The Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time: Year B

2 Kings 4:42-44 • Psalm 145:10-11, 15-16, 17-18 • Ephesians 4:1-6 • John 6:1-15

Leftover Gifts from a Bountiful God

(John 6:1-15)

Today's readings speak to us about the great generosity of God. The Prophet Elisha took the twenty barley loaves and managed to feed a hundred people, and there was still some left over. A miracle? Some critics may well argue that twenty large barley loaves would manage to feed such a number. In today's gospel, Jesus feeds the five thousand with merely five barley loaves and two fish. A miracle? One may wonder what the critics would have to say about this action performed at the hands of Jesus of Nazareth? No science could explain how a great multitude could be fed with five barley loaves and two fish. Moreover, the disciples filled twelve wicker baskets with the leftover fragments. At times we have to rely on faith to understand God's generosity in our lives and the scriptures that are explained to us. Jesus is teaching us that the Father is willing to give himself completely through the hands of his Son who comes to feed us, nourish us, strengthen us, and gift us. This is the essence of grace.

There was a need present in the multitude that gathered around Jesus. Many of them were reaching out for healing. Others were searching the wisdom that Jesus had to offer. In the midst of the search and the need for healing, the people become physically hungry. Jesus recognizes their human need. In performing the sign of feeding the five thousand, Jesus not only satisfies the hunger of the body, but also the hunger of the soul. The action of Christ that day pointed beyond itself – it pointed to the divine nature of His mission. When the people are fed, there is still more left over and Jesus requests that the gift He gives should not go to waste.

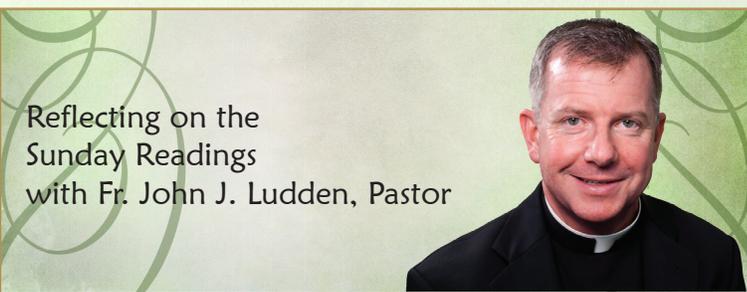

Jesus also tells us to make sure that we do not waste the gifts that have been given into our hands. Does Jesus feed us with the same bread? Yes, but Jesus gives us more than that – His body and blood. Does He gift us with

Reflection Questions

1. What is my hunger?
2. How do I allow Jesus to feed me?
3. Where do I seek the signs of God's presence in my life?
4. What are my gifts?
5. In what ways can I share these gifts with others?
6. What satisfies me?
7. Where am I called to satisfy the needs of others?
8. How does the Eucharist nourish me and give me hope?

His Word spoken 2000 years to the early disciples? Yes, but now He commissions us to take that Word, share that Word, incarnate that Word by the very nature of our own lives, our own decisions, and our very actions. He is telling us today – “I have given you God’s dream in my gospel proclaimed and in my real presence on your very altar – now go and realize that dream for me.” The reality is that Jesus is still present to his Church and is constantly feeding us with Word and Sacrament. This is what strengthens us in holiness. In return, He asks that we do not waste the gifts that are freely given to us. We are asked to follow His example of giving and use the gifts that are particular to us.

St. Paul urges today to live out the calling of our baptism with all humility and gentleness, with patience, striving to preserve the unity of the Church. We simply do this in recognizing that each person inside and outside of our churches have a place in God’s heart – all have been gifted with His generosity. Jesus warns us to make sure the gift in us and others will never go to waste.

Prayer

Lord, may I always recognize your presence in those people who challenge me, especially in those that the world deems to be different or sometimes worthless. May I learn to embrace all people, languages, and ways of life as a sure sign of your generosity working in the world today. Amen.

Voices of Faith

A Sacred Feeding

“Over seas, mountains, and grassy plains
They sought Him out
People like you and I
With a hunger not only of body,
But of soul.

Hungered souls behold their God
Who is ready to feed,
Willing to heal,
And prepared to satisfy
An insatiable appetite for Love and Truth

Five barley loaves and two fish
Are man’s humble gifts
Placed into Sacred Hands
They are Blessed, Broken, and Shared,
In thanksgiving they are offered to hungry souls

Reclining on still meadows
Thousands receive the gift
Hungers are taken away
And the sign of God revealed
No longer will they hunger, no longer they need healed

For in that very moment
Is the very presence of God made known
A Sacred Feeding takes place
That satisfies both heart and soul

And so God whispers, “I love you. I nourish you, for you are mine.”

Thousands rise up from grassy plains
Changed by their encounter, nothing goes to waste
They are given food for their journey
Bread for their soul
And make a return home, touched by the gift

And so God returns to mountain’s grandeur
Where eagles soar
And angels fly
He waits in Sacred Silence
To provide once again for broken spirits and hungry souls”

Ministry Spotlight

SJE Saint Vincent DePaul Society Celebrates 20 Years of Service by Bill and Pat Smart

Bill and Pat Smart have been members of St. John since services were held in the local elementary school. They both retired in 1996 and became full-time Florida residents that same year. Pat taught high school Mathematics and Computer Science, while Bill was a High School Guidance Counselor and English teacher in New Jersey and New York. As 20-year residents of Pelican Landing in Bonita Springs before their recent move to Naples, they were active in many aspects of this new and developing community. Bill and Pat participated in activities such as tennis and bocce. They were also board officers, contributed to blood drives, played bridge, worked as website developers, tutored ESL students, and helped with fundraising for the new Golisano Children's Hospital in Fort Myers. Pat chairs a yearly fashion show at the Hyatt Hotel for this worthy cause.

Bill and Pat are 18-year Eucharistic ministers and 20-year members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society at St. John. They are active travelers and have traveled all over the world. They feel blessed to be part of our wonderful parish.
