A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

As Christians, we recognize Jesus as the Good Shepherd who has laid down His life for us. All four Gospels use the metaphor of Jesus as shepherd. Indeed, the image is deeply woven into the language of the Old Testament, where God is often described as a shepherd and Israel as His chosen flock. The language of the image continues to give us some of our most beloved spiritual images. We need only recall the opening words of Psalm 23, The Lord is my shepherd, to see this.

In first century Palestine, the picture of grazing sheep, protected by their shepherd, was a common one. Given the rockiness and aridity of the highlands of Judea and the dangers from wild animals and thieves, the protection and welfare of one's flock was considered of number one importance for shepherds. For their part, the sheep seemed to know that their welfare depended on staying close to the shepherd because they responded only to his call. It was a relationship of reciprocity: the shepherd directed the sheep to fertile green pastures and kept a close eye out for danger, while the sheep listened and followed his voice. So, the image of the Church as the flock conjures up the idea of a community united with a common purpose and identity, and gathered together under a self-giving and protective leader.

Given the familiarity of this image and its deep biblical roots, it is no surprise that Jesus chose this metaphor when addressing the Pharisees about His mission to Israel. What is new, however, is how He uses it not just to speak of himself, but to contrast the Good Shepherd with the shepherd who is merely the hired hand. The difference is that the Pharisees and Scribes behave as though they are temporary shepherds, hired from an agency. Yes, they fulfill their basic duties to Israel, but they have no lasting or loving commitment to the people entrusted to their care – God's Chosen People. When the duties become too onerous or dangerous they will, like hired help, simply abandon their post and their flock. While they are keen to enforce religious law and duties, they are not keen to bandage the wounded, carry the lame, defend the powerless or place themselves between the flock and impending danger.

In direct contrast, Jesus gives us a powerful insight into how He sees His mission to Israel and, by extension, to the whole world.

Like the Good Shepherd, He is faithful and will offer up His own life for the sake of those entrusted to His care. Those who hear His voice will know that He is trustworthy, and He will lead and guide them along the right path, the path that will lead to everlasting life.

If we apply this idea of good and bad shepherds to today's Church, we might think the challenge is meant only for priests and bishops. In reality, though, it applies to us all. We are challenged to look into our hearts and judge the generosity of our service to the people around us. Each one of us, by virtue of our baptism, is called to share the Good News and live faithfully the teachings of the Gospel. We are also called to imitate Jesus, the Good Shepherd. This means what we say should be true, and our lives should be full of compassion and concern for others. By living in this way, Jesus can use us as an instrument of His love, providing those around us with the opportunity to hear and respond to his call. Then he will be able to shepherd them, as well, on the way to eternal life.

Catholic Faith Appeal

Help Us Reach 40% Participation in Serving the Community Through the CFA

The Catholic Faith Appeal, or CFA, is the collaboration of 61 Catholic Parishes in Southwest Florida to serve and protect the poor, neglected, forgotten, and outcast in our region by assisting with the Mission of the Diocese of Venice, including Catholic Charities. Our generosity supports Catholic Education and Seminarians, as well as to feed, clothe, and provide shelter to the marginalized, the aged, and the unborn.

While we have met our goal in years past, it has been through the efforts of a small minority of our Parish Family. Father Tom has set a goal for our Parish to double our previous level of participation and have over 40% of our Families contribute this year. Please prayerfully consider how you can give to increase our participation for these worthy efforts. If we exceed our goal, those funds would be returned to the Parish, so every dollar counts.

To be a saint, we must trust God wholeheartedly. Since the fall of our first parents, however, humanity has been tempted to mistrust the Father's love for us. Scripture Readings

Reading I Acts 4:8-12

Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said: "Leaders of the people and elders: If we are being examined today about a good deed done to a cripple, namely, by what means he was saved, then all of you and all the people of Israel should know that it was in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazorean whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead; in his name this man stands before you healed. He is the stone rejected by you, the builders, which has become the cornerstone. There is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race by which we are to be saved."

Responsorial Psalm 118:1, 8-9, 21-23, 26, 28, 29

R. (22) The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone. or: R. Alleluia.

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his mercy endures forever. It is better to take refuge in the LORD than to trust in man. It is better to take refuge in the LORD than to trust in princes.

R. The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone. or: R. Alleluia.

I will give thanks to you, for you have answered me and have been my savior. The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. By the LORD has this been done; it is wonderful in our eyes.

R. The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone. or: R. Alleluia.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD; we bless you from the house of the LORD. I will give thanks to you, for you have answered me and have been my savior. Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; for his kindness endures forever.

R. The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone. or: R. Alleluia.

Reading II 1 Jn 3:1-2

Beloved: See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.

Alleluia Jn 10:14

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep, and mine know me.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Jn 10:11-18

Jesus said: "I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. A hired man, who is not a shepherd and whose sheep are not his own, sees a wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away, and the wolf catches and scatters them. This is because he works for pay and has no concern for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I will lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. These also I must lead, and they will hear my voice, and there will be one flock, one shepherd. This is why the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down on my own. I have power to lay it down, and power to take it up again. This command I have received from my Father."

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters,
that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy
that you should enter under my roof,
but only say the word
and my soul shall be healed.

Forty is Fabulous!

Celebrating 40 Years of Excellence in Catholic Education!

In 1981, St. Elizabeth Seton Catholic School was hand-built by the loving hands of parishioners who wanted their children to have a faith-based education of excellence in a caring, family community. Honoring our past with continued commitment to quality academics, faith, tradition, service & community, we look toward the future with excitement. Demand for enrollment is high, and we need more classroom space to properly meet the needs of students & families. That is why we have initiated our Campus Expansion Program.

Help us continue the legacy of providing a strong academic and moral foundation for current and future generations of students in our area. Call 239-455-2262 or Visit www.SaintElizabethSeton.com/Giving. Thank you for your support!
