Growing Up Catholic
68 Children Receive First Holy Communion

Your mom and dad made promises to Jesus at your Baptism. In the Mass Enrollment Service for First Holy Communion, your parents again proclaimed the promises that they had made to Jesus. On the eve of your First Reconciliation, in a candlelight service at Saint John the Evangelist Catholic Church, your mom and dad repeated the promises that they had made to Jesus once again. On May 3, 2014, God smiled when you, His children, received the Body and Blood of Jesus, His Son, for the very first time.

Always remember how Jesus on the night in which He was betrayed, took bread, and after He had given thanks, broke it and said, "This is my Body, which is for you. Do this in remembrance of Me." Always remember how Jesus took the cup and said: "This cup is the new covenant in My Blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me. For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until He comes." (1Corinthians 11: 25-26)

Remember that Jesus' giving of Himself on the cross is the greatest act of love. Never separate yourself from Him. Always keep His commandments and always keep Him present in your hearts as you did on this your special day. We are honored to have taken this part of your journey with you.

#ToKnow – Survey Says... The Results are In!

Thank you to everyone who has submitted their suggestions, ideas, and feedback on the Family Mission Survey. We had over 670 individual responses online to the survey, which far exceeded my expectations. It will take some time to go through all your responses so we can effectively prioritize the Family Mission Programs, but I will be showcasing the themes and specific comments here over the next few weeks so that we can all see the tremendous request for change and engagement for all the areas of the Family Mission.

As you saw last week, we are collaborating with the Religious Education Program to ensure we have a complete educationally focused effort for all the youth of this parish. I hope this increase in Faith Formation will showcase both the “full-lifecycle” support St. John provides as well as the collaboration around our Parish Mission (in particular the “To Know” component). We are one St. John parish and I want to thank Margie Lynch for her dedication and devotion to our church and our children. Together, we will ensure there will be effective, exciting, and engaging programs for every parishioner.

#ToLove – May is the Month of Mary and Happy Mothers Day!

May is the month where we celebrate and honor the Mother of Jesus with special services and appreciation for her counsel and unwavering love. If you have not visited our website to see the pictures of the May Crowning, which took place on May 4, I highly recommend it (<http://saintjohntheevangelist.com/featured/may-crowning-celebrates-first-communicants-and-mother-mary>). This wonderful Mass and event would not have been possible without the support of amazing volunteers: Donna Boucher, leader of the May Crowning Committee; Kay and Andy Sanfelippo, Arts and Liturgical; Margie Lynch, Director of Religious Education; Silvia DeFeo and Jennifer Edwards, catechists.

The Holy Father gave a wonderful example of how the Virgin Mary works through Mothers (which is apropos on this Mother’s Day Weekend):

by Jean-Paul Boucher
Director, Family Mission
& Communications

jp@saintjohntheevangelist.com

I remember once, I was in the confessional, and there was a long queue in front of the Shrine of Lujan, the diocese of that bishop there, and there was a young man in the queue, all modern with tattoos And ... he came to tell me what was happening in his life. He had a big, difficult problem. ‘And [he asked me] what would you do? So I told my mother about this and my mother said to me: ‘Go to the Virgin Mary and she will tell you what you must do.’ Here was a woman who had the gift of counsel. She did not know how to solve her son’s problems but she indicated the right way: ‘Go to Our Lady and she’ll tell you.’ This is the gift of counsel. Do not say, ‘Do this ...’. Let the Spirit speak. And that woman, humble, simple, gave her son the truest, most beautiful advice, because this young man said to me: ‘I looked upon Our Lady and I heard that I need to do this, this, this.’ I did not have to say a word. It all came from my mother, the Virgin Mary and the young man. This is the gift of counsel. You mothers who have this gift, ask for this gift for your children: the gift of being able to counsel your children. It is a gift from God. – Pope Francis 2014-05-07 (<http://www.news.va/en/news/pope-at-audience-the-gift-of-good-counsel>)

Happy Mother’s Day!

#ToServe – Summer of Service

Our Youth Group will be focusing on serving the parish and our community this summer, just as they have been this whole spring. From assisting with Vacation Bible School to supporting the food bank and soup kitchen at St. Matthews House, the youth of St. John will be living their faith and showcasing the love, mercy and respect that are the hallmarks of Catholicism. Look for them in their #ToKnow, #ToLove, #ToServe T-Shirts all summer long!

See next week’s bulletin for more on the May Crowning.

Paniccia Prayer Garden

With the addition of orchids nestled in the trees and the abundance of colorful plants and flowering trees, along with the soothing sounds of the water fountain, the Paniccia Prayer Garden provides a tranquil place for prayer and quiet reflection. The orchids were added this spring by Dave Quist, Parish and Grounds committee.

SCOTT'S CORNER... WILL RETURN NEXT WEEKEND

From Campouts to Helping Out at St. John, Boy Scout Troop Has Been Busy Since January

The recently chartered Saint John the Evangelist Boy Scout Troop 226 has been very busy! The troop started in January, and so far has had weekly meetings, participated in the Scout Sunday Mass, had two weekend campouts, attended a badge college, helped at the Saint John the Evangelist Knights' fish bakes, and held a hot dog sale fundraiser.

The troop also participated in a community service project to build wooden bear boxes in conjunction with the State of Florida Fish and Wildlife Commission. And, it's only May!

Troop 226 already has nine boys who are considered "founders" in the new troop and active parents willing to support their efforts. All nine boys will be going by train in July to summer camp in Eastern North Carolina. There may still be space if you or a boy you know (age 11-17) is interested in joining the troop in time to attend summer camp.

Please contact Randy McNichols at scoutmaster@troop-226.com or visit the website: www.troop-226.com to view photos from the troop's activities.

The Word & Life

Hearing the Call of the Shepherd

During the canonizations of St. John XXIII and St. John Paul II, it was amazing to see the Catholics across the globe contemplating the impact that they made, not only upon the Church, but upon the world. These Vicars of Christ certainly listened closely to the Shepherd and in following his call, shared in God's work leading us to Christ. The sheep gate that Jesus refers to in today's gospel is most certainly a narrow gate through which the sheep enter. St. John XXIII took the brave step of confronting the Church and its ineffectiveness in reaching people in the midst of the modern world. The work of the Second Vatican Council contemplated contemporary society and provided a framework in which the Church could adequately address its pastoral realities. Obviously, he courageously entered into undiscovered territories and enabled the Church to dialogue with culture in order to bring souls through the narrow gate that would lead to salvation. Throughout the pontificate of St. John Paul II the culture of death that pervades our society was confronted. St. John Paul II reminded us to choose life in the midst of a world that often fails to recognize the dignity of life in all of its stages. He showed us that all people were sacred to God. He confronted world leaders who promoted the culture of death. He was clear in his message to the world to choose a road less traveled and to pursue a gate that so many are reluctant to enter. A gate that leads us into an environment in which God's will is honored and in which every individual is given equal dignity.

St. John Paul II heard the call to follow the shepherd as a young man as he struggled under the Nazi occupation of Poland. He sacrificed his worldly ambition and pleasures to answer the call. At times his life was put in danger as he confronted the evils of socialism and martial law. Pope Benedict XVI continued to give witness by his personal sacrifice and leadership as successor of Peter. His first Encyclical: 'Deus Caritas Est' reminds all of us that the most basic call of Christ the Good Shepherd is one of love. Countless men and women have responded so generously to this call to spread God's love by entering the priesthood or religious life. The priests that serve you at the altar are living reminders that God calls individuals to lead His people to restful pastures and life-giving waters through the sacraments and ministry of the Church. This is a gift that cannot be taken for granted. Most people are aware that the number of priests and religious is on the decline in the United States. Many parishes are without priests and rely on lay leadership to lead the community in prayer on the day of the Lord. These communities look forward to a traveling priest who comes to celebrate the sacraments with them. It is a simple fact that without the priest, there is no Eucharist. Now, Pope Francis is reminding all the shepherds (leaders) of the Church

Reflection Questions

1. What does the narrow gate represent in the Scripture?
2. Who is the gatekeeper?
3. Who is the shepherd?
4. Who do you think Jesus is talking about when he refers to the thief and the robber?
5. What is the abundant life that Jesus offers?
6. How do you respond to God as shepherd of your life?
7. Define who the thieves and the robbers are of God's sheepfold.
8. How do you share in the work of caring for God's sheep?
9. How are you sharing in the abundant life Jesus offers to the world?
10. How will you enter through the God's gate?

that joy must be the fruits of their ministry. He desires that its leaders do not look for the temples on the hill but the bruised Church that exists on the streets. True shepherding within the Church allows the poor, the broken, and the marginalized to feel they are loved and accepted, healed and transformed.

Each of us is called by our baptism to become a priestly, prophetic, and kingly people, to respond generously to Jesus' invitation to live life to its fullness, and to be faithful stewards of the Church. We are called to follow the Shepherd who brings us to the pastures of healing and forgiveness and the waters of justice and peace. As a Church, we are responsible for making the kingdom of God a reality through our laws, economic power, and care for God's vulnerable. We are invited to enter through the narrow gate to which the Shepherd leads us. Through the vocation of marriage and family, you are asked to bring to your children an awareness of their vocation and the call of God in their lives, and to encourage them to share in the work of the Shepherd by giving their lives to the Church. The reality is God will not leave His people without shepherds. The question is: are you willing to hear the call to serve and enter the narrow gate?

Reflecting
on the Sunday Readings with Fr. John J. Ludden, Pastor

Prayer

Shepherd us O Lord to the fullness of life. Help us to hear and answer your call. May the Holy Spirit help us to discern what you will for us and give us the courage to embrace your kingdom of Truth and Life. Amen.

Voices of Faith

Resting with the Shepherd

Come away by yourselves
To a deserted place
And rest for a while
In the meadows of peace and tranquility

For in that quiet place
You will find your Loving Shepherd
Your Comforter, Your Provider,
Your Strength, Your Love

Come away by yourselves
To a deserted place
And rest for a while
In the meadows of peace and tranquility

Leave your world of distraction behind
Depart the terrain of anxiety and stress,
Remove yourself from the place of struggle and uncertainty
Find yourself in the arms of your Protector

Come away by yourselves
To a deserted place
And rest for a while
In the meadows of peace and tranquility

Discover your God waiting for you
A God whose heart is open for you
A God whose ears are waiting to listen to you
A God who wishes to speak to you

So come away by yourselves
Take the risk to discover that deserted place
To rest in the meadows of peace and tranquility
Dare to love the Shepherd who certainly loves you
