Financial Report of Saint John the Evangelist Fiscal Year 2018: Hurricane Expenses and Efficiencies Illustrate Financial Maturity of Our Parish Family

The spectacular income of gifts from our Parish Family was discussed last weekend. I always find our expenses, how we utilize those gifts, so incredibly interesting. Our normal expenses showcase the enormous tapestry of support, engagement, learning, healing, faith, connection, and excitement that is Saint John the Evangelist. The breadth and depth of St. John's missionary, ministerial, liturgical, operational, and functional environment is truly awe inspiring. We literally support tens of thousands of people in our Parish Family, the local community, and the world with the efforts of our volunteers, Ministries, staff, and clergy. The overall spending on all these good works can be seen as the Expenses of the parish. Of course, this year had unique and harrowing situations that we needed to focus our efforts on, especially our campus repairs from Hurricane Irma and our Pastoral Support to our Parish Family.

Just a few reminders to assist in understanding our Expenses, especially in relation to last week's discussion of our Offertory Income:

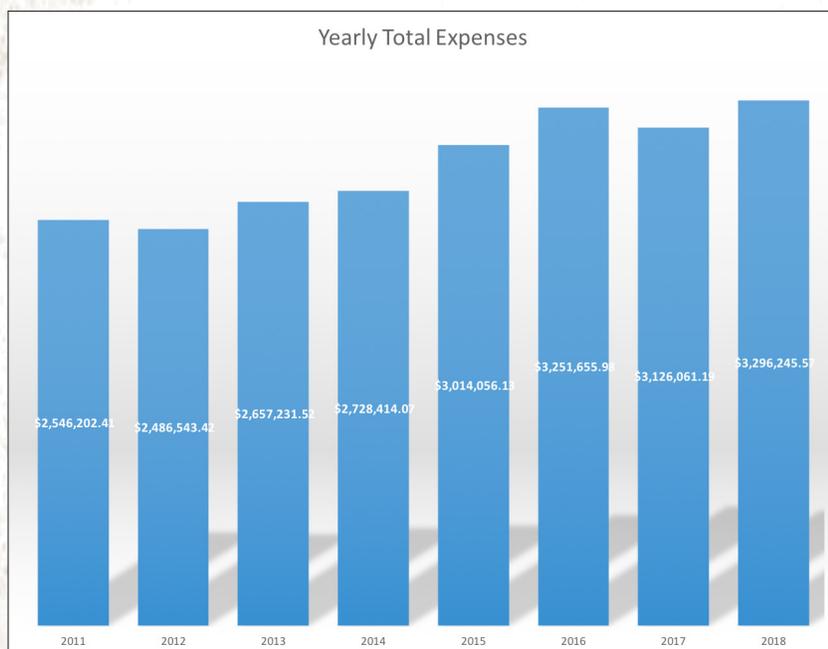

- Our Expenses are the total amount spent by Saint John on all our efforts. That number is significantly larger than our Offertory collection, which is what we consider to be our Income. Your gifts for specific programs and events, along with special collections and second collections are not considered Income for the Parish, but we use that capital as you direct us to.
- Our Capital Campaign and our Catholic Faith Appeal are not considered Income to St. John (which is why they are not taxed by the Diocese), but any funds that we spend from those sources are part of our Expenses.

As you can see, we had an annual increase in overall expenses this past year of about 5%. However, if you remove the repair costs that we will not recover from the Diocese for our Hurricane Irma Damage (tree removal, irrigation, and exterior damage, etc.), our actual Expenses are only $3,033,837.85, which is actually a decrease of overall expenses by 3%. We also decreased our overall salary cost to the Parish Family substantially. It only accounts for 26% of our expenses this year, as opposed to 30% last year (and is significantly below the national average of church salaries accounting for 40% to 50% of their annual expenses). There were some significant investments in our future that we made this past year, aside from the hurricane repairs:

- NET Missionaries: We completed our second year of support to the Parish Family with the NET Team, whose young adults engage our youth, families, and the whole community with active missionary zeal and love for bringing the personal relationship with Jesus alive for so many.
- Over $100,000 in direct support was provided to Catholic Charities here in Collier County to feed, house, and clothe families impacted by Irma, and that is only the donations in money, not the enormous amount of donations of diapers, clothing, food, water, and countless other items donated through St. John.
- CYO and CAO Program Development: We have begun the activities and programs that will enliven the Pulte Family Life Center and our overall campus for every age group and for every interest. In order to accomplish this and have the building full of activities when we finally get the approval to open from the County, we needed to purchase infrastructure and tools that will be used for years to come. Everything from footballs to keyboards will be able to be used in the Life Center and function for years to come.

Again, like last weekend, if you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to reach out and speak with me. We are excited for Fiscal Year 2019, which will bring a host of new opportunities to enliven our faith and live out our Mission here at St. John.

Adult Faith Formation and RCIA

Adult Faith Formation Programming This Fall Will Focus on the Mass

The reasons are many –

1) The second Vatican Council called the Mass, “The summit toward which the activity of the church is directed; it is also the source from which all its power flows.” All the faithful are invited to take a full, conscious, and active part in it.

2) The Mass is also unique to Catholic Christianity. Do we truly understand why we, alone, believe in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist?

A recent Sunday Gospel (John 6:1-15) told the familiar story of the feeding of the five thousand, the only miracle story mentioned in each of the four Gospels.

Jesus instructs the crowd to recline on the grass. Taking the barley loaves and dried fish, Jesus makes a meal that satisfies the enormous crowd. They are hungry, tired, and worn out from their exertions, and Jesus gives them sustenance for the day.

For Thomas Aquinas, the great metaphor for the Eucharist is sustenance – food for the journey. Baptism defines us, making us sons and daughters of God; confirmation confirms and deepens this identity; marriage and holy orders seal us in our life’s vocation. These are sacraments offered once at key moments in one’s life.

Then there is the Eucharist, which is daily food, nourishment to get us through the day-to-day. How effective would we be if we never ate, or ate only on special occasions and in a festive environment? Not very. So, in the spiritual life, we must eat and drink, or we will not have the strength. (from Bishop Barron’s daily gospel reflection)

3) And finally, Bishop Robert Barron has just released a new program, “The Mass.” In six weekly sessions, you will walk through the Liturgy of the Mass with Bishop Barron, and you’ll be transformed through insights on this most privileged and intimate encounter with our Lord Jesus Christ.

See how The Mass brings us out of the fallen world and into the heavenly realm, how it resonates with a call from God and a response from his people, the Church, and, most importantly, how we are intimately joined with the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus through the Holy Eucharist.

The Mass will help you understand how to fully, consciously, and actively participate in the source and summit of the Christian life.

Session schedules and details will be announced in September when facilities begin to become available.

There will be no Adult Faith Formation Programs this week due to the extensive repairs and construction on the St. John campus.

Verse 1)

You are more beautiful than anyone ever.
Every day you're the same, you never change, no never.
And how could I ever deny the love of my Savior?
You are to me ev'rything, all I need forever.
How could you be so good?

Verse 2)

Ev'rywhere you are there, earth or air surrounding
I'm not alone, the heavens sing along;
my God, you're so astounding
How could you be so good to me? Eternally I believe that

In the crushing in the pressing
You are making new wine
In the soil I now surrender
You are breaking new ground
(You are breaking new ground)

Pre-Chorus)

So I yield to You and to Your careful hand
When I trust You I don't need to understand

Tag)

Jesus bring new wine out of me
Jesus bring new wine out of me

Chorus)

(So) Make me Your vessel
Make me an offering
Make me whatever You want me to be
(God) I came here with nothing
But all You have given me
Jesus bring new wine out of me

Bridge)

'Cause where there is new wine
There is new power
There is new freedom
And the kingdom is here
I lay down my old flames
To carry Your new fire today

Verse 1)

Did you feel the mountains tremble?
Did you hear the oceans roar
when the people rose to sing of Jesus Christ, the risen One?

Verse 2)

Did you feel the people tremble?
Did you hear the singers roar
when the lost began to sing of Jesus Christ, the saving One?

Pre-Chorus 1)

And we can see that,
God, you're moving,
a mighty river through the nations;
and young and old will turn to Jesus.
Fling wide, you heavenly gates:
prepare the way of the risen Lord! (Chorus)

Pre-Chorus 2)

And here we see that,
God, you're moving;
a time of jubilee is coming,
when young and old return to Jesus.
Fling wide, you heavenly gates:
prepare the way of the risen Lord! (Chorus)

Verse 3)

Do you feel the darkness tremble
when all the saints join in one song,
and all the streams flow as one river
to wash away our brokenness?

O - pen up the doors and let the mu - sic play! Let the streets re - sound with sing - ing! Songs that bring your hope, songs that bring your joy, dan - cers who dance up - on in - jus - tice!

Ministry Spotlight

Ministry Spotlight - CAO

What is the CAO?

Our new Catholic Adult Organization (CAO) is a persistent and constant set of programs here at Saint John to enrich and engage every age of adult, from 18 to 118, Body, Mind, Soul, and Spirit. CAO will ensure event and activities are as inclusive as possible for our Parish Family and the community we serve, providing support for special needs and, in particular, those in the most advanced years of their lives.

CAO Structure

Over the past year, we have described the new Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) and the new Catholic Adult Organization (CAO). The CYO is off and running, providing programs that have attracted our youth to the Saint John the Evangelist Campus and the events and programs within. The Adult-focused CAO program leadership has spent the past few months communicating and reaching out to our Ministries and Groups here at St. John. During that time, the CAO Team has taken input solicited from our Parishioners, Ministries, and Town Hall Meetings to put in place the initial programs and activities, as well as the structure needed to implement them.

The intent of the CAO is to help existing St. John Programs, Events, Outreach, and Spiritual Offerings by offering an organized approach to ensure those programs planned are well communicated, scheduled, and resourced as necessary. A major effort has been made to utilize our facilities and resources in a manner that can address the growing needs our Parish Family, focused on the Mission of St. John: To Know, To Love, and To Serve.

The time is upon us to begin to offer all this hard work to our Parish Family and to the surrounding Community.

Over the next few weeks, a new CAO Monthly Newsletter and Calendar will be provided. This newsletter will provide spotlights on special events for the month, as well as illustrate ongoing activities, which could be daily, weekly, or monthly programs. Planned adult-centric activities for the Parish will focus on our four major categories of programs (similar to CYO):

Sports and Wellness

- Bocce League: Thursdays and Saturdays
- Pick-Up Basketball Night: Wednesdays
- Zumba: Tuesdays and Saturdays

Social and Spiritual

- Brown Bag Thursdays: Get together with friends in the new 5 Saints Café with inexpensive lunch options

- SoulCore: Nourish body AND soul through prayer and core strengthening – functional exercise on Friday mornings
- We Served: Monday morning social opportunity for Veterans in the 5 Saints
- A Knight Out: Friday Night Happy Hour with drink specials and unique entertainment
- Educational Opportunities: Learn Spanish or how to use that new technology gadget

Arts and Music

- Concert Series: Various musical programs the second Thursday of every month
- Instruction: Learn to play Piano or Guitar
- Open Mic Night: Bring your talent to the stage at the 5 Saints every first Thursday

Inclusion

- Music Therapy: Sessions for Dementia/Alzheimer's
- Movies: Selected movies and assistance in traveling to St. John
- Special Activities: For the Fundamentally Disabled

We are excited to begin the implementation of the new programs and facilities over the next month and hope for full implementation in the October/November time frame. We hope there is something for everyone within the CAO, no matter your interests or your age. If you are interested in volunteering to support any of the new programs, please drop by the Parish Office and leave your name and contact information, or email our CAO Coordinator Bill Warvel at: wwarvel@aol.com. A CAO Committee Representative will get back you shortly.
