Socially Distancing at Mass: Respecting Life and Health of All

Thank you to all our Parish Family who have heeded our call to respect the life and health of all who may come to attend Mass here at Saint John now that our church is open for Public Mass again.

We will continue to expand our services, including the opening of our Ballroom for Overflow Mass, if and when needed to accommodate our Parish Family and Friends who may come to celebrate with us in person. We continue to ask that anyone at risk, due to age, underlying health conditions, or caring for others, please prayerfully consider the impact of attending on yours and your loved ones' health and perhaps stay home and watch the Mass online.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH

Sacrament of Baptism. The Diocese requires that parents seeking baptism for their child attend a baptism preparation class. To schedule a baptism class, please contact our Parish Secretary, Deborah Marsh: deb@sjecc.com or (239) 566-8740.

Sacrament of Matrimony. Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice. Tricia Schwarz: tricia@sjecc.com.

Anointing of the Sick/Funeral Arrangements. Call the parish office. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

Gospel Reflections

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

It's impossible to live the life of a Christian without the help of the Holy Spirit. But to appreciate the role of the Spirit in the life of a Christian, we have to start with Jesus himself. Even Jesus needed the Spirit. The Spirit had a big role to play in His life. The Spirit descended on Him at his Baptism, revealing Him as the Father's beloved Son.

At His Baptism, He also received power from on high for the mission He was about to begin. The Spirit was not just given for a moment; the Spirit remained with Him throughout His public ministry. Jesus was continually led, strengthened, and guided by the Spirit.

He began His ministry by making His own the lovely words of Isaiah: "The spirit of the Lord has been given to me, for he has anointed me. He has sent me to bring the good news to the poor, to proclaim liberty to captives and to the blind new sight, to set the downtrodden free, to proclaim the Lord's year of favor."

What a beautiful mission. And how faithful He was to it. Jesus was filled with the Spirit, and power went out from Him through His gracious words and compassionate deeds.

It was the Spirit who raised Jesus from the dead. It was the Spirit who opened the minds of His disciples and helped them to understand the meaning of His death. When He was raised up to glory at the right hand of the Father, Jesus poured out the Spirit on those who were to carry on His mission. The Holy Spirit descended on the apostles, individually and collectively. Filled with the Holy Spirit, they began their mission, and we see the great courage and confidence with which they did.

The same Spirit descends on us at our Baptism and Confirmation. The Spirit is not given for a moment but accompanies us on our journey in the footsteps of Jesus. The Spirit gives us power to participate in the work of Jesus. The Holy Spirit is our strength in times of weakness, our guide in times of doubt, our consoler in times of sadness, our advocate who always pleads our cause. We can't take even one step without the Spirit. The gifts of the Spirit are: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord. Wisdom, understanding, and counsel (right judgment) guide our mind and assist our conscience in knowing right from wrong. Fortitude (courage) enables us to do the right thing even when it is difficult or unpopular. Fear of the Lord is really awe and reverence for God.

St. Paul talks about the fruits of the Spirit (Gal 5:22). The Spirit brings love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. These are beautiful things and make life joyful.

Paul warns us against self-indulgence, which is the opposite of the Spirit. Self-indulgence produces bad temper, fighting, jealousy, cruelty, meanness, revenge, fornication, idolatry, and drunkenness. These are ugly things and make life miserable. The more we renounce ourselves and "walk in the Spirit," the more fruitful our lives will become.

The Spirit that we have been given is not a spirit of timidity but the Spirit of power. The coming of the Spirit provided the apostles with the energy, the courage, and the love to get on with the task Christ had given them. May the Holy Spirit come upon us and shower us with His gifts that are so needed during these difficult times

Online Giving Supports Mission of Parish Family

We have received a tremendous response to our implementation of streaming Masses and other online faith-enriching resources to keep you connected to our Parish Family while we were closed to the public. We plan to continue this effort for the foreseeable future while we continue to recover from the COVID-19 Pandemic Response. Saint John the Evangelist should be a source of consolation and love no matter if you are able to kneel in our pews or if you are connecting in your home over your TV or your devices. We will continue our Mission: To Know, To Love, and To Serve God in His Church and Our Community through this period, and we hope you can continue to keep our Parish's needs in your prayers as well.

We have been tremendously blessed that some of our Parish Family have heeded the call to support us via our online giving system, WeShare. It is an incredibly challenging time, especially financially, for many of our Parish Family members, and we understand the priorities you are placing on your money.

Giving via our website: <https://stjohntheevangelist.weshareonline.org/> is fairly straight forward, including setting up an account for persistent giving on a weekly, monthly, or even annual basis. We have options to support the Parish through the normal Offertory (Basket) as well as several targeted giving opportunities, like Saint Vincent DePaul, Finish the Church, our support to the people of Immokalee (Immokalee Mission Team), and more. If you have any issues or questions, please contact our office and our Business Manager will be happy to assist you.

Please prayerfully consider any assistance you can provide for us. We are grateful for any inclusion Saint John may have in your reflection.

Faces of Saint Johns: Virtual Concert

Join us online for a FREE Virtual Concert featuring our talented Saint John's musicians, past and present!

This concert will air on our website on June 18th at 7pm!
Simply head to our website and enjoy at www.sjecc.com!

Watch and listen to the talent of our parish, as past and present music ministers, cantors, and music and arts instructors unite for the first time ever, performing music that brings them great joy and excitement to share with our parish family members and online community!

This is a beautiful way for our performers to share their gift of music during this difficult time in hopes that this will bring our parish family the comfort of some familiar faces. Our concert will feature Gary Prettyman, Jennine Burkwit, Tom Oram, Ellie Roberts, Paul Todd, Gabriella Frei, Regina Fahey, Sarah O'Brien, Keith Cute, Regina Baier, and Jillian Iurano.

At the end of the concert, please fill out the accompanying survey and let us know if you would like us to continue with a mini Virtual Concert Series.

Honoring Our Catechists: Thank you Mrs. DeFeo for 20 Years!

At St. John's, we are so blessed to have over 40 Catechists and 14 High School Confirmation Leaders to help facilitate approximately 500 children in any given Faith Formation year. These volunteers give so much of their time sharing the faith and planning amazing and engaging lessons with their students. As our Faith Formation in-person sessions came to a quick halt this year, catechists wished they had a chance to say goodbye before the end of the school year! In these challenging times, we are especially grateful for these special volunteers and thankful for all their efforts!

One Catechist in particular, Mrs. Sylvia DeFeo, has served our Faith Formation ministry in Kindergarten and 1st Grade for 20 years! She has touched the lives of hundreds of kids year after year with her treasure boxes, prayer pots, and fun teaching style!

"I started as an aide for kindergarten in 2000. Twenty years went by so fast! Teaching young children helped me grow in my faith and love for God. I often told the children that "grown ups" often make being close to God more complicated than need be. Just follow His two most important rules, "Love God above all else and treat people the way you want to be treated." – Mrs. Sylvia DeFeo

Thank you, Sylvia! Your wisdom and contributions are priceless gems for us all! We have learned so much from you and will miss seeing you each week!

Pentecost Sunday

"Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." John 20:21

Pentecost marks the descent of the Holy Spirit on the apostles. For that reason, it is often called "the birthday of the Church." This is one of the most ancient feasts of the Church, celebrated early enough to be mentioned in the Acts of the Apostles (Acts 20:16) and Saint Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians (1Cor 16:8). It supplants the Jewish feast of Pentecost (Shavout), which took place 50 days after the Passover and which celebrated the sealing of the Old Covenant on Mount Sinai.

NEW Program from Bishop Robert Barron's Word on Fire!

- The Sacraments, Free to parishioners

In this just released follow-up to The Mass, Bishop Barron looks at the great sacraments of the Church in all their theological depth, spiritual effects, and pastoral promise.

Baptism, Confirmation, the Eucharist, Reconciliation, the Anointing of the Sick, Matrimony, and Holy Orders – have endured for thousands of years and structured countless lives. Everything in the Church's life comes from and returns to them. But there is far more to these ancient rites than meets the eye.

The Sacraments will help you understand these signs and channels of grace and discover the secret behind their persistence down the ages: the presence and power of the Savior himself.

Just go to wofdigital.org/the-sacraments to view the six, 25-30 minute episodes and while you are there you can also download a Companion book, SAINTS and SACRAMENTS by PEGGY PANDALEON.

(Saint John the Evangelist is an ENGAGE parish so there is no cost to parishioners. If you have not already registered, send an email to jack@sjecc.com and I'll send you a link to register.)

Although we are not able to gather in person to discuss each episode of The Sacraments, we could meet weekly in a "Zoom-like" online discussion group.

If you are interested send a message to me at jack@sjecc.com and indicate if you prefer a 1:30 afternoon session or a 7:00 evening session.

Questions: Just email jack@sjecc.com, or call (239) 228-3918 and leave a message. I respond promptly.

Scripture Readings

Reading 1

ACTS 2:1-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God."

Responsorial Psalm PS 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34

R. (cf. 30) Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

Bless the LORD, O my soul! O LORD, my God, you are great indeed! How manifold are your works, O Lord! the earth is full of your creatures;

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

May the glory of the LORD endure forever; may the LORD be glad in his works! Pleasing to him be my theme; I will be glad in the LORD.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

If you take away their breath, they perish and return to their dust. When you send forth your spirit, they are created, and you renew the face of the earth.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

Reading 2

1 COR 12:3B-7, 12-13

Brothers and sisters:

No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord;

there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ.

For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

Alleluia

MT 28:19A, 20B

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

JN 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews,

Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

WE ARE NEVER ALONE

My children want my help sometimes, and other times, not so much. I remember being a teenager and young adult myself. At times, I thought I knew everything. I didn't need help because I was just so darn smart. Truth is, I needed to find my own way. I needed to stretch my wings and prove to myself and my family I could fly. I assume that is what is happening with my own children as well. It just seems so different now that I'm the parent.

Human beings need help. We need community, and we need to rely on one another. At Pentecost, we reflect on Jesus sending to the Church a helper, the Holy Spirit. God interacting with us in this manner means we are never truly alone. We focus most of the time on the Spirit of God as the assistance we need, and we do need Him for sure. However, since it is that very same Spirit that turned us into "Church" from a band of people looking to carry on after Jesus' ascension, at Pentecost we gained more than divine help: we gained each other.

Today, the Church needs help in a profound way. We need to lean on the Holy Spirit to blow through the Church with a profound renewal. But we cannot forget that we have been given each other to lean on as well. We are a gift to each other, and together with the Spirit's help, we are the Body of Christ here on earth. We must be strong and stand for one another. If we do that, this Pentecost will bear fruit that will be with us for many Pentecosts to come.

longing just to bring something that's of worth,
that will bless your heart

Verse 2)
King of endless worth,
no one could express
How much you deserve;
Though I'm weak and poor,
all I have is yours, ev'ry single breath.

Pre-Chorus)
I'll bring you more than a song,
for a song in itself
is not what you have required.
You search much deeper within,
through the way things appear you're looking into my heart...

Verse 3)
And as I receive your Body and your Blood,
given up for me; Take me as I am,
call me to the Feast
say the word, I'm healed

Chorus)
I'm coming back to the heart of worship,
And it's all about you,
all about you Jesus.
I'm sorry Lord, for the thing
I've made it,
When it's all about you,
all about you, Jesus.

Verse 1)
Holy Spirit (Holy Spirit),
come with your Fire;
Holy Spirit (Holy Spirit),
come with your Fire
Holy Spirit, come with your Fire!
Holy Spirit, come with your Fire!
(woo)

Verse 2)
Holy Spirit (Holy Spirit),
purify my heart;
Holy Spirit (Holy Spirit),
purify my heart
Holy Spirit, purify my heart!
Holy Spirit, purify my heart! (woo)

Verse 3)
Holy Spirit (Holy Spirit),
set my life on fire;
Holy Spirit (Holy Spirit),
set my life on fire
Holy Spirit, set my life on fire!
Holy Spirit, set my life on fire! (woo)

Music and Arts Classes are going Virtual!

Keep challenging yourself or your child to continue learning and growing in your instrument or voice during this time!

CYO Music and Arts is offering private piano or guitar classes virtually until it is safe to resume in person activities on our campus. Our instructors have already begun teaching some of their students through virtual video conferencing and have found it to be an excellent alternative for our students to continue their music education at home. Students are able to use the extra time they have to practice and excel in their instruments. Please email jennine@sjecc.com if you are interested in virtual lessons for you or your child.

CYO Children's Theatre Update

Our CYO Children's Theatre is also continuing to move forward with a FREE online virtual Musical Theatre Summer Training. This is a wonderful time to memorize lines, practice some choreography, and learn music for the play. Our production of "Charleston", originally scheduled to be performed on May 8, 2020 and May 9, 2020 will be rescheduled for a later date when it is safe to resume activities on campus. Keep checking the Music and Arts page in the bulletin for updates!

Other Music and Arts Activities:

- Please tune in for our Virtual Concert: Faces of Saint Johns Past and Present airing on our website on June 18th at 7pm (sjecc.com)! Featuring Gary Prettyman, Jennine Burkwit, Paul Todd, Tom Oram, Ellie Roberts, Gabi Frei, Regina Fahey, Keith Cute, Regina Baier, and Jillian Iurano performing their favorites! See our flyer for more details!
- Virtual Open Mic Night on the CYO/CAO Music and Arts page coming this summer! Whether you would like to sing, play an instrument, read a poem, or tell some jokes, you are welcome to participate by submitting 3 minute videos (raw footage only please) to jennine@sjecc.com at any time and we will piece all entries together for a virtual open mic night!
- Children's Choir is sadly suspended for the rest of this school year. Please consider registering your child and being a part of this wonderful group which provides beautiful worship and service to our parish family! We had an amazing group this past year and we are looking forward to making more music together. In the meantime, please listen and worship with the Children's Choir playlist on our CYO Naples YouTube page filled with songs they have or will be learning!
- Please keep checking this page for updates on the rescheduling of all our in person activities!

CYO NAPLES YOUTUBE CHANNEL

Check out our CYO Naples YouTube channel! This channel is set up to keep all our CYO Music and Arts students as well CYO Sports participants engaged during this time.

Our instructors and staff are posting challenges and instruction for all our students (whether virtual or those waiting for on campus activities to resume) to continue to be active and further their development with their instrument or sport. Search for CYO Naples on YouTube or click on the link below:
