

SAINT JOHN the EVANGELIST CATHOLIC CHURCH

WORSHIP AID EDITION
To Know, To Love, and To Serve God in His Church and Our Community.

Due to the incredible generosity of our Saint John the Evangelist Parish family, I am overjoyed to announce the “Finish the Church Campaign” is officially OVER! Our Parish is DEBT FREE! Through your dedication and sacrifice, we have managed to pay over 2.5 million dollars to the Diocese over the last two years to settle our debt. This caps off the Capital Campaign and the construction of the Pulte Center.

It has been so humbling to witness the outpouring of support from our parishioners as we tackled the debt caused by Hurricane Irma in excess of the insurance coverage coupled with the planned renovations and construction of the Pulte Center.

Winston Churchill once said, “We make a living by what we get, but we make a life by what we give.”

Our families have given so that we are able to pursue our mission: To Know, To Love, and To Serve God in His Church and Our Community... in beautiful, modern, and DEBT FREE facilities! The commitment of the SJE family to our faith and to our mission is truly a unique gift and a beacon of hope on display for all to see.

I truly identify with Hellen Keller when she said, “Words are never warm and tender enough to express one’s appreciation of a great kindness.” I hope you know how grateful and proud I am of you all... thank you, thank you, thank you!

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

There was a man who was very attached to his father, who had been a laborer all his life. When the father died the son was grief-stricken. As he stood quietly gazing down into the coffin in which his father was laid out, he was particularly struck by his father's hands. Even small things can reveal the essence of a person's life. Later he said: I will never forget those magnificently weathered old hands. They told the story of a countryman's life in the eloquent language of wrinkles, veins, old scars, and new. My father's hands always bore some fresh scratch or cut as adornment, the result of his latest tangle with a scrap of wire, a rusted pipe, a stubborn root. In death, they did not disappoint even in that small and valuable particular. "It is not given to sons to know everything about their fathers, but I have those hands in my memory to supply evidence of the obligations he met, the sweat he gave, the honest deeds he performed. By looking at those hands you could read the better part of the old man's heart." Jesus said to the apostles: "Look at my hands and feet ... Touch me and see for yourselves ... " He said the same thing to Thomas: "See my wounded hands and side. Cease doubting and believe." One might have expected the risen body of Jesus to be whole and without blemish. Yet, not only is His body still scarred, but it is those very scars which help the disciples to recognize Him. Those scars were the wounds caused by humiliation, torture, and crucifixion. Jesus showed His wounds to the apostles. Why His wounds? Firstly, those wounds show that the risen Jesus is the same person who was crucified. Secondly, because those wounds were the proof of His love.

Those who care about others pick up a lot of wounds as they go through life. Perhaps there are no great wounds but only a multiplicity of little ones – a host of scratches, wrinkles, and welts. Yet these are only the visible wounds. What about the myriad of invisible wounds: the furrows left on the mind and the soul by hardship, worry, and anxiety? And those piercing ones which affect that most sensitive part of us – the heart – things like disappointments, ingratitude, betrayal. Emotional hurt hits you in the gut and can be harder to deal with than physical hurt. But these wounds are not things to be ashamed of. They are the proof of our love. Will anyone see these wounds and come to believe in our love because of them? Even if no one else sees them,

God sees them, and He is proud of us, for He sees that we resemble his Son. We must not look at a person's achievements only, but at his/her wounds and scars.

Jesus didn't hide His wounds, for they were the proof of His love. They were the mortal wounds the Good Shepherd suffered in defending his flock from the wolf. He invited the apostles to touch those wounds. It was by touching and being touched that they were healed of their unbelief. His wounds give us hope in our wounds. Jesus didn't become embittered because of his wounds. Neither should we. Having brought peace and healing to the apostles, Jesus commissioned them to go and bring the good news to others. Jesus wants us to be witnesses to His resurrection. A sad, embittered person is a poor witness.

CATHOLIC FAITH APPEAL

Help Us Reach 40% Participation in Serving the Community Through the CFA

The Catholic Faith Appeal, or CFA, is the collaboration of 61 Catholic Parishes in Southwest Florida to serve and protect the poor, neglected, forgotten, and outcast in our region by assisting with the Mission of the Diocese of Venice, including Catholic Charities. Our generosity supports Catholic Education and Seminarians, as well as to feed, clothe, and provide shelter to the marginalized, the aged, and the unborn.

While we have met our goal in years past, it has been through the efforts of a small minority of our Parish Family. Father Tom has set a goal for our Parish to double our previous level of participation and have over 40% of our Families contribute this year. Please prayerfully consider how you can give to increase our participation for these worthy efforts. If we exceed our goal, those funds would be returned to the Parish, so every dollar counts.

Letter of Dispensation

DIOCESE OF VENICE IN FLORIDA OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

April 9, 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

They devoted themselves to the teaching of the Apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of the bread and to the prayers (Acts 2:42).

This Scripture passage reminds us that the Easter Season is an apt time to renew our fidelity to those essential actions that define us as the Body of Christ. Preeminent among these activities is gathering with the Church to celebrate the Most Holy Eucharist on Sundays and Holy Days.

In March of last year, because of the many unknowns that came with the Covid-19 Pandemic, and to protect the most vulnerable among us, after consultation I decided to take the unprecedented step of suspending public Masses and granting a general dispensation to the Catholic Faithful of the Diocese of Venice from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation. Together with our fellow citizens, I urged Catholics to exercise caution to protect the health of all. I thank everyone for their patience and understanding during this difficult time.

As the Faithful returned to in-person worship when restrictions were loosened, the Diocese's Clergy and Faithful performed exceptional service in maintaining safety protocols. In recent weeks as vaccines have become available, the news in Florida is encouraging, even more members of the Faithful have returned to our Parishes for Sunday Mass. Our Holy Week and Easter Liturgies were particularly edifying examples of commitment to Christ and the Eucharist. Furthermore, life in Southwest Florida has returned to some level of normalcy; restaurants, stores, and entertainment venues are open, and people of all ages seem willing to return to ordinary activities.

It is apparent that circumstances now allow almost all Catholics to attend Mass safely. Therefore, beginning May 1, 2021, the general dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation will be lifted in the Diocese of Venice.

At the same time, the Faithful should note this obligation does not apply to those who are ill, or others as outlined in the revised guidelines accompanying this letter. The revised guidelines adjust safety protocols to acknowledge that most Catholics can return to in-person worship at their Parish churches.

During this year dedicated to St. Joseph, the Faithful are encouraged to turn to his intercession for protection and courage. Let us be mindful in prayer of those who are no longer with us and those who continue in their recovery. May God bless you and your family.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane

Confirmation Youth Have an AMAZING Day with Justin Fatica and His Missionaries

It was a Blessing to have Justin Fatica and his accompanying missionaries spend the day with our Confirmation youth! Eighty-five high school youth preparing for the sacrament of Confirmation were inspired by the message of love that Justin and his team shared. We are all called by God for a special and unique purpose and with His approval, we can do anything! It is His approval that matters most! Youth played games, prayed the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, and ended the day together with Mass and a beautiful message of encouragement from Fr. Tom. It was truly an Amazing Day!

Scripture Readings

Reading I Acts 3:13-15, 17-19

Peter said to the people: "The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and denied in Pilate's presence when he had decided to release him. You denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked that a murderer be released to you. The author of life you put to death, but God raised him from the dead; of this we are witnesses. Now I know, brothers, that you acted out of ignorance, just as your leaders did; but God has thus brought to fulfillment what he had announced beforehand through the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer. Repent, therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be wiped away."

Responsorial Psalm 4:2, 4, 7-8, 9

R. (7a) Lord, let your face shine on us. or: R. Alleluia.

When I call, answer me, O my just God, you who relieve me when I am in distress; have pity on me, and hear my prayer!

R. Lord, let your face shine on us. or: R. Alleluia.

Know that the LORD does wonders for his faithful one; the LORD will hear me when I call upon him.

R. Lord, let your face shine on us. or: R. Alleluia.

O LORD, let the light of your countenance shine upon us! You put gladness into my heart.

R. Lord, let your face shine on us. or: R. Alleluia.

As soon as I lie down, I fall peacefully asleep, for you alone, O LORD, bring security to my dwelling.

R. Lord, let your face shine on us. or: R. Alleluia.

Reading II 1 Jn 2:1-5a

My children, I am writing this to you so that you may not commit sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous one. He is expiation for our sins, and not for our sins only but for those of the whole world. The way we may be sure that we know him is to keep his commandments. Those who say, "I know him," but do not keep his commandments are liars, and the truth is not in them. But whoever keeps his word, the love of God is truly perfected in him.

Alleluia Cf. Lk 24:32

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Lord Jesus, open the Scriptures to us; make our hearts burn while you speak to us.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Lk 24:35-48

The two disciples recounted what had taken place on the way, and how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread. While they were still speaking about this, he stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost. Then he said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have." And as he said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While they were still incredulous for joy and were amazed, he asked them, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of baked fish; he took it and ate it in front of them. He said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled." Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. And he said to them, "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

Join us for our monthly Encounter on the Mountain: A Holy Hour of Praise and Adoration on Thursday, May 6, 2021, at 7:00 p.m. in the church or watch online at sjecc.com.

Our theme of the night is "Empty Me to Fill Me With You, Lord." This Holy Hour will be filled with Praise and Worship music, silent prayer, and Ignatian Meditation. We will also have confessions available throughout the evening. This is a beautiful way to spend some time with the Lord and create the open space in our hearts for Him to come in and fill it with His love and mercy.

Verse 1) The world is shaking with the love of God. Great and glorious, let the whole earth sing. And all you ever do is change the old for new. People, we believe that (to chorus) Verse 2) Clouds are breaking, heaven's come to earth. Hearts awakening, let the church bells ring. And all you ever do is change the old for new. People, we believe that (to chorus)

God _____ is big - ger than _____ the air _____ I breathe, _____ the world _____ we'll leave. God _____ will save the day, _____ _____ and all _____ will say _____ my Glo - ri - ous!

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word
and my soul shall be healed.
