*To Know, To Love, and To Serve God
in His Church and Our Community.*

Finish the Church: Update on Financial Status and Memorial Gifts

Our Parish Family continues to astonish me every single day. The outpouring of positive and engaging comments of our new church has been overwhelming. While we may still be in the “kicking the tires” phase of this new building, our Parish Family is grateful to be back in our home. Thank you to all of you who have put up with the tremendously powerful Air Conditioning and sometimes squeaky sound system while we continue to refine and get used to our church. Together, we built an intimate, yet open, warm, yet enlivening environment for our Masses, Services, and our Faith Community.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Finish the Church: Update on Financial Status and Memorial Gifts

As part of the continued communication about our efforts to “Finish the Church,” we wanted to provide an update on the generosity of our Parish Family, and refine a few comments from the past conversations. First off, it was apparent that while we were able to illustrate how pervasive the $16.4 million in construction that has occurred here at Saint John the Evangelist in just the past two years, the chart that clearly provides our current financial status was way too small in the bulletin the last time we provided it. So, here is the Financial Impact of our all efforts:

Results: Financial Impact

- * Fully 85% of Campus Renovated
  - * Virtually New Church
  - * Comprehensive Security and Safety Environment

	$ Millions
Pulte Family Life Center	7.2
Church Construction	5.3
Other Campus Repairs/Enhancements	3.9
Total Campus Cost	16.4
Less: Insurance Recovery	(3.6)
	12.8
Capital Campaign Funds	11.0
Remaining Capital Need (Borrowed)	$1.8 Million

Finish the Church: Update on Financial Status and Memorial Gifts

After the most recent communication on how we will Finish the Church, there has been a tremendous response. Here is an updated list of available Memorial Gift Opportunities left since just the past two weeks have gone by:

New Memorial Opportunities

Memorial Opportunity	Gift Requested
Altar Crucifix	$ 250,000.00
Altar Mary Statue	$ 100,000.00
Altar Joseph Statue	$ 100,000.00
Altar	$ 250,000.00
Ambo	$ 25,000.00
Lectern	$ 10,000.00
Baptismal Font	$ 20,000.00
Organ	$ 150,000.00
Mary and Child Shrine	$ 100,000.00
St. John Shrine	$ 100,000.00
Gift Shop	$ 50,000.00
Sacristy	$ 50,000.00
Homeless Jesus Statue	$ 30,000.00
Large Brick Memorials	$ 5,000.00
Small Brick Memorials	$ 1,000.00

As you can see, many of these priceless options have been spoken for, so if you are still interested in memorializing you and/or your family within our Sanctuary, please contact Jean-Paul Boucher (jp@sjecc.com) or (239) 566-8740 at your earliest convenience.

One question we received from this list is about the brick memorials. We are planning on excavating the area in front of the church that used to be under the opening in the overhang and filling it with these memorial bricks. Just like the brick memorials for the Pulte Family Life Center, we will have the regular bricks available for $1,000. The larger, double-sized bricks are available for $5,000. You can see what the bricks look like at the front of the Life Center on page 1.

We hope these brick options give our entire Parish Family an opportunity to contribute to Finish the Church so we can enjoy it for decades to come.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

“I have come to set the earth on fire ... I came, not to bring peace, but rather division.” Strange words to hear coming from Jesus! We wouldn’t expect Him to use fire and the sword (division). Nor did He. When James and John wanted Him to call down fire and brimstone on a Samaritan village, He told them they didn’t know what they were talking about. And when Peter drew his sword in the garden, Jesus told him to put it away.

Jesus did not come to cause trouble or to break-up families. But sometimes this happened. In the early days of the Church, conversion to Christianity was likely to lead to rejection by the family, and therefore, the convert had to make a choice between Christ and the family.

It’s clear that when Jesus talks about bringing fire and division, His words are not meant to be taken literally. Yet those words stand for something real in Him. Jesus was gentle. But this doesn’t mean that He was weak. When the occasion demanded it, He could be very assertive – as when He drove the traders out of the Temple.

These words also stand for something very strong in His teaching. His teaching caused division. He taught that the Kingdom of God was open to everyone – saints and sinners, Jews and Gentiles. This brought Him into conflict with the religious establishment of His day. He called the Scribes and Pharisees hypocrites and blind guides. They called Him a troublemaker and a man possessed.

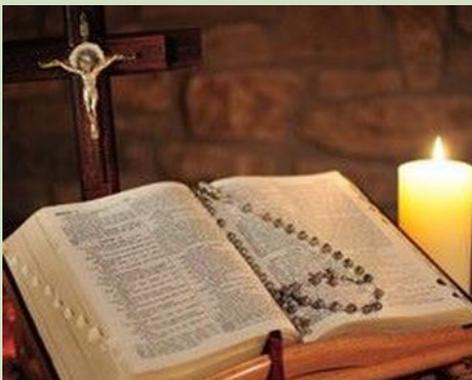

If Jesus had flattered people and said only “nice” things to them, He could have made Himself popular. But He chose to disturb people, because they needed to be disturbed. His words shocked some and infuriated others. The words He spoke to the poor were different from those He spoke to the rich. The words He spoke to sinners were different from those He spoke to the Pharisees. We betray the Gospel if we reduce it to a bland message to all, which ignores the differences between rich and poor, between the privileged and the dispossessed. Such an insipid Gospel would not be a leaven in the world.

There is a tendency to domesticate the Gospel, to reduce it to pretty words and feel-good experiences. When that happens, the fire has gone out, the leaven has lost its power, the salt has lost its taste, the light has grown dim.

Christians should not be surprised if the Gospel should divide people. Jesus’ sense of justice brought Him into conflict with those who exploited the weak and the poor. His integrity brought Him into conflict with the dishonest. His tolerance brought Him into conflict with the narrow-minded and the bigoted. The brighter the light, the darker the shadows it casts.

Jesus says He came to kindle a fire upon the earth. It’s only an image, a metaphor. But it’s a powerful one. It’s a symbol of judgment and purification. Fire burns up what is useless, and refines what is impure.

The Gospel message is a fire that purifies; it is the leaven of society and the world. A fire needs not only to be kindled but also tended. We, the followers of Jesus, are the tenders of the fire.

Key Dates Set to Open a New Year of Faith Formation

As we look to the 2019-2020 school year, we are excited to continue our journey in faith and personal relationship with Jesus Christ. We welcome into our programs children in Prek-3 through 12th grade. Knowing that parents are the first teachers of their children in the ways of the faith, we hope to offer programming that supports, encourages, and extends the teaching of what parents are already doing in their homes. No matter where families are on their faith journey, all are welcome! If you are a family returning this year, we welcome you! If you have been away for a while, or you are new to our parish family, we welcome you! As we prepare for the upcoming year, we invite you to register your children, and visit our offices if you have any questions or concerns. Together, myself and Luz Lozano, Faith Formation Assistant, are here to serve you. Our Offices are located in the Claussen Family Center.

As part of our Faith Formation program, we will be integrating music and movement as we grow in praise and worship through song. We hope to make meaningful connections for them in their prayer life and at Mass. In addition, children of all ages may choose to join our Children's Choir that meets on Wednesdays from 5:15-5:45 p.m. in the Choir Room of the Claussen Center. Children may register for choir by checking the appropriate box on the bottom of page 1 of the Formation registration form. For more information on the Children's Choir, please stop by the Choir Room for an informational meeting on Wednesday, September 11th, from 5:15-5:45 p.m.

Explore Becoming Catholic

All are invited...

- to consider becoming a Catholic Christian,
- to return to the Catholic Church, or
- to receive a Sacrament, you have missed.

You are invited...

- to invite a friend or family member to explore Catholicism.

The process for someone to “become a Catholic” or “return to Catholicism” begins with an invitation. Sometimes the invitation is heard directly from God, but more often it is extended through the people of God, and that is you and me. Or stated another way, in the Church as in any other organization, the best source of new members are current members.

Anyone and everyone who would like to explore “becoming Catholic” is invited to join others with similar questions in a period of inquiry beginning Tuesday, September 17, at 6:30 p.m. in the Antioch Room of the Claussen Family Center. This is an informal opportunity to begin a journey that may or may not result in taking the next step toward full membership in the Catholic Church.

For those who choose, the next step is to enter the more formal process to the Rite for Christian Initiation for Adults (commonly abbreviated RCIA), which begins in early December and culminates with the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist) that are celebrated at the Easter Vigil in April.

As Coordinator of Adult Faith Formation, I’m available to meet with you and/or your friend or family member to discuss what might be involved. I can also facilitate a meeting with a member of the clergy if preferred. Just send me an email or call and leave a message, I’ll respond as soon as I can.

Although the birth rate in the U.S. is down, and nuclear families are smaller, the family of St. John the Evangelist continues to grow. And there is plenty of room for even more members.

The first step begins with you, today.

Invite your family members, friends, co-workers, or others to consider becoming Catholic.

Jack Kindsvater, Adult Faith Formation and RCIA Coordinator: email jack@sjecc.com or call 239.566.8740 ext. 3918 and leave a message. I’ll return your call promptly.

Verse 1)

When he rolls up his sleeves, he ain't just 'puttin' on the ritz'
Our God is an awesome God!
There is thunder in his footsteps and lightning in his fists
Our God is an awesome God!
And the Lord wasn't joking when he kicked 'em out of Eden
It wasn't for no reason that he shed his blood
His return is very close and so you'd better be believin'
That our God is an awesome God! (to chorus)

Verse 2)

When the sky was starless in the void of the night
Our God is an awesome God!
He spoke into the darkness and created the light
Our God is an awesome God!
Judgment and wrath he poured out on Sodom;
Mercy and grace he gave us at the Cross
I hope that we have not too quickly forgotten
That our God is an awesome God! (to chorus)

5 Our God is an awe-some God, He _ reigns from hea-ven a - bove with wis - dom, pow'r, and love, our God is an awe - some God!

Verse 1)

Oh, how could it be
That my God would welcome me into this mystery?
Say, 'take this bread, take this wine':
Now the simple, made Divine—for any to receive.
By your mercy we come to your Table,
By your grace you are making us faithful.

Chorus)

Lord, we remember you,
And remembrance leads us to worship.
And as we worship you,
Our worship leads to Communion.
We respond to your invitation, we remember you.

Verse 2)

See his Body, his Blood:
Know that he has overcome ev'ry trial we will face.
And none too lost to be saved,
None too broken or ashamed,
All are welcome in this place.
By your mercy we come to your Table,
By your grace you are making us faithful

Bridge)

Dying you destroyed our death,
Rising you restored our life,
Lord Jesus come in glory (repeat line)

Verse 1)

Let the King of my heart

Be the shadow where I hide
The ransom for my life
Oh He is my song

You are good good oh
You are good good oh
You are good good oh
You are good good oh

Verse 2)

Let the King of my heart
Be the wind inside my sails
The anchor in the waves
Oh He is my song
Let the King of my heart
Be the fire inside my veins
The echo of my days
Oh He is my song

Verse 3)

Holy Spirit (Holy Spirit), set my life on fire! Holy Spirit

fire! Holy Spirit, set my life on fire! (WOO)

The image shows three staves of musical notation for the closing song. The first staff begins with a double bar line and a fermata over the first note. The lyrics are: "Come Ho - ly Spir - it, let the fi - re fall." The second staff continues the melody with lyrics: "Come Ho - ly Spir - it, let the fi - re fall." The third staff concludes the phrase with lyrics: "Let the fi - re fall. Let the fi - re fall." The notation includes treble clefs, a key signature of one flat, and a 4/4 time signature. The melody is simple and repetitive, with a focus on the lyrics.

Hearing Loop in Church Connects Directly to Hearing Aids in All Seats

During the renovation of the church, we wanted to make it as accessible to people as possible to enjoy and participate in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. One key feature that was implemented was a Hearing Loop throughout the entire Sanctuary. A Hearing Loop is a special system that broadcasts the sound from our church directly into hearing aids that have the T-Coil, or Tele-Coil connection on them (a little switch with the letter "T"). All an individual with those aids needs to do is to flip the switch on their hearing aid to "T," and it will sound like the Priest, Lector, and music are right there with them.
