A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

78 Children Prepare for First Reconciliation This Week

78 children in Faith Formation continue to prepare to receive their First Reconciliation. Catechists are working hard to help the children to not only learn about this beautiful sacrament of healing, but also to make sure that they feel confident and at ease. To foster the love of this sacrament our priests have been stopping by to visit the children to say hello and answer any questions they may have. The kids have enjoyed this special opportunity. Children have also been preparing by learning an age-appropriate Act of Contrition prayer, as well as reviewing The Sign of the Cross, The Hail Mary, and The Our Father. Thank you for keeping these children and their families in your prayers.

Fr. Bob stops by Mrs. Koplitz's class for a visit.

Act of Contrition

Oh my God,
I am sorry for my sins.
In choosing to sin
And failing to do good,
I have sinned against you and your church.
I firmly intend with the help of your son,
To make up for my sins and live as I should.

Safe Environment Classes for Children

During a portion of our Faith Formation classes on Sunday, February 24th/March 3rd and Wednesday, February 27th/ March 6th, we will have age-appropriate lessons for your children related to helping them stay safe, as required by our Diocese. The children will view a short video followed by lessons intended to reinforce the concepts learned in the video. Children will be grouped K-2nd, 3rd-6th grade, and 7th-8th grade. To help you become more familiar with the goals and objectives of the lessons, we will be sending home pamphlets with the children with helpful information. Please read through these brochures, and feel free to discuss with your children. If you have any questions about the objectives of the program or would like to preview the materials, please stop by my office. Together we can help make your child more confident about staying safe and setting boundaries for themselves and others.

THIS WEEK, or Whenever You Can, Attend a Pivotal Players or Catholicism Session; Each Episode Stands Alone.

St. Benedict of Nursia
is This Week's Pivotal Player

Bishop Robert Barron says that St. Benedict may be the most pivotal of all the Pivotal Players because his monks and spiritual descendants contributed to the saving of Christian culture in the West.

At the time when Roman order had collapsed, and barbarian invaders were picking through the rubble of a once great civilization, Benedict founded the religious community that would, in time, preserve the best of the old and allow for the emergence of an authentic, Christian way of life.

Benedict's spiritual descendants relentlessly preserved Seneca, Cicero, Plato, Aristotle, Aristophanes, Caesar – in fact, everything of value that we have from the ancient world. Without Benedict, there may never have been a Thomas Aquinas, Catherine of Sienna, Michelangelo, or John Henry Newman.

Explore "The Rule" that he created to guide the lives of his brothers in the community. But the Rule is not only for those who choose the monastic life; it is also for all who seek a humane and more ordered life. The Rule is of enormous practical value – it works.

Journey with Bishop Barron to Rome, Subiaco, Montecassino, Mont-Saint-Michel, Monte Casino and all of the locations that played a significant role in the incredible life of St. Benedict, the "cave-dwelling kid" who changed the course of western civilization!

Join us Monday at 7:00 p.m. in the Alexandria Room.

CATHOLICISM Lesson 5, Peter, Paul and the Missionary Adventure

Bishop Barron calls Peter and Paul "two indispensable men, the ones without whom the church never would have emerged and survived." In telling each man's story, Bishop Barron shows how the Holy Spirit worked through all the apostles and disciples to build the Church.

As historical figures, they are fascinating. But they are not merely of historical interest. They live on as Saints, whose tireless work inspired writings and holy witness are vital, dynamic realities within the family of Jesus Christ. They are principle archetypes for disciples of Jesus.

Peter represents the kingly element in the Church's life; Paul represents the prophetic, missionary, teaching element.

Following the trail of these apostles as they took the Gospel to the ends of the earth, Bishop Barron presents the foundations of the apostolic faith, particularly the revelation of Christ's resurrection from the dead.

Remember, you are invited to come to one of the sessions on Thursday:

- Lunchtime at 11:30 a.m. in the Nazareth Room (enjoy the 5 Saints Café sandwich special for only $5 or bring your own)
- The evening session at 7:00 p.m. in the Rome Room.

Gospel Reflections

with Father Tom

Peter and his companions had done their best. They had fished all night but had caught nothing: all their time and effort had been for nothing. They were now tired and dispirited as they washed their nets. It's possible to do one's best, yet at the end of the day, have nothing to show for it, nothing but weariness and wounds. One might study hard for an exam, yet not get the desired results. One might play one's heart out, yet lose the match. One might do one's best to be a good parent, yet a child goes wrong.

Jesus might have said to the apostles, "I'm surprised at you. You're supposed to be experienced fishermen. How could you fish all night and catch nothing? How come the men in that boat over there made a catch?" He might have said this. Had He done so, He would have been saying in effect, "It's your own fault." He would have been blaming them. Now when we fail after having done our best, the last thing we need is blame. To fail is painful enough without someone rubbing salt into the wound. It's terrible if one's best isn't good enough.

Most of us experience failure at one time or another. There is no point in being sentimental about it. Failure breeds despair. The person who can draw strength from failure is very rare. What we need is not blame but someone to believe in us, to encourage us, and to challenge us. Failure is not the falling down, but staying down.

Besides, success isn't everything. We can win an argument but lose a friend. Through competition and promotion, we may advance in our profession, but in terms of relationships, we may be impoverished. Success is sweet at the moment it is achieved. But almost immediately the cup of success begins to drain away and a feeling of emptiness sets in.

Jesus did not blame Peter and his companions. But He didn't encourage them to wallow in self-pity either. Nor did He allow them to rest in failure. He challenged them to try again: "Launch out into the deep and let down the nets for a catch."

Emerson says that each of us has a greater possibility. There is in each of us a chamber, or a closet, that has never been opened. If we are to realize this "greater possibility," we need to be challenged to go beyond ourselves, beyond what we think we are capable of and have settled for. We need someone to say to us, "Launch out into the deep." Jesus knew that Peter was a sinner. But He knew that He was also capable of greatness. Many cults appeal to people's weaknesses. But Jesus appealed, not to Peter's weakness, but his strength. He knew that Peter and his companions were capable of better things. So He threw down a challenge to them – to leave their nets and become fishers of men. And, to their credit, they responded wholeheartedly. They left everything and became His first disciples.

We all need someone who accepts us for what we are, but who believes we are capable of more, and challenges us to realize it.

NET Missionaries

NET Missionaries Spotlight

Editor's Note: Since mid-September, eight young adults, NET Missionaries from Minnesota, have been a part of our Parish Family sharing their infectious enthusiasm as young Catholics. This is our third year hosting the NET Missionaries. We are very excited to welcome them as part of our Parish Family. Over the next few weeks, in an on-going series, we will introduce you to these young adults. Say hello when you see them.

Anna Brown

Anna is 23 years old from Saint Joseph, Michigan. She is a recent convert to Catholicism, and very excited to be able to share her faith with NET this year. Anna graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 2016, with a Master's in English Literature.

Paul Fallon

Paul is 18 years old from Auburn, NY. He enjoys sports. He also enjoys nature and theater. After serving with NET, he would like to go to school for sales.

Host Families Needed. We are in need of parishioners willing to host two (or four, if you have space) of the NET Team for a two-week increment. You don't need to worry about transportation – just provide a place for them to sleep, shower, and meals for the day. Please don't pass up the opportunity to be a blessing to these wonderful young adults who are giving so generously of themselves to our parish!

For more information, please contact:

Kyle VanDuser, CYO Social and Spiritual Coordinator, at 239-207-0537 or kyle@sjecc.com, or Patsy Valentine, NET Team Host Home Coordinator, at 239-398-8332 or paulival@aol.com.

Host Experience

I am so glad we volunteered to host some of the NET Team members. These young men who shared our home blended seamlessly into our lives, leaving behind a pattern of faith for us to follow.

The “boys,” as I call them, slept on the floor and on a bunk bed in my son's room, never complaining about the accommodations or my cooking. They were always grateful! In return, these young men offered to help around the house, help with homework, or help with entertainment, in the form of epic Nerf gun wars with my kids.

These are very hard-working people who spent most of the day out in Naples spreading the word of God to teens. They didn't have much down time, but when they did, it was spent with us. We ate together, talked, played games, went boating, and prayed together.

“Praying was the best part!” that is what my son said about having the NET boys stay with us. What a wonderful example this team has set for my seven and 10-year-old sons. Watching “cool” young men pray the Rosary, read the Bible, and pray before every meal just reinforced the importance of knowing the Lord.

I look forward to hosting any one of these kind souls again in my home and highly recommend others do the same. If there is any drawback to volunteering, I would say it's on the day the team members leave... you will be sad.

God bless,

Joanne Janopoulos

Top 10 Reasons to Become/Remain Catholic!

It is not unusual for people to ask, "Why are you Catholic?" If your response is a blank stare, or "because that was the way I was raised," or even if you think you have a good answer to this question, we guarantee you will benefit from attending this dynamic event. In his light-hearted and fast-paced presentation, Father Mark will share with us his top 10 reasons for becoming and remaining a Catholic!

In addition to his Catholic ministries, Father Mark is a trained, working voice-over artist, and performs annually with many local theater groups, being in the cast of more than 60 musicals over his lifetime, most recently in Jesus Christ Superstar! He is passionate about conducting retreats, parish missions, days and evenings of reflection, and teaching scripture.
