.

R. Proclaim God's marvelous deeds to all the nations.

Announce his salvation, day after day. Tell his glory among the nations; among all peoples, his wondrous deeds.

R. Proclaim God's marvelous deeds to all the nations.

Give to the LORD, you families of nations, give to the LORD glory and praise; give to the LORD the glory due his name!

R. Proclaim God's marvelous deeds to all the nations.

Say among the nations: The LORD is king. He has made the world firm, not to be moved; he governs the peoples with equity.

R. Proclaim God's marvelous deeds to all the nations.

Reading 2 Eph 2:4-10

Brothers and sisters: God, who is rich in mercy, because of the great love he had for us, even when we were dead in our transgressions, brought us to life with Christ — by grace you have been saved —, raised us up with him, and seated us with him in the heavens in Christ Jesus, that in the ages to come He might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not from you; it is the gift of God; it is not from works, so no one may boast. For we are his handiwork, created in Christ Jesus for the good works that God has prepared in advance, that we should live in them.

Alleluia Mk 1:17

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Come after me, says the Lord, and I will make you fishers of men.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Lk 5:1-11

While the crowd was pressing in on Jesus and listening to the word of God, he was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret. He saw two boats there alongside the lake; the fishermen had disembarked and were washing their nets. Getting into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, he asked him to put out a short distance from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. After he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch." Simon said in reply, "Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets." When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come to help them. They came and filled both boats so that they were in danger of sinking. When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at the knees of Jesus and said, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." For astonishment at the catch of fish they had made seized him and all those with him, and likewise James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners of Simon. Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him.

The Soldier's Song (Ireland)

Soldiers are we, whose lives are pledged to Ireland;
Some have come from a land beyond the wave.
Sworn to be free, no more our ancient sire-land
Shall shelter the despot or the slave.
Tonight we man the bhearna bhaoil (VARna vweel)
In Erin's cause, come woe or weal;
'Mid cannon's roar and rifle's peal,
we'll chant a soldier's song.

Hail, Glorious Saint Patrick

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1) Hail, glorious St. Patrick! dear saint of our isle!
On us, thy poor children, bestow a sweet smile,
And now thou art high in the mansions above,
On Erin's green valleys look down in thy love.
On Erin's green valleys, On Erin's green valleys,
On Erin's green valleys look down in thy love. | 2) Hail, glorious St. Patrick! thy words were once strong Against Satan's wiles and an infidel throng;
Not less in thy might where in heaven thou art;
Oh, come to our aid, in our battles take part.
Oh, come to our aid, Oh, come to our aid.
Oh, come to our aid, in our battles take part. |

Awesome Irish Blessing (Tune: Morning Has Broken)

May the road rise up, rise up to meet you.
May the wind always be at your back.
May your face warmly glow with the sunshine, and may God hold you...in the palm of His hand.
May the Lord bless you. May the Lord keep you.
May His face fondly shine upon you.
And may our Mother, Mary most holy Keep you rejoicing always in Him!
Blue skies above you, shamrocks beneath you, dreams you hold dearest always come true,
may peace and plenty cover your table,
for all these blessings, O, Lord we pray.

Scripture Readings for the Solemnity of Saint Joseph

Reading 1 2 Sm 7:4-5a, 12-14a, 16

The LORD spoke to Nathan and said: "Go, tell my servant David, 'When your time comes and you rest with your ancestors, I will raise up your heir after you, sprung from your loins, and I will make his kingdom firm. It is he who shall build a house for my name. And I will make his royal throne firm forever. I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me. Your house and your kingdom shall endure forever before me; your throne shall stand firm forever.'"

Responsorial Psalm 89:2-3, 4-5, 27 and 29

R. (37) The son of David will live for ever.

The promises of the LORD I will sing forever; through all generations my mouth shall proclaim your faithfulness, For you have said, "My kindness is established forever"; in heaven you have confirmed your faithfulness.

R. The son of David will live for ever.

"I have made a covenant with my chosen one, I have sworn to David my servant: Forever will I confirm your posterity and establish your throne for all generations."

R. The son of David will live for ever.

"He shall say of me, 'You are my father, my God, the Rock, my savior.' Forever I will maintain my kindness toward him, and my covenant with him stands firm."

R. The son of David will live for ever.

Reading 2 Rom 4:13, 16-18, 22

Brothers and sisters: It was not through the law that the promise was made to Abraham and his descendants that he would inherit the world, but through the righteousness that comes from faith. For this reason, it depends on faith, so that it may be a gift, and the promise may be guaranteed to all his descendants, not to those who only adhere to the law but to those who follow the faith of Abraham, who is the father of all of us, as it is written, I have made you father of many nations. He is our father in the sight of God, in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into being what does not exist. He believed, hoping against hope, that he would become the father of many nations, according to what was said, Thus shall your descendants be. That is why it was credited to him as righteousness.

Verse Before the Gospel Ps 84:5

Blessed are those who dwell in your house, O Lord; they never cease to praise you.

Gospel Mt 1:16, 18-21, 24a

Jacob was the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary. Of her was born Jesus who is called the Christ. Now this is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about. When his mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found with child through the Holy Spirit. Joseph her husband, since he was a righteous man, yet unwilling to expose her to shame, decided to divorce her quietly. Such was his intention when, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home. For it is through the Holy Spirit that this child has been conceived in her. She will bear a son and you are to name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins." When Joseph awoke, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took his wife into his home.

OR:

Lk 2:41-51a

Each year Jesus' parents went to Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, and when he was twelve years old, they went up according to festival custom. After they had completed its days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. Thinking that he was in the caravan, they journeyed for a day and looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances, but not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem to look for him. After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers. When his parents saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety." And he said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" But they did not understand what he said to them. He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them.
