To Know, To Love, and To Serve God
in His Church and Our Community.

We Served: Honoring Our Veterans

The Saint John Catholic Adult Organization kicked off our We Served outreach program on Monday. The theme of the event, "You Don't Know What You Don't Know," came into reality, here in the new Pulte Family Life Center, where it was attended by over 110 Veterans, along with many of their spouses and friends. Everyone who attended learned for the very first time many of the benefits that they are entitled to receive from the Veterans Administration and other groups. They left with information and knowledge that may make a difference in their lives and their families' lives. At St. John, we will continue to support our Veteran men and women with this event held on the second Monday of every month. It is our way of saying thanks and giving back to those who served.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Church Update: Interior Progress Being Made

I want to thank every member of our Parish Family for continuing with the flexibility we have all learned over the past year when it comes to our campus. When we first closed the church building in June to allow for the invasive testing to determine the full extent of the damage incurred by Hurricane Irma's wrath, we held our breath as the adjuster and engineer probed the roof and the ceiling. Many of us may not have realized just how much destruction was caused by the storm since we had been able to keep it open and cleaned up the essential areas effectively. We already knew the pews had been damaged beyond saving. The carpet was stained and could not stay. All the exterior doors were warped and barely closing, including the main door behind the altar. With each storm, rain dripped down from the removed skylight. We feared the worst.

However, we are blessed that there was very little (10%) of the structural ceiling that would need to be replaced.

We were able to get right to work with the massive repair and construction effort needed to get our church back. With all the damage to our Sanctuary, it also gave us an opportunity to renew our worship space with a new and powerfully faith-enriching environment. We are working incredibly hard to restore our Parish Family to the Church Building, completing the transformation of our campus in less than two years. Here are some pictures of the current status of our church building so you can get a feel for the scope of work going on now.

Of course, the main question being asked is: when are we getting back into the church? As you can see, there is a significant amount of work being done, and we are making progress. There is no final date set yet, but once the marble arrives and the pews are delivered, we are going to be able to provide the specific schedule. Stay tuned for more updates and thank you again for all your patience!

In order to complete the roof line properly, the opening outside in the awning was filled in. Fans will be installed to keep the air flow comfortable. (right picture)

Faith Formation

Ms. Janeen, Mrs. Jenny, and Their 5th Grade Class Spread Messages of Hope to Homeless in Boston

Throughout the Advent season, as Christians we are particularly aware of self reflection. We often pay extra attention to kind deeds or are called to action as we prepare our hearts to receive Jesus. This year, Ms. Janeen's and Mrs. Jenny's fifth grade Faith Formation class gave a "Message of Hope" to over 100 homeless individuals in the heart of the city of Boston.

The Faith Formation students worked tirelessly for two weeks to complete heartfelt cards, which were hand-delivered with care packages on December 23rd, 2018. One student even donated her own $5.00 to the project, dubbed Angels on the Loose, while rosaries and instruction cards were graciously donated by St. John the Evangelist. The students gave from their hearts what they could, recognizing the power they have to make a difference. They were even able to catch a glimpse of their cards being distributed via video courtesy of the local Boston news. Their kind deeds truly warmed the hearts of the homeless! Of all the items distributed that day, it was the Messages of Hope that proved most precious.

Way to grow the love and keep Christ in Christmas, 5th grade! This is what being a Christian is all about! Let us go forth in 2019 without judgement, without hesitation, and simply love one another!

Adult Faith Formation and RCIA

Adult Parishioners Who Have Not Been Confirmed, It Is Never Too Late!

In recent years, our adult confirmani ranged in age from 18 to 80 and spanned three generations. If you were baptized Catholic and received your First Communion, but for whatever reason have not been Confirmed, CONFIRMATION is available to YOU on Monday, April 29th, at 6:30 p.m.

Most Reverend Frank J. Dewane, Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida, will come to Saint John the Evangelist parish to confirm both adults and young adults. Through the laying on of hands, anointing with chrism, and prayer, those already baptized are strengthened by the Holy Spirit so that they may spread and defend the faith by word and action as true witnesses of Christ. Like Baptism, which it completes, Confirmation is given only once, for it, too, imprints on the soul an indelible spiritual mark.

Adults can prepare in four Sunday evening sessions on March 17, 24, April 7, and 14, from 6:00 to 7:30 p.m. This day and time was chosen to make it as convenient as possible to prepare for this sacrament, but if that schedule doesn't work for you, alternative arrangements can be made.

Whether you are ready to register now or would like more information, please send an e-mail to Jack Kindsvater, Adult Faith Formation and RCIA Coordinator, jack@sjecc.com, or leave a voice mail message at (239) 228 3918, including your name, email address, and preferred phone contact number. You will receive detailed information and answers to any questions in return.

Gospel Reflections

with Father Tom

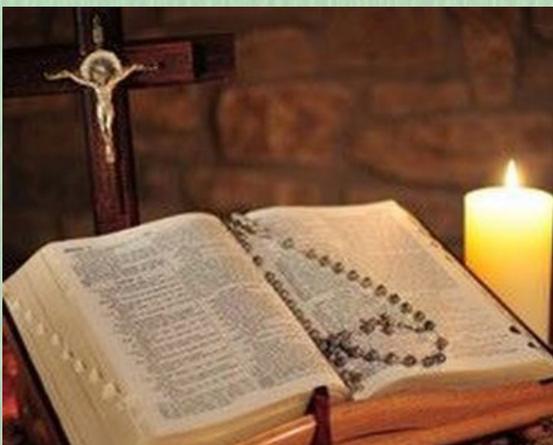

If we take the miracle of Cana literally, we reduce it to a once-off wonder and greatly limit its meaning. It's not really about the power to change water into wine. We already know how to do that – it happens every year in our vineyards and wineries. The miracle has a deeper and broader meaning, and one that is valid for all time. It's about something far more wonderful. In attempting to describe the relationship between God and his people, the Bible uses the image of a bridegroom and his bride. And in describing the joy God finds among his people, it uses the image of a wedding feast.

The First Reading contains a message of hope for God's people at one of the lowest moments in their history. Jerusalem lay in ruins and many of the people were exiled in Babylon. Israel, once God's bride, is now like a widow bereft of children. However, her husband, God, has not forgotten her. There will be a new wedding feast. God will restore His people. This promise was fulfilled in the return from exile, but more especially in the coming of Jesus. It's no surprise to find that Jesus started his public ministry at a wedding feast. At that wedding, the wine ran out. This was a way of saying that the old religion, the old observances, had been found wanting. The time has come for the promises to be fulfilled. The time has come for a new law and a new spirit.

The prophets had foretold an abundance of wine in messianic days. At Cana, Jesus provided just that. And all those who tasted the new agreed that it was better than the old. We note the sheer generosity of the miracle. Those six jars were capable of holding somewhere between twenty and thirty gallons each. We see not only Jesus's power, but also His generosity. We get a glimpse of the warmth of His heart. The new order began with an act of compassion.

What Jesus did at Cana was not a once-off thing. It pointed to what would happen all through His ministry. The changing of water into wine is a symbol for what He was about. Everywhere He went, the old was made new. For the widow of Nain, He changed tears into joy. For Zacchaeus, He changed selfishness into love. For the thief on Calvary, He changed despair into hope. And on Easter morning, He changed death into life. His presence could change beyond recognition the lives of those with whom He came into contact. And He continues to do this for those who believe in Him and follow Him. He transforms our lives into something wonderful. He offers us something that we pine for but can't achieve on our own. He offers us a share in the divine life. But all of this will remain at the level of theory unless we experience it in our lives, unless in some way in our own lives Jesus changes water into wine.

Hymn for Sanctity of Life

Music: Hymn to Joy

1. At the dawning of creation, God divided light from shade, and He made us, male and female. In His image we were made.

Refrain: And the life that God created we will honor and defend from conception to the heavens; from beginning to the end.

2. God has breathed this life into us, loving us before our birth. He has made us wonderful and stewards to protect the earth.

Refrain: And the life that God created we will honor and defend from conception to the heavens; from beginning to the end.

3. In Your book is written all the days that You have formed for me. You discern my thoughts before the first one ever comes to be. Lord, You know our inmost being; knit us in our mother's womb. Young and old each one is precious to our God in splendor bloom.

4. Temples of The Holy Spirit, God has called us through His grace. We are set apart to live the Gospel to the human race.

Refrain: And the life that God created we will honor and defend from conception to the heavens; from beginning to the end.

Text: 87 87 D; Verse 1 & Refrain: Kathleen Pluth (Hymn for the Innocents), Verses 2-4: Gary Prettyman, 2019.

Our Adult Choir Welcoming New Singers to Join... NOW!

Our adult choir is currently inviting ALL SINGERS, ages 17 and older, to join our choir. Why join St. John's adult choir? We develop proper vocal skills, sing exciting sacred music for our beautiful liturgies and concerts, learn more about our Mass and Faith, gain a more personal and rewarding involvement in the worship, work together as a team, socialize as a family. You get the idea...and we have fun in the entire process! The invitation is open to all interested singers with some music reading skills! We rehearse every Wednesday in the Choir Room. Consider coming to a rehearsal. Try choir for one month or a season. Please contact Gary Prettyman at the Church Office during the week, or after Mass, for more information.

Women and men are invited to the comedic performance of

Adam and Eve Go to Marriage Counseling

Performed by the amazing Kevin O'Brien and his acting troupe from Theater of the Word Incorporated

Adam and Eve have been married for thousands of years, but things aren't going so well lately. He says the problems began when they ate the apple, realized they were naked, and Eve insisted, "I'll wear the plants in this family!" She replies that the only reason she married Adam is there was nobody else available – literally! And so they find a counselor who is very wise and who seems to know everything about what it takes to make a marriage work. In fact, this marriage counselor has a mysterious identity of his own, which Adam and Eve discover during the course of this imaginative romantic comedy!

Invite your Spouse, Friends, Neighbors, and Fellow Parishioners.

The cost is just $25/person, which includes the performance, dinner catered by Frisco's, and a glass of wine. Doors open at 6:00 p.m. at St. John the Evangelist. Event runs from 6:30-8:45 p.m. You must pre-pay – no walk-ins.

We expect another sell out so register today!

You can register: (1) Online with a credit card on or before Tuesday, January 22, by going to www.faithandwine.com, and follow the prompts on the RSVP for Events page; or (2) In person with exact cash or check made payable to Saint John the Evangelist at the church office on or before Tuesday, January 22.

a life-changing event

Kevin Williams and Jamaican Choir to Visit St. John's Feb. 1-4

Once again St. John's will be hosting the annual visit of the Jamaican choir as they celebrate the liturgy of the Mass at four Masses on the first weekend in February, 2019. The choir visits our parish once a year as a joyful acknowledgement of our loyal support of the Jamaica Outreach Program (JOP.)

The JOP was instituted 21 years ago by St. John parishioners and has established optical and dental clinics, pharmaceutical, educational, and general support for thousands of Jamaicans down through the years. Last year, 98% of expenses were spent on those services. JOP Board members serve as unpaid volunteers, and St. John's offers rent-free facilities for our events and meetings.

As always, the JOP is looking for hosts to shelter choir members during their stay in Naples. The role of hosts is simple but crucial to the success of the weekend (February 1- 4). Hosts are asked to provide breakfast and lunch daily, and to transport their guests to and from church and group dinners. Friday and Sunday night meals are provided by the JOP for guests and hosts. This year, hosts may be asked to provide the Saturday night meal for their guests. Is there room in your life to provide this kind of hospitality? If so, the gratitude of the choir and the JOP will be beyond measure.

An email offering to host choir members may be sent to marthamador275@gmail.com or 860-449-2105. She will respond promptly with further information.
