Why Should I Give to Catholic Faith Appeal (CFA)?

The Catholic Faith Appeal (CFA) is the yearly invitation to come together as a Diocese and support programs and outreach in Southwest Florida. Gifts to the CFA respond to a broad range of needs and, consequently, help bring the Diocese together as a Community of Faithful.

Please see pages 4 and 5 for more information about CFA.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH

Sacrament of Baptism. The Diocese requires that parents seeking baptism for their child attend a baptism preparation class. To schedule a baptism class, please call the office at (239) 566-8740.

Sacrament of Matrimony. Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice. Tricia Schwarz: tricia@sjecc.com.

Anointing of the Sick/Funeral Arrangements. Call the parish office. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

The Korean war was raging. A little village came under heavy artillery fire. In the village stood a Catholic church. Outside the church, mounted on a pedestal, was a fine statue of Christ. However, when the smoke of battle cleared away, the statue had disappeared. It had been blown off its pedestal and lay in fragments on the ground.

A group of American soldiers helped the priest to collect up the fragments. Carefully they put the statue together again. They found all the pieces except the hands. They offered to fly the statue back to America and have hands made for it, but the priest refused.

“I Have a better idea,” he said. “Let’s leave it without hands. And we’ll write on the pedestal the words: FRIEND, LEND ME YOUR HANDS. In that way, passers-by will come to see that Christ now has no hands but ours with which to raise up the fallen; no feet but ours to seek out the lost; no ears but ours to listen to the lonely; no tongue but ours to speak words of comfort to the lonely.”

This little incident brings out very well the message of today’s Gospel. Jesus involved the apostles in His work. He shared His divine mission with them. He gave them His own authority and power. No doubt they made mistakes, which is not surprising considering they were ordinary men.

Amos was a simple shepherd (First Reading). Yet God sent him to preach a message of repentance to his people. Most of the apostles were fishermen. Yet Jesus didn’t hesitate to share His work with them. Even more surprising – the day came when He entrusted His entire work to them.

Many in authority have a fear of involving people in a work, especially so-called ordinary people. Hence, people are left with the feeling that they have nothing to contribute. It is good for people to be involved. It makes them responsible. It gives them an opportunity to use their talents. It builds up a community spirit.

But sometimes people don’t want to be involved. It’s easier to leave it to the experts. The practice of leaving it to the professionals is very common today. Thus, all healing is left to doctors and nurses. All teaching is left to teachers. All the work for the poor is left to the Government or the Vincent de Paul Society.

Of course experts are needed for specialized jobs. But the non-specialist too has a lot to contribute and often has a warmer heart. The sick have as much need of companionship as of medicine. The old need someone to spend time with them. The young need someone to show an interest in them. This is work we all can do. It does not call for any expertise – only a caring heart.

The Bible starts with the story of how God made human beings partners in the work of creation. And Christ made His disciples partners in the work of salvation. A great responsibility has been laid upon us. A great honor has been conferred on us. We are responsible for God’s world and for one another. We are stewards of creation. We are co-workers with Christ.

Catholic Faith Appeal

Each year, St. John the Evangelist Parish and the Diocese of Venice appeal to you to contribute to the Catholic Faith Appeal (CFA). The CFA is the collaboration of 61 Catholic Parishes in Southwest Florida to better serve and protect the poor, neglected, forgotten, and outcast in our region by assisting with the Mission of the Diocese of Venice, including Catholic Charities. Your contribution helps us to work together to feed the hungry, house those in need, educate the young, and grow the faith by supporting those called to vocations. But how are CFA goals set? And why is it a smart way to support the Parish?

How are CFA goals set?

The CFA is funded by all Parishes with an equal assessment (goal) of 26% of Parish ordinary income in the previous year. The smallest Parishes with under $200,000 annual income are assessed 10%. CFA contributions are not subject to the assessment. If the Parish needs to dip into savings of ordinary income to meet this assessment, it unfortunately means that monies already subject to the assessment are being used.

Why is CFA a smart way to support our Parish?

Parishioner participation in achieving the CFA goal is extremely important. Surprisingly, participation in our Parish has been low – 19% of Parishioners last year, 16% YTD this year. As a comparison, other Parishes achieve participation in the high 20's to high 30's. They also exceed their goal very comfortably. Looking at our neighboring Parishes, the four Parishes closest to us averaged 126% achievement last year. Why is this beneficial to those Parishes? The Diocesan CFA structure allows for any excess in goal achievement up to 25% to be returned to the Parish free from assessment. This is why successful Parishes set their CFA goals at 125% of the assessment given to them. Now you know why we are targeting 40% participation this year!

Think of the incredible work we can do at St. John the Evangelist with these additional unassessed funds!

We ask that you prayerfully consider giving to the CFA to help us meet or exceed our goal! Checks should be made out to: The Catholic Faith Appeal with the memo line "Saint John the Evangelist Catholic Church". You can also give online directly on the Diocese website: dioceseofvenice.org/ways-to-give/cfa/. Please remember to choose "St. John the Evangelist Parish in Naples" in the Designation choice. Contact Colleen Donnelly, our Operations Manager, or Karen Beebe, our Bookkeeper, if you need assistance with a CFA gift.

FORMED: Catholic Programming for the Entire Family!

Do you have our Free FORMED app? We are so blessed to have the support of our parish that has granted us unlimited FREE access to this AMAZING Catholic Programming. There is really something for everyone! Much like many of the Streaming Apps out there, this APP can be added to your phone, laptop, or smart TV if you have APPLE TV, ROKU, or HULU. With the many programming options for families today, it is nice to have Catholic programming that offers great choices for families.

If you haven't explored the FORMED app before, please give it a try! There are movies, bible studies, family faith formation, music, and prayers just to name a few. Many of the programs are also available in Spanish. We are approaching our annual renewal time and currently have about 225 families registered as using this app in our parish! It would be great if we could double our participation by August 1st to really reap the value of such a great offer for our parishioners and families. You may notice that we often place in the bulletin the PICK OF THE WEEK highlights from this app to showcase some of the favorites that are trending. We would love to hear from families what YOUR favorites along with a few words so that we can have a "Parishioner Pick of the Week." Feel free to email natalie@sjecc.com with your thoughts about this programming and if you would like to see it continue to be made available through our parish.

Here are some picks for young children for the summer! As with any programming, parents know best and may want to preview the programming or watch together with their child.

For Toddlers and Preschoolers: Totally Toddlers

Learn the Alphabet with Jesus! A is for Angel. A fun and colorful interactive approach to learning!

For Kindergarten through 3rd Grade: Adventure Catechism

Journey with Brother Francis as he answers questions in short videos like, "Who Made the World and Everything in it?" and "Who Is Jesus?" Brother Francis also has other cartoons that explain many beautiful aspects of our faith.

For Older Elementary Children: The Saints and Heroes Collection

Heroes of the Faith. The Stories of real-life Saints & Christian Heroes all come to life in CCC of America's award-winning animated film series. Featuring authentic role models today's child can truly believe in.

Scripture Readings

Reading I Am 7:12-15

Amaziah, priest of Bethel, said to Amos, "Off with you, visionary, flee to the land of Judah! There earn your bread by prophesying, but never again prophesy in Bethel; for it is the king's sanctuary and a royal temple." Amos answered Amaziah, "I was no prophet, nor have I belonged to a company of prophets; I was a shepherd and a dresser of sycamores. The LORD took me from following the flock, and said to me, Go, prophesy to my people Israel."

Responsorial Psalm Ps 85:9-10, 11-12, 13-14

R. (8) Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

I will hear what God proclaims; the LORD —for he proclaims peace. Near indeed is his salvation to those who fear him, glory dwelling in our land.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

Kindness and truth shall meet; justice and peace shall kiss. Truth shall spring out of the earth, and justice shall look down from heaven.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

The LORD himself will give his benefits; our land shall yield its increase. Justice shall walk before him, and prepare the way of his steps.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

Reading II Eph 1:3-14 or 1:3-10

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens, as he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish before him. In love he destined us for adoption to himself through Jesus Christ, in accord with the favor of his will, for the praise of the glory of his grace that he granted us in the beloved. In him we have redemption by his blood, the forgiveness of transgressions, in accord with the riches of his grace that he lavished upon us. In all wisdom and insight, he has made known to us the mystery of his will in accord with his favor that he set forth in him as a plan for the fullness of times, to sum up all things in Christ, in heaven and on earth.

In him we were also chosen, destined in accord with the purpose of the One who accomplishes all things according to the intention of his will, so that we might exist for the praise of his glory, we who first hoped in Christ. In him you also, who have heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and have believed in him, were sealed with the promised holy Spirit, which is the first installment of our inheritance toward redemption as God's possession, to the praise of his glory.

Gospel
Mk 6:7-13

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick—no food, no sack, no money in their belts. They were, however, to wear sandals but not a second tunic. He said to them, “Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave. Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them.” So they went off and preached repentance. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

Are You Interested in Becoming Catholic?

Perhaps this is the time for you to “come and see” what Jesus has to offer you in the Catholic way of life.

RCIA is a process designed to prepare adults to come into full initiation of the Catholic Church, and be an integral part of the loving community of Saint John the Evangelist and the universal Catholic Church.

The RCIA Journey is for those:

- Never Baptized
- Baptized in another Christian tradition
- Baptized Catholic as an infant, but not raised as a Catholic or received additional Sacraments

We invite you to ask your questions about the Catholic Faith and the RCIA; to explore the beauty of sacred Scripture and Catholic tradition to develop a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. We invite you to inquire with no obligation.

To Our Parish Family: Encourage and invite your family members, friends, co-workers, or others to “come and see” and ask their questions about the Catholic faith.

For more information, please contact:

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault,

through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word
and my soul shall be healed.

Verse 1)

From the highest of heights to the depths of the sea
Creation's revealing your majesty!
From the colors of fall to the fragrance of spring
Ev'ry creature unique in the song that it sings,
All exclaiming: (to Chorus, below)

Verse 2)

Who has told ev'ry lightning bolt where it should go
Or seen heavenly storehouses laden with snow?
Who imagined the sun and gives source to its light
Yet conceals it to bring us the coolness of night?
None can fathom: (to Chorus, below)

In - de - scrib - a - ble, un - con - tain - a - ble; You placed the stars in the sky, and You know them by ___ name. ___ You are a - maz - ing, ___ God; ___ All ___ pow - er - ful, un - tam - a - ble. Awe - struck, we fall to our knees as we hum - bly pro - claim ___ You are a - maz - ing, ___ God. ___

Preparation Song

Servant Song

Sr. Donna Marie McGargill, OSM

Verse 1) What do you want of me, Lord? Where do you want me to serve you? Where can I sing your praises. I am your song. Jesus, Jesus, you are the Lord. Jesus, Jesus, you are the way.

Verse 2) I hear you call my name, Lord, and I am moved within me. Your Spirit stirs my deepest self. Sing your songs in me. Jesus, Jesus, you are my Lord. Jesus, Jesus, you are the way.

Verse 3) Above, below, and around me. Before, behind and all through me your Spirit burns deep within me. Fire my life with your love. Jesus, Jesus, be warmth of my heart. Jesus, Jesus, you are the way.

Verse 4) I am your song and servant, Singing your praises like Mary. Surrendered to your spirit Let it be done to me! Jesus, Jesus, let it be done to me! Jesus, Jesus, you are the way.

Verse 1) Who breaks the power of sin and darkness? Whose love is mighty and so much stronger? The King of Glory, the King above all kings Verse 2) Who shakes the whole earth with holy thunder? Who leaves us breathless in awe and wonder? The King of Glory, the King above all kings Verse 3) Who brings our chaos back into order? Who makes the orphan a son and daughter? The King of Glory, the King above all kings Verse 4) Who rules the nations with truth and justice, Shines like the sun in all of its brilliance? The King of Glory, the King above all kings Chorus) This is amazing grace. This is unfailing love, that you would take my place, that you would bear my cross. You laid down your life that I would be set free. Jesus, I sing for all that you've done for me.

Join us for our monthly Encounter on the Mountain: A Holy Hour of Praise and Adoration moving to First Fridays from August-June!

Please note that our next Encounter will be on Friday, August 6, 2021 at 7pm in the church or watch online at sjecc.com.

Our theme of the night is "He Restores My Soul." This Holy Hour will be filled with Praise and Worship music, silent prayer, and a reflection speaker. We will also have confessions available throughout the evening. This is a beautiful way to spend time with Lord for First Friday Praise and Adoration and open your heart to allow Him to restore and transform your heart.
