Altar Servers Train on New Mass Procedures

The Saint John Altar Servers have been working very hard on some new processes to be included in Masses starting September 7. Over 50 Altar Servers (including 15 brand-new "Apprentices") attended training in August. More sessions will continue through the month of October to assist the Servers with practicing these new procedures. Here are a few tidbits of the new activities you will see starting in September:

- Priests, Deacons, and Servers will no longer stand in the back of the church before Mass. They will process from the Sacristy to begin the Mass, which will make it easier for all parishioners to get to their seats.
- Servers will hold the Missal for the Priest for the Opening Prayer.
- Servers will be responsible for preparing the altar for the Priests and Deacons.
- Servers will start their recession once the last hymn begins. They will come down from the Altar and wait for the Priests and Deacons.
- Server will be given the opportunity to grow and take additional responsibilities for the parish. There will be three levels of Altar Servers to allow for this growth.

Apprentice Servers will not perform any services during the Mass, but will watch the other Servers to learn and become comfortable by sitting behind the altar and other Servers. Junior Servers will participate fully in the Mass. Senior Servers will mentor the Junior Servers and provide additional direction and leadership.

- New Altar Server vestments have been ordered to replace the blue albs. Altar Servers will now wear white cassocks with their crosses. Wooden crosses will be worn by Junior Altar Servers and pewter crosses will be worn by Senior Altar Servers.

Thank you all for your continued encouragement and support of the Altar Servers. It makes them beam with pride that you all give them such wonderful feedback.

If you and your children are excited about an opportunity to join in the Altar Server Ministry, or if you have questions, contact Jean-Paul Boucher at: jp@saintjohntheevangelist.com.

Grief Support Schedule for September - October

Support for those suffering the loss of a loved one will be held in the Parish Life Center on Tuesdays, September 10 and September 24.

The seven-week sessions which focuses on a specific area each week will be on Tuesdays, October 8, October 15, October 22, October 29, November 12, November 19 and November 26. The Support Group will meet at 10:00 a.m. in room 1 of the Parish Life Center. For more information, call Dee at 594.7193.

Veterans Day Mass at National Cemetery

Bishop Frank J. Dewane will celebrate Veterans Day Mass, Monday, November 11, 3:00 p.m. at Sarasota National Cemetery, 9810 State Road 72 in Sarasota (five miles east of I-75). All priests, deacons and faithful are invited to attend and participate in honoring the men and women who have served our country and are serving us today.

Ministry Spotlight

The Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion assist the clergy in the distribution of Holy Communion within the Catholic community of St. John the Evangelist so as to ensure that all Catholics, within the parish boundaries, desiring to receive Holy Communion are offered that opportunity at least weekly.

The Extraordinary Ministers distribute Holy Communion and The Blood of Christ at the Mass, and distribute Holy Communion to the sick at North Collier Hospital and at nursing homes and to the homebound.

In bringing our faith to a fellow parishioner they do something good for themselves as those assisting the clergy experience tremendous joy, pride and reverence.

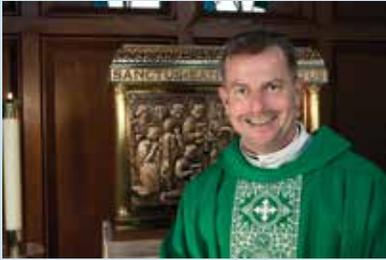

“It has been my honor and a privilege to be a Extraordinary Minister at St. John for almost 13 years. When I first became an extraordinary minister, it was really because of my mother and father. I had moved to Naples from Massachusetts, and although I traveled north to visit as much as possible, I thought I could honor them by visiting one of our local nursing homes. I could visit and offer the Holy Eucharist to the residents. I love offering Holy Communion to my fellow brothers and sisters during Mass. I look into their eyes and know they are receiving God’s greatest gift. I especially find joy when a former first grade Sunday school student comes forward to receive the body or precious blood of Jesus.” — Sylvia DeFeo

The ministry of The Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion welcomes new members, seasonal or full time. The schedule is flexible and Eucharistic Ministers may choose to distribute Holy Communion at Mass or to the homebound or sick. There is a short training session. Anyone interested in learning more or who wants to join the ministry should contact Tricia at 566.8740.

Extraordinary Minister Shirley Bender distributes the Blood of Christ to a parishioner at daily Mass.

SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH

Sacrament of Baptism

The Diocese requires that parents seeking baptism for their child attend a baptism preparation class. To schedule a baptism class, parents must be registered practicing members of St. John's for a minimum of two months. Classes are offered once a month and baptisms are celebrated on the first and third Sundays of each month after the 1:00 p.m. Mass. Please call the parish office to register for a class. Upon completion of the class and fulfillment of the godparent requirements, parents may schedule a baptism date.

Sacrament of Matrimony

Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice.

Anointing of the Sick/Funeral Arrangements

Call the parish office 566.8740. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

Spiritual Adoption Program Continues With Month Five

The Spiritual Adoption Program is heading into the fifth month. Your commitment is to pray a short prayer daily through Christmas.

MONTH 5 - Developing Baby — “Mommy felt me kick today!”

Your spiritually adopted baby weighs over one pound now, and his mother can feel his movement. Before this time he was too small for her to feel. Although he swam with ease in his watery world, he needed to be big and strong enough to kick hard against the outside wall and dent it — the inside wall of the uterus has little feeling. We are mid-way through the pregnancy now. Your prayers have helped your baby’s mother continue with her pregnancy and seek the help she needs.

The next Novena of Masses for Life at St. John will be Wednesday, September 25 at 8:30 a.m. This Mass will be celebrated in special observance of the life of Jesus in the womb of our Blessed Mother. For a complete schedule of the Novena of Masses for Life, check the diocesan website at: www.dioceseofvenice.org/respectlife.

Happy 100th Birthday, Eleanor McDonald!!

Eleanor T. McDonald will be celebrating her 100th birthday on August 27. Eleanor has attended and loved St. John’s for many years. She resides in Bonita Springs. Her son and daughter-in-law, Jim and Carolyn McDonald and grandson, James E. McDonald III reside in Naples. Her daughter, Barbara Webb, lives in Akron, Ohio. A party is planned for Eleanor at her home in Vanderbilt Lakes.

Eleanor’s secret to long life is that she has faithfully said the rosary every afternoon — all of her life. She has a real devotion to the Blessed Mother.

Hospital Ministry Needs New or Used Rosaries for NCH

Volunteers who serve in the Hospital Ministry need additional rosaries — new or used — for distribution to North Collier Hospital patients on Immokalee Rd. When visiting the patients, the volunteers hand out rosaries to the sick patients, including adults and children, and to the new moms as well.

If you would like to donate a new or used rosary, you may drop off the rosaries at the parish office or leave the rosaries in the Altar Server Room in the back of church. The Hospital Ministry and NCH patients thank you for your generosity.

Bible Story Time Starts Monday, September 9

LET US PRAY...

AUGUST 25, 2013 ~ TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Did you know that St. John the Evangelist will celebrate a major milestone in the month of October? Our parish was canonically established On October 3, 1988, which means we will celebrate our 25th Anniversary this year. Obviously at this time, Masses were held in the Naples Park Elementary School Cafeteria. The first Mass in the Church was celebrated on Christmas Eve in 1992. The church was dedicated on March 14, 1993. Believe it or not, there are still numerous parishioners who have experienced all 25 years of this parish's history. Plans are not yet confirmed, however, we will be doing something to recognize this milestone.

We are constantly striving to enhance our buildings and grounds so that they look as nice as possible. For those who have attended an event recently in the Parish Life Center, you may have noticed that the artificial trees which are placed around the perimeter have certainly seen better days after 16 years of use. In addition, the wall sconces have begun to discolor (and fall apart) and do not look very good. As a result, we have replaced the dated sconces with an up-to-date and more aesthetically pleasing version. We have also replaced all of the trees and pots with broad leaf trees that seem to have more of a presence among the very high ceilings in the ballroom. In addition, we have created grouping of the trees which look much better than a stand-alone tree. We hope that you enjoy the new addition to our ballroom.

This week (and next) you will see a substantial jump in the Catholic Faith Appeal statistics. Our data entry employee was out of town for an extended period and three weeks' worth of CFA contributions were not recorded. We should be back on track now moving forward for the remaining four months of the appeal. It is imperative that we reach our goal and with your help, I am confident that we can do so. Please notice that we are only $80,000.00 shy of our goal. If you are able, please consider making a pledge or contribution to the Catholic Faith Appeal. Please make your check payable to the CFA with St. John the Evangelist in the memo line.

Paver crews were onsite this past week mud setting the granite markers in those sections of the memorial garden where the grass was removed. Although it looks rough right now, once the sod is reinstalled and becomes established, you will see the true beauty of the garden appear. We have completed mud setting the markers in the K of C section (13) which is located in the northwest corner of the garden as well as section 14 which is immediately adjacent. If you would like to see a finished product, then look at either of these two sections. It really looks great with all the markers consistent, in line and at the same level. Thanks for your continued patience while we complete this process.

Thank you to all of our parishioners for your incredible generosity during the two weeks of Undy Sunday. There were literally bags of undergarments anywhere and everywhere. Representatives from Catholic Charities were ecstatic at the turnout from St. John the Evangelist. If surrounding religious establishments replicated our efforts, then many of those children in Collier County needing assistance will certainly receive the necessary undergarments to go back to school. Thanks again!

In His work together,

Scott Schlossberg, MBA
General Manager

Rice School Adult Faith Formation Starts Sept. 5

The Rice School is sponsoring a series of one-hour sessions which will provide participants with an attempt to highlight saint feast days; themes from Scripture and Church traditions; and liturgical seasons as they appear in the Church's calendar.

The intent is to heighten the participant's ability to "journey through the year with the Church," stopping to think, pray, and reflect.

The first session will be Thursday, September 5, from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. All following classes will be on Wednesdays (beginning September 11) from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m.

In addition to the Rice School library in Arcadia, where the classes will originate, the faithful can participate through video-conferencing at any of the following parishes within the Diocese: St. Agnes in Naples, St. Martha in Sarasota, St. Leo in Bonita Springs, Our Lady of Grace in Avon Park, Our Lady of Light in Fort Myers and Our Lady of Mercy in Boca Grande. For a class schedule, please visit www.riceschool.org, or for more information please contact Natalia Juyzn at 941.766.7334, ext. 17, or email registrar@daystar.net

Catholic University of America Collection Next Weekend

Support the National Collection for the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. which takes place next weekend, September 1. The Catholic University of America is unique as it is the National University of the Catholic Church and is the only higher education institution founded by the U.S. Bishops and chartered by the Vatican providing an academically rigorous education guided by Catholic intellectual tradition to 7,000 students every year, and has a special responsibility to educate future leaders of our Church and our nation.

Saint Ann School Teachers to Attend Diocesan Conference in Sarasota

Twenty-five of our Saint Ann School educators will be attending the Diocesan Education Conference on August 26 in Sarasota. The featured topic is "Implementation of the Common Core", focusing on the new national education standards. Other sessions include topics like Middle School Science and Social Studies, Reading and Writing, iPads in the classroom, English, and Test Interpretation. Our teachers look forward to learning a lot about new trends in education at this annual conference sponsored by the Diocese of Venice.

v.1) I see the King of glory coming on the clouds with fire
The whole earth shakes, the whole earth shakes;
I see his love and mercy washing over all our sins
The people sing, the people sing: (to chorus)

v.2) I see a generation rising up to take their place
With selfless faith, with selfless faith
I see a near revival stirring as we pray and seek We're on our knees, we're on our knees: (to chorus)

Chorus

Ho - san - na, ho-san - na, ho san-na in the high - est.
Ho-san - na, ho-san - na, ho - san-na in the high - est.

Bridge) Heal my heart and make it clean, open up my eyes to the things unseen;
Show me how to love like you have loved me.
Break my heart for what breaks yours, everything I am for your Kingdom's cause
As I walk from earth into eternity

Verse 1) Everyone needs compassion,
Love that's never failing; let mercy fall on me.
Everyone needs forgiveness,
The kindness of a Savior, the hope of nations:

Verse 2) So take me as you find me,
All my fears and failures; fill my life again.
I give my life to follow
Everything I believe in, now I surrender: (to Chorus)

Sav - iour, He can move the moun - tains. My God is might - y to save. He is might - y to save. For - ev - er, Au - thor of Sal - va - tion. He rose and con - quered the grave. Je - sus con - quered the grave.

Bridge) Shine your light and let the whole world see, we're singing for the glory of the risen King, Jesus.
Shine your light and let the whole world see, we're singing for the glory of the risen King!

THE ADULT CHOIR WANTS YOU!

That's right—the fantastic Adult Choir of St. John the Evangelist is looking for you to join us as we begin our year of singing—including Masses, special events, and concerts—as we prepare for our pilgrimage and tour to Ireland next September!

Who, me? I'm not the world's best singer. We'll take anyone who is willing to learn and wanting to be a part of a special ministry of praise. We don't even have an audition, so no need to get nervous!

Does it take a lot of time? No—just a couple hours twice a week. We rehearse Wednesdays (starting September 4th) from 6 to 8 PM. Then we reconvene on Sundays, 45 minutes before either the 9 or 11 Mass, warm-up, do some last minute practicing, pray, and go “make a joyful noise”!

I have another question you haven't thought of yet. Please give Tom or Ellie a call—or just come talk to us after Mass some time!—or find any choir member—we'd love to talk more about it with you!

The Word & Life

A Courageous Walk Through the Narrow Gate

In the course of history, humanity has witnessed how countless individuals try to make their faith exclusive and absolute. We have all witnessed in our contemporary history how people will go to great lengths in proving a point for their faith. When we look at the current crisis of the threats of terror, where Muslim extremists are prepared to blow themselves up in order to teach the infidels of the world a lesson, we know how people can make absolute their convictions about their individual faith. Such people believe that their ‘martyrdom’ will solidify their place in paradise. Similarly, there are some within the Christian community who honestly believe that recent natural disasters and diseases are God’s punishment upon those who have not accepted Jesus as their personal Lord and Savior. In the Church’s history we have witnessed how people were led to their deaths because of their denial to accept certain truths. Whenever we encounter such radicalism, faith becomes obscured and the reality of God’s mercy and compassion is forgotten.

In the gospel today, Jesus is approached with the question, “Lord, will only a few people be saved?” The questioner was most probably a Jew who would have believed that only his race was beloved in the eyes of God. Such exclusivity would have been shared by the contemporaries of his day. Jesus’ response shows that he is not necessarily concerned with numbers but rather the choices people would make in the course of their lives. He tells the inquisitive person and the other listeners to strive to enter the kingdom through the narrow gate of God’s mercy and compassion. To bear a particular faith identity was not enough to secure salvation in Jesus’ name. He uses the image of the master of a house who refuses admittance to those outside because he did not recognize them. The people who stand knocking at the door remark that they should be known through their sharing a meal with the master. However, such an encounter is not adequate to create a lasting impression where he would remember them. Jesus then surprises his listeners by telling them the kingdom will be inherited, not only by the Jews, but also by the Gentiles from the four corners of the earth. Jesus also remarks that if the chosen refuse to accept him, they will be last to enter the kingdom. For the Gentiles who were offered his message and accept it, will inherit the kingdom and become God’s elect.

As we listen to God’s Word today, we are being taught a profound reality. There is a special dignity enjoined on all us who bear the name “Christian”. This by no means gives us the right to view ourselves as better than those who may be outside the faith. Our membership in the Church is not exclusive; rather it is a gift that is to be handed on to others. The conditions of our membership are demanding. We

Reflection Questions

1. What does the narrow gate signify to you?
2. Have you been exclusive in the way you view your faith?
3. How are you being asked to participate in the reality of the gospel?
4. In what ways does God hold you accountable for the gospel?
5. What do you think you must do to inherit everlasting life?
6. Consider who are excluded in the world today. How are you being asked to offer them a place of belonging?

are asked, by Christ, to enter the narrow gate. Each one of us is helped through this narrow opening through our efforts to do what is just and right. Our hunger for justice, equality, compassion, and concern, help us to walk through the narrow way. We are led to the threshold that admits us into the kingdom of God's joy by the experiences we have forged in our lives and in the way we have reflected God's wisdom. This requires conversion of heart each and every day where we internalize the virtues of charity and holiness. Each one of us is asked to include all those around us when we discern how we are to be converted. Our participation in salvation history and our membership in the Church should never be taken for granted. All of us are asked to be aware of the special vocation given us by God and to be accountable for the gospel challenge which calls us to love all peoples.

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings with Fr. John J. Ludden, Pastor

Prayer

Lord, help us to understand what it means to enter the narrow gate. Lead us in the ways of salvation. Help us to be truly compassionate as we seek to enter into your way of love and concern. May we soon be restored to a way of life that brings us security and peace. Amen.

Voices of Faith

The Narrow Gate

Heaven exists through the narrow gate
 Where pastures are forever green
 Where restful waters replenish souls
 Where the Cup of Life brims over to quench every thirst
 Where the protection of God will remain forever undisturbed
 Where love and truth will meet; justice and peace will kiss

For to heaven possess is offered to every woman and man
 Who is courageous enough to follow God's plan
 The gate through which one enters stands straight and tall
 Narrow is its width which gives birth to the freedom for all
 Men, women, and children must cast off burden wide
 To dance through gate of salvation where love and mercy abide

Straight is the path of salvation's dawn
 Paved by the footprints of disciples daring to risk
 Open to love and courageous enough to walk the road less traveled
 Christ has shown us the way
 Leading all to the edge of eternity
 Where Lazarus is poor no longer - the place eternal rest

The half seekers with eyes wide shut
 Will call on God in the midst of their rut
 Half committed to life as gift
 From the divine will their minds will shift
 In pretensions and shadows they do live
 Refusing to receive the Giver of the Gift

The challenge is set for disciples all
 To hear God's wisdom and heed his call
 With hearts wide open and old ways left behind Men and women will enter the kingdom - those once blind
 To change a heart on the journey - our God wants to see
 For that is why His only Son died on Calvary

A Program of Adult Faith Enrichment

Catholicism for Catholics presents... Pillars: A Journey through the Catechism

A groundbreaking series that unpacks the riches of the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Every Wednesday beginning September 11th from, 6:00 pm —
7:30 pm in the Seminar Room until December 4th

The Catechism of the Catholic Church is the first universal Catechism since the council of Trent in 1566. Pillars: A Journey through the Catechism is the first systematic guide to this most amazing book.

The Creed is a 12-part study that guides participants through the first of the four Pillars of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. Pillar I: The Creed provides the foundation needed to begin the four-part journey through the complete Pillars series. The Creed opens up the structure of the Catechism and shows how it is far more than a list of “faith facts,” but instead a sure map for their journey of faith.
