WORSHIP AID
EDITION
To Know, To Love, and To Serve God in His Church and Our Community.

Congratulations to the Class of 2020! We are So Proud of You!

It is with great joy and pride that we congratulate the St. John the Evangelist High School Graduates of the Class of 2020! We have an amazing group of young men and women who have worked hard, are faith-filled, and have wonderful adventures ahead of them in the future! Our graduating seniors represent St. John Neumann High School, Bishop Verot High School, Barron Collier High School, Naples High School, Gulf Coast High School, Seacrest Country Day School, Community School of Naples, Palmetto Ridge High School, Estero High School, Homeschooled Families, Mason Classical Academy, and First Baptist Academy. It has been a joy to see so many of these youth grow up in our parish community and mark major moments in their life from Baptism to First Holy Communion and Confirmation. Loved by all of us and ready to go forth in the world, these special youth will be in our prayers, and we look forward to hearing about all the amazing ways they will set the world on fire! God bless you all! You will always have a parish home at St. John the Evangelist!

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH

Sacrament of Baptism. The Diocese requires that parents seeking baptism for their child attend a baptism preparation class. To schedule a baptism class, please call the office at (239) 566-8740.

Sacrament of Matrimony. Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice. Tricia Schwarz: tricia@sjecc.com.

Anointing of the Sick/Funeral Arrangements. Call the parish office. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

Gospel Reflections

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

One day two learned men were walking along the seashore, discussing the mystery of God. However, they weren't making very much progress. Suddenly they came upon a small boy playing on the beach. He had dug a hole in the sand and kept running down to the sea, dipping his toy bucket in the water, and running back up the beach to empty the water into the hole.

The two men watched him for a while as he ran back and forth filling and emptying his bucket. They found the scene amusing. They went up to the boy and asked him what he was doing. Very seriously he told them he was emptying the ocean into the hole he had dug in the sand. The two smiled, and walked on, resuming their discussion about God.

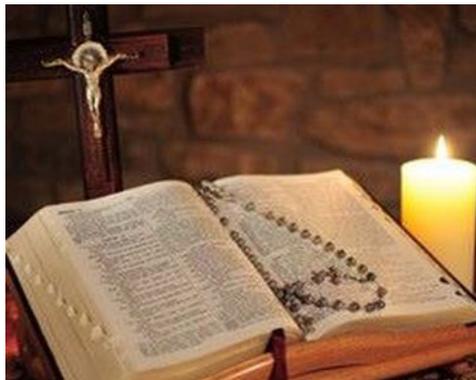

After a while, one of them stopped and said to the other, "You know, we were amused just now when that child told us what he was trying to do. Yet what we have been trying to do in our discussion about God is just the same. It is just as impossible for us to understand the mystery of God as it is for that child to put the water of the ocean into that hole. Our minds are but tiny thimbles, whereas the reality of God is as great as the ocean."

As the story says: it is impossible for us to understand God. God is a mystery. But a mystery is not something we can know nothing about. A mystery is something which is so full of meaning, that no matter how hard to try, we will never get to the bottom of it. Therefore, the story must not be used to justify laziness or superficiality in our efforts to understand something of the mystery of God.

It's possible to know of the existence of God by our own reasoning. At the sight of something or other, a person will know in an instant that these things do not exist through themselves, and that God is.

But we would know very little about God if He hadn't revealed Himself to us. It is especially in the Scriptures that we know God. From the Scriptures we learn that God is Father, Son, and Spirit. And from the Scriptures we learn what God is like. For instance, today's First Reading says that God is "a God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in kindness and faithfulness." And the Gospel says: "God loved the world so much that He gave His only Son ..."

Both readings have the same message: God is a God of love. That is something tremendously important to know about God. God loves us, not because we are good, but because God is good. Our very existence is a sign of God's love. God's unconditional love for us is the Good News.

Our response can only be one of trust in God and love towards one another. What St. Paul said to the Corinthians is meant also for us: "Help one another. Be united; live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you."

SJE Teams Up with Blue Zones to Show Gratitude for COVID Heroes

Has a healthcare worker recently taken care of you or someone you love? Do you know an essential worker at a grocery store, restaurant, religious organization, or utility company that has put their safety on the line for our health and livelihood? Do you wish there was some way you could show your gratitude for their compassion, devotion, and service to the community? Join us for the Daily Bellagram, where we will post the first names of the courageous individuals you would like to thank, as well as to toll the bells of our church every day in their honor.

Saint John the Evangelist Catholic Church is teaming up with our health and wellness partner, the Blue Zones Project Southwest Florida, to provide just that type of acknowledgement and appreciation. With every facet of our lives transformed by the COVID-19 Pandemic and the international response required to save lives, Blue Zones Project and Saint John wanted to find a way to positively unite our community in North Naples. The sounding of the church bells at 2:20 PM on a daily basis expresses our thanks to all who have sacrificed themselves for our community.

If you would like to submit a name to be shared in our Bellagram, which will appear on this website below, in the Saint John the Evangelist Bulletin on a weekly basis, and in the Blue Zone Project Newsletters, please email our bellagram@sjecc.com address with the first name of the individual, along with their occupation or your reason for the gratitude, and they will be prayed for and thanked on a daily basis by our Parish Family and the Naples Community.

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

"The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the holy Spirit be with all of you." 2 Corinthians 13:13

Trinity Sunday celebrates the doctrine of the Trinity, the three Persons of God: The Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. This feast falls on the first Sunday after Pentecost.

The origins of Trinity Sunday go back to the Arian heresy of the fourth century, when Arius denied the divinity of Christ by denying that there are three Persons in God. To stress the doctrine of the Trinity, the Fathers of the Church composed prayers and hymns that were recited on Sundays as part of the official prayer of the Church. The celebration of Trinity Sunday was made universal by Pope John XXII (1316-34).

NEW Program from Bishop Robert Barron's Word on Fire!

- The Sacraments, Free to parishioners

View this just released follow-up to The Mass where Bishop Barron looks at the great sacraments of the Church.

For thousands of years Baptism, Confirmation, the Eucharist, Reconciliation, the Anointing of the Sick, Matrimony, and Holy Orders – have endured. But there is far more to these ancient rites than meets the eye.

Parishioners who have viewed this program are unanimous in praise for it. They say that it expanded their appreciation and understanding of the Sacraments.

Just go to wofdigital.org/thesacraments to view the six, 25-30 minute episodes and while you are there you can also download a Companion book, SAINTS and SACRAMENTS by PEGGY PANDALEON.

(Saint John the Evangelist is an ENGAGE parish so there is no cost to parishioners. If you have not already registered, send an email to jack@sjecc.com and I'll send you a link to register.)

Although we are not able to gather in person to discuss each episode of The Sacraments, we could meet weekly in a "Zoom-like" online discussion group.

If you are interested send a message to me at jack@sjecc.com and indicate if you prefer a 1:30 afternoon session or a 7:00 evening session.

Questions: Just email jack@sjecc.com, or call (239) 228-3918 and leave a message. I respond promptly.

Scripture Readings

Reading 1

EX 34:4B-6, 8-9

Early in the morning Moses went up Mount Sinai as the LORD had commanded him, taking along the two stone tablets.

Having come down in a cloud, the LORD stood with Moses there and proclaimed his name, "LORD." Thus the LORD passed before him and cried out, "The LORD, the LORD, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." Moses at once bowed down to the ground in worship. Then he said, "If I find favor with you, O Lord, do come along in our company. This is indeed a stiff-necked people; yet pardon our wickedness and sins, and receive us as your own."

Responsorial Psalm

DN 3:52, 53, 54, 55, 56

R. (52b) Glory and praise for ever! Blessed are you, O Lord, the God of our fathers, praiseworthy and exalted above all forever; And blessed is your holy and glorious name, praiseworthy and exalted above all for all ages.

R. Glory and praise for ever! Blessed are you in the temple of your holy glory, praiseworthy and glorious above all forever.

R. Glory and praise for ever! Blessed are you on the throne of your kingdom, praiseworthy and exalted above all forever.

R. Glory and praise for ever! Blessed are you who look into the depths from your throne upon the cherubim, praiseworthy and exalted above all forever.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

Reading 2

2 COR 13:11-13

Brothers and sisters, rejoice. Mend your ways, encourage one another, agree with one another, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the holy ones greet you.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

Alleluia

CF. RV 1:8

R. Alleluia, alleluia. Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

JN 3:16-18

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.

Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Today we celebrate the Divine dance, a perfectly choreographed interplay of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Together they dance and move as one though three unique Persons with distinctive, yet harmonious, patterns and steps. They provide a mirror into our soul. Within each one of us, the Divine dance continues, and the music of God's love continues to inspire, sustain, and recreate us with every step and melody. Can you hear the music that the Triune God is playing? Where is the dance leading you? Our minds can never truly understand or know God. But our hearts can seek and find Him. From beginning to end, God is one and, at the same time, Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier. God's holy Trinitarian dance is calling you to holiness. Join in and dance!

Great are You Lord

Verse)

You give life You are love
You bring light to the darkness
You give hope You restore ev'ry heart that is broken
And great are You Lord

Chorus)

It's Your breath in our lungs
So we pour out our praise
We pour out our praise
It's Your breath in our lungs
So we pour out our praise to You only

Bridge)

And all the earth will shout Your praise
Our hearts will cry
these bones will sing
Great are You Lord

Verse

Let the poor man say, "I am rich in him."
Let the lost man say, "I am found in him."
Oh, let the river flow!
Let the blind man say, "I can see again."
Let the dead man say, "I am born again."
Oh, let the river flow! Oh, let the river flow—

Chorus

Let the river flow, let the river flow
Holy Spirit, come, move in power
Let the river flow (let the river flow)
Let the river flow!

Faces of Saint Johns: Virtual Concert

Join us online for a FREE Virtual Concert featuring our talented Saint John's musicians, past and present!

This concert will air on our website on June 18th at 7pm!
Simply head to our website and enjoy at www.sjecc.com!

Watch and listen to the talent of our parish, as past and present music ministers, cantors, and music and arts instructors unite for the first time ever, performing music that brings them great joy and excitement to share with our parish family members and online community!

This is a beautiful way for our performers to share their gift of music during this difficult time in hopes that this will bring our parish family the comfort of some familiar faces. Our concert will feature Gary Prettyman, Jennine Burkwit, Tom Oram, Ellie Roberts, Paul Todd, Gabriella Frei, Regina Fahey, Sarah O'Brien, Keith Cute, Regina Baier, and Jillian Iurano.

At the end of the concert, please fill out the accompanying survey and let us know if you would like us to continue with a mini Virtual Concert Series.
