Elma McCaughey, Mission Coordinator, brings St. Lucia to Naples

Over 75 women gathered in fellowship for the last Faith and Wine event of the season on Tuesday, May 22. “Me...A Missionary? Seriously?” offered the ladies of Faith and Wine the unique opportunity to hear how parishioners from around the Diocese of Venice are responding to those in need by generously giving of their time, talent and treasures.

Elma McCaughey, Mission Coordinator for the Diocese of Venice Mission Office since 2006, presented an informative and touching evening by sharing her experiences – both verbally and pictorially – with the people of St. Lucia. She also described the many ways that people can get involved with missionary work – by making a mission trip to St. Lucia with priests and youth from the Diocese to help “the poorest of the poor” or simply by participating in the Diocese’s “Mission Clothe Me” by donating children’s clothing or shoes which will be sent to St. Lucia. Many of the women attending the event brought donations for this worthy cause.

Ms. McCaughey gave the women of Faith and Wine a special treat via an interactive video conference with two missionaries currently serving in St. Lucia: Sister Annie Carm, a Corpus Christi Carmelite nun who works in the Marian Home for the Elderly, and Sister Anthonia David, who joined the Dominican Missionaries of N.D.D. and is the Administrator of the Holy Family Children’s Home providing temporary housing for children who are abandoned, orphaned, neglected,

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

June 3, 2012

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I come to you, once again, regarding the U.S. Health and Human Services (HHS) mandate. As you recall, despite religious and moral objections, the mandate still requires all employers to provide, through their health insurance plans, abortion-inducing drugs, sterilization and contraceptives. Unfortunately, the government has continued to defend this egregious violation of religious liberty, despite the outrage of Catholics, Protestants, Jews and other people of good will.

Most recently, 12 lawsuits were filed by 43 Catholic institutions from around the country stating that this radical, unprecedented infringement on religious liberty will not be accepted. After all, this great nation was founded upon religious liberty and freedom of conscience, not government intrusion. The government has overstepped its role by forcing upon the Church a strangling definition of what makes an institution "religious" enough. Members of the Catholic Church are being treated like second-class citizens with second-class rights. Nobody should be forced to violate their deepest moral or religious convictions!

First and foremost, as your Bishop, I ask that you continue to pray and fast so that policymakers who have influence over the mandate will have a change of heart. These prayers must also be turned to action. This past Sunday, Pentecost Sunday, reminds us that the Holy Spirit descended upon the Apostles and strengthened them in Christ. As Scripture states, many of those Apostles were later martyred. While possibly not called to be martyrs, we are called to be doers and defenders of the Faith. Let us send the message, loud and clear, that the Church will neither tolerate government intrusion nor will it be coerced into a political agenda!

Now is the time for action! Two rallies for religious freedom, as part of a nation-wide effort, will be held in the Diocese of Venice, both on Friday, June 8 at 12:00 noon. One is being held in Sarasota at the corner of U.S. 41 and the John Ringling Causeway, and the other in Naples at the corner of Pine Ridge Road and Highway 41. Having spoken at the March Rally in Sarasota, I will be speaking at the Naples Rally. It would be good to see you there. If Naples is too far, go to Sarasota, where a priest will speak on my behalf.

It was inspiring to hear of the positive response from the reading of my first letter to you on the issue of religious freedom. Your presence is needed now! And your voice must be heard! It is time for action! My brothers and sisters in Christ, let us be united. If we do not act, this intrusion into our basic rights and freedoms will go unchecked, and who knows what might be next.

This opportunity is taken to extend to all of you my continued consideration and prayers.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

or abused. The Sisters, both registered nurses, shared their stories of why they entered the Lord's service and some of the challenges they have encountered helping the people of St. Lucia.

"Both these women have ignited a fire within me to want to do more for the poor people, not only in St. Lucia, but globally," said Ms. McCaughey.

Faith and Wine President, Mary Beth Clary, commented: "While it was sobering to see how people who live relatively close to us do without the things we take for granted every day, it makes us appreciate even more what God has given to us and provides the motivation we need to help those less fortunate. The Catholic missionaries who devote their lives to improving the lives of others deserve our support and encouragement."

particularly those working in the Caribbean islands of Jamaica, St. Lucia and St. Vincent. Missionary groups are invited into the Diocese of Venice each year to speak on behalf of the work they do in the Mission fields in hopes of bringing awareness and raising funds to further their work. At the same time, the Mission Office strives to educate the faithful with a particular emphasis on school children, about the role of the missionaries in the Catholic Church.

What is the HHS Mandate?

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) recently issued a mandate requiring all employer health plans to include free abortion-inducing drugs, sterilizations and contraceptives, regardless of any moral or religious objections. The HHS Mandate is an unprecedented assault on religious freedom and must be opposed!

Cenacle of Life Prayer Group Meets Weekly on Tuesday Evenings in Adoration Chapel

Been thinking about what more you can do to prayerfully change the Culture of Death? Unable to pray for an end to abortion on Mondays outside the Naples Planned Parenthood facility? Consider joining the Cenacle of Life prayer group in the St. John the Evangelist Adoration Chapel on Tuesday evenings, 6:00 p.m. to 6:45 p.m.

"A great prayer for life is urgently needed!" exhorted Blessed Pope John Paul II in Evangelium Vitae. The national Cenacle of Life movement arose in response. Cenacle members gather weekly for 45 minutes to pray 10 mysteries of the Rosary in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament and fast one day a week on their own, either on bread and water or by means of some other small sacrifice.

"This kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer and fasting." - Mk 9:29.

Please call the parish office for the code to the Chapel.

"Could you not keep watch with me one hour?"

Please join Fr. John, Fr. Len, Fr. Kelly, our deacons and your fellow parishioners in our prayer vigil at Planned Parenthood every fourth Monday of the month to pray for the unborn babies, mothers in crisis and all who work there. For more information call Rosemary at 597.3941.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops offers six facts regarding the Health and Human Services regulations on mandatory coverage of contraceptives, sterilization and abortion-inducing drugs.

The federal mandate is much stricter than existing state mandates. HHS chose the narrowest state-level religious exemption as the model for its own. That exemption was drafted by the ACLU and exists in only three states (New York, California, Oregon). Even without a religious exemption, religious employers can already avoid the contraceptive mandates in 28 states by self-insuring their prescription drug coverage, dropping that coverage altogether, or opting for regulation under a federal law (ERISA) that pre-empts state law. The HHS mandate closes off all these avenues of relief.

See additional facts in upcoming bulletins.

The first five of ten new granite benches arrived this past week and are now in place. This includes the two final benches in the Prayer Garden, two in the Memorial Garden and one immediately outside of the Prayer Garden. There are still two benches available for purchase if you would like to honor or memorialize a loved one. The next order of five benches will arrive later in June. If you would like to purchase a bench within the next week or so, I can most likely have it included in the next delivery. The cost is $3,000.00 and includes engraving for as many characters as you would like.

Did you see the story in the Naples Daily News on May 10 regarding the use of iPads at St. John Neumann High School? There was also a subsequent story on NBC. St. John Neumann is one of the first schools in Collier County to have a school wide iPad learning program that provides one iPad for every student and every faculty member. St. John Neumann raised more than $33,000 to purchase the iPads. The 200 high school students can rent an iPad for $300 a year. The cost includes insurance and electronic textbooks. They will own the latest version of the iPad by their senior year. In other words, upon graduation, they will be given an iPad to take with them. The students will not be allowed to use personal iPads because the school's device will be connected to a network that gives teachers controls to prevent cheating. The iPads will be used for virtually everything - lesson plans, homework and even exams.

As a result of this new initiative, Andy Sanfelippo (St. John Men's Club President) met with Sr. Patricia Roche (Principal of St. John Neumann) to discuss the program and offer assistance. Many of the students are unable to afford the $300 required to rent the iPad annually. This past week, Andy presented a check for $3,000.00 to Sr. Patricia intended to assist 10 deserving students. This is a wonderful way for our parish to support Catholic education through the work of our very active and incredibly generous Men's Club. Thank you to the Men's Club for all you do for the parish and Catholic community.

In addition to the attached picture of Andy presenting the check, I have also included links to the stories in the Naples Daily News and NBC regarding this innovative program, which I am sure will ultimately be adopted by other schools in Collier County..

After an exhausting interview process, we have hired a new Director of Youth Ministry. For three weeks in May, a committee including, Fr. John, myself, numerous parents, youth and George Smith (DOV Director of Youth Ministry) interviewed twelve very qualified candidates from all around the United States. After going through several youth ministers in the past few years, we felt it important to perform a very thorough search to find the perfect (long term) fit for our parish. As luck would have it, we ended up selecting someone from our own backyard. Below is a bio of Bill Maguire. He is extremely well qualified and very dynamic. In addition, he relates incredibly well with the youth.

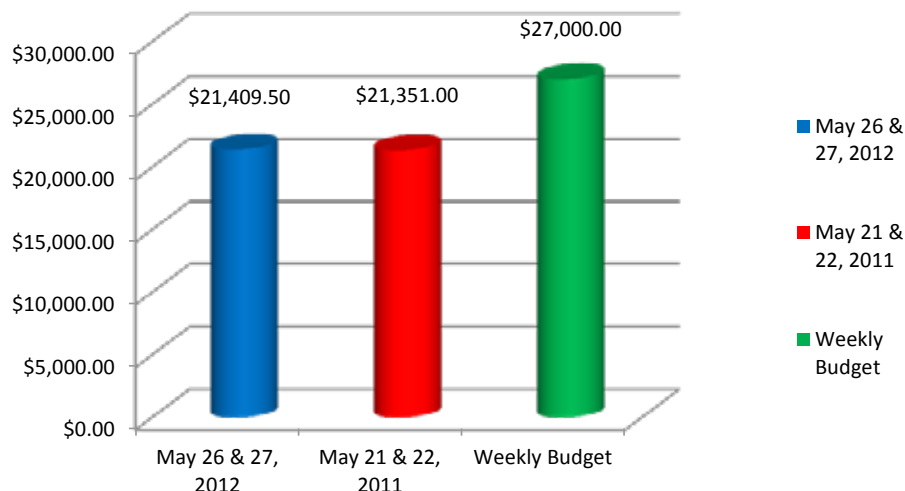

Bill Maguire is a cradle-Catholic from Northern Virginia. Like many young people in the 80s, however, Bill drifted away from the Church. This experience of trying to find happiness apart from Christ led to a growing sense of restlessness and the desire to find something more. When he encountered the teachings of Bl. John Paul II, he found that "something more" — and his life was changed forever.

Convinced that evangelizing young people was his life calling, Bill chose to pursue a deeper study of the New Evangelization and to how reach the hearts of young people with the Gospel. He received his Master's Degree in Theological Studies magna cum laude from the John Paul II Institute (Washington, D.C.) in 1999. Since then, Bill has worked with young people in various capacities, including: high school theology teacher (St.

Petersburg Catholic); youth minister (Cathedral of St. Jude, St. Petersburg); campus ministry (Ave Maria University); adjunct theology instructor (Ave Maria University).

Bill brings great enthusiasm and excitement to his new position as Director of Youth Ministry at St. John the Evangelist. He is sincerely looking forward to meeting all the young people, families and parishioners of St. John. Bill has a great sense of humor and believes that faith and fun — far from being a contradiction — are both essential to developing a genuine, life-giving relationship with God. As Bl. John Paul II once asked: “Do you think there can be anything greater than bringing Jesus to people and people to Jesus?”

Bill lives in Naples with his three beautiful children: Zoe (12), Maddie (10) and Will (8).

Finally, I had to include one last picture of Nate, Ella and Mia preparing to tear into their cakes at their First birthday party!

The Word & Life

A Boundless Love (Matthew 28:16-20)

*T*he discerning student of the Sacred Scriptures realizes that divine revelation contained within the biblical texts is all about the right relationship. From the beginning of time until present day, God has continually revealed himself to the world and invites us into a relationship with Him. The model of the right relationship that God gives us is to be found in the Trinity. As we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, we are reminded of the boundless generosity of God. God is to be found in the gift of Creation. The Father makes himself known to humanity and desires to enter into covenant with us. As humanity strived to know

God, sin entered into the equation and broke the covenant. Man's inhumanity to man separated him from God. The Father in heaven does not give up on His desire for the relationship and so gives of Himself by offering us the Son. Jesus restores this lost innocence by sacrificing himself for our sins and gives us an everlasting covenant in his blood. When Jesus returns to the kingdom from which he came, he bestows the gift of the Holy Spirit upon the Church, to continue his saving work.

The generous self-giving nature of God is still with us today. Every time we gather for worship, we acknowledge our belief in three divine persons, but one God, as we begin in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Each person of the Trinity enables us to explore and appreciate the dimensions of God's unfailing love. While the Trinity remains a mystery, God's presence is not hidden from us. God continues to touch us on various levels. At baptism we are baptized in the

Reflection Questions

1. How does the mystery of the Trinity inspire you?
2. Do you truly accept God as Father?
3. In what way does the sacrifice of God's only Son inspire you to sacrifice for God?
4. How does the Holy Spirit lead you into the mystery of God?
5. Have you allowed yourself to enter into communion with God and others?
6. Do your personal relationships reflect the nature of God's generosity?
7. How does the Blessed Trinity inspire you to live in harmony?

name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Jesus in the great commissioning of Matthew's gospel gives the disciples the task of making his presence known through their teaching. One of those ways is by immersing people into the waters of baptism and into the divine life of God. Christ's message is still proclaimed. Christ's commandment of love continues to challenge all of us when we are faced with different situations. We are reminded through the proclamation of the gospel that one day we will stand before the Father in heaven to give a full account of life. The Holy Spirit continues to inspire us and to solidify Christ's presence through the gift of the Eucharist and through the Mystical Body of Christ.

The Most Holy Trinity teaches us how we can give of ourselves. God's love for us knows no bounds. Likewise, our love for God should know no bounds ~ neither should our love for one another. The nature of the Trinity is a positive encouragement for those who are married. Each person of the Trinity complements the other. The function of each person of the Trinity is different, yet points to the same nature of God. In marriage, couples are called to become one and complement one another through the gift they have to offer.

People who live in the single state or lead a life of ministry can also draw strength from the selfless giving nature of the Trinity. As we all strive to know God in our given vocation, let us remind ourselves that God is to be experienced in many varied ways!

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings with Fr. John J. Ludden, Pastor

Wisdom of the Fathers

On this Sunday that follows Pentecost, we are celebrating the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. Thanks to the Holy Spirit, who helps us understand Jesus' words and guides us to the whole truth (cf. Jn 14: 26; 16: 13), believers can experience, so to speak, the intimacy of God himself, discovering that he is not infinite solitude but communion of light and love, life given and received in an eternal dialogue between the Father and the Son in the Holy Spirit - Lover, Loved and Love, to echo St Augustine...

...Those who encounter Christ and enter into a friendly relationship with him welcome into their hearts Trinitarian Communion itself, in accordance with Jesus' promise to his disciples: "If a man loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him" (Jn 14: 23)...

...All beings are ordered to a dynamic harmony that we can similarly call "love". But only in the human person, who is free and can reason, does this dynamism become spiritual, does it become responsible love, in response to God and to one's neighbor through a sincere gift of self. It is in this love that human beings find their truth and happiness...

...Among the different analogies of the ineffable mystery of the Triune God that believers are able to discern, I would like to cite that of the family. It is called to be a community of love and life where differences must contribute to forming a "parable of communion".

— Pope Benedict XVI (Angelus Address on the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity, 2006)

Prayer

We pray: We praise and thank you, God our Father, Son, and Spirit, for all that you have given us. Inspire in us the spirit of generosity in which you make yourself manifest to the world. At the dawning of each new day may we learn to be generous to one another. Amen.

Parishioner Brian Ullrich Receives Scholarship Award to Attend St. John Neumann High School in the Fall

Since the inception of the scholarship programs in 1984, St. Vincent de Paul Society Naples District Council has awarded just under $2,000,000 to Catholic students who want to attend Catholic schools, and who qualify for financial assistance. This year, the Naples Council received 97 applications and will support 26 students during the 2012-2013 academic year for a total of $90,875 toward tuition next year at Catholic schools.

St. Vincent de Paul Society Naples District Council funds three different scholarships to students at three Catholic schools in Collier County. Each of the scholarships is named in memory of a Board member who supported Catholic education.

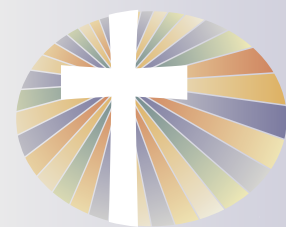

Lawrence F. Mills Award, which began in 2006, is given to a student from each of three Catholic schools who exemplifies outstanding service to the community. Each is nominated by the student's respective school. In addition to a monetary award, the student receives a plaque at the school's award ceremony. Three local students are recipients of this year's Lawrence J. Mills scholarships from the St. Vincent de Paul Society Naples District Council. They are Brian Ullrich, Naples, FL, a senior at St. John Neumann High School who plans to attend Bellarmine University, Louisville, KY, in the fall; Makayla Conner, Naples, FL, an 8th grade student at St. Elizabeth Seton School who will attend St. John Neumann High School in the fall; and Darcee Bowe, Naples, FL, an 8th grade student at St. Ann School who will attend St. John Neumann High School in the fall. Brian is a St. John the Evangelist parish member.

A second scholarship, the Martin J. Carter Scholarship was awarded for the first time in 2005. This memorial scholarship requires the student to be a member of St. Peter the Apostle Parish and a minority who is recommended by the Pastor and the school principals. The scholarship provides full tuition and is renewable each year as long as the student maintains an appropriate GPA. Only one elementary and one high school scholarship are awarded per year.

The third scholarship, the Martin J. Cuniffe Scholarship is need-based and awarded to elementary and high school students from the seven Catholic parishes who hope to attend St. Ann, St. Elizabeth Seton or St. John Neumann Schools. Often this scholarship makes the difference as to whether or not a student can attend a Catholic school. One high school student from St. John the Evangelist parish received a need-based award. Congratulations to all of the award recipients, their schools and parents.

In addition to scholarships, the Naples Council provides personal assistance for rent, utilities, clothing, household items, food, bicycles, etc., as well as the largest Meals On Wheels program in Collier County. For more information or to donate to the scholarship program, please visit the website at www.stvincentdepaulonline.org or call 239.775.1667.
