2019 Arts and Music Camp Serves Entire Community

This camp was by far our best music and arts camp to date. It was incredibly special and moving to have the Gargiulo campers there, and having all the teachers, some of whom were volunteering their time, to come together to make this a reality for those children. They are amazing children and were so grateful and loving. I will never forget one little girl walking into the painting room for the first time and screaming, "This room is my dream, Ms. Jennine!" That brought me to tears. The other children were fantastic, as well, and had such wonderful energy. All the campers had such good spirits and came together to make it an amazing week of music and arts.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Welcome Back to St. John

All the children learned a lot in one week. They were playing melodies on the guitar while reading the music on staff lines, and some of the older campers learned chords in addition to individual notes. They learned how to play songs on the piano; learned singing techniques; put together a mini Lion King show (which included the kids making their own costumes); and created some beautiful paintings. Parents commented after the showcase on Friday on how this is one of the best summer camps in the area. Many of the parents also commented on how much their children learned in one week, and how it's worth every penny because we brought in highly-qualified, professional instructors. All our instructors are State of Florida-certified teachers. We had a couple kids with special needs, and our professional instructors were able to accommodate them to ensure they learned and made progress along with the other students. It was also very kind of Ovidio and Jesus to pick up the students every day, and especially to pick up the parents from Gargiulo on Friday so they could come see their children perform in the showcase. Saint John did well this week for both the Gargiulo children and our parish family children. We served the children in our own backyard, and that's where it all begins.

Gospel Reflections

with Father Tom

When Jesus sent out the seventy-two disciples, He said that their first words on entering a house were to be: “Peace to this house.” They were to be ambassadors of peace and goodwill. Without peace nothing is possible.

Peace is not just the absence of war or enmity. It implies openness, friendship, tolerance, goodwill, hospitality, reconciliation. It disposes us to reach out to others. It helps to break down barriers of suspicion, fear, prejudice, and bigotry.

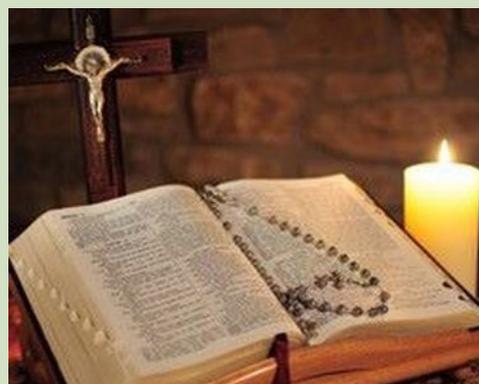

Working for peace means welcoming people close to us, those who annoy us or disagree with us, and those who provoke anguish within us. To take the path of peace is to accept people as they are, with all their limitations and weaknesses. The people we need to make peace with are not just our friends but our enemies.

Shortly before Communion, the priest says to us, “The peace of the Lord be with you always.” What a wonderful gift is being offered to us – the peace of Christ, a peace which the world cannot give. Then he invites us to “offer each other a sign of peace.” The hand we reach out to our neighbors is the same hand with which we receive Jesus in Communion.

We come to Mass to receive blessings from the Lord. If we took nothing else away with us from here but peace, our time would be well spent. We must be prepared to give back something of what we have received. The end of the Mass is not like the end of a football game or film where we simply get up and leave. At the end of the Mass, we are sent out. Having received the peace of Christ, we are then sent out as ambassadors of peace to others.

If we wish to be effective messengers of peace, three things are necessary. Firstly, we have to have peace ourselves. Secondly, we have to be willing to share that peace with others. And thirdly, the other person has to be willing to receive it from us.

The harvest is great. The opportunities for sharing peace are many. We may not always succeed, because it takes at least two to make peace. The great danger is that we will allow people to take peace away. This happens whenever we become angry, hostile, bitter, or vengeful when others do not respond favorably to us.

We have to accept that our peace will not always be accepted. It may come back to us like the echo of our own voice. But at least we ought to try. In a world torn apart by rivalry, anger, and hatred, we have the challenging vocation to be living signs of love that can bridge divisions and heal wounds.

Women of St. John the Evangelist, What Are You Doing This Summer on Thursday Mornings? This May Be a Great Opportunity for You to “Meet St. Paul.”

This week Women of the Word, women of all ages and walks of life, will begin reading and discussing the book, Meeting St. Paul Today, Understanding the Man, His Mission, and His Message by Daniel J. Harrington, SJ.

Whether you are a regular participant or have not yet attended a WoW session, this is a great time to join in this six-week study beginning July 11th and completing on August 15th. And you can attend any or all of the sessions as your schedule allows.

Here is an overview: Teachings based on the letters of St. Paul permeate just about everything Christians believe and practice, but many of us know very little about this great apostle of the Church. In Meeting St. Paul Today, preeminent scholar Daniel J. Harrington, SJ, brings the letters of Paul and the apostle himself to life.

Harrington, writing with great respect for St. Paul and his ministry, covers three main topics in this helpful and highly readable book for any discerning Christian. First, he describes what Paul was really like, from his days as a Pharisee to his arduous years as a missionary. Second, he helps readers interpret the letters of Paul through literary, historical, and theological lenses. Finally, he thoughtfully surveys the specific purpose, major points, and other compelling particulars of each of the letters of Paul.

Daniel J. Harrington, SJ, is professor of New Testament at Boston College School of Theology and Ministry in Cambridge, MA. He has been general editor of New Testament Abstracts since 1972 and is a past president of the Catholic Biblical Association of America.

Meet with other women of all ages and walks of life on Thursdays at 9:30 a.m. in the Alexandria Room of the Clausen Family Center.

St. Vincent de Paul's Thrift Store Needs Donations

Thrift store donations account for over 65% of St. Vincent de Paul's revenue that supports Meals-on-Wheels, Our Choice Food Pantry, and assistance with rent, utilities, and emergencies for the poor and needy children, families, and senior citizens. We receive no government funding, and depend on the generosity of private individuals like you.

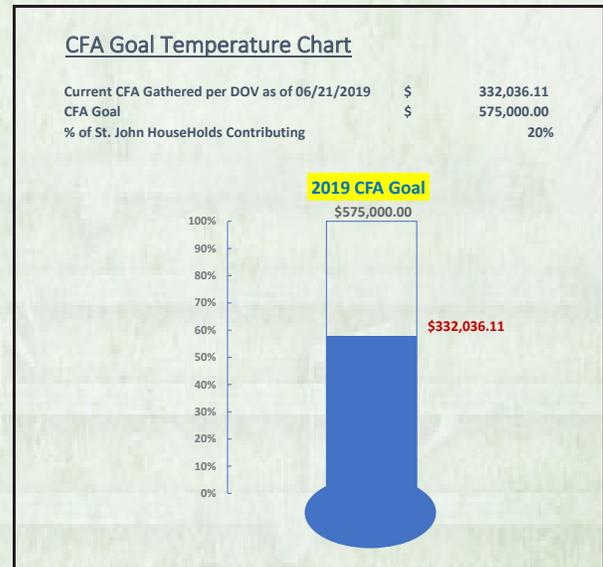

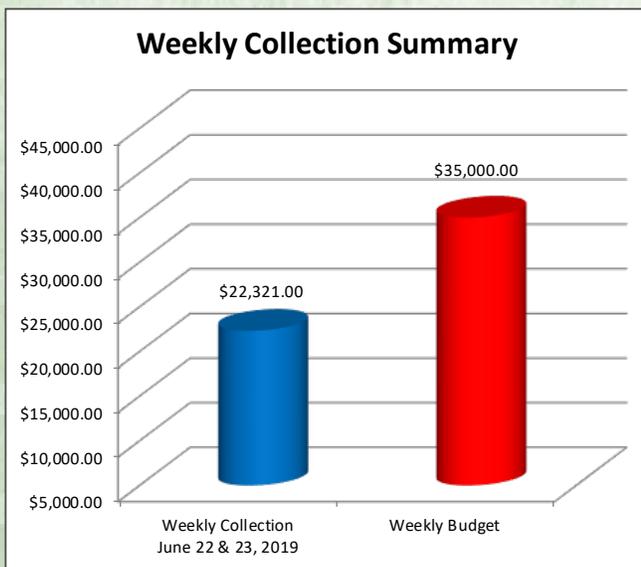

The funds generated by the merchandise you donate to our Thrift Stores go directly into our human services programs like Meals-on-Wheels. Last year, St. Vincent de Paul delivered over 50,000 meals, $52,000 worth of household items, totaling over $885,000 in assistance and support to our fellow neighbors.

Call to schedule a free pickup of furniture, or drop off books, household items, clothing, art, sports equipment, and electronics at one of our two locations in Bonita Springs or Naples.

Stories of Faith and Hope

The Power of Prayer: Kathy Conley's Story

The Conley Family would like to extend its most sincere appreciation to the St. John the Evangelist community for its prayers offered on behalf of Kathy Conley over the past two years. On June 22, 2017, Kathy suffered a severe head trauma that caused a traumatic brain injury. At that time, we asked the parish community to assist us in seeking healing and recovery for Kathy through the power of prayer.

The doctors said she could not be saved. She went into a coma, and was then paralyzed. Kathy was unable to speak and had no functionality, but the power of prayer trumped medicine.

It is with great pleasure that we inform this parish community that your prayers have been answered, and God has given Kathy the opportunity to continue her life in full capacity. Her recovery has been nothing short of a miracle, and although the journey is ongoing, she has achieved full functionality and has returned to the life she lead prior to her fall.

We, as a family, can't thank you enough for your generosity and willingness to keep Kathy in your prayers.

"Such a prayer offered in faith will heal the sick, as the Lord will make you well." James 5:15
