SJE Financial Report to the Parish – September 2020

Today we are providing our Fiscal Year 2020 financial results (July 2019-June 2020) to our Parish Family.

The COVID-19 Pandemic and Response has altered our lives considerably, including our worship lives. We have been reacting and adjusting as quickly as possible to our environment. This included acting quickly to reduce expenses given our COVID-Era operating approach. Closed buildings drove reduced maintenance needs and eliminated our hospitality and food service. Refining our needs for landscaping, pest control, housekeeping, and other services delivered significant savings.

A difficult aspect of the Pandemic has been the suspension of programs at the Parish and the reduced outreach we are able to support. Programs have been dramatically pulled back in a response to the understandable reduction in the gifts provided to our Parish Family.

Here is the snapshot of the 2020 Fiscal Year, including July and August 2021 actuals and forecast expenses for the balance of FY 2021 (assumes our current operating profile). Please note the reduced actual expenses each month beginning with March 2020 running right through August.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH

Sacrament of Baptism. The Diocese requires that parents seeking baptism for their child attend a baptism preparation class. To schedule a baptism class, please call the office at (239) 566-8740.

Sacrament of Matrimony. Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice. Tricia Schwarz: tricia@sjecc.com.

Anointing of the Sick/Funeral Arrangements. Call the parish office. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

One of the greatest things we can give another person is our word. In fact, there are those who believe that our word is the only thing we have to give. But it's easy to give our word. It doesn't cost anything there and then. The cost comes later, if and when we honor our word.

Some people are very generous with their word. They will promise you the sun, moon, and stars. But you can't rely on them. They don't really mean it. Their word is worthless. Their promises dissolve like salt in water. How painful it is to deal with such people. There is not one of us who has not experienced the pain of being let down by someone who failed to keep his/her word.

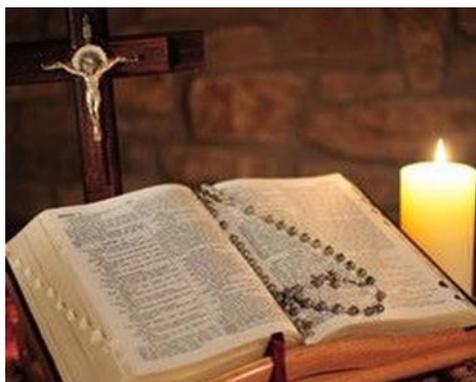

But there are others who are slow to give their word. They don't make promises easily. But when they do make a promise, you can rely on them to honor it. Their promise is like a chain around their leg. How lovely it is to deal with such people.

When the father in Jesus' story asked his two sons to go and work in the vineyard, one of the sons said an immediate and definite 'yes.' He gave his solemn word that he would go. But he didn't keep his word. He didn't go. The other son also gave his word. He said he wouldn't go. However, later he changed his mind and went.

Jesus was not holding either son up as an ideal. Yet we can learn from both. The son who said he would go but didn't is meant to act as a warning to us. We call ourselves Christians but outsiders sometimes accuse us of being hypocrites because our lives do not bear witness to the faith we profess with our lips. Sin does not necessarily imply doing something wrong. The greatest sin is not to do good: the sin of inactivity, of doing nothing.

And we can learn from the son who said 'No' but later changed his mind. To change one's mind is generally regarded as a fault and a weakness. But this is not always the case. It takes humility to admit one's mistake, and courage to put it right.

The second son, because he finally obeyed his father, is a lot better than the first. The ideal son, however, would be the son who immediately and willingly carried out his father's wishes. That is what we should aim at. Jesus is the ideal Son. As St. Paul says, 'He emptied himself and became obedient to the point of death, death on a cross. Therefore, God exalted him.'

The parable teaches us that promises can never take the place of performance, and fine words can never be a substitute for fine deeds.

Faithfulness is one of the greatest and most necessary things in life. But faithfulness is costly. It is not an easy road. It demands unselfishness and a spirit of sacrifice. But even here on earth it brings great rewards in terms of growth, serenity, and joy. There are no such rewards for the unfaithful. There is no happiness at the end of the day for the one who gives his word but fails to honor it. But there is great joy for one who gives his word and honors it.

It is said that a person is as good as his word. If that is so, then the question I must ask myself is: How good is my word?

SJE Financial Report to the Parish – September 2020

Our Income Statement and Balance Sheet for the fiscal year have been adjusted to reflect only Church operations. The “Finish the Church” campaign debt and Catholic Faith Appeal results are noted separately below.

Our Income Statement shows that we finished the year with a surplus of $77,400. At the end of our fiscal year, we created a full depreciation schedule for our fixed assets in accordance with Diocese policy. We have excluded a required catch-up depreciation schedule from the illustrated Income Statement. It amounted to $2,728,339 and will be shown in our future Income Statements – approximately $704,000/year.

Our parish holds one-two months of expenses in a checking account to operate the Parish, per Diocesan Policy. Specific ministries carry balances, as well (ex. Thanksgiving in the Park, Scouts, Social Ministry, etc.). Our savings is used to fund our normal summer deficits. The Balance Sheet incorporates fixed assets net of accumulated depreciation.

As a direct result of the Pandemic, we applied for and received a PPP loan of $219,355 on which we will apply for forgiveness this fall.

FINISH THE CHURCH

The Hurricane Irma damage has been explained with pictures and in the context of our Capital Campaign to build the Pulte Center and reinvigorate our campus. At the high point we had borrowed well over $2 million dollars from the Diocese on a line of credit to complete repairs, obtain Hurricane Irma related insurance reimbursement, and to "Finish the Church." In the early part of 2020, we continued to incur costs to complete the many details of the campus repairs and enhancements.

In May, we completed work and formalized a 10-year, $1,214,460 loan with the Diocese related to the entire campus renewal. At June 30, 2020, the loan balance was $1,110,875, and as of September 1, thanks to your overwhelming generosity, our loan balance is $976,240. We are making progress and will continue to need everyone's help to eliminate the debt!

CATHOLIC FAITH APPEAL (CFA)

Our CFA goal this year is $572,000. As of August 27, we have pledges of $402,657 and are $169,343 away from our goal. The CFA remains a critical component of how we deliver support to our region in a shared way as part of a 61 Parish Catholic community. Your support is critical to the many programs we work to deliver in our Diocese. Please review the good works of the CFA on our website!

CONCLUSION

Our Parish Family's financial outlook is considerably positive, even in the midst of the challenges that have been thrown at us over the past three years. There is increased need in the community due to COVID-19. It is more difficult to serve those people as we normally would because of our debt of $13,000 a month that we must prioritize.

We are committed to being good stewards of our resources and are committed to the financial viability of our Parish. Soon, you will be receiving a letter from Father Tom, describing a new initiative to Finish the Church and asking you to prayerfully consider how your family can help. Thank you for your generosity and continuing to support our Mission: To Know, To Love, and To Serve God, in His Church and Our Community.

Priesthood Sunday

Prayer for Priests

Lord Jesus Christ, eternal High Priest,
You offered yourself to the Father on the altar of the Cross and through the outpouring of the Holy Spirit gave Your priestly people a share in Your redeeming sacrifice.

Hear our prayer for the sanctification of our priests.
Grant that all who are ordained to the ministerial priesthood may be ever more conformed to You, the Divine Master.
May they preach the Gospel with pure heart and clear conscience.

Let them be shepherds according to Your own Heart, single-minded in service to You and to the Church and shining examples of a holy, simple and joyful life.

Through the prayers of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Your Mother and ours, draw all priests and the flocks entrusted to their care to the fullness of eternal life where you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

RESPECT
LIFE
MONTH

Next week is Respect Life Weekend. We are all Masterpieces of God's Creation, made in His own image. Let us cherish all lives, especially the weakest & most vulnerable, the sick, the old, and the poor. Please join us in praying the Rosary for Life in the designated area of the Church following the 9:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday, October 4. You may also pray from home as this will be live streaming.

Encounter on the Mountain

Join us for a very special

Encounter on the Mountain: A Holy Hour of Praise and Adoration on Thursday, October 1, 2020, at 6:30 p.m. in the church.

The theme of the night is "God's mercy makes all things new," and we will be singing the Divine Mercy Chaplet. We will also have confessions throughout the evening. This is a special night of encountering our Lord's mercy with praise and worship music and singing the Divine Mercy Chaplet as a parish family with a reflection on our theme.

Prayer for Protection During Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude.

You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us.

Amen.

[Composed by Most Rev. Maurice Schexnayder (1895-1981), Second Bishop of Lafayette (1956-1973), following Hurricane Audrey in 1957]

Congratulations to Our First Commuicants!

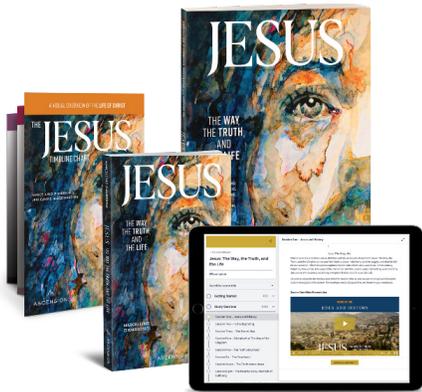

We are blessed once again to celebrate two more First Communions in 2020! After two wonderful First Communions in July, we were so happy to celebrate two more in September! Thank you to all who made it such a special day! Many hands and hearts came together to make this day so special in the midst of challenging times. Thank you to our catechists, clergy, parents, friends, and family for their love and support. Thank you also to our Knights of Columbus for sponsoring our cross cookies from Epiphany Gluten Free Bakery and to our Sewing Ministry for the beautiful white masks! So much joy and love in one day! Here are some pictures to enjoy!

Family Faith Formation

Jesus: The Way, the Truth, and the Life

Jesus: The Way, the Truth, and the Life is a 10-week video study program and book. Anchored in the life of Christ as presented in the Gospels, this study explores the entirety of Jesus' life—who He is, what He is really like, what He taught, what He did for our salvation, and what all of this means for us as Catholics today.

Presented by Dr. Marcellino D'Ambrosio, Jeff Cavins, and Dr. Edward Sri, this study was filmed in the Holy Land so Catholics can experience the extraordinary world in which Jesus lived and taught—the historical context, the politics, the clashing cultures, the history, and the ancient land—and see where the most significant events of His life took place, from His infancy to His ascension.

This study shows, in a simple way, how Jesus, the incarnate God, is both fully divine and fully human—His intimacy with the Father, His revelation of the Father's love, and His extraordinary influence on His disciples, His followers, and even His enemies.

Most importantly, this encounter with Christ will inspire and empower you to center your entire life in Him as you come to know and love Him in an ever-deeper and more intimate way.

Join us at St. John the Evangelist on Wednesdays from 11:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m. beginning September 30th. To register for this session, please email aff@sjecc.com. Please indicate if you would like the study guide and companion book at a cost of $30.00. Note: Purchase of the Study Set grants immediate access to the study videos and workbook for one year!

Materials may be purchased on the first day of class or in advance in our Parish Office. Checks may be made payable to St. John the Evangelist or exact cash may be paid.

The study will be led by Sue Hamilton, member of our Adult Faith Formation Team, in the Alexandria Room of the Claussen Center. Participants will be socially distanced and required to wear a mask. Thank you for your understanding.

FORMED Pick of the Week – St. Thérèse of the Child Jesus

This definitive film, made in honor of the 100th anniversary of her death (1897), tells the story of the life of St. Thérèse of Lisieux from childhood to her holy death as a Carmelite nun. Filmed on location in France it gives her whole story through interviews, dramatizations, examination of her writings and extensive visits to her home and inside the Carmel at Lisieux. Commentary is provided by Bishop Guy Gaucher, the bishop of Lisieux.

FORMED leverages the power of today's technology to help you grow in your faith. FORMED is easy to access. For parishioners who have not previously registered, simply:

- Visit <https://signup.formed.org/>
- Enter your parish zip (34108) and choose St. John the Evangelist (only choice)
- Enter your name and email address

Scripture Readings

Reading 1

EZ 18:25-28

Thus says the LORD: You say, "The LORD's way is not fair!" Hear now, house of Israel: Is it my way that is unfair, or rather, are not your ways unfair? When someone virtuous turns away from virtue to commit iniquity, and dies, it is because of the iniquity he committed that he must die. But if he turns from the wickedness he has committed, he does what is right and just, he shall preserve his life; since he has turned away from all the sins that he has committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

Responsorial Psalm

PS 25:4-5, 8-9, 10, 14

R. (6a) Remember your mercies, O Lord.

Your ways, O LORD, make known to me; teach me your paths, guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my savior.

R. Remember your mercies, O Lord.

Remember that your compassion, O LORD, and your love are from of old. The sins of my youth and my frailties remember not; in your kindness remember me, because of your goodness, O LORD.

R. Remember your mercies, O Lord.

Good and upright is the LORD; thus he shows sinners the way. He guides the humble to justice, and teaches the humble his way.

R. Remember your mercies, O Lord.

Reading 2

PHIL 2:1-11 OR 2:1-5

Brothers and sisters: If there is any encouragement in Christ, any solace in love, any participation in the Spirit, any compassion and mercy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, with the same love, united in heart, thinking one thing. Do nothing out of selfishness or out of vainglory; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves, each looking out not for his own interests, but also for those of others. Have in you the same attitude that is also in Christ Jesus, Who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Have in you the same attitude that is also in Christ Jesus.

Alleluia

JN 10:27

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

My sheep hear my voice, says the Lord; I know them, and they follow me.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

MT 21:28-32

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people: "What is your opinion? A man had two sons. He came to the first and said, 'Son, go out and work in the vineyard today.' He said in reply, 'I will not,' but afterwards changed his mind and went. The man came to the other son and gave the same order. He said in reply, 'Yes, sir, 'but did not go. Which of the two did his father's will?" They answered, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Amen, I say to you, tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you. When John came to you in the way of righteousness, you did not believe him; but tax collectors and prostitutes did. Yet even when you saw that, you did not later change your minds and believe him."

Verse)
In the crushing in the pressing
You are making new wine
In the soil I now surrender
You are breaking new ground
(You are breaking new ground)

Pre-Chorus)
So I yield to You and to Your careful hand
When I trust You
I don't need to understand

Tag)
Jesus bring new wine out of me
Jesus bring new wine out of me

Chorus)
(So) Make me Your vessel
Make me an offering
Make me whatever
You want me to be
(God) I came here with nothing
But all You have given me
Jesus bring new wine out of me

Bridge)

'Cause where there is new wine There is new power. There is new freedom And the kingdom is here. I lay down my old flames To carry Your new fire today

Verse 1) The world is shaking with the love of God. Great and glorious, let the whole earth sing. And all you ever do is change the old for new. People, we believe that Verse 2) Clouds are breaking, heaven's come to earth. Hearts awakening, let the church bells ring. And all you ever do is change the old for new. People, we believe that God _____ is big - ger than _____ the air _____ I breathe, _____ the world _____ we'll leave. God _____ will save the day, _____

_____ and all _____ will say _____ my Glo - ri - ous!
