April 27, 2014 at 3:00 p.m.

Divine Mercy Novena Begins Good Friday

An appropriate time for the Divine Mercy Novena is from Good Friday until the Saturday after Easter. Given to Saint Faustina by Jesus to do on those days (Diary #1209), it makes obvious the connection between Jesus' sacrifice on Good Friday and the Sacrament of Reconciliation, God's great mercy, which Jesus instituted when he appeared to the Apostles after his Resurrection, breathing upon them and giving them power to forgive sins as he himself had when people came to him for healing miracles.

The Gospel of the Sunday after Easter, namely (not "or" as in the English translation) Divine Mercy Sunday, has this story as well as that of Jesus' handling of Thomas and his doubts (John 20:19-31), itself a great mercy.

Pope John Paul II, who gave approval for Divine Mercy Sunday in 2000, died just after the Vigil of Divine Mercy Mass in his room in 2005, was declared Blessed on Divine Mercy Sunday in 2011, and he will be canonized Saint John Paul this year on Divine Mercy Sunday, April 27.

Pamphlets of the Divine Mercy Novena are available at the main entrance of the Church.

#ToKnow – Pope’s Message to Couples: Making Peace

There is no doubt that our Pope has continued to express the love and joy that come from participating in the Catholic Sacraments throughout this Lenten Season. He focused on married couples this past week, describing how even with the difficulties we all face in marriage, and even fights where “sometimes even plates fly”, that we must always remember “the secret is that love is stronger than an argument”. I highly recommend watching the Pope’s advice to married couples on our website (<http://saintjohntheevangelist.com/familymission/popmesmessage-to-couples-make-peace>). It illustrates his compassion, humor, and wit, along with the wonderful message, “[d]on’t end your day without making peace.”

Are there programs or activities you are looking for from your church to help strengthen your marriage and the connection to your significant other? If so, please take the time to look over and fill out the online survey questions for the Family Mission (<http://saintjohntheevangelist.com/featured/family-mission-listening-session-questions>). Each section of the questions illustrates our renewed focus on youth programs, families, young adults ages 18 to 95, and couples.

APRIL 13, 2014 ~ PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

Since this is Palm Sunday weekend and there will be more than a few of you at Mass, I figured I would make my third and final attempt at procuring a buyer for the Rose garden pedestal adjacent to the Veteran's Memorial. Below is a repeat of what I included in my column back on February 2.

I would like to make a very exciting announcement about an upcoming addition to our campus and more importantly, to our Veterans' Memorial. In the grassy area immediately adjacent (east) to the existing Veterans' Memorial, we will be creating a rose garden.

The centerpiece of the rose garden will be a magnificent granite pedestal featuring all branches of the armed services. Many of you remember our prior discussion about engraving the emblems on the benches currently in place. After further discussion, it was determined that this location would not be an appropriate place to recognize the branches of our armed services. The pedestal will be in the shape of a pentagon (see picture) allowing each branch to be prominently engraved on its own panel. The granite pedestal will match the existing granite which serves as the tops for the benches surrounding the "Lest we Forget" statue. The top of the pedestal is being reserved for the wishes of the individual(s) who wish(es) to sponsor the Rose Garden. If you are interested in sponsoring the Rose Garden and having naming rights as well as the inscription of your choice on top of the pedestal, please contact me at your earliest convenience to discuss. Unfortunately there is only one opportunity available in this situation. The cost for all of the above is $15,000.00.

It is quite possible that while you are reading my column this weekend you will be attending Mass in the ballroom of the Parish Life Center. We are once again offering overflow Masses in the PLC due to larger than expected crowds this weekend and next. Because Easter arrives very late this year, we are not sure if the overflow Masses will be necessary for Palm Sunday as many of our seasonal parishioners have departed. We do know that next weekend will certainly be a must for the overflow Masses.

We have just ordered 125 new granite markers which will complete the renovation of the entire east side of the Memorial Garden. I am confident that you will appreciate the vast improvement that the new markers provide from an aesthetic point of view. The completed sections look so clean and consistent. This install should take place within the next month. We should have the entire garden completed sometime during the summer. If you are interested in making Saint John the Evangelist your final resting place, please contact me at 566.1678 to arrange an appointment. The all-inclusive price remains at $1,500.00, which is a mere fraction of what you will pay at a cemetery.

Have you filed your Federal Income Tax return? As a reminder, Tuesday is April 15 and your return (or extension) must be postmarked by this date in order to prevent a penalty by the IRS.

We finally have a clay rendering of the corpus for our new Processional Cross which you have all been patiently awaiting. As you may remember, Timothy Schmalz, the same sculptor who created the corpus for our crucifix, Mary and Saint John the Evangelist, designed this beautiful corpus for our processional cross. Unfortunately, the first one he created was made of bronze and was too large and heavy to be used for a processional cross. The new version will be cast in resin with a bronze finish. I will not dare to suggest a delivery date but wanted to let everyone know that we have approved the design so that Timothy may cast the sculpture.

Did you know that we now have a new inventory of the "Lest We Forget" miniature statue? "Lest We Forget" is the name of the statue which resides at the Veterans' Memorial depicting Jesus embracing a soldier. We have been sold out for months while they cast new statues in Canada. The mini statues may be purchased in the Divine Gift Boutique.

Please consider making a donation to the Easter Spiritual Bouquet so that the Arts and Liturgical Environment Committee may furnish the church and Altar with beautiful flowers this Easter season. Any excess funds will be used to keep the Altar decorated year round. If you are unable to locate a Spiritual Bouquet envelope, please tear out the sample on page 11 of the bulletin or on the opposite page. Thank you in advance for your prayerful consideration.

In His work together,

Scott Schlossberg, MBA, General Manager

Adult Choir Fundraiser

And one that requires no extra money out of your pocket. This Tuesday, April 15, we are hosting a day for our parish to eat at California Pizza Kitchen between 11 AM & 9 PM. Which one, you ask? EITHER Waterside Shops in Naples, or Coconut Point in Bonita.

When you bring this page from the bulletin, or one of the flyers we will be giving out, 20% from your bill will be donated to the Adult Choir. (And if you forget, simply mention the fundraiser to your server and they will still credit the parish!) Sounds pretty good, right? It gets better: we are doing this on the 15th EACH month—for the next six months! So you can come out and have a good time, run into fellow parishioners, and help send us to Ireland!

Have random things laying around your house? You can turn them into support for our Youth Ministry programs!

- We are collecting items for our RUMMAGE SALE which is a huge deal coming at the end of April. We will gladly take your donations of gently-used items and resell them to benefit our summer trips to Steubenville Florida, etc.
- Sounds mundane, but we could always use your old printer cartridges, and cell phones (we raise money by collecting them). Also: do you drink Coke? Could you donate your COKE points? (You know, those long codes under caps or on packaging?) We are trying to save those up to get kids some neat stuff. Drop them off when convenient. Thanks!

Passion Sunday

It is with much reverence and devotion that we begin the most holy of all weeks. Palm Sunday recalls how the drama of the cross quickly unfolded. As Jesus entered Jerusalem, the crowds were ecstatic with joy. “Hosanna to the Son of David,” they shouted as they waved their olive branches. Jesus was the answer to their prayers and his welcome to Jerusalem was one fit for a king! However, within the space of five days, these same voices turn their shouts of acclamation and praise to the shrill of anger and condemnation: “Crucify him! Crucify him!”

The five days that followed Jesus’ triumphant entry into Jerusalem speak of intrigue and deception. The religious leaders started to spin their web of deceit and plotted against Jesus. He had been too much for them — he brought people to God in ways that they never had thought possible. Jesus challenged these leaders by the things that he taught and the miracles he performed in the name of the Father. He confronted the Pharisees, Scribes and Sadducees with their hypocrisy and narrow views. Their discontent was such that they sought to have Jesus condemned by Roman law — a law despised by the religious class. During this week, Judas plots against Jesus and betrays the one whom he had left everything to follow. What went wrong? Was Jesus too radical for this man, or did Judas’ hunger for money motivate his betrayal? When recognized as one of the companions on Jesus’ journey, Peter denies his Lord and Master three times. Even the Rock of the Church folds under the cross of discipleship. Peter’s guilt is overwhelming — the rough and ready fisherman flees and weeps bitterly over his denial.

The Passion and death of Jesus is a heart rendering story of a man who was put to death only because of his love and compassion — for doing what God wanted. The Incarnate Word enters into the realm of suffering, revealing to the world that God can truly enter into solidarity with humanity’s suffering. The weight of the cross is not necessarily characterized by the burden of the wood’s weight, but the weight of our sins. Jesus bears the cross of sin courageously, so that we might be freed from sin and be delivered from death to new life. As Jesus is lifted high on the cross, so does our hope for salvation. Jesus surrenders his life into the hands of the Father.

Each one of us still encounters the same sin that Jesus died for. The sins that brought Jesus to the cross still exist in our world today. Holy Week reminds all of us that we are asked to learn from the Christ event — we are to open our minds and hearts to a message that is sometimes hard to take. We are also called not to allow our hunger or greed for material things to replace our love for the Lord. As baptized Christians, we are asked to stand firm in our resolve in giving witness to what we believe in. Peter’s denial brought pain to his life causing him to weep bitterly. Let Peter’s weakness two thousand years ago be our strength today!

Reflection Questions

1. Why did people welcome Jesus with Jubilation on Palm Sunday?
2. Why was Jesus sentenced to death?
3. Why did Judas betray Jesus?
4. What motivated Peter to deny Jesus?
5. Why did Jesus die on the cross?
6. What does the cross represent for you?
7. How do you sacrifice for God?
8. Reflect on the times you may have been betrayed or someone denied your trust.
9. Reflect on the times you may have betrayed or denied others?
10. How does Jesus’ example of sacrifice and forgiveness inspire you?

Prayer

Lord, through your passion and death, lead us in the ways of your truth. May we appreciate every step that you took on the way to the cross. Help us to turn away from the sin that nailed you to the Tree and to carry the cross of discipleship. Amen.

Voices of Faith

A Holy Week of Passion

For three years the disciples walked on Accompanying their rabbi and friend
They witnessed his calming and challenging words
As he forgave the sinner and confronted embittered hearts

Miracles and signs the disciples did see
The dead were raised, the blind did see
With lepers cleansed, the oppressed set free
God stirred them on to see heaven wedded to earth

Companions on a journey they are taught by God
They are fed by the one who provided for five thousand hungry hearts
Who was their Living Bread
They tasted the water made wine by Jesus, the True Vine

The disciples looked on
As Jesus brought peace to those possessed by evil
And set them free to be possessed by the love of God
They saw the calming of the storm and their Master walking upon the waters

But now they walk on to face the week of all weeks
To realize what Jesus meant to carry the cross Men and women of the passion they will be Put to the test they might flee

The triumphal entry to the city stirs them on
As they see branches waved and Blessed Song
Welcoming their teacher, savior and friend
Lost in this euphoria they are unaware of the awaiting passion

And so the divine drama of that week unfolds
Cunning plots play out as Spy Wednesday does pay Silver pieces placed in betrayer's hand
Who will watch and wait to deliver his friend by that fateful kiss

The Passover is celebrated as a Last Supper of Christ
He tells of his betrayal and the fragility of Peter's resolve confronted
The master takes the unleavened bread of deliverance and the cup of promise
"This is my body...this is the Cup of my blood...do this in memory of me." He does say.

Curious minds understand not of what is taking place before them
And so the sacred meal does end and sacred passion begin
As Jesus leads them out to the Mount of Olives
And invites his friend to pray bidding them not to undergo the test

As Jesus communes with the Father
He prays that His will be done
As his agony in the garden begins and his sweat becomes like blood
The disciples grow fragile and weak and so fall prey to sleep

Jesus returns to find followers sleeping from grief
He bids them sleep not as to not undergo the test
As the darkness descends
And so a crowd and his betrayer does approach

A kiss on the face of Christ is all it takes To hand Jesus over into the hands of death
Betrayal now evident the disciples thrash out But Jesus commands them to stop healing the high priest's servant's ear

Taken into custody, Jesus is set to face his trial
In High Priest's courtyard, Peter sits down Questioned three times he does demand that with this Jesus, he does not stand

And so the cock crowed as Jesus did promise
The eyes of Jesus and Peter meet in that moment
"Before the cock crows today, you will deny three times"
The words of Jesus ring true, as Peter retreats and weeps bitterly

But scribes and Sandhedrin question on
"If you are the Christ, tell us"
To which he replies:
"You will not believe that I Am"

From the hardness of 'religious' hearts
Into the presence of a dictatorship Jesus stands
Of him is asked if he be a king
"You say so" says the great I Am

Pilate sees no guilt within the man
And fears the evil in man's plan
He thus hands Jesus on into Herod's hands
The people mock and jeer him and clothe him in insulting garb

Like a dish broken and cast away
Jesus returns to Pilate in the light of day
A custom will free the way, Pilate thought
"Crucify him, crucify him..." The people's taunt

Barabbas, rebellious and murderous is set free
The gentle shepherd is taken to be nailed to a tree
"Father forgive them for they know not what they do!"
The earnest plea of the one who will die to set us all free

In hanging on the tree all stripped and torn Is sneered at, the Savior of all Sin recognizes innocent and makes his plea
"Today you will be with me in paradise," says the one who sets man free

At noon darkness covers the land
"Father into your hands I commend my spirit."
Last words of the earthly plan
And so the Shepherd breathes his last

And so the king of kings is taken down
With thorns on his head not golden crown
He is placed into the care of Joseph of Arimathea
And in linen wrapped he is reverently placed in a tomb hewn awaiting God's plan

REFLECTION

In the liturgies of Holy Week we Christians join Jesus in the last meal he shares with his friends. We accompany him through his torturous death at the hands of the Romans. We experience the stunned amazement of Jesus' first followers as they discover his new life with them, his rising on Easter. Ever since then, Christians have seen Easter as a new day, an eighth day of God's creation.

Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil immerse us in the key events of Jesus' life. In these ancient liturgies we journey into the heart of Christian faith: Jesus, who poured out his love for us even unto death, God raised us to new life.

THE HOME CHURCH

Family life is a cauldron of extremes. The parents you worshiped as a toddler turn a deaf ear to your teenaged door-slamming and sincere cries of "I hate you!" The Prince Charming who stood at the altar with you and vowed eternal love cannot be bothered to shovel the front walk. That tubby, rosy-cheeked cherub tests your last scrap of patience when she learns to draw. With your lipstick. On the wall.

Jesus experienced the fickleness of human emotions when, in the space of one week, the people of Jerusalem shifted from hailing him as their Messiah to condemning him as a blasphemer. The Gospels show Jesus well-acquainted with the range of human feelings: angry at the money-changers, bitter at the Pharisees, even weeping at the death of Lazarus. But no matter how he's feeling or how he's treated, we see him love. When weathering the storms of family life, Jesus' example can help us remember that—even when we're not sure our siblings, children, or spouses love us—we love them. We can choose to live in that love, no matter the cost.

Bringing Home the Word, April 13, 2014, Franciscan Media

PRAYER

At the name of Jesus
every knee should bend
of those in heaven,
on the Earth,
and under the earth and every tongue proclaim to the glory of God the Father Jesus Christ is Lord.

—Philippians 2:10-11
