Finish the Church: $16.4 Million Renewal of Campus

Securing the Future of our Parish Family
for Another 30 Years

We are blessed to be back in our church, again whole with our enlivening faith environment. This new persistent message: Finish the Church, is our final push of the Capital Campaign, to complete the transformation of the entire campus and ensure our success for the next 30 years. While we have come far already, we will all need to work together to complete our vision of the new Saint John the Evangelist Catholic Church. Next week, our Finance Council will speak at every Mass to provide additional information on how we are moving forward to Finish the Church.

By now, most of you reading this have seen the transformation of our campus for yourselves. If you were here during the Season, we were able to accommodate our Parish Family in multiple locations across the buildings while we completed the church. In doing so, you may have been introduced to rooms you may have not seen before, like our Ballroom or the new Gym. We hope you enjoy those locations for our Parish activities and events going forward, like our CYO Basketball, concerts, dances, and so much more.

As we have been discussing, this all played out for us during a Capital Campaign and a Hurricane. These challenges also allowed us to to accomplish something we had never dreamed: a far deeper transformation of Saint John the Evangelist. Over 85% of our campus has undergone massive repairs and renewal in the past two years. This has been expansive and extensive, with every building and room receiving some renovation effort. The hurricane damage exposed the opportunity to address added renovations, previously planned for the future, in a very cost effective way. In fact, the Parish Family Leadership took this opportunity to complete a major portion of our 5-Year Capital Plan all within this span, and much more, bringing the entire renovation to over $16 million of effort. Let's walk through just a few examples of this transformation:

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Finish the Church: $16.4 Million Renewal

Claussen Family Center

Our smallest building on campus has one of our most important missions, the Catholic education of our Parish Family and the local area. Both the Youth and Adult Faith Formation programs emanate from this building, as well as our on-site counseling services and our brand new Library (featuring both paper and electronic media and study space). This building sustained flood damage from Irma, so the walls would need to be opened up and the floors replaced. Additionally, the air conditioners for the building had totally failed, requiring not just a replacement, but a total overhaul, including new pipes from the outside units.

Room (Formerly the Seminar Room)*

Parish Activity Center

While some may still call this building the PLC, our Parish Activity Center is still under repair and renovations that began the day after Hurricane Irma. We had planned a facelift for the aging Ballroom during the Capital Campaign, but with complete devastation of the building by the hurricane, we were able to transform it into a beacon of fun activities and events for years to come. New projectors and sound system were masked while we used the Ballroom as our church for an entire year. Flooring, seating, exterior doors, walls, and stage were all renovated, including a new dance floor. Whether we are having a 300+ person concert or hosting the Naples Council of World Affairs 750 attendees at a time, the Ballroom is now ready and able to support all the activities in a warm and open environment. The 10 Classrooms and various offices that make up the rest of the PAC are now undergoing their repairs, as well, matching the Claussen Family Center.

Pulte Family Life Center

The latest addition to our campus is the Pulte Family Life Center, the home of our Catholic Youth Organization and Catholic Adult Organization. This enlivening new facility has served us well already, doubling as a second church during season along with the initial set of our program offerings for our Parish Family and the Community.

Campus Improvements

From the brand new exterior lighting for the parking lots and walkways, to cameras for protection and surveillance, the new parking lots increasing the amount of spaces available, to our new pond in the back of the campus, nearly every inch of the campus has been enhanced and improved.

Our Church

Last but certainly not least is our new church. Every inch has been updated and repaired. There are parts that you may never realize have been completely renovated, like the plumbing and electrical work. You may have already felt the Air Conditioning is tremendously improved as all duct work was replaced with the proper materials. Then, of course, there is all the visible effort, like the beautiful Liturgical environment, including new pews and marble from Florence, Italy. We ensured that the church building would be efficient and joyous for the next 30 years of Saint John's service to our community and Parish Family, including "future-proofing" the building (for example, those platforms on the side of the walls are for potential projectors to view the Psalms and other Mass parts, if we determine that our Parish Family would like that type of engagement).

The Full Grandeur of Our Sanctuary

Marble Follows the Aisle Up the Back Wall

Altar Houses First-Class Relic of Saint Thomas the Apostle

New Lectern for the Cantor is Now off the Altar

So, what does all this tremendous effort mean for our Parish Family? We now have a completely transformed campus that will serve us all for decades to come.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

When a new prime minister takes up office, one of the first things he or she does is to appoint cabinet ministers. Then, in an official ceremony, the chosen ones get their seal of office. These are not slow in telling the world how pleased they are to have been chosen. You hear them say such things as, "I feel very privileged," "I feel very honored." The odd one may say, "It's a great challenge," or "It's a great responsibility." But I don't think I've ever heard anyone say, "It's a wonderful opportunity to serve."

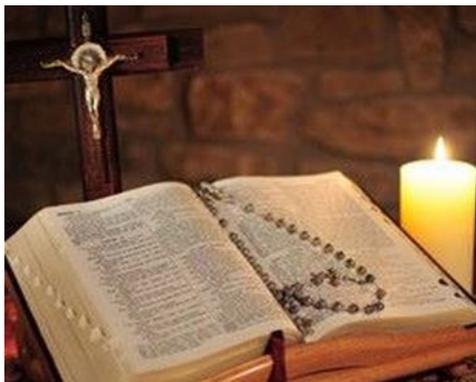

Of course it's an honor to be chosen. But what many of them forget, if indeed they were ever aware of it, is that it is a call to service. There is the very human temptation to be attracted by "the Meres and perks" that go with the job, as well as the status it bestows on the holder.

We are at the start of St. John's Gospel. Jesus has just appeared on the public stage. John the Baptist, who prepared the way for Him, now has the further task of introducing Him to the people. How does John introduce Jesus? What role does he ascribe to Him? He calls Jesus God's Chosen One.

Jesus did not take this role upon Himself. He was called by God and sent by God. But once the call came, he made a total gift of Himself to it. From now on, He will seek not His own honor, but the honor of His Father. And He knows that He is sent to minister to His brothers and sisters: "The Son of Man came, not to be served, but to serve."

John the Baptist also gives us a wonderful example of service. His function was to direct people to Jesus. His task was to draw back the curtain, introduce the main character, and then withdraw into the shadows. In doing this, he knew he was inviting his disciples to leave him. Yet there was no jealousy on his part. In this we see his greatness. There is no harder task than to take second place, especially when one has enjoyed the first place.

Through our baptism, we have been called to be disciples of Jesus. This is a great honor and a great privilege. But we must not forget that it is a call to service. We need the Holy Spirit to touch our hearts. We must learn from John the Baptist not to make ourselves the center of the world. We must put our gifts at the service of others, not just of ourselves.

In our society, our being chosen always implies that others are not chosen. But this is not true for God. God chooses His Son and the disciples to reveal to us that we, too, are chosen. In the Kingdom of God, there is no room for competition or rivalry. In the Kingdom of God, each person is precious and unique.

Catechist Spotlight: Marylou Leibig

Retired Catechist Celebrates her 85th Birthday!

What a joy to celebrate with Marylou Leibig on her 85th birthday this month. Marylou volunteered in the primary grades for several years in Faith Formation. Together with her co-teacher, Madeline Gaffey, and dear friend, Maryanne Brooks, they enjoyed reminiscing about their volunteer days with St. John and the kids! What a blessing to remember those who helped build and support our parish and Faith Formation at St. John's.

Save the Date: Vacation Bible School – Rocky Railway

June 8th-12th ~ St. John the Evangelist

More Details Coming Soon!

Adults wishing to participate in volunteer leadership positions should contact Natalie at natalie@sjecc.com. Crew Leader and Junior Crew Leader volunteer applications will be coming out later in February. Look for early VBS registration for children ages four through grade five in early March 2020.

The Grand Adventure...

A New Call to Grandparenting

Grandparents are a precious resource for families, the church, and society.

-Pope Benedict XVI, April 2008

Society has placed nearly super-human demands on families today. Parents are struggling to succeed in the multiple arenas of school, sports, other activities, jobs, church, and community, while also dealing with financial pressures. In many homes, family life is getting only left-over time.

Obviously, today's families could use more support than most of them are getting. Grandparents are perfect candidates to fill in the gaps in the fabric of family life, not to supplant the parents but as unique reservoirs of knowledge and experience who bring a valuable dimension to the lives of their grandchildren. Most grandparents care deeply about their grandchildren and want the best for them.

There are many dimensions of grandparenting in the 21st century, including how to keep connected with long-distance grandchildren in a fast-paced world. Grandparents are the best models, mentors, and memory-makers for their grandchildren. Telling the family stories and sharing your heritage is key. Passing on your wisdom and legacy is invaluable.

Consider your unique role as a grandparent and how grandparents are the axle on the wheel of family life. Assess your many gifts and talents, and explore ways to use them to benefit your grandchildren. Realize your true grandparent potential as you explore new ways to enhance the grandparent-grandchild relationship.

Deacon Gary and Kay Aitchison, longtime associates and friends of Sue and Wayne Hamilton, are visiting Naples. The Aitchisons are from Ames, Iowa, and they both write and present about marriage enrichment, family spirituality, and grandparenting. Gary and Kay were invited to present The Grand Adventure grandparenting program at an International Congress on the Family sponsored by the Pontifical Council on the Family, November 26, 2010, in Rome.

The Grand Adventure was created in response to an observed need in today's society to make better use of the grandparenting connection in family life. The program was inspired by and modeled from the many dynamic and committed grandparents who share their time, talent, gifts, and charisma with their grandchildren.

Gary and Kay have agreed to present an Introduction to The Grand Adventure at Saint John the Evangelist. Both singles and couples are encouraged to attend.

- Wednesday, January 29, at 4:30 p.m. in the Rome Room
- Thursday, January 30, at 9:30 a.m. in the Nazareth Room

New, seasoned, and prospective grandparents are invited to consider how to take a more active role in sharing your talent, faith, wisdom, and experience with your grandchildren.

In Person at St. John the Evangelist – Dr. Edward Sri

On Friday, January 24th, from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m., the Diocese of Venice Scripture Series will provide an opportunity to meet and hear the well-known author and speaker Edward Sri. He is currently a professor of theology and vice president of mission and outreach at the Augustine Institute in Denver, Colorado. Dr. Sri is a founding leader of FOCUS (Fellowship of Catholic University Students) and holds a doctorate from the Pontifical University of St. Thomas Aquinas in Rome.

Those who have participated in Adult Faith Formation programs at St. John may recognize him as the host of video series including Symbolon: The Explanation of the Catholic Faith, Follow Me: Meeting Jesus in the Gospel of John, or No Greater Love: A Biblical Walk Through Christ's Passion filmed on location in the Holy Land.

In this program, Dr. Sri leads us on a breathtaking journey into a personal relationship with Jesus as he discusses his book Into His Likeness, where you are invited to be transformed as a disciple of Christ.

There is no charge to attend, but registration on the Diocese of Venice website is appreciated. More information is available by calling the Diocesan offices at 941.484.9543.

Mark you calendar on Friday, January 24th, from 2:30 pm - 4:30 pm. in the Rome Room.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, O _____ my soul; Wor-ship His ho - ly name. .

_____ Sing like nev - er be-fore, O my soul; I'll wor-ship Your ho - ly name. .

Verse 1)

The sun comes up,
it's a new day dawning;
it's time to sing your song again.
Whatever may pass and whatever lies before me—let me be singing when the evening comes. (Chorus)

Verse 2)

You're rich in love
and you're slow to anger;
your name is great
and your Heart is kind.
For all your goodness
I will keep on singing:
Ten thousand reasons
for my heart to find. (Chorus)

Verse 3)

And on that day
when my strength is failing,
the end draws near,
and my time has come,
May my soul
sing your praise unending:
Ten thousand years and then
forevermore! (Chorus)

Sanctity of Life

Our Lord, Jesus Christ elevated the dignity of the human person... taking on our likeness, not only as a man, but also as a newborn baby and even a baby in the womb. When Mary, with the unborn Jesus, traveled to the house of Elizabeth and Zachary, Elizabeth proclaimed, "For behold, the moment that the sound of thy greeting came to my ears, the babe in my womb leapt for joy." Luke 1: 44.

Every human life created by God is cherished, regardless of the circumstances of his or her beginning.

Our current culture too often chooses darkness rather than the light of our Lord.

We need to turn back to God and help to build a more loving world in which every life is cherished. Everyone can do something. We can listen, learn, think, pray, and act. Or...

We can fall into the temptation to think someone else will do it, that we don't have the talent or time, or give up and do nothing. Will you choose to work to change hearts and minds to bring light into the darkness and build a culture of life?

Join us in praying the Rosary immediately following the 9:00 a.m. Mass on January 19th in our Memorial Garden.

Updating Parish Financial Reporting for Transparency and Understanding

Service is the sign of true love.
Those who love know how to serve others.

– Pope Francis

For some members of our Parish Family, financial discussions can feel bland and boring. I hope that over the next few weeks, including next weekend's Finish the Church Discussion Sessions taking place after each Mass, we can help everyone see how our finances directly impact our ability to achieve our Mission, serve the poor in our neighborhoods, provide programs and activities for our community, and impact the world with our action.

Saint John the Evangelist has long provided basic financial information for our Parish Family in order to illustrate how the Offertory (the main gifts of our Parish collected weekly in the baskets and online) "gets by," usually by determining if those gifts match our weekly budget of anticipated costs (expenses). However, it has become apparent that this is a myopic view of the health of our financial environment. Instead, we want to test out different ways to fully illustrate our past, current, and future fiscal program. For example, this chart provides a full picture of our finances for the month of December 2019:

December 2019	Standard	Other
Income	$391,849.49	$21,850.68
Expenses	$270,490.03	$18,815.34
Benefit to Parish	$121,359.46	$3,035.34

It is important to note that Saint John specifically separates our "Standard" expenses and income from our programmatic, or "Other." Some examples of Standard Income include not just our Offertory, but also our Poor Box, Religious Education, and Non-Parochial Collections, like the Retired Religious Collection. Standard Expenses include payroll, utilities, Cantor singers, and the church environment. Other Expenses provide for the cost of the Gift Boutique, our Memorial Garden, and all the costs of the Life Center, including the CYO and CAO Programs. The same areas make up the Other Income, showcasing that the Life Center and programs are not only covering their cost, but providing a benefit to the Parish Family. Perhaps by showcasing these income and expense details on a weekly basis, we will provide a more effective and clearer snapshot of the health of our finances than the previous bar chart. We welcome your feedback.

Additionally, we will continue to provide the specific details on both our Catholic Faith Appeal Goal as well as the Finish the Church Campaign. For example, we have been told that the Diocese is behind when it comes to inputting our 2019 Catholic Faith Appeal gifts. They are currently stating we have reached $555,327.60, 96.58% of our $575,000 goal. We fully expect to have reached and exceeded this goal. We will be able to take that overage and apply it directly to our Finish the Church loan balance. Our Finish the Church gifts on 1/12/2020 were $12,173.05, bringing our total gathered so far to $693,203.23.

Over the next few weeks, we will be working on a digestible format for these details, as well as specific deeper dive details to continue to communicate our financial environment, and most importantly, how it impacts our ability to execute on our mission, To Know, To Love, and To Serve God in His Church and Our Community.
