MASS INTENTIONS...

A Boy Scout Is Helpful

Recently two of our Boy Scouts had the opportunity to demonstrate one of the tenets of the Boy Scout Law by helping one of our parishioners with her gardening. On a recent Saturday morning, Zachary Gaydos and Ryan McNichols volunteered to help Mrs. Dolores Crowley plant flowers and spread mulch.

Mrs. Crowley was happy with their work, and in gratitude made a contribution to assist their efforts of paying their own way to summer camp. In addition, the boys had the benefit of meeting and helping someone in our parish community. It was a win-win for everyone!

Troop 226 recently held and had the pleasure of Mrs. Crowley attending our inaugural Court of Honor. A Court of Honor is a Boy Scout ceremony held three times a year to recognize the boys' accomplishments for the preceding period.

In just a few short months, the boys of Saint John the Evangelist Troop 226 have achieved ranks, completed their first merit badges, camped, and helped the parish community.

We look forward to seeing how these boys will grow as they do their duty to God and country!

Death Penalty Prayer Scheduled for Vigil Thursday, July 10

How much do you love? Do you live out Our Lord's command "love your enemies?" On Thursday, July 10 you will have an opportunity to do just that. Eddie Wayne Davis is scheduled to be the seventh person executed by lethal injection here in the State of Florida in 2014. You are invited to participate in a prayer vigil for Mr. Davis, his victim and the affected families, as well as for an end to the use of the death penalty.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (#2267) states "If, instead, bloodless means are sufficient to defend against the aggressor and to protect the safety of persons, public authority should limit itself to such means..." This is not a call to acquit the guilty, rather it is a call to love as Christ loves, to love even the guilty and seek their conversion. Such charity is a powerful Catholic witness in an increasingly violent and hate-filled society.

For more information and to find the prayer vigil closest to you, contact Jeanne Berdeaux at Berdeaux@dioceseofvenice.org or Matthew Caes at Caes@dioceseofvenice.org or call the Diocese at 941.484.9543.

Theology on Tap July 17

Theology on Tap will return to the Diocese of Venice this summer with new locations, format and frequency. "Theology on Tap" begins July 17, 7:00 p.m. at San Pedro Catholic Church in North Port for six consecutive weeks. George L. Smith, Director of Young Adult Outreach will be the first presenter in the series entitled "Why be Catholic?"

All young adults 18-39 years old are invited to attend. Babysitting will be available for young couples. Contact George Smith at gsmith@dioceseofvenice.org to RSVP for the event.

#ToKnow – Who Do We Follow? A Pastor

Pope Francis used the historical context of Jesus' time to illustrate how the Catholic Church can change the discourse of our (and all) faith. He discussed why the people of Jesus' time were excited and listened to his message of joy and love, rather than the other groups that reduced religion into their own "moralistic quibbling":

These, the Pope said, "were the voices that reached the people, and none of these voices had the power to warm the hearts of the people – But Jesus did! The crowds were amazed: They heard Jesus and their hearts were warmed. The message of Jesus reached to the heart." Jesus, Pope Francis said, "approached to the people," He "healed the heart of the people," He "understood their difficulties." Jesus, he continued, "was not ashamed to speak with sinners, He went out to find them," Jesus "felt joy, He was happy to be with His people." And this is why Jesus is "the Good Shepherd," the sheep hear His voice and follow Him:

"And this is why the people followed Jesus, because He was the Good Shepherd. He wasn't a moralistic, quibbling Pharisee, or a Sadducee who made political deals with the powerful, or a guerrilla who sought the political liberation of his people, or a contemplative in a monastery. He was a pastor! A pastor who spoke the language of His people, Who understood, Who spoke the truth, the things of God: He never trafficked in the things of God! But He spoke in such a way that the people loved the things of God. That's why they followed Him." – Pope Francis 6/26/2014 (<http://www.news.va/en/news/pope-francis-who-do-i-like-to-follow>)

#ToKnow, #ToServe – Together as One Church: We Are St. John

Our Holy Father may be wearing our Parish Mission very soon as we have sent him the bracelet you may have seen in the bulletin and on the wrists of many of our parishioners and staff. He continues to speak the truth about how our faith and our church should communicate and work together spreading the joyous news of our love:

Dear Brothers and Sisters: In our catechesis on the Church, we have seen that God gathered a people to himself in the Old Testament and in the fullness of time sent his Son to establish the Church as the sacrament of unity for all humanity. God calls each of us to belong to this great family. None of us become Christians on our own; we owe our relationship with God to so many others who passed on the faith, who brought us for Baptism, who taught us to pray and showed us the beauty of the Christian life: our parents and grandparents, our priests, religious and teachers. But we are Christians not only because of others, but together with others. Our relationship with Christ is personal but not private;

by Jean-Paul Boucher
Director, Family Mission
& Communications
jp@saintjohntheevangelist.com

it is born of, and enriched by, the communion of the Church. Our shared pilgrimage is not always easy: at times we encounter human weakness, limitations and even scandal in the life of the Church. Yet God has called us to know him and to love him precisely by loving our brothers and sisters, by persevering in the fellowship of the Church and by seeking in all things to grow in faith and holiness as members of the one body of Christ. – Pope Francis 6/25/2014 (http://w2.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/audiences/2014/documents/papa-francesco_20140625_udienza-generale.html)

Verse 1) Did you feel the mountains tremble?

Did you hear the singers roar when the lost began to sing of Jesus Christ, the saving One?

The Word & Life

Knowing God Through Child-like Wonder

*M*ost of us have spent time with children, and when observing them we sometimes find that their little minds are off in another world. Babies look at the world with wonder and gaze intently on the realities before them. We often hear parents say, “I wonder what is going through their little mind!” To watch children play is to recognize that life is such a wonderful adventure waiting to be explored and celebrated. Children do not build up walls — they simply trust. When a child has a disagreement with another child, you will find them playing with that same child five minutes later. Children simply accept that God has created the world and is there to watch over them.

As a child progresses through adolescence and grows into adulthood, this idyllic view of life slowly begins to erode and walls are erected. We teach our young that the world is not such a safe place at times and rightly so. However, we also teach the young, through example, that love can be conditional and forgiveness is not so easy. Human beings often transmit their hurts and resist the risk of letting go. No matter how hard we try, children pick up this way of life and slowly build up the walls that block them from one another and from God.

In today’s gospel, Jesus is pointing out that we cannot rely on our own reason alone. When we concentrate on our needs and attitudes exclusively, we miss the signs of God’s presence in our lives. Feelings of hurt, anger, resentment, and rejection hold onto us if we do not learn to let them go. Jesus praises God for the fact that the little ones are more inclined to the experience of God than are the wise and the learned. What does he mean? Jesus is pointing out through unconditional trust, like that of a child, that God can be present to them offering them comfort and strength. Jesus goes on to invite those who are hurting and burdened by the hardship that the world imposes, to find rest in him. He urges those of us who find his gospel challenging, to let go of the unnecessary things and to embrace

Reflection Questions

1. What do you think Jesus meant by his reference to revealing things to the little ones?
2. How does Jesus reveal his Father’s will?
3. In what ways did Jesus relieve the burdens of people?
4. What was the yoke that Jesus was referring to?
5. What is the most significant thing that Jesus has revealed to you?
6. In what ways do you have childlike trust when approaching your faith?
7. What burdens do you bring to Christ?
8. How do you embrace the “yoke” Jesus is referring to?

what is necessary to find true happiness and peace. Jesus is inviting us to look at the world with wonder once again and to view the world through the eyes of a child. The child does not complicate forgiveness and is willing to let go and move on with conflict. A child surrenders to the mystery and says yes to the God they cannot see.

As we gather for the mass each Sunday, we come with our own stories. Many of us come with much to celebrate. Yet, there are many who come with tremendous burdens. Life can throw so much at us at times in terms of problems with relationships, health, family, and work. Bad things can happen to good people — things that are out of their control. When we find ourselves in this situation, we are invited to become “childlike” in our faith and fully trust that God is there for us. This involves an act of surrender — abandoning ourselves and our lives to the God who brings us hope. May we always be mindful of such surrender each time we place ourselves before the altar of God.

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings with Fr. John J. Ludden, Pastor

Prayer

Lord, our lives are in your hands. Take from us the fears and anxieties that can take away our confidence in your presence. Help us approach you in childlike wonder, exploring the wonderful things that you have given to us. Amen.

Wisdom of the Fathers

“A saying of Jesus in the Gospel of Matthew speaks to us: “Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.” (Mt 11:28). Life is often wearisome, and many times tragically so. We have heard this recently... Work is tiring; looking for work is exhausting. And finding work today requires much effort. But what is most burdensome in life is not this: what weighs more than all of these things is a lack of love. It weighs upon us never to receive a smile, not to be welcomed. Certain silences are oppressive, even at times within families, between husbands and wives, between parents and children, among siblings. Without love, the burden becomes even heavier, intolerable. I think of elderly people living alone, and families who receive no help in caring for someone at home with special needs. “Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden,” Jesus says.

Dear families, the Lord knows our struggles: he knows them. He knows the burdens we have in our lives. But the Lord also knows our great desire to find joy and rest! Do you remember? Jesus said, “... that your joy may be complete” (cf. Jn 15:11). Jesus wants our joy to be complete! He said this to the apostles and today he says it to us. Here, then, is the first thing I would like to share with you this evening, and it is a saying of Jesus: Come to me, families from around the world — Jesus says — and I will give you rest, so that your joy may be complete. Take home this Word of Jesus, carry it in your hearts, share it with the family. It invites us to come to Jesus so that he may give this joy to us and to everyone.”

St. John Needs YOU...As a Catechist!

Have you ever wanted to enliven the spirit of our youth with your knowledge and joy of our faith?

Have you aspired to strengthen the faith of others around you (and in doing so, may strengthen your own)?

Have you felt the Holy Spirit inside you, and wanted to share that joy and happiness?

If you have felt any yearning to engage your faith in a deeply engrossing and tangible way, becoming a Catechist may be just what you are looking for. The role of a Catechist is to teach the faith of the Catholic Church both by word and by example. At Saint John the Evangelist that translates to our Faith Formation program, where youth from pre-kindergarten through tenth grade are instructed and inspired to learn, love, and live our faith.

We are looking for joyous and engaging men and women who would love to teach the future of our Church what we believe and why we believe it.
