Annual Society of St. Vincent DePaul Holiday Food Drive... HELP FEED OUR POOR

In the Book of Matthew, Chapter 25, verse 35, we hear the words “For I was hungry... and you gave me food, I was thirsty... and you gave me drink, a stranger... and you welcomed me.” Now is an opportunity for you to bring these words to life right here in our parish.

Throughout the zip codes served by the St. John the Evangelist Conference of the Society of St. Vincent DePaul (34108, 34109, and 34110), there are over 4,000 households that fall below the poverty line.

You can help with Food!

On the weekend of November 9th and 10th, representatives from the ministry of St. Vincent DePaul at SJE will be outside after all Masses this weekend handing out shopping bags with a list of grocery and miscellaneous items needed for our food pantry. We ask that you take one or more of these bags, fill them with some of the suggested items, and bring them to our collection before and after ALL Masses on Nov. 16 and 17. We also will have a truck available to collect bags on Thanksgiving Day before and after Mass.

You can help by contributing to the Thanksgiving Day Collection!

On Thanksgiving Day, all funds gathered via the envelope collection will go directly to helping the poor served by the St. John’s Conference. If you are unable to be with us at the Thanksgiving Mass, please strongly consider depositing the St.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Teach us to give and not count the cost

– St. Ignatius of Loyola

End of the Year Giving Opportunities for Our Parish Family

What an exciting year we have had already, with our new facilities and new programs breathing life and the Catholic Faith into our community! Our new church has garnered praise from our Parish Family and just about everyone that steps into our hallowed ground. The Pulte Family Life Center was awarded the 2019 Sand Dollar Award for a Public Facility, the highest award for construction in Collier County. Together, we have always responded to the needs of our church and our community. Thank you for living out our mission with both your giving and your actions!

We have some wonderfully unique opportunities this year to provide additional stewardship for those interested in supporting our Parish Mission: To Know, To Love, and To Serve God in His Church and Our Community:

Catholic Faith Appeal: The Catholic Faith Appeal is a Diocesan fundraising program which engages every parish to give to the Diocese to support Catholic Charities, our local Catholic Schools, the Seminarians, and many more programs. Even in the midst of the efforts we have undergone to repair our campus, we are still required to meet our annual assessment of $575,000. We are close, having over 72% of this goal met, but we have only a few weeks left to reach it. If you would like to make a donation that will make an impact in the region, I recommend giving to the CFA. Please visit the Diocese website: <https://dioceseofvenice.org/ways-to-give/cfa/> (and designate your gift for St. John the Evangelist Parish – Naples) to make a donation, or call our office, and we can assist you.

Finish the Church: Two years ago, Saint John experienced millions of dollars in damage from Hurricane Irma. Strategic decisions were made to take advantage of this unique moment in our Parish's history to renew and renovate our campus, rather than just repair the impacted buildings, "future-proofing" it for generations to come. Most of our campus, and especially the church, required repair and upgrading prior to the storm, so we were able to consolidate all our efforts into a single project. The result is our newly restored church, as well as the rest of the campus, which we welcome you to explore. We now wish to complete the financial impact of such a major undertaking with your assistance. Please prayerfully consider giving to Finish the Church.

Gift for the Mission of Saint John: We have an easy way for you to give specifically to Saint John the Evangelist during this end of the year timeframe. Please go to: <https://stjohntheevangelist.weshareonline.org/ws/opportunities/SundayOffertory>, and you can set up a one-time donation, or establish your persistent giving instead of manually through the collection basket. This gift will assist us in our daily focus on the Mission of our Parish Family. If there is a specific focus you would like to dedicate your gift towards (for example, CYO Scholarships so that youth will never be turned away from our activities and programs, or Jamaica Outreach), please do not hesitate to reach out to Jean-Paul Boucher, Business Manager, to find out more about directing your donation.

God Bless You!

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

In correcting people, the kind of approach we adopt is all-important. If we approach them only to confront them with their faults, in all probability, we will achieve nothing. In fact, we are likely to make matters worse. They will close up, become resentful, and harden their hearts.

You never improve people by avoiding them or rejecting them. A cold climate doesn't encourage growth. If you snub a person, all you do is harden his heart. You have to find a way of touching a person's heart. All people, even the most seemingly cold-blooded, have a core of decency, and are capable of changing if their hearts are touched.

We have to approach people in such a way that we show them that we believe in them, that we have confidence in them. The result is that they drop their guard and open up. Once they open up anything can happen. We see this in case of Zacchaeus.

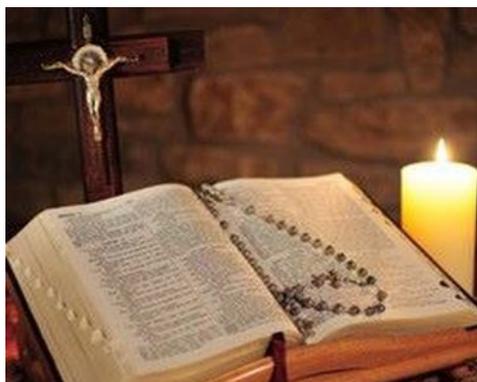

Jesus spotted Zacchaeus on the tree. Now Zacchaeus' lifestyle was in complete opposition to everything Jesus stood for. No doubt the people expected and hoped that Jesus would read the riot act to him. Had he done so he would have enhanced his popularity in the town.

But Jesus refused to read the Riot Act to Zacchaeus. Instead, he did something which made him immediately unpopular with the people. He asked Zacchaeus if he could dine in his house, and surprisingly Zacchaeus received him with joy. The people complained, 'He has gone to stay at a sinner's house.' They hated Zacchaeus. They didn't want to see him saved. They wanted to see him condemned and punished.

But Jesus didn't think like this. He saw that what Zacchaeus needed was not condemnation but salvation. There was no question of whether or not he deserved salvation. He needed it – that was enough for Jesus. By coming to his house, in the face of the angry disapproval of the towns people, Jesus showed Zacchaeus that he cared about him. Had he avoided him or condemned him, the miracle would never have happened.

Zacchaeus experienced the love of Jesus. This must have been a wonderful experience for a man who, up to this, had experienced so much hate. It's marvelous to feel that somebody has confidence in us, that we are not judged or condemned, but loved. Zacchaeus' heart burst into life like a desert landscape after a rainfall.

To be loved in one's goodness is no big deal. It's no more than one deserves. But to be loved in one's badness – as Zacchaeus was – that's magic. He experienced the surprise of being loved. It led to the flowering of the best that was in him. His conversion was a conversion to goodness. To a greater or lesser degree, all of us need this kind of conversion.

Safe Environment Classes for Children K-8

During a portion of our Faith Formation classes on Sunday, November 10th, and Wednesday, November 13th, we will have age-appropriate lessons for our children in Faith Formation related to helping them stay safe, as required by our Diocese. The children will view a short video followed by lessons intended to reinforce the concepts learned in the video. Children will be grouped K-2nd, 3rd-6th grade, and 7th-8th grade. To help you become more familiar with the goals and objectives of the lessons, we will have pamphlets available for all families at the reception desk in the Claussen Center for you to take. Please read through these brochures and feel free to discuss with your children. If you have any questions about the objectives of the program or would like to preview the video materials, please stop by my office. Together we can help to make your child more confident about staying safe and setting boundaries for themselves and others.

Next Sunday Catholic Author/Speaker and Physicist – Dr. David Keys Will Present

God, Evolution, and the Origin of Life

The issue isn't either religion or science, but both religion and science.

Dr. Keys will contrast the Church's Teachings with modern Science's explanations and will show that there is no conflict between the two when properly understood. In fact, Science should lead one to God. (Rom 1:20)

Learn the teachings of the Church regarding Creation and Science.

You will be familiarized with the Church-approved method of understanding Scripture as applied to Creation, and you will learn the Papal Encyclical requirements regarding the study of Evolution.

Discover how Evolution is Cosmic, Chemical, Biologic, AND PLANNED.

Hear the utterly fascinating story of the "Goldilocks" steps of Earth's Cosmic Evolution (for example, not too hot, not too cold), the incredulous step of Chemical Evolution (Initiation of Life), and the development of animal life in Biologic Evolution, which was consummated with the installation of a Soul in our first parents.

Come to the Nazareth Room of the Pulte Family Life Center Sunday, Nov. 10, 2019, at 6:15 p.m.

Please register in advance so we have a space for you. Go to the parish website, www.sjecc.com, scroll to the event, click on Continue Reading, then click on Register Now Online Here. You can also email Jack at jack@sjecc.com, or call 239.228.3918.

David Keys has a Ph.D. in Physics from Washington University in St. Louis (1984) and worked in the field of Medical Physics for 38 years. He was involved in the physics of diagnostic imaging of patients and the physics of radiation treatment of cancer patients. During that time, he was named a Fellow by the American College of Radiology, by the American Association of Physicists in Medicine, and by the American College of Medical Physics.

However, to more deeply understand his Catholic Faith, he began a theology program at Franciscan University of Steubenville in 2002. It took a while, but he persevered, and in 2013 he received a master's degree.

Since then Dr. Keys has authored a book – Exploring the Belief in the Real Presence, has been on EWTN, Immaculate Heart Radio, and Covenant radio networks, primarily as a guest on Saint Joseph Radio Presents. He has also presented over 50 lectures at various parishes within the Greater Saint Louis Area.

Questions: Just email jack@sjecc.com or call (239) 228-3918 and leave a message. I respond promptly.

Vincent DePaul VDP envelope into the collection basket or poor box at another time, and you can also use the Parish website to find a way to donate electronically. You have always blessed us with your kindness and generosity during this collection, and we pray you have the means and ability to do so this year.

During the past year, your generosity as a Parish family has helped us to serve our community with in-home visits to scores of families having financial difficulty due to unforeseen circumstances and in time of true need. It represented over $95,000 in financial assistance toward rent, utilities, and other miscellaneous necessities, such as uniforms for poorer school children and Publix cards to the homeless and needy families that live right here in our parish. Your acts of kindness enabled us to support the Society of St. Vincent DePaul Naples Council programs of our Community Food Pantry and Meals on Wheels program, as well as clothing and home goods for those in need.

Additional acts of Catholic love were again committed on your behalf to help those affected by natural disasters here in the USA and worldwide, and the ongoing financial backing of a local vegetable garden in a rural and poor community in Georgia. Support to these programs, and ultimately the poor themselves, amounted to over $25,000. And we can and need to do so much more.

You can Help by Becoming a Vincentian!

The Society of St Vincent DePaul is made up of an amazing group of volunteers who selflessly give of their time to help others in need. We are always in need of new members drawn to this form of spirituality. We especially welcome those with an ability to speak/understand Spanish is a skill that we value.

You can help year-round by giving to the Poor Box!

The "poor boxes" located throughout the church are dedicated to support our ministry throughout the year, so please always look to donate when you can.

Please mark down these important dates:

- November 9 and 10: Pick up Grocery Bags and Shopping Lists
- November 16 and 17: Bring the filled bags to Mass
- November 28 Thanksgiving Day: Contribute to the Collection

Thank you,

The St. John the Evangelist Conference of the Society of St. Vincent DePaul

The Father's arms are open wide
Forgiveness was bought with
The precious blood of Jesus Christ

Sing alleluia Christ is risen
Bow down before him
