Memorial Day Remembrance Mass

More than 500 parishioners attended the Memorial Day Remembrance Mass organized by pastoral musician Tom Oram this past Monday, May 27. Concelebrated by Fr. John Rourke and Fr. Tom Kelly, the 8:30 a.m. Mass touched on the sacrifices made by those members of our Armed Forces who died fighting for our freedom.

The celebration began with prelude music of Here I am Lord and Have Mercy on Us (A Soldier's Prayer). Tom Oram's great uncle was killed in action over Western Europe in 1943 and this composition was found among his possessions after his death.

The Marine Corps League of Naples presented and posted the colors and fired a rifle salute to the fallen. Sgt. Robert McDonald played taps which brought tears to many in the congregation. Sgt. McDonald is a WW II veteran and served in the U.S. Army 8th Air force.

In his homily, Fr. Rourke spoke of his classmates who went off to war, and "How I remember those gold star flags hanging in the homes of those who perished in the fight." "They were known as the Gold Star Mothers." Fr. Rourke suggested a visit to a National Cemetery "will give a lesson in mortality as you gaze upon the countless white headstones of those warriors interred there."

When St. John parishioner Peter Tunucci was asked what he thought about the Mass, he said, "I would not miss this Mass for anything" and the U.S. Army veteran added, "The music and choir were just spectacular and set the tone of why we are here, to honor those who died for us."

The mass concluded with Tom's special rendition of The Battle Hymn of the Republic.

LET US PRAY...

JUNE 2, 2013 ~ THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

The fire hydrant in the Memorial Garden is no more. As of this past week, the hydrant has been moved to an area immediately outside of the garden. This move has been a long time coming and is one more step in making our memorial garden a truly beautiful environment. We also have replaced the old markers in sections 13 and 14 and will continue to replace all of the old markers in the entire garden. We hope to have this transformation completed by the end of the calendar year. If you are considering purchasing a space in our memorial garden, I suggest you do so sooner than later. As I have said on numerous occasions, there is serious talk within the Diocese of closing the sale of space in all parish memorial gardens in the near future. If you purchase your space prior to the closing, remains may be interred at any time. If you do not purchase your space before the closing, you are basically out of luck. Please contact me at your earliest convenience if you would like to make our Memorial Garden your final resting place.

Did you know that the Diocese of Venice employs a Victims Assistance Coordinator? Barbara E. DiCocco is the Diocesan Coordinator and may be reached at 941.416.6114 in the case of an allegation. St. John the Evangelist takes the safety of our youth very seriously. We require all volunteers to be fingerprinted and to take a mandatory Safe Environment Training course before having contact with your children. The Victim Assistance Coordinator is to listen, provide support and understanding on behalf of the Diocese. All allegations of child sexual abuse by diocesan personnel, including clergy, should be reported to law enforcement, the Florida Department of Children and Families and to the Victim Assistance Coordinator. The Coordinator will notify the Chancellor who will refer the matter to the Review Board for investigation. The Victim Assistance Coordinator, as the liaison between the diocese and the alleged victim, will focus energies on coordinating pastoral care for victims/survivors and will follow up with victims to ensure that they will receive appropriate care.

Have you ever considered having your wedding reception or the reception of your children or grandchildren at St. John the Evangelist? We have an amazing ballroom which can host receptions for up to 400 guests. Our ballroom has long struggled with the stigma of a “parish hall” however, for those who have attended an event in our facilities; you will agree that our ballroom is more reminiscent of a higher end hotel or country club rather than a parish hall. This past weekend, we hosted a wedding reception for a couple who wanted to transform the ballroom into a “South Beach” theme. Please see the pictures of the finished product on page 9. As you can see, the end result was absolutely magnificent. We host several hundred special events annually including wedding receptions, fundraisers, anniversary parties, dinner dances, etc. If you would like to use our facilities to host your special event, please contact me at 566.1678. Registered parishioners receive a substantial discount off of the normal rental rate.

Did you attend the Memorial Day Mass this past Monday? Our “Lest we Forget” Veteran’s Memorial had a plethora of visitors not only by those who attended Mass but also by several hundred who attended the special events next door at Naples Memorial Garden. I am extremely proud of this amazing memorial and would like to once again thank Bill and Eileen Fuller for their generous contribution of the statue and their vision for the memorial. Memorial brick pavers may still be purchased for the reasonable price of $150.00 each. If you are interested, please stop by the parish office and fill out a form to get yours.

After the proceeds from the Reverse Raffle have now been accounted for, we have raised $312,904.01 of our goal of $454,000.00 with regards to the 2013 Catholic Faith Appeal. This leaves us with a balance of only $141,000.00 to meet our goal. We are now $64,000.00 ahead of where we were at this same time last year. Obviously, with the summer months ahead of us, contributions will taper, however we have a great start with six full months remaining in the annual appeal. Thank you for your continued support of the Catholic Faith Appeal.

Have you registered your children for our “Kingdom Rock” themed Vacation Bible School to be held on June 10-14? As of Wednesday of this past week, elementary age registration is full and there is a waiting list. There is/was still approximately seven (7) spots remaining for preschool age children. If you would like to register or be placed on the waiting list, please contact Jasmine Dina at 289.0585.

In His work together,

Scott Schlossberg, MBA
General Manager

Food for the Journey

*A*s we celebrate the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ, many of us can recall the Corpus Christi processions of days gone by. People joined in procession with the priest who was situated under a canopy holding the Blessed Sacrament in the monstrance, blessing the people gathered in prayer. The processions taught us the great importance and reality of the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. The Church continues its teaching of the Real Presence by asking the Church all over the world to observe the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ.

The Eucharist is central to our faith as Catholic Christians. The Magisterium notes that it is 'the source and summit of our Christian life'. The theological concept of transubstantiation is notably important for all of us. While we may well get lost in the theological treatises and discourse on the Eucharist, we cannot lose the fact that God is continually present in a tangible way every time we celebrate the mass. The last supper, the sacrifice of Calvary and the resurrection are always relived in the experience of our Sunday worship. It is so beautiful to know that no matter what we are going through, no matter what our disappointments, no matter what mistakes we make; Christ makes himself available to us so that our sins will be forgiven. The Eucharist is our moment of transformation – it is the moment when God says yes to us, and we say yes to God.

In Sacred Scripture, we find multiple references to Jesus sitting at table to eat with others. Today's gospel recalls the feeding of the five thousand. In this account, many of the people of Bethsaida and the surrounding area came seeking Jesus, hungering for his words of wisdom. Many others came in need of healing. Jesus reaches out to them in several different ways. He cures the sick and calms the countless souls who are searching for God. Jesus feeds these people, satisfying them and making them ready for the journey of faith and life.

Reflection Questions

1. What does the term 'Real Presence' mean to you?
2. Name the ways in which Jesus is revealed to you when you gather for the mass.
3. What do you hunger and thirst for?
4. What are your hopes?
5. Does the Eucharist offer you strength? Why or why not?
6. Is the Eucharist central to your faith?
7. What does it mean that Christ offered his body and blood for you?
8. Does risen Jesus' presence in the Eucharist change the way that you look at your life and the future?
9. How are you challenged to encounter Christ outside the Eucharistic celebration?

Today's gospel is a reminder to us that Jesus constantly meets people on the holy ground of their individual lives. He embraces their fragility and tries to encourage them in their weakness and hunger. If we truly open ourselves in faith, Jesus can embrace our fragility and our brokenness. We just have to trust that Jesus is there for us. If each one of us can honestly admit that we have a deep hunger for God in our lives, it is then that God can fill us with the food of hope, the bread come down from heaven, the food for our journey into everlasting life!

During our liturgy, Christ himself is present in you and in those around you, who have gathered in his name. The presence of Jesus breaks into the world through the ministry of the Word, and through the breaking of the bread. Let us remind ourselves of the importance of the Eucharist today and pray that we make it an important part in our journey through life. Let us also pray that we will be ready to receive the Real Presence of Christ under the form of bread and wine and to seek His presence in the gift of one another.

Voices of Faith

Blessed, Broken & Given

Hungry souls follow the Christ
To a deserted place hoping for grace
The teacher, preacher and friend
Looks on to feed their body and souls

Food blessed, broken and given
From the hands of One come down from heaven

At the Passover Meal family and friends look on
As their Master and Lord hands on
The Bread of deliverance and Cup of Promise
This is my body and blood of the Covenant he passes on

Food blessed, broken and given
From the hands of One come down from heaven

Dejected followers walk away from the Holy City
On the day of empty tomb of which they saw no promise
A stranger joins them along the way to Emmaus
With hearts burning and eyes open they recognize him in the blessed and broken

Food blessed, broken and given
From the hands of One come down from heaven

And so through time and space
Saints and sinners alike are brought to a sacred grace
Where Christ's presence is made known
In the sacrament of the present moment

Prayer

We pray: Lord of Life, let us hunger for the food that only you can give. When we gather in your name, let us come to your table and be satisfied. As we receive from your table, may your precious body and blood heal us and bring us ever closer to you and to one another. Amen.

Food blessed, broken and given
From the hands of One come down from heaven

From Cathedrals tall and humbled walls
The priest enables Christ to live on
As souls gather to worship to offer humble song
Their ears take in God's Holy Word, their souls, God's Holy Food

Food blessed, broken and given
From the hands of One come down from heaven

Man comes to the edge of eternity
As he endures the trials of life
"This is my body...this is my blood"
A reminder of the promise

Food blessed, broken and given
From the hands of One come down from heaven

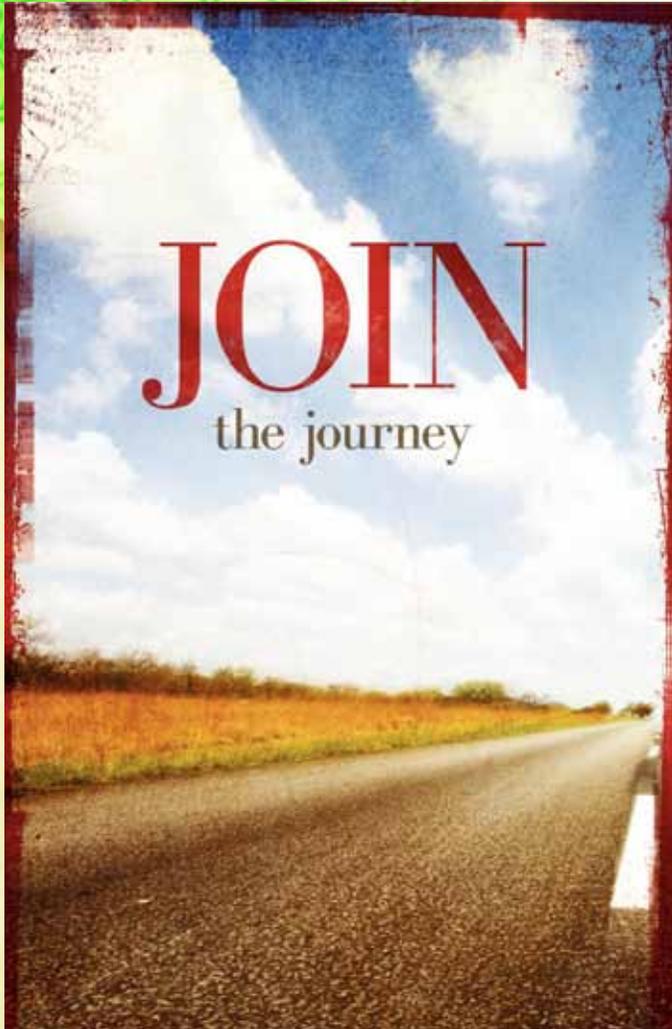

And so Man is given food for the journey
As Christ goes with him to the end of time
In turn he must go forth to others
To feed them with this love divine

Food blessed, broken and given
From the hands of One come down from heaven
