To Know, To Love, and To Serve God in His Church and Our Community.

the EAGLE

Church Reopens on June 29!

Join us for the first Mass back in the church, and celebrate its completion

It is hard to believe that nearly one year ago, our Parish Family was moved out of our Sanctuary. There were significant concerns that the structural ceiling above our heads was damaged by Hurricane Irma beyond saving. The pews were warped from the water that seeped into the building. The carpet was ruined. The organ pit had flooded. Rain had driven deep into the air conditioning duct work and throughout the building. While we had cleaned it and stabilized it enough to utilize the building through the 2017-2018 season, we had to open it up as soon as possible to find out just how bad and how deep the damage really was.

We were blessed to find only about 10% of the ceiling required repair, but the extensive and pervasive damage throughout the building needed to be addressed. Since we were opening up nearly every wall of the church already, requiring a significant displacement of our Parish Family, it was determined that we should take this opportunity to renovate and renew the facility at the same time as repairing the issues from the hurricane. It has been a long road of recovery for the building, and we thank our partners, Gates Construction, Studio + Architects, Baker Liturgical, the Diocese Building Office, and Collier County for assisting us in this journey.

Please join us on Saturday, June 29, at 3:00 p.m., for the official reopening of our new church. Bishop Dewane will be dedicating and consecrating our new Altar, and we will have tours prior to the Mass for those interested in learning about the changes.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

It's impossible to live the life of a Christian without the help of the Holy Spirit. But to appreciate the role of the Spirit in the life of a Christian, we have to start with Jesus, Himself. Even Jesus needed the Spirit. The Spirit had a big role to play in His life. The Spirit descended on Him at His baptism, revealing Him as the Father's beloved Son.

At His baptism, He also received power from on high for the mission He was about to begin. The Spirit was not just given for a moment; the Spirit remained with Him throughout His public ministry. Jesus was continually led, strengthened and guided by the Spirit.

He began His ministry by making His own the lovely words of Isaiah: "The spirit of the Lord has been given to me, for he has anointed me. He has sent me to bring the good news to the poor, to proclaim liberty to captives and to the blind new sight, to set the downtrodden free, to proclaim the Lord's year of favor."

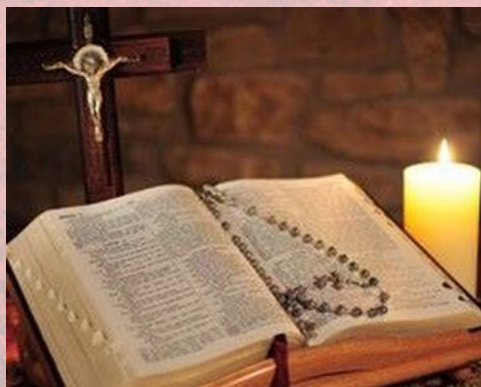

What a beautiful mission. And how faithful He was to it. Jesus was filled with the Spirit, and power went out from Him through His gracious words and compassionate deeds.

It was the Spirit who opened the minds of His disciples and helped them to understand the meaning of His death. When He was raised up to glory at the right hand of the Father, Jesus poured out the Spirit on those who were to carry on his mission. The Holy Spirit descended on the apostles, individually and collectively. Filled with the Holy Spirit, they began their mission. And we see the great courage and confidence with which they did so.

And the same Spirit descends on us at our Baptism and Confirmation. The Spirit is not given for a moment but accompanies us on our journey in the footsteps of Jesus. The Spirit gives us power to participate in the work of Jesus. The Holy Spirit is our strength in times of weakness, our guide in times of doubt, our consoler in times of sadness, our advocate who always pleads our cause. We can't take even one step without the Spirit. The gifts of the Spirit are: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord. Wisdom, understanding, and counsel (right judgment) guide our mind and assist our conscience in knowing right from wrong. Fortitude (courage) enables us to do the right thing even when it is difficult or unpopular. Fear of the Lord is really awe and reverence for God.

St. Paul talks about the fruits of the Spirit (Gal 5:22). The Spirit brings love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. These are beautiful things, and make life joyful.

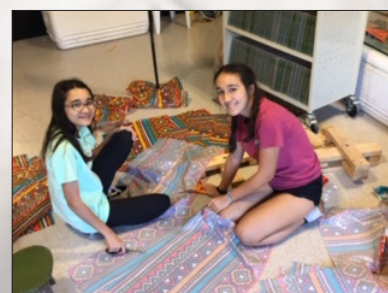

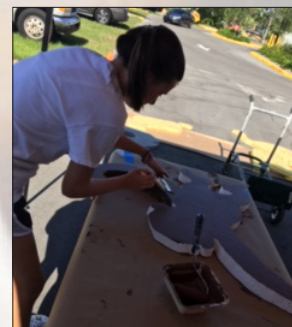

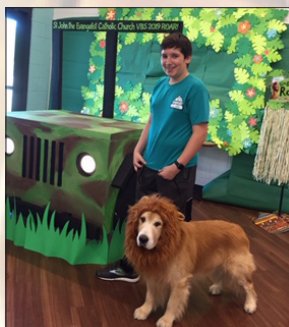

The coming of the Spirit provided the apostles with the energy, the courage, and the love to get on with the task Christ had given them. The Holy Spirit will do that for us if we invite Him.

If you are one of the over 600 parishioners who have been receiving the Resurrection mini-series over the last few weeks, you are part of the flock, and you can turn the page.

For the other parishioners in the pews, just one minute today will give you the chance to see what you have been missing. Try it, you may like it. And if you don't, one click will stop it.

Early in the morning each Wednesday, beginning June 12th, you will receive an email with a short (eight or nine minute) video drawn from the award-winning Catholicism series answering the question, Who Is Jesus?

Is Jesus just a nice, moral teacher? Was he just like all the other religious founders? What was different and special about him? This mini-course will help you encounter the real Jesus, to know Him and love Him, and to learn why He still matters today.

You can view it anytime at your convenience, and share it with others, too.

This series runs for three weeks.

- Week 1: Who Is Jesus? Jesus is different than any other religious leader because He didn't come to share a message. He came to share Himself. That's why Jesus asks Peter, "Who do you say that I am?" (And not, "What do you think about my teachings?")
- Week 2: Why did Jesus have to die on the Cross? When Jesus died on the Cross, He took all sin upon Himself, along with every form of human darkness – betrayal, mockery, torture, and death. Yet, many of us wonder: why did he have to die that way? Why was the Cross necessary to forgive our sins?
- Week 3: Why does the Resurrection matter? The Resurrection is the cornerstone of the Christian faith. In fact, as St. Paul says, if the Resurrection didn't happen, our entire faith would be pointless. But how do we know the Resurrection happened? And why is it good news?

Verse 1)

When the music fades, all is stripped away and I simply come; longing just to bring something that's of worth, that will bless your heart

Pre-Chorus)

I'll bring you more than a song,
for a song in itself is not what you have required.
You search much deeper within, through the way things appear—you're looking into my heart...

Verse 2)

King of endless worth, no one could express
How much you deserve; Though I'm weak and poor, all I have is yours, ev'ry single breath.

Chorus)

I'm coming back to the heart of worship,
And it's all about you, all about you Jesus.
I'm sorry Lord, for the thing I've made it,
When it's all about you, all about you, Jesus.

Verse 3)

And as I receive your Body and your Blood, given up for me; Take me as I am, call me to the Feast—say the word, I'm healed—

Saint Ann Student Is State Winner!
"Proud of America" Essay Contest

Congratulations to Saint Ann School Student Teagan Costantini for winning the Elks Lodge Contest! The Americanism Essay Contest is a program of the Elks' Grand Lodge Fraternal Committee geared towards students in 5th through 8th grades to promote patriotism among young people. Our student won for the entire state of Florida!

What Makes you Proud of America
By Teagan Costantini
Division I: Fifth & Sixth Grade

Our country is a melting pot. This means that our country is made of many different people from places all over the world. Some of my best friends were not born in the USA, but they emigrated from countries such as Haiti, China, Vietnam, Chile and many more. To emigrate means to leave your home country to start a new life in another country. I love that our country is a place where all people are able to come to try to create a better life for themselves and their families.

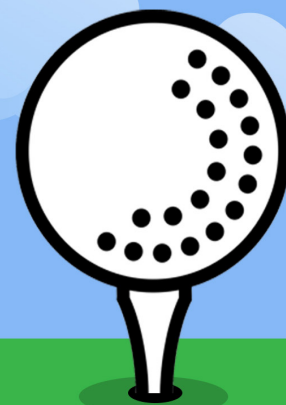

My own grandfather came to America from Italy with his sister when he was only 11 and she was 14 years old. They stayed with their uncle until their parents arrived a few years later. They had a very hard life in Italy, and their family was very poor. Here in America, there were many more opportunities for work. Everyone in the family worked very hard, and their life improved greatly.

I am so grateful and happy that our wonderful country is a place where anyone who wants to improve their life and is willing to work hard is able to do it here in America. If the United States wasn't this type of country, my grandfather may not have ever left Italy, and my family and life would not be the same! Once people emigrate here, they have many freedoms and rights that they may not have had in their other country. These rights include freedom of religion, freedom of speech and freedom of the press. Not only am I grateful to live in a country that welcomes people of any color, religion, gender or culture, I'm happy that their rights and freedoms are protected once they are here. This is what makes me proud of America!
