Mass Begins Again in the Ballroom for Overflow

11:15 a.m. Sunday Mass in the Ballroom Begins
October 11, 2020

With the increase in attendance at our 11:00 a.m. Mass on Sundays, along with the inclusion of the Faith Formation Families looking for Mass after their children’s classes are over, we have decided to provide an additional weekend Mass in the Ballroom at 11:15 a.m. each Sunday until further notice.

Out of an abundance of care for your safety, not only will the church protocols of mask wearing and sanitizing processes be duplicated in the Ballroom, the chairs have been grouped in a socially distanced and responsible level, and cannot be moved. Please enter or exit from either the Ballroom Front Entrance or the Entrance near the Pulte Family Life Center.

Adoration will be moved from Rome into the Ballroom, with the same schedule, Monday – Friday from 9:00 a.m. (immediately after Daily Mass) to 4:00 p.m.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Sacrament of Matrimony. Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice. Tricia Schwarz: tricia@sjecc.com.

Anointing of the Sick/Funeral Arrangements. Call the parish office. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

Jesus' story may seem a bit far-fetched. Who would be so crazy as to turn down an invitation to a royal wedding? But people can be very foolish. There is a streak in us that not only refuses the good, but can't even recognize it. God is continually calling us, as individuals and a community, to a deeper and more authentic life. But, alas, this precious invitation is like the seed that fell among the thorns. It gets choked. A brief look at our lives will show how this happens. There is that letter I know I should write, but just now I'm not in the mood. There is that sick person I know I should visit, but right now my favorite program is on television. I know I need to pray, but I just don't seem to be able to find time for it. I know I should make an effort to get to Mass on time or just to get to Mass, but something always gets in the way. I know I should be more charitable, but I just can't summon up the will to make the effort. I know that dishonesty is wrong, but I tell myself that everybody does it, and what I do is minor compared to what others are up to. I know I don't do my job as well as I should, but why should I break my back when others aren't pulling their weight? I know I drink too much, but I'm under a lot of pressure these days. I know I should spend more time with my children, but I need that overtime money.

One could go on. Each of us, if we got down to it, could draw up quite a long list of things which we know, in our heart of hearts, we should do, or should not do, but which we refuse to look at. And we have no shortage of excuses. They spring up to our defense like over-enthusiastic security guards.

The excuses that kept the invited guests from attending the wedding feast, weren't all bad. In fact, in most cases they were perfectly good ones: one man wanted to attend to his land, another to his business, and so on. But this is precisely what makes them so dangerous. We don't see them as posing a threat.

The greatest danger facing us is not that we might abandon God and turn to evil, but rather that we might just ignore his invitation. To ignore God's invitation altogether is the worst form of refusal. It implies indifference. Indifferent people are the hardest to convert.

We are invited not merely as individuals but as a community. It is the banquet of the new People of God, namely, the Christian community. The invitation challenges us to give up our isolationism, our exclusivism, our self-sufficiency. To accept means to admit our need and willingness to receive from others, to share with others, to associate with others, and to collaborate with others. We don't have to earn our place at the banquet. We are invited.

Our Parish Celebrates Our Faithful Departed Monday, November 2nd, at 6:00 p.m., All Souls Day Mass

All Souls Day, November 2nd, is a special day that the church remembers the faithful departed. St. John's will have a special Mass at 6:00 p.m. to especially remember the members of our parish family and friends who have passed away since All Souls Day of last year, 2019. As a sign that our church keeps our beloved in prayer and is always with the Lord, we have a beautiful ceremony where one family member or representative will light a provided candle to be placed at the foot of the altar. If you wish to have your loved one's name to be read and a candle to be presented, please provide: 1) the name of the deceased (include the phonetic pronunciation), 2) who will be processing to light the candle, and 3) your email address to info@sjecc.com by Monday, October 26th.

Faith Formation

Successful Opening of Faith Formation

Our first week of Faith Formation went very well, and we are thankful to our parents, volunteers, staff, and clergy who helped make the opening a success! The extra time, effort, and support are great appreciated!

Ms. Trish's Kindergarten enjoying crafts and learning about Jesus! This year each child has their own individual box of supplies, that includes a rosary!

Ms. Trish finds creative ways to keep our kindergarten children engaging in hands-on activities despite the distancing during these times.

Ms. Danielle's Sacrament class is preparing for their First Reconciliation. The Blessed First Reconciliation series offers short animated video segments to keep our kids engaged and excited about learning!

Witness to Love

Witness to Love

Saint John the Evangelist Catholic Church Marriage Preparation Program – Witness to Love (WTL). Build a Relationship that will last forever.

Witness to Love is a virtues-based model of marriage renewal and preparation that integrates modern principles of psychology and the virtues to help couples facilitate and talk about their relationship, all built on the rock of True Love that comes from God. What makes Witness to Love unique is that the engaged couple chooses their own mentor couple. This is a couple they both admire and see as a source of faith engagement. This mentor couple gives them a connection and integration into our Parish Family as well as provide encouragement long after the wedding day is over. Through the sharing of the mentor couple's own marriage journey, the engaged couple inherits a "lifeline" of support in their commitment to Jesus and His Church.

If you and your spouse feel called to become a Mentor Couple or assist the Parish Family as our Marriage Preparatory Coordinator, please contact Fr. Arun Paul at the Parish Front Office; 239-566-8740 or email: frarunpaul@sjecc.com.

Verse 1) When he rolls up his sleeves, he ain't just 'puttin' on the ritz'. Our God is an awesome God! There is thunder in his footsteps and lightning in his fists. Our God is an awesome God! And the Lord wasn't joking when he kicked 'em out of Eden. It wasn't for no reason that he shed his blood. His return is very close and so you'd better be believin' That our God is an awesome God! (to chorus) Verse 2) When the sky was starless in the void of the night. Our God is an awesome God! He spoke into the darkness and created the light. Our God is an awesome God! Judgment and wrath he poured out on Sodom; Mercy and grace he gave us at the Cross I hope that we have not too quickly forgotten That our God is an awesome God!

Scripture Readings

Reading 1

IS 25:6-10A

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will provide for all peoples a feast of rich food and choice wines, juicy, rich food and pure, choice wines. On this mountain he will destroy the veil that veils all peoples, the web that is woven over all nations; he will destroy death forever. The Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from every face; the reproach of his people he will remove from the whole earth; for the LORD has spoken. On that day it will be said: "Behold our God, to whom we looked to save us! This is the LORD for whom we looked; let us rejoice and be glad that he has saved us!" For the hand of the LORD will rest on this mountain.

Responsorial Psalm

PS 23:1-3A, 3B-4, 5, 6

R. (6cd) I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. In verdant pastures he gives me repose; beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul.

R. I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

He guides me in right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk in the dark valley I fear no evil; for you are at my side with your rod and your staff that give me courage.

R. I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

You spread the table before me in the sight of my foes; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

R. I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

Only goodness and kindness follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD for years to come.

R. I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

Reading 2

PHIL 4:12-14, 19-20

Brothers and sisters: I know how to live in humble circumstances; I know also how to live with abundance. In every circumstance and in all things I have learned the secret of being well fed and of going hungry, of living in abundance and of being in need. I can do all things in him who strengthens me. Still, it was kind of you to share in my distress.

My God will fully supply whatever you need, in accord with his glorious riches in Christ Jesus. To our God and Father, glory forever and ever. Amen.

Alleluia

EPH 1:17-18

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our hearts, so that we may know what is the hope that belongs to our call.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

MT 22:1-14 OR 22:1-10

Jesus again in reply spoke to the chief priests and elders of the people in parables, saying, "The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son. He dispatched his servants to summon the invited guests to the feast, but they refused to come. A second time he sent other servants, saying, "Tell those invited: 'Behold, I have prepared my banquet, my calves and fattened cattle are killed, and everything is ready; come to the feast.'" Some ignored the invitation and went away, one to his farm, another to his business. The rest laid hold of his servants, mistreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged and sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his servants, 'The feast is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy to come. Go out, therefore, into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find.' The servants went out into the streets and gathered all they found, bad and good alike, and the hall was filled with guests. But when the king came in to meet the guests, he saw a man there not dressed in a wedding garment. The king said to him, 'My friend, how is it that you came in here without a wedding garment?' But he was reduced to silence. Then the king said to his attendants, 'Bind his hands and feet, and cast him into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.' Many are invited, but few are chosen."

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word
and my soul shall be healed.
