Remembering Our Fallen Heroes

This Monday, May 27, we celebrate Memorial Day, a day when we remember those brave men and women who answered the call and made the ultimate sacrifice in the name of freedom.

National cemeteries not only across America but in foreign lands where Americans fought to protect our liberties and those of the oppressed, are filled with the white tombstones of the fallen.

On May 5, 1868, General John Logan, commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, proclaimed the observance of Memorial Day on May 30, 1868, to honor the dead of both Union and Confederate Armies who died during the Civil War.

One need not go too far to honor our deceased heroes and veterans, as just steps away in front of St. John, is a beautiful statue of Christ embracing a fallen warrior home to His kingdom surrounded by marked pavers and the flag they stood for.

Dedicated on Veterans Day last year by Fr. John, this “Lest We Forget” memorial will stand forever to those who proudly and unselfishly answered the call.

This Memorial Day, make a pledge to remember those who sacrificed their lives so that we may remain free in the greatest country on earth. The National Moment of Remembrance will be observed at 3:00 p.m.

God Bless America.

The Holy Spirit Descends on Bible Story Time Children

The Bible Story Time children waited anxiously for the Holy Spirit to come on Pentecost Sunday. In preparation the children made Holy Spirit headbands where the flame of the Holy Spirit sat on their heads just as it did with the disciples. The children listened to the wind of the Holy Spirit as they heard stories and songs about fire and wind. Lastly, participants made Holy Spirit dove puppets out of paper lunch bags. It was a wonderful day to fellowship and enjoy the Holy Spirit.

Jennifer Grenardo,
Bible Story Time
Director

Jennifer Grenardo and her family will be moving to San Antonio, Texas this summer where her husband will continue as a law professor at St. Mary's Law School. Thank you to everyone who help make Bible Story Time a huge success. Fortunately, Bible Story Time will continue in the fall with Mary Chalhoub as the new director. If you have a little one from the ages of 0-5 years old, please be on the look-out for fun, faith and fellowship for your little one.

On behalf of St. John the Evangelist we thank Jennifer for the wonderful leadership, guidance, lessons and fellowship that she brought to the Bible Story Time Ministry. We wish Jennifer and her family many blessings in San Antonio.

SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH

Sacrament of Baptism

The Diocese requires that parents seeking baptism for their child attend a baptism preparation class. To schedule a baptism class, parents must be registered practicing members of St. John's for a minimum of two months. Classes are offered once a month and baptisms are celebrated on the first and third Sundays of each month after the 1:00 p.m. Mass. Please call the parish office to register for a class. Upon completion of the class and fulfillment of the godparent requirements, parents may schedule a baptism date.

Sacrament of Matrimony

Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice.

Anointing of the Sick/Funeral Arrangements

Call the parish office 566.8740. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

LET US PRAY...

MAY 26, 2013 ~ THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

It is no secret that the current economic state of affairs in Collier County and abroad is bad at best although slightly better than years past. It seems that the effects of the recession have trickled down into almost every segment of the economy. As most of you can attest, many people locally are finding it difficult to meet their monthly obligations due to the downturn. This is where the St. Vincent de Paul Society will step in and assist families who are experiencing difficulties. Whether it is assistance in the form of a rent payment, a gift card from Publix in order to provide food or a gas card, St. Vincent de Paul provides an incredibly valuable service to those in our community. As I have stated before, the only source of income for our St. Vincent de Paul Society comes in the form of donations made through two annual collections, the poor box and random mail-in contributions. If you would like to donate, here are your options. You may donate furniture, appliances, house wares, vehicles and even boats. Simply call the main office at 775.1667 and they will arrange to have your donation picked up free of charge. Donations of food or clothing may be taken directly to the main office at Airport Road and Davis Blvd. And last but not least, cash donations may be made through the poor boxes conveniently located at nearly every church exit. The current donations received through the poor boxes will satisfy less than one case per week. St. Vincent de Paul is one of my favorite ministries as I have seen first-hand the amazing work they perform and the end result. Under the direction of Bill Smart, the St. John chapter of the St. Vincent de Paul Society is assisting several families per week. This number is expected to increase exponentially as the summer progresses. If you would like to volunteer your talent and time, St. Vincent de Paul is actively looking for new members to serve needy individuals in our own backyard (literally.) If you would like to join a ministry that will provide you with a true sense of worth and accomplishment, here is your chance. Please call Bill Smart at 495.8295 if you would like to become part of this organization that can change a life.

If you were questioning whether or not season is officially over, one quick glance at our collection summary will certainly reveal the answer. Our regular offertory collection has dropped to 60% of its average during the winter months of December through April and we are now well below our weekly operating budget. As a reminder, we operate "in the red" seven out of twelve months. On a brighter note, regular offertory collections are up nearly 10% (fiscal year to date) versus the same period last year. The finance council has made numerous efforts to reduce operating expenses so that we may survive the lean summer months in the face of a very unfriendly, yet possibly improving economy.

We had hoped to have the new hearing loop installed for this weekend, but, as everyone knows, nothing ever really goes as planned. Because this hearing loop actually involves a true "loop" of wire creating figure 8's throughout the sanctuary and rear wings, installation can be somewhat involved, especially with the configuration of our church. We going back to go back to the "drawing board" regarding our initial installation plans and will change direction completely. We should have the issues resolved this coming week and have a fully operable system in place for next weekend.

This past Thursday, we began work to move the fire hydrant out of the Memorial Garden. Optimistically, the movement of this hydrant should be completed within one week. As a result of the opening of section 22 for sale, nine individuals have already purchased space in this desirable section of the Memorial Garden.

We are nearing the $300,000.00 mark with regards to the 2013 Catholic Faith Appeal. This leaves us with a balance of only $158,000.00 to meet our goal. We are now exactly $50,000.00 ahead of where we were at this same time last year. Remember that we exceeded our goal last year by $60,000.00. 100% of this overage came directly back to the parish to be used for our numerous ministries on campus. Let us aspire to do the same this year! Thank you for your continued support of the Catholic Faith Appeal.

At this time two years ago, I was at The Birth Place at NCH waiting for the arrival of my triplets. When people said that the time will go by so fast, they really knew what they were talking about. Ella, Mia and Nate are now two years old and thriving. Although the terrible two's are already upon us, my wife and I are truly blessed to have three beautiful children and even more blessed to have many of you continuing to pray for their well-being. Attached is a picture of Nate, Ella and Mia watching morning cartoons. I hope the third year doesn't go by as fast as the first two.

Life Matters

God has blessed our parish with the opportunity to bond in prayer for our spiritually adopted children. This weekend marks the beginning of month 2 for our spiritually adopted kids. Their DNA is uniquely formed and all the cells necessary for development are present. His or her heart is already beating and other organs are beginning to form. What a great time to be alive!!

Don't forget to pray for your adopted child; pray that they may be safe throughout the entire term of their development, safe in their mother's womb, where God is knitting them together.

Verse

Let the poor man say, "I am rich in him."

Let the lost man say, "I am found in him."

Oh, let the river flow!

Let the blind man say, "I can see again."

Let the dead man say, "I am born again."

Oh, let the river flow! Oh, let the river flow—

Chorus

Let the river flow, let the river flow

Holy Spirit, come, move in power

Let the river flow (let the river flow)

Let the river flow (let the river flow)

Let the river flow (let the river flow)

Let the river flow!

Annual Memorial Day Mass

Monday, May 27, 8:30 AM

Memorial Day is not a day to sleep in or barbecue; it is actually a holiday—which, of course, literally means a holy day: Memorial Day has been hallowed by those who gave their lives for our country in her armed forces.

At this Mass, the names of our beloved war dead, who so selflessly paid for our freedom with their lives, are read aloud and lovingly remembered, so as to properly observe this day.

Please join us for the celebration of the Mass. Fr. Rourke will be joined by the choir, as well as members of the Marine Corps League of Naples.

There will be special prelude music and ceremonies.

The Most Holy Trinity – Model of Self-giving Love

*A*s we celebrate the Most Holy Trinity today, we contemplate a mystery that leads us so far out of our depth but at the same time so within our reach. It is out of our depth in the way that we will never understand the enormity of God's identity. But the mystery of the Trinity is also within our reach. The story of faith in the world is known as 'salvation history'. From the moment of creation until now, God has continually made himself known both in people and in the events of time. The Most Holy Trinity is the greatest expression of God's giving of Himself. The Father adopts us as His children making us His own. The Son embodies the wisdom of God touching and changing humanity forever. The Holy Spirit remains in the Church to lead, guide, and inspire God's chosen ones. This is why we begin and end all of our celebrations in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. If we fail to acknowledge any person of the Trinity, we fail to understand the fullness of God's love.

We celebrate the constancy of God's love as we observe the feast of the Trinity. We acknowledge the great sacrifice that the Father made in sending his only Son to be our savior. We are asked to be aware of the very breath of God within us as we acknowledge our bodies to be the temples of the Holy Spirit. We are asked to mirror God's ultimate self-giving in our lives. The choices we make should reflect the generosity of the Trinity. The Father gives life to the Son. The Son promises and bestows upon the disciples the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit in turn gives life to the Church, inspiring countless millions to follow Christ. The Holy Trinity is a model of self-giving and generosity that has the power to change the world forever. Likewise, we are asked to share our lives in the same self-giving and unconditional love of the Blessed Trinity.

We have heard it said: "What you are is God's gift to you. What you become

Reflection Questions

1. What is the Trinity?
2. How does each person of the Trinity give you sense of security?
3. Do you think history has been impacted by the understanding of the Trinity? Why or why not? How does the self-giving and generosity of the Trinity inspire you?
4. What does it mean to become a reflection of the Trinity?
5. Name the ways in which God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, has been present in your lives.
6. The Holy Trinity is a model for unity. How can you, as a member of the Church, promote unity in your local community?
7. In what ways may the international community gain unity?
8. Is there unity in your family, work place, or places of leisure?
9. How can God's generosity, manifest in the Trinity, shape your life and your choices?

is your gift to God!" We truly glorify our lives by understanding what it means to be made in the image and likeness of God. The People of God must always know and understand this when they are faced with life's choices. Socio-political debates must always remember the most fundamental understanding of who we are as human beings. We are creatures made in the image and likeness of God, no matter our color, race, or language. Every human being possesses an inherent and fundamental dignity. Therefore, we must always respond to the stranger with an unquestioned reverence for their personhood. The fundamental option of our lives must always be oriented to the good. By remaining open to the Holy Spirit and led by the teachings and example of Jesus, we share in this ultimate divine mystery of God's self-manifestation to the world. The Most Holy Trinity is also the expression of unity. We are called to live in that unity by seeking unity in our church, in our families, and in the world.

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings with Fr. John J. Ludden, Pastor

Prayer

We pray: Most Blessed and Holy Trinity, Three in One, through the passage of time, You are with us. Help us to preserve in our lives the unity and peace signified in your presence. Help us become a gift of your divine love. May the wisdom of the reality of your presence, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, be with us as we go forth on our pilgrimage through life. Amen.

Voices of Faith

Blessed Trinity

O Trinity most holy
O Trinity most sublime
The mystery of God revealed
The gift of love divine

At the beginning of time
The genius of God pours forth
As beauty upon beauty He creates
His love – a divine force

The hand of God enters the void
Where the Spirit hovers over the deep
The Word of God yet not Incarnate
Awakens the dark with dawn's keep

God gifts a world of beauty
Life's abundance is now here
Man made in His image
God's intention is made clear

The Father holds man in His heart
In love he sets him free
To live a life of promise
Called to become, called to be

Yet man forgets the sacred
God's Spirit he does not see
The Father sends his helpers
In order to set man free

And so the Word Incarnate
Pitches his tent among us
A gift from God above
The Word made flesh, Emmanuel – God with us!

Hungry hearts are touched by Christ's presence
Those wounded are now healed
Yet man has the eyes to see not
The mystery of God revealed

And so his Christ is rejected
And hangs upon the tree
So man's sins may be forgiven
As once again he's set free

The tomb's darkness is no more
As the God-man awakes with the dawn
Death is overwhelming conquered
And man is to weep no more

From the world of death
The Word appears in radiance
To men and women living in fear
The Advocate – Divine Helper is promised for man's reliance

And so the Spirit is breathed upon man
To fulfill the promise
Of God's walking with man
So that man may do him homage

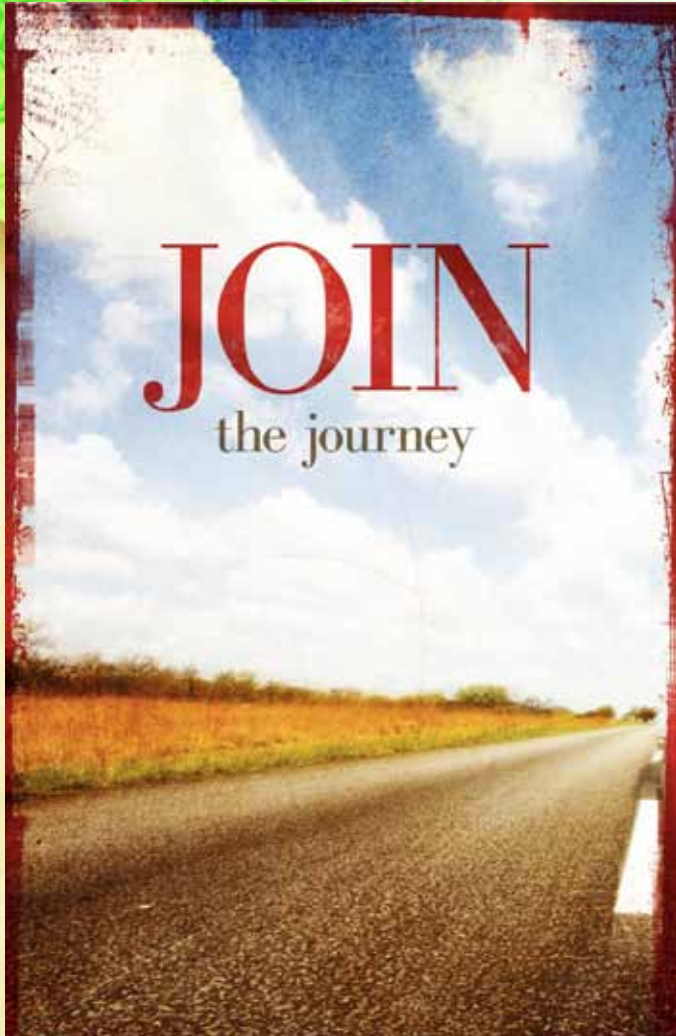

O Trinity most holy
O Trinity most sublime
The mystery of God revealed
The gift of love divine
