

the SAINT JOHN the EVANGELIST CATHOLIC CHURCH
EAGLE

To Know, To Love, and To Serve God
in His Church and Our Community.

Knights of Columbus Tootsie Roll Drive

On Saturday and Sunday, April 13th and 14th, the St. John the Evangelist Knights of Columbus and their families will be collecting donations before and after all Masses as part of their annual Tootsie Roll Campaign. 100% of proceeds received go directly to local agencies that provide social, vocational, educational, and life skills to citizens with disabilities right in our community. Special Olympics, STARability Foundation, and United Cerebral Palsy of Southwest Florida are a few of the primary beneficiaries of your generous donations.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Gospel Reflections

with Father Tom

For three years, Jesus had gone from village to village doing good, teaching, and healing. Everywhere He went, He was surrounded by crowds of people who listened to Him, and sought things from Him. It had been an incredibly full and active three years. Yet during all that time, He had been in control. He came and went more or less as He pleased.

But when He was handed over to his enemies in the garden of Gethsemane (handed over by one of His own), all this came to an end. It represented a turning point in His ministry. From then on, He began to undergo suffering. And that's when His passion began. From that moment on, He was no longer in control of what was happening. Things were now done to Him rather than by Him.

Thus He was arrested, put in prison, led before Caiphas, Herod, and Pilate, interrogated, scourged, crowned with thorns, given a cross to carry, stripped of His clothes, nailed to the cross, mocked ... and finally, He died. Jesus fulfilled His mission not only by what He did, but also, and more especially, by what was done to Him – by His passion. We have to be very clear about one thing: the Father didn't throw Him to the wolves. Jesus died voluntarily. He gave His life.

Much of our lives are determined more by what is done to us than by what we do: in a very real sense, this is our passion. It is this passion, if we can genuinely accept it, as well as our actions, that leads to salvation. It is important to realize the extent to which we are acted upon. As children, we are 'at the mercy' of adults. As we move through life, there is fate, betrayal, bad-luck, illness of one kind or another, loss of friendships, failure in relationships, disappointments with spouses and children, the death of loved ones, the drudgery of the workplace, and so on.

Of course, there are joyful moments and periods of peace, too. But the reality is that there are many things which are outside our control. They are all part of what it means to be human. We do, however, have a choice in how we respond to what life throws at us. It can make us or break us. Jesus survived as Himself – strong, pure, good. Who would we be, if loss, or crisis, or the depredations of time were to take away from us the trappings of success, of self-importance, even personality, itself?

The Passion Story shows how Jesus responded to what was done to Him. He absorbed all the violence, transformed it, and returned it as love and forgiveness. This is the victory of love over all the powers of destruction. There was nothing but love in him. Even when they nailed his hands and feet, he was loving. It helps to think about that when we are going through hard times.

BONUS Session Six
–The Resurrection–
Wednesday,
April 17th

Jesus' Passion is not the end of the story. Continue the journey to explore the theology and scriptural insights of His Resurrection. Examine the importance of the Resurrection of Christ for our Catholic Faith. Look at the details from the Gospel accounts of Christ's appearance to his disciples, the Great Commission, and the Ascension. Could the Resurrection have been an elaborate hoax? Was it just a spiritual resurrection? Are the Gospel accounts reliable? We will see that Christ is indeed risen!

Jesus doesn't want our applause. He wants our hearts. Are you ready to draw closer to Jesus in his passion and resurrection than you ever have before?

Whether you attended the Passion sessions or not, attend this one-hour program focusing on the Resurrection on Wednesday, April 17, at 9:45 a.m., 11:00 a.m., and 6:00 p.m. in the Nazareth Room of the Pulte Family Life Center.

Celebrating the Triduum:
Holy Thursday, Good
Friday, and Holy Saturday

The Triduum celebrations begin with evening Mass on Maundy Thursday, which recalls the Last Supper and Christ's institution of the Eucharist.

On Good Friday, after the reading of the passion according to St. John, special prayers for the whole world, and the adoration of the cross, comes the Mass of the Presanctified, in which there is no consecration, but hosts already consecrated are distributed.

After sunset on Holy Saturday, the Easter Vigil celebrates Christ's resurrection and our dying and rising with him in baptism. A service of light and the blessing of the paschal candle introduce a series of scriptural readings that recapitulate the whole history of salvation from creation to the resurrection. The catechumens are baptized, they and the candidates are confirmed, and the whole community renews its baptismal promises before the Eucharist is celebrated.

(c.f. A Concise Dictionary of Theology)

You are invited to participate in as many liturgical celebrations of the Easter Triduum (three days) as possible. See the complete schedule in this Bulletin.

Women of the Word begin a new book,
"What Happens When Women Say Yes to God."

If you've ever found yourself wondering what is God's plan for my life or can He really use me, you're not alone. Lysa TerKeurst has wrestled through those same questions. But she's also learned that we were absolutely created to participate in God's divine activity and experience His rich blessings. We just have to say yes to Him!

This book reveals how honoring God produces a life of deep joy and great purpose. It is an invitation to seek God and boldly ask for and expect more from the Christian life.

Get ready for a journey of joy and purpose—one that will radically bless you beyond what you can ask or imagine.

Reignite your passion for the Lord by discovering the incredible opportunities He's already placed in front of you and the courage to say yes.

Meet with other women of all ages and walks of life on Thursday at 9:30 a.m. in the Alexandria Room of the Claussen Family Center.

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy as a Novena

The Lord promised, "By this Novena, I will grant every possible grace to souls."

"I desire that during these nine days you bring souls to the fountain of My mercy, that they may draw there from strength and refreshment and whatever grace they have need of in the hardships of life, and especially at the hour of death."

The Novena will begin on Good Friday.
We can make this novena for our personal intentions,
for others and for the souls in Purgatory.

First Day – Today bring to Me ALL MANKIND, ESPECIALLY ALL SINNERS

Most Merciful Jesus, whose very nature it is to have compassion on us and to forgive us, do not look upon our sins but upon our trust which we place in Your infinite goodness. Receive us all into the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart, and never let us escape from it. We beg this of You by Your love which unites You to the Father and the Holy Spirit. Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon all mankind and especially upon poor sinners, all enfolded in the Most Compassionate Heart of Jesus. For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, show us Your mercy, that we may praise the omnipotence of Your mercy for ever and ever. Amen.

Second Day – Today bring to Me THE SOULS OF PRIESTS AND RELIGIOUS

Most Merciful Jesus, from whom comes all that is good, increase Your grace in men and women consecrated to Your service, that they may perform worthy works of mercy; and that all who see them may glorify the Father of Mercy who is in heaven. Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon the company of chosen ones in Your vineyard-upon the souls of priests and religious; and endow them with the strength of Your blessing. For the love of the Heart of Your Son in which they are enfolded, impart to them Your power and light, that they may be able to guide others in the way of salvation and with one voice sing.

Third Day – Today bring to Me ALL DEVOUT AND FAITHFUL SOULS

Most Merciful Jesus, from the treasury of Your mercy You impart Your graces in great abundance to each and all. Receive us into the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart and never let us escape from it. We beg this of You by that most wondrous love for the heavenly Father with which Your Heart burns so fiercely. Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon faithful souls, as upon the inheritance of Your Son. For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, grant them Your blessing and surround them with Your constant protection. Thus may they never fail in love or lose the treasure of the holy faith, but rather, with all the hosts of Angels and Saints, may they glorify Your boundless mercy for endless ages. Amen.

Fourth Day – Today bring to Me THOSE WHO DO NOT BELIEVE IN GOD AND THOSE WHO DO NOT YET KNOW ME

Most compassionate Jesus, You are the Light of the whole world. Receive into the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart the souls of those who do not believe in God and of those who as yet do not know You. Let the rays of Your grace enlighten them that they, too, together with us, may extol Your wonderful mercy; and do not let them escape from the abode which is Your Most Compassionate Heart. Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon the souls of those who do not believe in You, and of those who as yet do not know You, but who are enclosed in the Most Compassionate Heart of Jesus. Draw them to the light of the Gospel. These souls do not know what great happiness it is to love You. Grant that they, too, may extol the generosity of Your mercy for endless ages. Amen.

Divine Mercy

Fifth Day – Today bring to Me THE SOULS OF THOSE WHO HAVE SEPARATED THEMSELVES FROM MY CHURCH

Most Merciful Jesus, Goodness Itself, You do not refuse light to those who seek it of You. Receive into the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart the souls of those who have separated themselves from Your Church. Draw them by Your light into the unity of the Church, and do not let them escape from the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart; but bring it about that they, too, come to glorify the generosity of Your mercy. Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon the souls of those who have separated themselves from Your Son's Church, who have squandered Your blessings and misused Your graces by obstinately persisting in their errors. Do not look upon their errors, but upon the love of Your own Son and upon His bitter Passion, which He underwent for their sake, since they, too, are enclosed in His Most Compassionate Heart. Bring it about that they also may glorify Your great mercy for endless ages. Amen.

Sixth Day – Today bring to Me THE MEEK AND HUMBLE SOULS AND THE SOULS OF LITTLE CHILDREN

Most Merciful Jesus, You yourself have said, "Learn from Me for I am meek and humble of heart." Receive into the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart all meek and humble souls and the souls of little children. These souls send all heaven into ecstasy and they are the heavenly Father's favorites. They are a sweet-smelting bouquet before the throne of God; God himself takes delight in their fragrance. These souls have a permanent abode in Your Most Compassionate Heart, O Jesus, and they unceasingly sing out a hymn of love and mercy. Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon meek souls, upon humble souls, and upon little children who are enfolded in the abode which is the Most Compassionate Heart of Jesus. These souls bear the closest resemblance to Your Son. Their fragrance rises from the earth and reaches Your very throne. Father of mercy and of all goodness, I beg You by the love You bear these souls and by the delight You take in them: Bless the whole world, that all souls together may sing out the praises of Your mercy for endless ages. Amen.

Seventh Day – Today bring to Me THE SOULS WHO ESPECIALLY VENERATE AND GLORIFY MY MERCY

Most Merciful Jesus, whose Heart is Love Itself, receive into the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart the souls of those who particularly extol and venerate the greatness of Your mercy. These souls are mighty with the very power of God Himself. In the midst of all afflictions and adversities they go forward, confident of Your mercy; and united to You, O Jesus, they carry all mankind on their shoulders. These souls will not be judged severely, but Your mercy will embrace them as they depart from this life. Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon the souls who glorify and venerate Your greatest attribute, that of Your fathomless mercy, and who are enclosed in the Most Compassionate Heart of Jesus. These souls are a living Gospel; their hands are full of deeds of mercy, and their hearts, overflowing with joy, sing a canticle of mercy to You, O Most High! I beg You O God: Show them Your mercy according to the hope and trust they have placed in You. Let there be accomplished in them the promise of Jesus, who said to them that during their life, but especially placed at the hour of death, the souls who venerate this fathomless mercy of His, He, Himself, will defend as His glory. Amen.

Eighth Day – Today bring to Me THE SOULS WHO ARE DETAINED IN PURGATORY

Most Merciful Jesus, You Yourself have said that You desire mercy; so I bring into the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart the souls in Purgatory, souls who are very dear to You, and yet, who must make retribution to Your justice. May the streams of Blood and Water which gushed forth from Your Heart put out the flames of Purgatory, that there, too, the power of Your mercy may be celebrated. Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon the souls suffering in Purgatory, who are enfolded in the Most Compassionate Heart of Jesus. I beg You, by the sorrowful Passion of Jesus Your Son, and by all the bitterness with which His most sacred Soul was flooded: Manifest Your mercy to the souls who are under Your just scrutiny. Look upon them in no other way but only through the wounds of Jesus, Your dearly beloved Son; for we firmly believe that there is no limit to your goodness.

Ninth Day – Today bring to Me SOULS WHO HAVE BECOME LUKEWARM

Most compassionate Jesus, You are Compassion Itself. I bring lukewarm souls into the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart. In this fire of Your pure love let these tepid souls, who like corpses, filled You with such deep loathing, be once again set aflame. O Most Compassionate Jesus, exercise the omnipotence of Your mercy and draw them into the very ardor of Your love, and bestow upon them the gift of holy love, for nothing is beyond Your power. Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon lukewarm souls who are nonetheless enfolded in the Most Compassionate Heart of Jesus. Father of Mercy, I beg You by the bitter Passion of Your Son and by His three-hour agony on the Cross: Let them, too, glorify the abyss of Your mercy. Amen.
