Finish the Church: Update on Financial Status and Memorial Gifts

Our Parish Family continues to astonish me every single day. The outpouring of positive and engaging comments of our new church has been overwhelming. While we may still be in the “kicking the tires” phase of this new building, our Parish Family is grateful to be back in our home. Thank you to all of you who have put up with the tremendously powerful Air Conditioning and sometimes squeaky sound system while we continue to refine and get used to our church. Together, we built an intimate, yet open, warm, and enlivening environment for our Masses, Services, and our Faith Community.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Thanksgiving in the Park 2019: A Week of Service for the Immokalee Community

Volunteers are being organized now! If you, someone in your family, or a friend or a neighbor, have an interest in being part of this incredible project, now is the time to let us know.

Thanksgiving in the Park is a wonderful opportunity to serve by sharing food, culture, and love. Last year, we fed over 1,700 people on Thanksgiving Day, and the number keeps growing. We need all the help we can get! The opportunities to share in the event are many and, once again, Collier County public high school students will gain volunteer service hours for their participation!

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

Saturday, November 23, and Sunday, November 24: Bring Your Turkey (and Pies) to Church Weekend – To feed everyone in need, we need at least 100 turkeys! Please bring a pre-cooked, frozen turkey to Mass this weekend. Pre-cooked, frozen turkeys can be purchased at Walmart and Publix, where you can find them at the deli counter or in the frozen food area. We also need pies! So, this weekend we will collect store-bought pies, as well.

Wednesday, November 27: Turkey Shredding and Packing Day – Volunteers are needed to shred the turkeys we have received. The two-hour shifts will begin at 8:00 a.m. and continue until 4:00 p.m. Please bring your own kitchen knives and utensils to cut up the turkeys. There is work for all ages. Teach your children about service and volunteerism early by bringing them along.

Thursday, November 28: Serving Thanksgiving Lunch – We will gather at the Immokalee Airport Park at 8:30 a.m. to setup both the park and the food service. Volunteers are needed to get the food warmed up and ready for the 11:00 a.m. start. Once the meal is concluded, further assistance is needed in cleaning and packing the materials to return to St. John.

Friday, November 29: Clean-Up Morning – Beginning at 9:00 a.m., using our industrial kitchen's dishwasher and sinks, we will clean all the pots, pans, and other materials from the park.

Whew!! So much to do and lots of hands needed to get it all done! If you are interested in supporting this wonderful time of encounter and service, please call or email me, Susan Hession, to sign up for one or more of the activities. Please provide the names of the volunteers (ages if they are young people), and the day(s) and time(s) you can help. Email – titp@sjecc.com or Phone – (856) 425-9274. Thank you so much for continuing to serve the community with your gifts of time, talent, and treasure!

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

The prayer of the Pharisee went like this: "I thank you, God, that I am not grasping, unjust, adulterous like the rest of mankind, and particularly that I am not like this Tax Collector here. I fast twice a week; I pay tithes on all I get."

The prayer of the Tax-Collector might well have gone like this: "Lord, look at the Pharisee standing up there so that everybody can see him praying. He thinks he's better than everybody else. He despises people like me. See the long robes he's wearing so as to make himself feel holy and attract attention to himself.

"Everything he does is done, not to bring honor to you, but to win the esteem of others, and thus bring honor to himself. He makes sure to get the seats of honor at banquets and in the synagogue. He loves it when people salute him in the marketplace and call him "Rabbi."

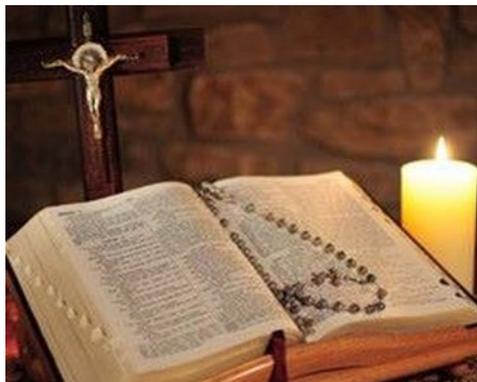

"He gets all hot and bothered about silly little rules of his own making, while neglecting the things that really matter – the practice of justice and mercy. He's good at laying down the law for others. He ought to practice what he preaches. He lives off the contributions of widows.

"Ah, Lord, don't be taken in by him. It's all an act, it's all a show. He's not genuine. He may look clean on the outside, like a whitewashed tomb, but inside he's full of corruption. He's the biggest hypocrite on two feet."

All this and more the Tax-Collector could have said. And the Lord might have added, "I agree with every word you've said," because the Lord himself said all these things about the Pharisees. But the Tax-Collector said nothing of the sort. Instead, he simply said, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner."

What the Pharisee did was confess the sins of others, while at the same time parading his own good deeds. The Tax-Collector did the exact opposite. He confessed his own sins, and left the sins of others between them and God. As a result the Tax-Collector went home at rights with God, whereas the Pharisee did not. We have Jesus' word for this.

It's easy to get into the habit of confessing the sins of others. But it's dangerous because it prevents us from looking at our own sins. Besides, it's impossible to weigh the sins of others without putting our own finger on the scales.

The successful are always tempted to regard their success as a sort of blessing from God or a reward for righteousness. This leads to judgments being made about the unsuccessful, which are both uncharitable and untrue.

We may have been brought up to believe that we had to be dressed up, both outwardly and inwardly, before daring to show our faces in "His" church. But we have to come before God as we are. Because, as Francis of Assisi said: "I am what I am before God. Nothing else. Nothing more. Nothing less."

Finish the Church: Update on Financial Status and Memorial Gifts

As part of the continued communication about our efforts to "Finish the Church," we wanted to provide an update on the generosity of our Parish Family and refine a few comments from the past conversations. First off, while we were able to illustrate how pervasive the $16.4 million in construction that has occurred here at Saint John the Evangelist in just the past two years, the chart that provides our current financial status was way too small in the bulletin the last time we provided it. So, here is the Financial Impact of our all efforts:

Results: Financial Impact

- * Fully 85% of Campus Renovated
- * Virtually New Church
- * Comprehensive Security and Safety Environment

	$ Millions
Pulte Family Life Center	7.2
Church Construction	5.3
Other Campus Repairs/Enhancements	3.9
Total Campus Cost	16.4
Less: Insurance Recovery	(3.6)
	12.8
Capital Campaign Funds	11.0
Remaining Capital Need (Borrowed)	$1.8 Million

One question we received from this list is about the brick memorials. We are planning on excavating the area in front of the church that used to be under the opening in the overhang and filling it with these memorial bricks. Just like the brick memorials for the Pulte Family Life Center, we will have the regular bricks available for $1,000. The larger, double-sized bricks are available for $5,000. You can see what the bricks look like at the front of the Life Center:

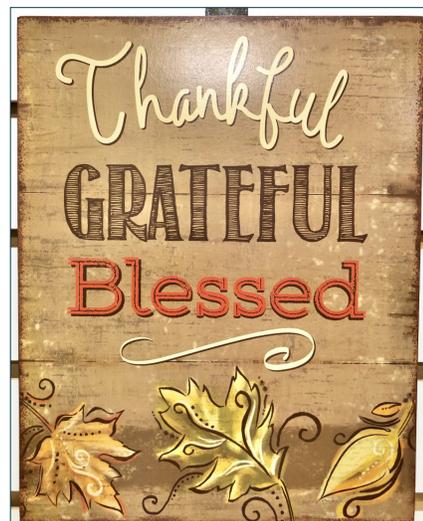

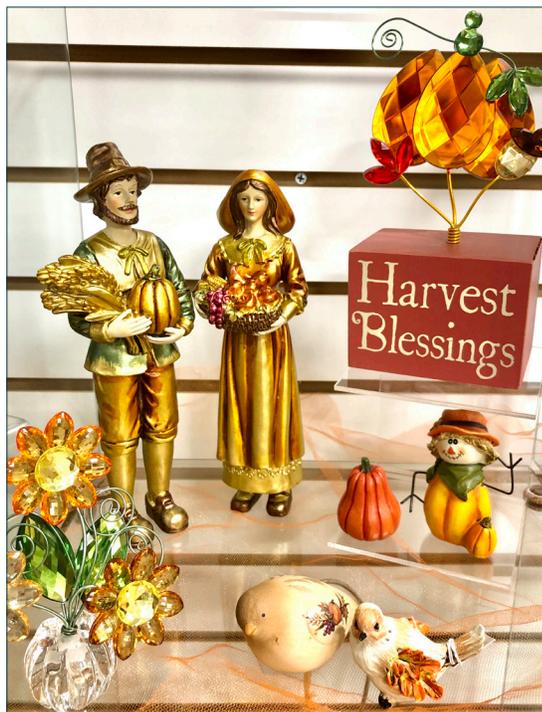

We hope these brick options give our entire Parish Family an opportunity to contribute to Finish the Church so we can enjoy it for decades to come.

Children preparing for First Reconciliation using BLESSED, a video-based curriculum, as part of their preparation.

Look on the Board to see how much learning is going on in Faith Formation!

In Mrs. Talford's and Miss Kristie's class, the children learned that God sent His Holy Spirit to breathe life into the church at Pentecost. They also learned that we all need the Holy Spirit to fill us so that we can be all that God wants us to be.

Catholic Author/Speaker and Physicist – Dr. David Keys Returns to St. John the Evangelist

On November 10th at 6:15 p.m. Dr. Keys will present:
God, Evolution, and the Origin of Life

The issue isn't either religion or science, but both religion and science.

Dr. Keys will contrast the Church's Teachings with modern Science's explanations and will show that there is no conflict between the two when properly understood. In fact, Science should lead one to God. (Rom 1:20)

Learn the teachings of the Church regarding Creation and Science.

You will be familiarized with the Church-approved method of understanding Scripture as applied to Creation, and you will learn the Papal Encyclical requirements regarding the study of Evolution.

Discover how Evolution is Cosmic, Chemical, Biologic, AND PLANNED.

Hear the utterly fascinating story of the "Goldilocks" steps of Earth's Cosmic Evolution (for example, not too hot, not too cold), the incredulous step of Chemical Evolution (Initiation of Life), and the development of animal life in Biologic Evolution, which was consummated with the installation of a Soul in our first parents.

Come to the Nazareth Room of the Pulte Family Life Center Sunday, Nov. 10, 2019, at 6:15 p.m.

Although there is no charge to attend this event, advance registration will enable us to have space for you. Register on the parish web site, www.sjecc.com, or email jack@sjecc.com, or leave a message at 239.228.3918.

David Keys has a Ph.D. in Physics from Washington University in St. Louis (1984) and worked in the field of Medical Physics for 38 years. He was involved in the physics of diagnostic imaging of patients and the physics of radiation treatment of cancer patients. During that time, he was named a Fellow by the American College of Radiology, by the American Association of Physicists in Medicine, and by the American College of Medical Physics.

Sunday Morning is CATHOLICISM Time!

You Are Invited to Drop-in on November 3rd for Lesson 8,
A Vast Company of Witnesses: The Communion of Saints

Bishop Barron demonstrates how the extraordinary lives of St. Katherine Drexel, St. Therese of Lisieux, St. Edith Stein, and St. Teresa of Calcutta display both their passion and the creative potential of the Church.

IT IS NEVER TOO LATE FOR YOU TO JOIN THIS JOURNEY; each lesson stands on its own, so just drop in on any one of the sessions on Sundays at 9:30 a.m. in the Nazareth Room of the Pulte Family Life Center. It's over at 10:45, in time for you to attend 11:00 Mass. Coffee is on the house.

Questions: Just email jack@sjecc.com or call (239) 228-3918 and leave a message. I respond promptly.

Our Parish Celebrates Its Faithful Departed on Saturday, November 2nd

All Souls Day, November 2, is a special day the Church remembering the faithful departed. St. John's has a tradition to specially remember our beloved parish family and family's loved ones who have been born to eternal life. As a sign that our Church keeps our beloved in prayer, and that our beloved is always with the Lord, we will have a special ceremony to remember our parish family and loved ones who have passed away this year at the Saturday, 5:00 p.m. Mass, Nov. 2nd. During the 5:00 p.m. Mass, the names of those who have passed will be recited, and a bouquet of flowers will be presented. If you wish to have a name read and have not received an invitation letter, please call or email the Church Front Office (info@sjecc.com) by no later than Monday, October 28th. Please include the phonetic pronunciation.

SVDP needs your Time and Talent!

The St. John's Conference of the Society of St. Vincent DePaul is in need of a parishioner (preferably with some finance/accounting experience that is a year-round resident) to serve as Treasurer. The Society of St. Vincent DePaul is a network of friends, inspired by Gospel values, growing in holiness and building a more just world through personal relationships with and service to people in need. The Society leads women and men to join together to grow spiritually by offering person-to-person service to those who are needy and suffering in the tradition of its founder, Blessed Frédéric Ozanam, and patron, St. Vincent de Paul. Please contact Carl Monticelli at (973) 901-3333 if you can help fill this critical need or have interest in leaning more about joining the Vincentians ministry in a variety of other active roles to include that of a case worker.

JOP Can Use Help from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. on Oct. 30, 2019

If you can help Jamaica Outreach Program prepare its year-end campaign mailing, we'd be delighted and ever-grateful. We will gather on Wednesday, October 30, from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. in the Rome Room (former Library). No experience necessary! Most of the work is done sitting down: stuffing envelopes with our annual newsletter and solicitation materials, then adding postage, etc. The more hands we have the better, so bring friends and neighbors. No need to RSVP, just show up at whatever time is convenient for you. Have a great day and thanks for giving your time to help the poor in Jamaica.
