Fr. Tom Celebrates a Joyful First Holy Communion with 60 of Our Youth

What a beautiful way to begin the month of May by celebrating the First Holy Communion of 60 of our parish children. In his message to the children and families, Fr. Tom reminded the children how special this day was that they would be receiving Jesus for the first time. The Eucharistic Meal at the altar would be the happiest meal they could ever hope to receive! In a special way, he encouraged the children to pray quietly and purposefully each time they receive Jesus in the Eucharist and return to kneel in their pew.

Using the word altar a to help them remember, he told taught them to pray, giving them something beautiful to do throughout their lives.

A – ADORE – Jesus, I adore you!

L – LOVE – Jesus, I love you!

T – THANK – Jesus, I thank you for everything you’ve given me!

A – ASK – Jesus, I ask you to continue to bless me and my family!

R – RESOLUTION – Jesus, I resolve to be the best I can be and to be more like you!

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

In a certain village in the Swiss Alps there is a small church which has been used by generations of worshippers. Even though it is no work of art, the local people have always had a special affection for it. What is it that makes it so beautiful in the eyes of the people? It is the story of how it came to be built on that particular spot. The story goes like this.

Two brothers worked a family farm, sharing the produce and profit. One was married, the other wasn't. The climate was harsh with the result that grain was sometimes scarce.

One day the single brother said to himself, "It's not fair that we should share the produce equally. I'm alone, but my brother has a family to support." So every now and then he would go out at night, take a sack of grain from his own barn, quietly cross the field between their houses, and place it in his brother's bin.

Meanwhile, his brother had a similar idea, and said, "It's not right that we should share the produce equally. I have a family to support me but my brother is all alone." So every now and then he would go at night, take a sack of grain from his barn, and quietly place it in his brother's bin.

This went on for a number of years. Each brother was puzzled how his supply of grain never dwindled. Then one night they bumped into each other in the dark. When they realized what had been happening, they dropped their sacks, and embraced each other. Suddenly a voice from heaven said: "Here I will build my church. For where people meet in love, there my presence shall dwell."

What's the purpose of life if not to love? William Blake put it like this: "We are put on earth a little space that we may learn to bear the beams of love."

But we cannot give love unless we have first received it. A radiator cannot give out heat unless it has first received heat. This was true of Jesus, too. He said to his disciples, "As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you." The love He shared so generously with His disciples and with the people at large was the love He had received from the Father, and from Mary, Joseph, and others, too.

It is not a sign of weakness to admit one's need of love. We should acknowledge and be grateful for the love we have received. As far as God's love is concerned, we don't have to earn it. It is God who first loved us. God loves us, not because we are good, but because He is good. Our very existence is a sign of God's love. All we have to do is receive it, and then try to share it with others.

Love is well-being. It makes life fruitful. To refuse to love is to begin to die. To love is to begin to live. Few get the opportunity of showing their love for others by dying for them. But all have the opportunity to live for others.

Love is costly. To love is to accept that we might die another death before we die our own. The way of love is the way of the cross, and it is only through the cross that we come to the resurrection. There is nothing terrible about suffering a bit on earth if it has taught us how to love.

There is a prayer which goes like this: "Lord, don't let me die yet, because I haven't loved enough." It's a prayer we would do well to make our own.

CATHOLIC FAITH APPEAL

Help Us Reach 40% Participation in Serving the Community Through the CFA

The Catholic Faith Appeal, or CFA, is the collaboration of 61 Catholic Parishes in Southwest Florida to serve and protect the poor, neglected, forgotten, and outcast in our region by assisting with the Mission of the Diocese of Venice, including Catholic Charities. Our generosity supports Catholic Education and Seminarians, as well as to feed, clothe, and provide shelter to the marginalized, the aged, and the unborn.

While we have met our goal in years past, it has been through the efforts of a small minority of our Parish Family. Father Tom has set a goal for our Parish to double our previous level of participation and have over 40% of our Families contribute this year. Please prayerfully consider how you can give to increase our participation for these worthy efforts. If we exceed our goal, those funds would be returned to the Parish, so every dollar counts.

"If you knew how much I loved you, you'd cry for joy."

St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church – Nazareth Room

As the strong right arm of the Church, the Knights of Columbus serve God, our priests, our parishes, and our communities. Being a Knight is an experience of a lifetime.

Brothers join together to help one another become better Catholics, better husbands, better fathers, better citizens, and better men. The work of the Knights combines community service, social activities, charitable fundraising, and support for the Catholic Church.

At St. John, members serve as volunteers in parish ministries, help with special projects, and sponsor parish events including the Lenten fish bakes, dinner dances, Tootsie Roll drive for the disabled, and Christmas time collections of gifts and toy. Behind the scenes, they support our priests and seminarians, fund parish equipment, assist in activities and events for youth and young adults, and help the less fortunate with time and treasure.

Knights come from all walks of life and seek to be a greater part their world. You can commit as much or as little time as you want, but you will belong to one of the largest Catholic communities in the world.

Knights of Columbus members have the opportunity to make a meaningful difference. Take a NEW look at the Knights; become active even if the time you have to give is limited.

Next weekend, Knights will be at each of the Masses to extend a special invitation to all men of our parish to consider joining our parish Council of the Knights of Columbus.

For more information, and to get answers to your questions:

- Ask a Knight you know about becoming a Knight.
- Stop and talk with a Knight after each Mass next weekend.
- Send an email to kocinfo@kocouncil11281.org, and we will respond promptly.
- Go to the National "Supreme" website www.kofc.org to join online.

Requirements are few; rewards are many!

We reflect on this Sunday's Gospel Reading from John:15:9-17, the Sixth Sunday of Easter Pray: Help us to find ways to stay close to you, Jesus, so we can grow in faith and love. Thank you for giving us your Mother, Our Lady, to watch over us and protect us. As we celebrate Our Blessed Mother in this month of May, we pray:

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Think: How does keeping God's Commandments help us to stay close to Him? How do these help us to be the best version of ourselves?

Act: On this Mother's Day, say three Hail Mary prayers for you mom and do something extra special for her!

Scripture Readings

Reading I Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48

When Peter entered, Cornelius met him and, falling at his feet, paid him homage. Peter, however, raised him up, saying, "Get up. I myself am also a human being."

Then Peter proceeded to speak and said, "In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him."

While Peter was still speaking these things, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who were listening to the word. The circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit should have been poured out on the Gentiles also, for they could hear them speaking in tongues and glorifying God. Then Peter responded, "Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people, who have received the Holy Spirit even as we have?" He ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.

Responsorial Psalm 98:1, 2-3, 3-4

R. (cf. 2b) The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power. or: R. Alleluia.

Sing to the LORD a new song, for he has done wondrous deeds; His right hand has won victory for him, his holy arm.

R. The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power. or: R. Alleluia.

The LORD has made his salvation known: in the sight of the nations he has revealed his justice. He has remembered his kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel.

R. The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power. or: R. Alleluia.

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation by our God. Sing joyfully to the LORD, all you lands; break into song; sing praise.

R. The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power. or: R. Alleluia.

Reading II 1 Jn 4:7-10

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God; everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God. Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love. In this way the love of God was revealed to us: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might have life through him. In this is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as expiation for our sins.

Alleluia Jn 14:23

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord, and my Father will love him and we will come to him.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Jn 15:9-17

Jesus said to his disciples: "As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love.

"I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete. This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father. It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another."

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault,

through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Our theme of the night is "The Goodness and Faithfulness of God." This Holy Hour will be filled with Praise and Worhsip music, silent prayer, and a reflection speaker. Celebrating 40 Years of Excellence in Catholic Education!

In 1981, St. Elizabeth Seton Catholic School was hand-built by the loving hands of parishioners who wanted their children to have a faith-based education of excellence in a caring, family community. Honoring our past with continued commitment to quality academics, faith, tradition, service & community, we look toward the future with excitement. Demand for enrollment is high, and we need more classroom space to meet the needs of students & families. That is why we have initiated our Campus Expansion Program.
