CATHOLIC CHURCH

April 10, 2011

Fifth Sunday of Lent

“Families in Christ” Focuses on “The Man Born Blind”

“Families in Christ” continues to be an overwhelming success with another large turnout Sunday, April 3. Fr. John led the group in prayer and the Gospel, while Matt Laboda acted as the Master of Ceremonies. The April session, the last one of the season, focused on the Gospel, “The Man Born Blind,” the Mission Backpack Program and Shadow Stations of the Cross.

Sacrament of Matrimony

Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice.

Anointing of the sick/funeral arrangements

Call the parish office 566.8740. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

Mass Cards

Selections of cards are available in the parish office.

Mass Intentions

We are currently accepting intentions for 2011 & 2012.

Altar Flowers and/or Host & Wine

We have 2011 & 2012 availability. Call or visit the office to offer the wine and host and/or the altar flowers in memory or in honor of your loved ones.

Sacraments of the Church

Sacrament of Baptism

The Diocese requires that parents seeking baptism for their child attend a baptism preparation class. To schedule a baptism class, parents must be registered practicing members of St. John's for a minimum of two months. Classes are offered once a month and baptisms are celebrated on the first and third Sundays of each month after the 1:00 p.m. mass. Please call the parish office to register for a class. Upon completion of the class and fulfillment of the godparent requirements, parents may schedule a baptism date.

For Happily Married Couples

Why not give yourselves a weekend away from it all. Time away from the pressures of routine, work and everyday responsibilities; a chance to talk and listen to that special someone who loves you. If that sounds good to you, sign up now for a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend. Make your good marriage great!

The next weekends in this diocese are July 22-24 in Fort Myers and November 4-6 in Sarasota.

Wanted: Missionaries

The next scheduled mission to our sister parish, St. Pius X, in Kingston, Jamaica, will take place May 25-30, 2011. The primary purpose of this trip is to conduct pre-school physicals on four and five year olds who will start school at DuPont Primary next fall. RNs and LPNs are particularly welcome but we can put anyone to work, checking eyes, height, weight, and simply helping the children be where they're supposed to be, as well as entertained.

If you are interested and have a valid passport, please call Ann Kerns at 514.1553.

Applications for St. Vincent de Paul Society Scholarship Due April 15

St. Vincent de Paul Society Naples District Council will once again award $3,500 Martin J. Cunniffe Scholarships for students in need of financial help who attend a Catholic high school during the 2011-2012 academic year. Also awarded will be $3,000 elementary school scholarships for students to attend one of our local Catholic elementary schools.

Families of all recipients must be active parishioners.

For an application, call 775.1667 and ask Linda. Final deadline for completion and receipt of all applications is April 15, 2011.

SCOTT'S CORNER

Our beautiful new Votive Candle Stands were installed on Wednesday afternoon, March 30. Since that time, I have been absolutely amazed at the response. Who knew that so many would light candles for their special intentions. Obviously, the Blessed Mother has had the majority of the activity, but St. John the Evangelist has had his fair share. This is a very welcome addition to our church, and I am thrilled that so many are taking advantage of the opportunity. One parishioner commented that in the past they would drive to St. William to light a candle as we did not have any here. On behalf of the entire parish, I would like to thank the generous family that donated the Votive Candle Stands.

Nearly 1,000 expected for Parish Appreciation Day

After changing the format of our International Festival to Parish Appreciation Day, we now have tentative reservations for nearly 1,000 guests this Sunday. I look forward to seeing everyone this weekend to thank you for all you do for this amazing parish.

Did you know that we have an author in our midst? Joan Driscoll Lynch has been a parishioner at St. John the Evangelist since 2003. She is a Professor Emeritus and former chair of the Communications Department at Villanova University. Joan has authored a Novel entitled “Women of the Passion.” The days and weeks after the crucifixion and resurrection were both an exultant and a harrowing time for His followers. Even as they were assured of their faith, they feared for their lives. And the women who were some of the early leaders of the church were in just as much danger as the men. “Women of Passion” places readers squarely in the middle of those dramatic days through the eyes of the women who walked with Christ: Mary, his mother, Mary Magdalene, Susanna, and Joanna, among others. Inspired by Scripture and deepened by historical research, the novel gives readers the opportunity to walk in the shoes of a group of women who let faith guide them when times seemed darkest. A fast-paced narrative that puts readers in the midst of the events, this book makes the characters real and the events immediate. The novel is available in our Religious Gift Shop for $15.00.

I would like to thank Thomas and Sondra Sheehan for their very generous donation of a new candle stand which will adorn the Altar. Sondra is a current RCIA candidate and has been so touched by the RCIA program and Parish that she felt inclined to do something during this Lenten season to show her appreciation. She further wishes to thank Margie Lynch for her dedication and support during her RCIA journey. Let us all pray for Sondra as she is welcomed into the Catholic Church on Saturday April 23.

We are in the final stretch with regards to the Paniccia Prayer Garden. As of this past Wednesday, only four Stations of the Cross remained. Another parishioner came forward and purchased a Station and a bench in the Memorial Garden. Also, a very generous family that spends only three weeks a year in Naples wanted to purchase a Station to honor their family. This leaves Stations I, VII, IX and X. In an effort to have all of the remaining Stations sold by Easter, may I offer the following option. Consider purchasing a Station with another family and share the cost. Two families may come together and honor or memorialize their loved ones. The dedication plaque will simply list the names of both families rather than one. If this option is of interest to you, please contact me at 566.1678 to arrange an appointment. Stations of the Cross are $7,500.00. We would like to have all of the Stations of the Cross spoken for by the end of season so that we may order the granite, break ground and have the grand opening by the end of the year.

Update: I neglected to mention the size of the miniatures as well as their composition in last week's bulletin. All of the pieces will be approximately 11" tall with a width and depth of approximately 5". They are composed of resin stone which is crushed marble and stone mixed with a clear resin. Timothy is still sculpting the pieces so exact dimensions are not possible at this time. As soon as the clay renderings are completed, I will publish pictures in the bulletin. Do you enjoy the new statues of Mary and St. John the Evangelist? Are you mesmerized looking at the beautiful crucifix while sitting in Mass? You can now have all three of these beautiful pieces in miniature form for your home or office. Our sculptor, Timothy Schmalz, is creating miniature replicas of all three pieces which we will offer for sale at $35 each. There are very limited quantities (200) of each piece. If you would like to pre-order yours, please contact Natalie at Natalie@saintjohntheevangelist.com. We are expecting delivery in mid to late September.

Don't forget that Bishop Frank Dewane will be the guest speaker at Faith and Ale this coming Wednesday in the PLC Ballroom. See the flyer in this bulletin for further details.

Please consider making a donation to the Easter Spiritual Bouquet so that the Arts and Liturgical Environment Committee may furnish the church and Altar with beautiful flowers this Easter season. Any excess funds will be used to keep the Altar decorated year round. If you are unable to locate a Spiritual Bouquet envelope, please tear out the sample on page 12 of the bulletin. Thank you in advance for your prayerful consideration.

Thank you so much for supporting St. John the Evangelist.

In His work together,

Shaun Greening Serving on Finance Council

Hello, my name is Shaun Greening, and I have recently begun serving on the Finance Council. I will also represent the Finance Council on the Pastoral Council.

I was born and raised in Wellington, New Zealand. I met my wife Jane, who was born in Ohio, in New Zealand after she had completed a semester at Sydney University in Australia. We were married in New Zealand in 1988. After living in London, Denver and Tampa, we moved to Naples in 2000 and have been parishioners of St. John the Evangelist since that date. We have four children, Zachary, 15, Joshua, 11, Caleb, 9, and Isabel, 7. Joshua and Caleb are altar servers and attend Faith Formation classes with Isabel. Zachary participates in the High School Youth Ministry. All of our children have been home-schooled since 2006. We also have a dog named Lucy.

I have worked for Beasley Broadcast Group, Inc. here in Naples since the company completed its initial public offering in 2000. I currently serve as a Vice President and am responsible for all external financial reporting, tax compliance and internal controls. I previously served as an Audit Manager for KPMG in Tampa. I am a graduate of Victoria University of Wellington in New Zealand and hold a CPA license from the State of Colorado.

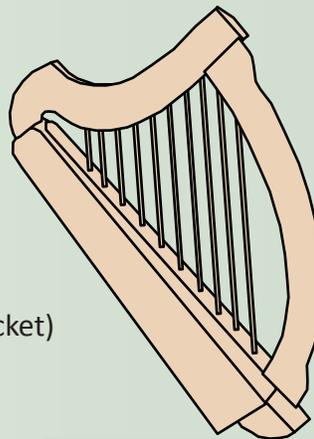

I spend my free time helping home-school our children and on the soccer fields in Naples and Southwest Florida. I coach several teams and help run the Optimist Club of Naples Soccer Program with my fellow parishioner John Dina and our wives. I also volunteer with Junior Achievement at Naples High School.

OUR PARISH LENTEN PROJECT: MISSION BACKPACK UPDATE 840 Backpacks!

We are happy to report that just four weeks into our Parish Lenten Mission project, we have secured 840 backpacks to take to the children of the Caribbean Islands! As our goal of 1000 backpacks draws near, we are happy to accept as many backpacks as we can! Our challenge now will be to make sure that each backpack is filled with all of the supplies on our list below. So please keep the supplies coming! We have been busy sorting the supplies in our “production room” as we prepare to pack and tag the backpacks. For those of you wishing to make a monetary donation, your checks may be made payable to St. John the Evangelist, with Mission Backpack in the memo line. Thank you for your continued generosity!

Spotlight on Stewardship: The Ladies of Charity

The Ladies of Charity of St. John the Evangelist, Naples, held their new officers' installation ceremony and investiture of 14 new members at the 9:00 a.m. Mass on March 18. Celebrant Father John Ludden installed and blessed the new officers of the organization. Serving for the 2011-2012 year will be President Valerie Matulis, Vice President Anne Michaels, Secretary Jan Sukay and Treasurer Diane Cox.

The new members are Estelle Scaiano, Joanne McAneny, Kathy Kellerhals, Mary Ann Haag, Barbara Crowe, Millie Rodriguez, Valerie Bee, Marie Elaina Mullin, Sharon Monaco, Mary Ellen Sabol, Carol Valentine, Joyce Cacicia, Kathleen Maxwell and Gloria Liatsos.

During Mass each inductee received a beautiful silver Crucifix and the Ladies of Charity of the U.S.A. Manual. Following Mass the new members were warmly welcomed and treated to a delicious brunch provided by the members of the organization.

Their Mission Statement reflects their commitment to service to the poor:

“Recognizing that each life is a gift from God and that we are called by God to do this work on earth, we gather together bonded by God’s love, to share His love and our own unique God-given talents to serve our community. We strive to preach the gospel by our actions in humble service to others.”

The Ladies of Charity are involved in numerous outreach projects in Collier County. As many as 12 members visit the RMCA Community School of Immokalee each week. Each lady is assigned up to five students. They listen to them read, offer encouragement and give helpful hints to improve their skills. Members of the group attend monthly Masses at three local assisted living/nursing homes, provide friendly visits and perform simple errands for the elderly and homebound and serve at the Guadalupe Center’s soup kitchen each month. New service projects include assisting teachers at the Elizabeth

Bishop Will Celebrate Mass for Victims of Child Abuse at St. John the Evangelist

April is Child Abuse Awareness Prevention Month, and in conjunction with the Secretariat of Child and Youth Protection of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), Bishop Frank J. Dewane will celebrate Mass for Victims of Child Abuse at St. John the Evangelist Thursday, April 28, 11:00 a.m. This is the fourth consecutive year this Mass will be held in the Diocese. All are encouraged to attend.

Rice School Summer Courses

Summer Courses will be held at the Rice School Center, just outside of Port Charlotte (3.7 miles east of I-75, Exit 170). All classes may be taken at either M.A., Diocesan Diploma, or Audit levels (tuitions differ according to level). The following courses are scheduled: RPM 530 Christian Morality, RPM509 Methods in Pastoral Theology and RPM550 Liturgical Catechesis. Please call 941.766.7334 or visit www.riceschool.org for dates, times and tuition fees.

Fashion Show Benefits Our Mother’s House

Aston Gardens and Patchington’s of Venice are hosting the Women Helping Women Fashion Show and Lunch, Thursday, April 21, 12:15 p.m. at Aston Gardens, 1000 Aston Gardens Drive, Venice. The luncheon benefits Our Mother’s House of Catholic Charities, a program committed to helping homeless mothers and their children attain self-sufficiency. Tickets $25 and only 100 will be available. For more information or to purchase tickets please call Our Mother’s House at 941-485-6264

Our Mother’s House of Catholic Charities in Venice

Our Mother’s House of Catholic Charities is in need of volunteers to assist staff in the day care center. Our Mother’s House is a residential program for homeless mothers and their children and has partnered with Children First to establish an Early Head Start program on site. The day care center is open Monday through Friday from 7 a.m. - 6 p.m. If interested please call Our Mother’s House at 941.485.6264.

The Disaster Amateur Radio Network (DARN)

The Catholic Charities Diocese of Venice Disaster Response Team has six fully equipped UHF/VHF Radio Stations throughout the diocese. DARN is in need of volunteers who are willing to serve their community in the immediate aftermath of a disaster. There are no dues or meetings to attend. The network meets on the air once each month. Anyone interested who is qualified or are willing to take steps to become a licensed amateur radio operator, please contact Bob Sullenberger by phone at 941.497.5422 or email at robert.sullenberger@hotmail.com.

Child Abuse Prevention Month

Child Abuse Prevention Month takes place through the month of April. Do you know the five steps to safer environments?

The Diocese of Venice requires that all people who work with children and youth in our parishes and schools must undergo child abuse prevention training through the Safe Environment Training program. The training details five steps to prevent child sexual abuse:

1. Know the warning signs of an inappropriate relationship with a child.
2. Control access to children by carefully selecting the adults who work with children and youth.
3. Monitor all programs for the safety of children and youth.
4. Be aware of and sensitive to what is going on in the lives of children.
5. Communicate concerns to the appropriate person in authority.

For further questions regarding Safe Environment Training, please call Dr. Kathy Kleinlein, Director of Safe Environment Awareness Training and Certification, at 941.484.9543.

For couples planning marriage

The Diocese of Venice will hold a one day Marriage Preparation Program to help engaged couples prepare for the Sacrament of Matrimony. The program will be held at St. Vincent de Paul Parish, Fort Myers, April 30. The program is designed to give couples planning marriage the opportunity to dialogue honestly about their prospective lives together within the Sacrament of Marriage. Registration is $75 per couple, and includes continental breakfast and lunch. This fee is non-refundable. For further information, please call Betty Karsokas at 941.484.9543.

As Individuals We Can Practice Evangelization Daily

- Below are some evangelization practices that as individuals we can practice every day.
- Ask friends and family to pray for your special intentions.
- Move to the center of the church pews, theater seat, etc. which invites others to join you.
- Do not judge others. Do not speak unkindly of others. Always look for the good in others and gently point this out.
- Serve your parish as a Eucharistic minister, lector, greeter, choir member, etc.
- Allow your faith to carry over into your work by insisting on fair prices, good products and fair treatment for customers and employees alike.

- Share your personal faith story of how God has worked in your life with a friend or family member.
- Work in a soup kitchen, a shelter for the homeless or some other charitable agency.
- Try to see Christ in everyone you encounter there.
- Treat everyone you meet with dignity. No matter what they look like, how they try your patience, or how they speak, they are part of the Body of Christ.

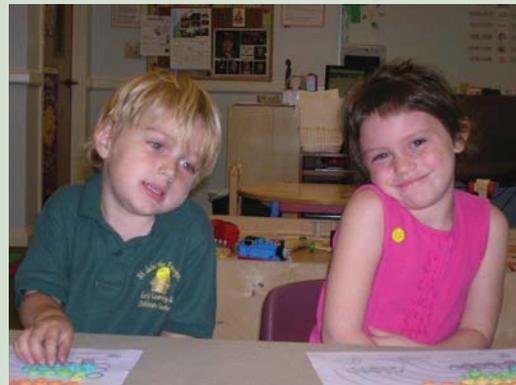

St. John the Evangelist Early Learning & Childcare Center

PREK3 enjoyed Spring Break last week with our families. Even though we had a short week, we have been busy. We continue with our Seeds program as we prepare for Easter. We are learning our Lenten prayers and filling our rice bowls. We welcomed two new friends to our class last week. We are excited to have Hailie and Michael with us. We made collages in Art and enjoyed our weekly Music class learning new songs. We did color graphing on a rainbow paper with Fruit Loops cereal! The students enjoyed this activity. Have a joy filled week!

Thank You, God

The sun so bright up in the sky.
The moon I see way, way up high!
The soft green grass, the plants, the trees are special gifts
God made for me.

All the people that I love
are blessed by Jesus up above.
My neighbors, friends and family are special gifts God gave to me.

What gift can I give you my God
in heaven up above?
The thing you want the most from me
is pure and simple...
Love!

Centering Prayer - a Method of Silent Prayer

Centering Prayer is a method of silent prayer that prepares us to receive the gift of contemplative prayer, prayer in which we experience God’s presence within us, closer than breathing, closer than thinking, closer than consciousness itself. This method of prayer is both a relationship with God and a discipline to foster that relationship.

Centering Prayer is not meant to replace other kinds of prayer. Rather, it adds depth of meaning to all prayer and facilitates the movement into a receptive prayer of resting in God. Centering Prayer emphasizes prayer as a personal relationship with God and as a movement beyond conversation with Christ to communion with Him. The source of Centering Prayer, as in all methods leading to contemplative prayer, is the presence of the Indwelling Trinity within us.

When we learn to enjoy and trust the presence of God, we will naturally turn to that presence in prayer.

Adult Faith Enrichment Sack Lunch Series Presents: Who is the Holy Spirit?

Matt Loboda returns to the Sack Lunch Series with the Holy Spirit! It is a great time to deepen our understanding and increase our devotion to the Holy Spirit. It is a great opportunity during this lenten season to prepare our hearts for the one promised by Jesus.

For a long time the Holy Spirit, has been given a meager amount of attention and devotion. Who is this third person of the Trinity? Some have even proposed the Holy Spirit as the unknown or forgotten God. However, the Second Vatican Council has focused the attention of the Church on the Advocate and as a result of this focus there has been an increased greater understanding of the Third Person of the Trinity.

Ultimately, our goal is to have a personal encounter with the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of God, the Living God. Please join us for these spirit filled presentations.
