55 Sealed With the Gifts of the Holy Spirit!

Congratulations to our 55 Confirmandi on their celebration of the Sacrament of Confirmation! It was a beautiful night filled with the Holy Spirit as our candidates were Confirmed after two years of preparation! Bishop Frank J. Dewane presided with Fr. Tom, Fr. Paul, Fr. Arun Paul, and Fr. Len all together concelebrating. During his homily, Bishop Dewane reminded the candidates about the importance of prayer. To encourage them, he gave the candidates a homework assignment and asked them to write an answer to this question in about two or three sentences, "Who is God?" He told them that each of their answers would be different, but this would be their personal prayer to God. He said to them, "Keep that piece of paper and more importantly commit that prayer to memory and to your heart. Let that be your prayer to the Lord when you want God to know you need His help."

Along with great wisdom from our Bishop, we are most grateful to the wisdom shared by the catechists of these youth who led them along the way, especially Dr. and Mrs. Anthony D'Agostino and Mr. and Mrs. Giovanni Mowrey. Thank you also to our support team who helped the liturgy come together so beautifully! We continue to keep our youth and their families in your prayers. Congratulations to them all!

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

Prior to the coming of the Holy Spirit, the apostles were virtually living in hiding in the upper room. A great task had been entrusted to them, yet they had neither the strength nor the will to begin it. But after the coming of the Holy Spirit, they were changed people. They left their hiding place and set out courageously to preach the Gospel.

What was it that the Spirit did to them? In promising the Spirit, Jesus said to them, "You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you, and then you will be my witnesses not only in Jerusalem, but ... to the ends of the earth." (Acts 1:8) I think the key word here is the word 'power.' Power was precisely what they needed. At the moment they felt completely powerless. They were crippled with fear and a sense of inadequacy. They felt totally incapable of carrying out the task of preaching the Gospel and witnessing to Jesus. After all, they had witnessed what happened to Jesus. They needed courage. They needed someone to empower them.

Empowerment is one of the 'in' words nowadays, and with good reason. We have seen individuals or groups of people who initially felt powerless to change their situation suddenly become able to do so when someone empowered them. We have seen what a good motivator can do for a football team. Players who had been lacking in self-belief begin to believe in themselves and play away above their normal abilities.

What does empowerment mean? In the first place, it means to give or delegate power or authority to someone; to authorize someone. This wouldn't apply to the apostles – they had already been given that by Jesus.

In the second place, it means to give ability to or to enable someone to do something. This is the usual sense in which the word 'empowerment' is used, and it certainly applies to the apostles at Pentecost.

When people are empowered, they become able and willing to take charge of their situation. They no longer wait for someone else to do it for them. They accept that they and they alone have to do something about it.

The Holy Spirit empowered the apostles. He came down on them in the form of wind and fire. Wind and fire (heat) are symbols of power. Wind has the power to move, to uproot. Fire has the power to refine and transform.

The power they symbolize here is the power of God. Here they symbolize the presence and action of God. The coming of the Spirit provided the apostles with the energy, the momentum, the enthusiasm, the courage, the love, and the passion to get on with the task Christ had given them. The Holy Spirit would help them, but he wouldn't do it for them.

However, we mustn't think that the change in them came about in an instant. It had to be a gradual thing. It had to be a growth process, and growth can be slow and painful. We do not easily let go of old ways, old habits, and old attitudes.

People change when they are given hope; when someone believes in them and gives them a task to do; when someone takes an interest in them. Above all, they change when they are loved. They come out of their shells, and hidden energies are released in them. The miracle of human change is the only real miracle.

We, too, need someone to empower us so that we are able to take charge of our lives, and live them responsibly. This means being willing to change what needs to be changed. But we especially need empowerment in order to witness to our Christian faith. The power that changed the apostles is available to us, too. The Holy Spirit energizes and strengthens our spirits and warms and purifies our hearts.

Catholic Faith Appeal

Help Us Reach 40% Participation in Serving the Community Through the CFA

The Catholic Faith Appeal, or CFA, is the collaboration of 61 Catholic Parishes in Southwest Florida to serve and protect the poor, neglected, forgotten, and outcast in our region by assisting with the Mission of the Diocese of Venice, including Catholic Charities. Our generosity supports Catholic Education and Seminarians, as well as to feed, clothe, and provide shelter to the marginalized, the aged, and the unborn.

While we have met our goal in years past, it has been through the efforts of a small minority of our Parish Family. We have set a goal for our Parish to double our previous level of participation and have over 40% of our Families contribute this year. Please prayerfully consider how you can give to increase our participation for these worthy efforts. If we exceed our goal, those funds would be returned to the Parish, so every dollar counts.

2nd Collection for Jamaica Outreach May 29 -30

Bishop Burchell McPherson of Montego Bay has told us that the need today in Jamaica is unlike anything he has ever experienced. Due to Covid 19 and its devastating impact on the economy, the poor are left with little to eat. The children are out of school and unable to get school lunches. With the tourism and trade nearly non-existent, many parents have lost their jobs. Every day people come to the Montego Bay Chancery begging for food. The church is doing what it can to provide food and necessities, but the Church's resources are overwhelmed. Bishop Burchell said, "Without food, they all live in hardship."

We are asking for your generosity to help with this crisis. But most of all we are asking for your prayers.

Please consider making a donation in the "virtual" 2nd collection on the weekend of May 29 - 30.

- Envelopes marked JOP or checks (memo JOP) can be dropped in the regular collection baskets at the church doors
- Donate online at www.JamaicaOutreach.org/give
- Mail a check payable to Jamaica Outreach, PO BOX 110581, Naples, FL 34108

The poor served by this St. John's ministry are eternally grateful for your past and future support.

Teaching Mass With Fr. Arun Paul

Fr. Arun Paul graciously provided a Teaching Mass to our Faith Formation families. Fr. Arun Paul explained to the children and their families the meaning of the vestments that the priests wear. He also explained the use and meaning surrounding many of the items used in the celebration of the Mass. The children got a close-up look and understanding of the Eucharistic celebration. This Mass was live-streamed and archived if anyone would like to watch and learn more about the Mass. Thank you, Fr. Arun Paul!

Jesus and the Jewish Roots of Mary:

Back in Stock and on Sale Now $5.00 ~ St. John Divine Gift Boutique

Bestselling author of Jesus and the Jewish Roots of the Eucharist casts new light on the Virgin Mary, illuminating her role in the Old and New Testaments.

In Jesus and the Jewish Roots of Mary, Dr. Pitre takes readers step-by-step from the Garden of Eden to the Book of Revelation to reveal how deeply biblical Catholic beliefs about Mary really are. Dr. Pitre uses the Old Testament and Ancient Judaism to unlock how the Bible itself teaches that Mary is in fact the new Eve, the Mother of God, the Queen of Heaven and Earth, and the new Ark of the Covenant.

Enjoying a Presentation from Dr. David Keys

Thank you to Dr. David Keys for his Presentation on Marian Apparitions to our Adult Faith Formation Community. Approximately 50 were in attendance and learned so much from his presentation. We are blessed that he is planning to return in the fall to speak to us about Our Lady of Fatima. We will have more information on that upcoming event soon!

Join a Small Group Study at St. John in June!

Please join us for a small group study facilitated by one of our Adult Faith Formation leaders, Mrs. Sue Hamilton. Sue will lead a small group study entitled, Meeting Jesus Changes Everything! The Gospels tell many stories of people whose lives were changed because they met Jesus. To be Jesus' disciples, we must meet Him for ourselves and come closer to Him. Jesus wants us to encounter Him in our own lives and in our families. The group will reflect on eight Gospel stories and meet Jesus in new and deeper ways. There will be opportunities for prayer, reflection on the Scriptures, and discussion on family topics that lead to action in the mission of Jesus Christ. People of all adult ages are welcome! Small groups are a powerful way to connect with others in the parish and build new relationships while engaging in faith-sharing conversations. This small group will meet on the five Wednesdays in June from 11:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. Please email Sue at aff@sjecc.com to reserve your spot!

Scripture Readings

Reading I Acts 2:1-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God."

Responsorial Psalm 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34

R. (cf. 30) Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth. or: R. Alleluia.

Bless the LORD, O my soul! O LORD, my God, you are great indeed! How manifold are your works, O LORD! the earth is full of your creatures.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth. or: R. Alleluia.

May the glory of the LORD endure forever; may the LORD be glad in his works! Pleasing to him be my theme; I will be glad in the LORD.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth. or: R. Alleluia.

If you take away their breath, they perish and return to their dust. When you send forth your spirit, they are created, and you renew the face of the earth.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth. or: R. Alleluia.

Reading II 1 Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13

Brothers and sisters: No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

OR:

Gal 5:16-25

Brothers and sisters, live by the Spirit and you will certainly not gratify the desire of the flesh. For the flesh has desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; these are opposed to each other, so that you may not do what you want. But if you are guided by the Spirit, you are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are obvious: immorality, impurity, lust, idolatry, sorcery, hatreds, rivalry, jealousy, outbursts of fury, acts of selfishness, dissensions, factions, occasions of envy, drinking bouts, orgies, and the like. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. In contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law. Now those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified their flesh with its passions and desires. If we live in the Spirit, let us also follow the Spirit.

Sequence Veni, Sancte Spiritus

Come, Holy Spirit, come! And from your celestial home Shed a ray of light divine! Come, Father of the poor! Come, source of all our store! Come, within our bosoms shine. You, of comforters the best; You, the soul's most welcome guest; Sweet refreshment here below; In our labor, rest most sweet; Grateful coolness in the heat; Solace in the midst of woe. O most blessed Light divine, Shine within these hearts of yours, And our inmost being fill! Where you are not, we have naught, Nothing good in deed or thought, Nothing free from taint of ill. Heal our wounds, our strength renew; On our dryness pour your dew; Wash the stains of guilt away: Bend the stubborn heart and will; Melt the frozen, warm the chill; Guide the steps that go astray. On the faithful, who adore And confess you, evermore In your sevenfold gift descend; Give them virtue's sure reward; Give them your salvation, Lord; Give them joys that never end. Amen. Alleluia.

Alleluia Mt 28:19a, 20b

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Jn 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

OR:

Jn 15:26-27; 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples: "When the Advocate comes whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth that proceeds from the Father, he will testify to me. And you also testify, because you have been with me from the beginning. "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault,

through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Thankyou Music (Admin. by EMI Christian Music Publishing). Matt Redman. 3rd Verse by Tom Oram. All rights Reserved. Used with permission. Reprinted under CCLI License # 2008891.

Verse 1)

When the music fades, all is stripped away and I simply come; longing just to bring something that's of worth, that will bless your heart

Pre-Chorus)

I'll bring you more than a song, for a song in itself is not what you have required.
You search much deeper within, through the way things appear—you're looking into my heart...

Chorus)

I'm coming back to the heart of worship,
And it's all about you, all about you Jesus.
I'm sorry Lord, for the thing I've made it,
When it's all about you, all about you, Jesus.

Verse 2)

King of endless worth, no one could express How much you deserve; Though I'm weak and poor, all I have is yours, ev'ry single breath.

Verse 3)

And as I receive your Body and your Blood, given up for me; Take me as I am, call me to the Feast—say the word, I'm healed—
