Tale of Two Campuses: Updates on the Church and Life Center

It is a huge weekend for our Parish Family here at Saint John! ## Tale of Two Campuses Cont.

As you can see, we have removed the Cry Room from the church. This will allow for more participation in Mass (even the youngest of our Parish Family should be included in our space) with more seating. There is integrated wheelchair seating, which will allow for individuals to sit within the pews, rather than on the side, while staying in their wheelchairs. The pews will have a 1/3 end cap on them for those needing additional support in standing up. The permanent Baptismal Font has been placed near the altar to allow for larger celebrations of the Sacrament. All the exterior doors will have access control functionality to ensure we all can enter safely, and these new doors will allow us to add more automatic openers to make it easier to get into and out of church. The steps up to the new marble altar will be larger, and strong marble handrails will provide a stable and safe way up and down for Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers (along with our priests and Altar Servers). We are so blessed to have this opportunity to enliven and renew our church in such an impactful and positive way.

Anniversary of KRISTALLNACHT

The Catholic-Jewish Dialogue of Collier County Presents a Commemoration of the

80th Anniversary of Kristallnacht*

"The Night of Broken Glass"

Sunday, November 4 | 2:30 p.m.

Temple Shalom

4630 Pine Ridge Rd. | Naples, FL 3416

Admission is free, reservations are requested but not required.

Featured Speaker is Mr. Cesare Frustaci

It has been 80 years since that horrible November 11, 1938 when the Nazis unleashed the worst (until that time) pogrom against the Jews. It came to be known as Kristallnacht, the Night of Broken Glass. Please join us to commemorate the tragedy and memorialize the victims. Catholics and Jews will come together for this event on Sunday Nov. 4th at Temple Shalom, 4630 Pine Ridge Rd., Naples, 2:30 PM.

The featured speaker is Mr. Cesare Frustaci, the son of an Italian-Catholic father and conductor and a Hungarian-Jewish mother and ballerina. Separated from his family by the Nazi invasion he survived in Jesuit orphanages and his mother survived Auschwitz and found him after the war.
