A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

The sixth chapter of the Gospel of Mark begins with a series of questions. The people gathered in the synagogue who had been listening to Jesus as He taught were astonished at His wisdom. Because of this, they started asking questions about Him. While we do not know what He was preaching to them, it must have been quite profound, because they were astonished that the words came from the carpenter, the son of Mary. Scripture tells us that His listeners recognized that the wisdom of Jesus was a gift, and they acknowledged that He had performed mighty deeds, but who was He? They wanted to know.

This passage from the Gospel of Mark is quite revealing. Those gathered in the synagogue must have been familiar with Jesus because they began to name His family – Mary His mother, His brothers, James and Joseph, Judas and Simon. They even mention His sisters. It is important to note that this identification as brothers and sisters must be taken within the context of the time and language in which Jesus was living. These "brothers and sisters" would be more like extended family, perhaps cousins. This passage in no way contradicts the truth that Mary conceived Jesus by the Holy Spirit and that she had no additional children.

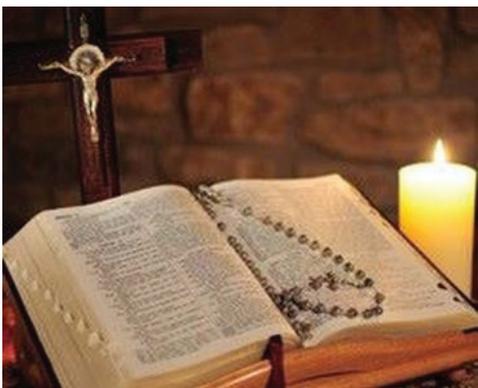

The crowd, initially, was very taken with the authority in which Jesus proclaimed the Scripture. It was when they tried to reconcile how He could do so as a carpenter's son that their admiration turned to animosity. They took offense at Jesus. It is not unreasonable to assume that He had worshipped with them, and now He was clearly being set apart as a prophet. Their questions indicate a lack of faith, because they, no doubt, had been witnesses to His earlier words and deeds. In spite of this, they had trouble accepting that the carpenter could be the Chosen One. Some who knew Jesus and lived in His community doubted who He was. The Incarnation continues to be a challenge for many even today, more than 2,000 years later.

For those of us who "walk by faith, not by sight," there is a recognition that the Incarnation was a beautiful event, a real moment in time. We are here today because we believe in Jesus, even though we never shook His hand or heard his human voice. We are here because we believe in God's Word, the Tradition of the Church, and the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. We believe in the personal encounter we have with Jesus in every sacrament. Our faith is strong, and it carries us through all of our trials in life.

But in the life of every Christian, we are, at times, like the people in the synagogue. We ask questions about Jesus. If you are among those who have stood at the foot of the cross and pondered His death, that does not mean you lack faith. But it is important to remain faithful on our journey of seeking greater awareness of Christ.

We, too, may at times be puzzled by the carpenter, Mary's son, but we are blessed in our knowledge of the Resurrection. This is something the synagogue audience could not have known.

Due to the lack of faith Jesus encountered on that day, Scripture tells us that He was unable to do all He could have. He cured a few sick people when He put His hands on them, but it is apparent that their lack of faith was an obstacle to their receiving the fullness of his words and deeds. Jesus Himself acknowledged this when He told the people that a prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house. As we prepare to receive Jesus in our hearts and in our homes, let us recall these words and welcome Him in great faith.

Catholic Faith Appeal

Help Us Reach 40% Participation in Serving the Community Through the CFA

The Catholic Faith Appeal, or CFA, is the collaboration of 61 Catholic Parishes in Southwest Florida to serve and protect the poor, neglected, forgotten, and outcast in our region by assisting with the Mission of the Diocese of Venice, including Catholic Charities. Our generosity supports Catholic Education and Seminarians, as well as to feed, clothe, and provide shelter to the marginalized, the aged, and the unborn.

While we have met our goal in years past, it has been through the efforts of a small minority of our Parish Family. We have set a goal for our Parish to double our previous level of participation and have over 40% of our Families contribute this year. Please prayerfully consider how you can give to increase our participation for these worthy efforts. If we exceed our goal, those funds would be returned to the Parish, so every dollar counts.

We ask that you prayerfully consider giving to the CFA to help us meet or exceed our goal! Checks should be made out to: The Catholic Faith Appeal with the memo line "Saint John the Evangelist Catholic Church." You can also give online directly on the Diocese website: dioceseofvenice.org/ways-to-give/cfa/. Please remember to choose "St. John the Evangelist Parish in Naples" in the Designation choice. Contact Colleen Donnelly, our Operations Manager, if you need assistance with a CFA gift.

Scripture Readings

Reading I Ez 2:2-5

As the LORD spoke to me, the spirit entered into me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me: Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, rebels who have rebelled against me; they and their ancestors have revolted against me to this very day. Hard of face and obstinate of heart are they to whom I am sending you. But you shall say to them: Thus says the LORD GOD! And whether they heed or resist—for they are a rebellious house—they shall know that a prophet has been among them.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 123:1-2, 2, 3-4

R. (2cd) Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

To you I lift up my eyes who are enthroned in heaven—As the eyes of servants are on the hands of their masters.

R. Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

As the eyes of a maid are on the hands of her mistress, So are our eyes on the LORD, our God, till he have pity on us.

R. Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

Have pity on us, O LORD, have pity on us, for we are more than sated with contempt; our souls are more than sated with the mockery of the arrogant, with the contempt of the proud.

R. Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

Reading II 2 Cor 12:7-10

Brothers and sisters: That I, Paul, might not become too elated, because of the abundance of the revelations, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, an angel of Satan, to beat me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I begged the Lord about this, that it might leave me, but he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.” I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses, in order that the power of Christ may dwell with me. Therefore, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and constraints, for the sake of Christ; for when I am weak, then I am strong.

Alleluia Cf. Lk 4:18

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, for he sent me to bring glad tidings to the poor.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Mk 6:1-6

Jesus departed from there and came to his native place, accompanied by his disciples. When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished. They said, “Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him? What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands! Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?” And they took offense at him. Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house.” So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith.

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters,
that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof,
but only say the word
and my soul shall be healed.

Verse 1)

Great is your faithfulness, O God
You wrestle with the sinner's restless heart
You lead us by still waters into mercy
And nothing can keep us apart

Chorus)

For your grace is enough, your grace is enough
Your grace is enough for me!

Pre-Chorus)

So remember your people, remember your children
Remember your promise, O God

Verse 2)

Great is your love and justice, God of Jacob
You use the weak to lead the strong
You lead us in the song of your salvation
And all your people sing along (to pre-chorus)

Closing Song

America, the Beautiful

MATERNA, Samuel Ward / Katherine Bates

America the Beautiful O beautiful for spacious skies, For amber waves of grain, For purple mountain majesties Above the fruited plain! America! America! God shed His grace on thee, And crown thy good with brotherhood From sea to shining sea!

O beautiful for pilgrim feet Whose stern impassioned stress, A thoroughfare for freedom beat Across the wilderness! America! America! God mend thine every flaw, Confirm thy soul in self-control, Thy liberty in law!

O beautiful for heroes proved In liberating strife, Who more than self their country love And mercy more than life! America! America! May God thy gold refine Till all success be nobleness, And every gain divine!
