in His Church and Our Community.

Save the Date for Father Bob's 25th Anniversary Celebration!

Join us for our very own Father Bob Murphy's celebration of his 25th Anniversary of Ordination, which we will celebrate at the 11:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday, October 28. Father Bob would like a simple reception after the Mass, so we can all enjoy our community and recognize his contributions as a "Fisher of Men," along with being a "Fisher of Fish." More information about the party will be coming soon!

Four Courageous Conversations: Discussions on Sexual Abuse Scandal

Saint John the Evangelist will be hosting our Four Courageous Conversations, a facilitated listening and feedback session on the Sexual Abuse Scandal, on Thursday, November 8, at 6:00 p.m., and Saturday, November 10, at 9:00 a.m. These identical sessions will give us a chance to voice our reactions and our purposeful responses to these inexplicable acts. You will only need to attend one. These sessions are free to attend, but please sign up online so we can gauge the level of participation and ensure there is enough food and drinks for all.

Facing Our Pain

Catholics are feeling deep sadness, anger, and pain regarding revelations of clergy abuse and the cover-up highlighted in the Pennsylvania Grand Jury Report. Allegations of decades-long abuse by retired Cardinal Theodore McCarrick and his resignation as a Cardinal are additional sources of deep pain. Finger-pointing and infighting among leaders has diverted attention and resources away from the victims and their families. Meanwhile, the rest of us are left wondering how such a thing could happen.

It's heartbreaking to learn about the suffering of the victims. Compounding our heartbreak are the disbelief and horror that Church leaders opted for scandal-management over the welfare of our children. We are profoundly sorrowful for the victims, especially for those who took their lives. Outrage leads some to leave the Church forever, and leads others to gather to pray and resolve together to respond in faith: "Never again!" All of it raises questions about what this means for the Church, for the faith of its members, and how trust might be restored.

We people of faith normally turn to the Church in our times of pain, loss, sorrow and need. We sort through and assign meaning to what is happening in our lives and the world. We find meaning and hope through prayer, Christian community, the sacraments, and by helping others through service. Yet turning to the Church is difficult when her leaders – whether some or many – have been morally and criminally complicit.

There is excruciating pain as well for the vast number of Church leaders, ordained and lay, who feel shame and betrayal that the Church they love and serve could be the source of such cruelty and suffering.

Why Courageous Conversations?

We need safe places and relationships to face and respond to the Catholic Church Clergy Sexual Abuse Crisis. We need opportunities to gather together to reflect, pray, and listen to each other to discover and assign meanings to this experience. These places need to be safe in every way – psychologically, spiritually, and physically, because it's risky and vulnerable to sort things out in community through conversations. "Safety" means that the conversations need solid guidance, structure and clear boundaries so as to help people listen to each other in love.

Courageous conversations build intimacy and trust when people are encouraged to share their thoughts, feelings, vulnerabilities, and hopes within a loving Christian community. Courageous conversations are building blocks for caring, intimate, and compassionate relationships that form Christian community. Courageous conversations are forms of accompaniment, with the hope to walk with one another so that no one has to carry their pain alone in an isolated manner. Accompaniment and courageous conversations are sacred, painful, memorable, and beautiful. Courageous conversations lead toward more conversations that prepare our hearts and minds to take courageous actions that bring about change.

Healthy and loving communities require and develop ways to navigate and talk about things that matter, however painful and difficult. Active steps and opportunities for structured conversations are needed to help people with the unfolding pain and trauma of the harm done to the victims and to people of faith. Learning how to have these conversations models and nurtures civil discourse that is rooted in respecting and upholding the dignity of all persons.

Loving Christian communities need to gather people for prayer, community, reflection, support, and listening to one another in a safe and judgment free environment. Gentle and loving listening, shared vulnerability, and conversation in community is a path towards healing, growth, and change. This conversation contributes to changes that are needed at the personal level, the parish level, and the institutional levels of the Catholic Church in order to be effective.

Objectives – Participants will:

- Experience warm hospitality in an environment that is safe in every way;
- Pray together as a Christian community;
- Learn and practice the Art of Accompaniment as a Christian community as they move through the Four Courageous Conversations and concluding gratitude conversation;
- Reflect, speak, and listen to others so as to assign meaning to their experience of the Catholic Church Sexual Abuse Crisis;
- Make recommendations to Church leadership.

Ministry Spotlight

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

With the recent devastating impact of Hurricane Florence in the Carolinas, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops is calling upon all Dioceses to support those impacted by Hurricane Florence and any forthcoming disaster/storm that affects us throughout the remainder of this calendar year.

Torrential rainfall and catastrophic flooding due to Florence severely damaged and destroyed homes, schools, hospitals, businesses, and churches. Lives have been lost and communities are struggling. Immediate and long-term recovery needs of those affected continue to be apparent. Unfortunately, it is reasonable to expect more of these types of disasters this year.

Parishes in the Diocese of Venice will take up an emergency collection the weekend of October 13 & 14, 2018. Through the Catholic Charities Network your donations will be used to support those who are the most vulnerable, providing humanitarian aid (water, food, shelter, and medical care), as well as long-term efforts to restore communities after widespread destruction. Thank you for your generosity in these difficult times, and please continue to pray for victims of all-natural disasters!

This opportunity is taken to extend to each of you the assurances of my continued consideration, as well as my prayers for you and your family.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Mrs. Talford's Class Preparing for First Reconciliation

Mrs. Koplitz and Miss O'Brien's 2nd grade sacramental class learned about gratitude through the story of the ten lepers (Luke 17). We are blessed to be able to share our joy and gratitude, both with those that help us and with others that need our help. Please pray for these children as they work toward their First Reconciliation in February!

This Week in Faith Formation: October 14 – 20, 2018

Sunday, October 14

No Faith Formation Classes Today.

Mass schedule for Sunday is 7:00 a.m., 9:00 a.m., 11:00 a.m., 1:00 p.m., and 5:00 p.m.

Wednesday, October 17

No Faith Formation Classes Today.

There is Mass at 6:30 p.m. this evening.

Adult Faith Formation and RCIA

This week, Bishop Barron's lesson in The Mass is God Speaks our Story; the Liturgy of the Word.

If you have been reading about Adult Faith Formation programming at St. John the Evangelist parish but have yet to experience it, this week is a great time to give it a try. The reasons are many.

It is easy and convenient with no commitment. Just drop in to one of the three sessions this week and get answers to questions such as:

- Why is the Old Testament critical to the Christian faith?
- At what point in the Mass do we hear the King speaking to us?

- Why is "telling our story" so important in everyday life?
- Why is listening to and retelling the story of our salvation in Christ so important in everyday life?

See how The Mass brings us out of the fallen world and into the heavenly realm, how it resonates with a call from God and a response from his people, the Church, and, most importantly, how we are intimately joined with the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus through the Holy Eucharist.

The Mass will help you understand how to fully, consciously, and actively participate in the source and summit of the Christian life.

This week, choose from three convenient days and times;

- Lunchtime Thursday - 11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.; bring a brown bag lunch if you wish
- Sunday - 9:15 a.m. - 10:45; especially convenient for parents of kids in faith formation, but open to all,
- Sunday - 6:00 p.m. - 7:30; right after the 5:00 p.m. Mass

Have you tried actively listening at Mass?

Sometimes God speaks to us in the readings from the Old Testament, or the letters from the New Testament, or the Gospel. Sometimes there is a thought in the homily that strikes home. Sometimes we hear God in the music or lyrics of a song, or sometimes God whispers during the quiet times.

Did you write it down?

Writing it down is key. Whether it's on a scrap of paper, in a small note book or noted in your smart phone, write it down. Another tool that is available is the Mass Journal. It also makes it easy to go back and review later. Your own copy of the Mass Journal is available in the Parish Office for only $3.

Writing it down will help transform your entire experience of the Mass and invigorate your spiritual life. "Show up early, pray the Holy Spirit reveals to you the one thing God wants you to take from that Mass, write it down, then go back and review it later."

What did God have to say to you this week?

Verse 1)
Oh, how could it be
That my God would welcome me
into this mystery?
Say, 'take this bread, take this wine':
Now the simple, made Divine—
for any to receive.
By your mercy we come to your Table,
By your grace you are making us
faithful.

Verse 2)
See his Body, his Blood:
Know that he has overcome
ev'ry trial we will face.
And none too lost to be saved,
None too broken or ashamed,
All are welcome in this place.
By your mercy we come to your Table,
By your grace you are making us faithful

Chorus)
Lord, we remember you,
And remembrance leads us to worship.
And as we worship you,
Our worship leads to Communion.
We respond to your invitation, we remember you.

Bridge)
Dying you destroyed our death,
Rising you restored our life,
Lord Jesus come in glory (repeat line)
