Honoring Our Founding Pastor, Father Glackin

Celebrate Father Glackin's Birthday and His Legacy in Our Community

Please join us in person or online here for our celebration of Father Tom Glackin, the Founding Pastor of Saint John the Evangelist Catholic Church and Saint Agnes, on Thursday, October 29, 2020, at 11:00 a.m. here at Saint John (or on our streaming page). We will be honoring Father Glackin on his birthday as well as dedicating our "Homeless Jesus" statue, showcasing his dedication to serving the poor and most in need, both here in Naples and around the world.

A member of our Parish Family has recently created a Fund in the name of Father Glackin to support youth in Naples and their financial needs in order to attend Saint John Neumann High School. If you feel the Spirit calling your soul to assist with this cause, please click here to donate.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

The question as to whether or not it was lawful to pay taxes to Caesar was a serious one, and it really put Jesus in a spot. If He said it was lawful, He would be regarded as a traitor to the Jewish cause and the Jewish religion. If He said it was unlawful, He could be denounced as fomenting rebellion against Rome.

In His answer, Jesus implied that there need not be conflict between the demands of the State and those of God. The State has a role, but its power is limited and does not supplant God. From this principle Christians deduced that they could accommodate loyalty to the State.

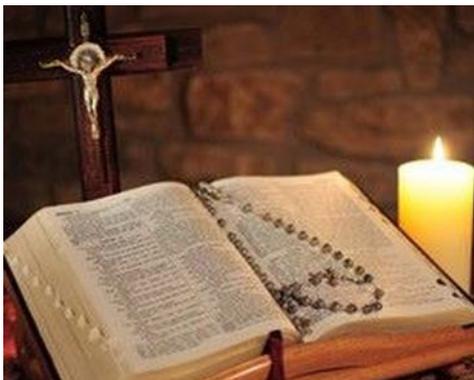

Today you can find people who enjoy dual citizenship – they are citizens of two countries (I would be an example of it). However, every Christian has dual citizenship. Christians are citizens of the country in which they happen to be living or in which they were born. To it they owe many benefits. To its forces of law and order, they owe the fact that they are able to live in peace and security. To its public services they owe transport, water, light, etc. In a welfare state, they also owe their education, medical care, unemployment benefits, and so on to it.

All these benefits mean they are under obligation to the State. The legitimate State has rights, and Christians will respect those rights. They must respect its laws and rulers. They must be responsible citizens, and, as far as they are able, must play their part in making the country a good place for all its citizens. Failure to be a good citizen is a failure in Christian duty. To cheat the State is to cheat one's fellow citizens, and to cheat one's fellow citizens is to cheat God.

But Christians are also citizens of the Kingdom of Heaven. To it they owe certain other privileges, and to it they also have obligations. In many cases, the two responsibilities do not clash, but at times, they may. And when they do, Christians will spontaneously know which comes first.

However, it may not always be that simple. What Jesus gave us was only a principle. He didn't give a detailed theory of political obligations or a blue-print for Church-State relations. Christians would have to work out the implications of it. In practice, it is not always easy to say this is for Caesar and that for God. Life is a unity. It can't be split into two clearly defined parts – the secular part and the religious part.

However, history shows unequivocally that separation of Church and State is absolutely essential. But when Jesus said, 'Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar,' His assumption was that Caesar's claim would be just. He wasn't giving Caesar a blank check. Christians can sometimes be faced with a real dilemma – how to be a Christian in a secular world where the laws may often be unChristian. However, true Christians will strive to be good citizens of their country, and, at the same time, good citizens of the Kingdom of Heaven. They will fail neither in their duty to God nor to their fellow men and women. But as Christians, our first and deepest loyalty is always to God. To God alone we render worship, but in other things we gladly acknowledge and serve the secular powers, praying that they will rule wisely and justly.

Adult Faith Formation

Women of the Word Rediscover Jesus Together – You Are Invited to Join Virtually

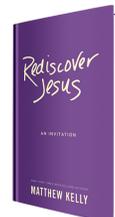

WoW (Women of the Word), a women's Adult Faith Formation Group at Saint John the Evangelist, has been meeting for the past few months via the virtual platform, ZOOM. Their first study was Becoming Women of the Word by Sarah Christmyer. Recently, the group completed a wonderful study about Our Blessed Mother, Mary on the FORMED.ORG platform titled, Lectio Mary based on Brant Pitre's Jesus and the Jewish Roots of Mary. The study looked at Mary in light of the Old Testament, the New Testament, Jewish traditions, and the ancient Church Fathers.

Beginning on October 22, from 9:30 to 11:00 a.m., the group will be rediscovering Jesus together. From Mary to Jesus, as they say!

"If there is one person we should each get to know in a deeply personal way, it is Jesus. And the best time to get to know Jesus is right now. In his book Rediscover Jesus, Matthew Kelly, America's best-selling Catholic author and internationally acclaimed speaker, takes you on a 40-day spiritual journey to encounter Jesus—the amazing friend who is going to help you answer life's tough questions."

To join Women of the Word (WoW), please contact Nancy Bouchard at WoW@sjecc.com.

Witness to Love

Witness to Love

Saint John the Evangelist Catholic Church Marriage Preparation Program – Witness to Love (WTL). Build a Relationship that will last forever.

Witness to Love is a virtues-based model of marriage renewal and preparation that integrates modern principles of psychology and the virtues to help couples facilitate and talk about their relationship, all built on the rock of True Love that comes from God. What makes Witness to Love unique is that the engaged couple chooses their own mentor couple. This is a couple they both admire and see as a source of faith engagement. This mentor couple gives them a connection and integration into our Parish Family as well as provide encouragement long after the wedding day is over. Through the sharing of the mentor couple's own marriage journey, the engaged couple inherits a "lifeline" of support in their commitment to Jesus and His Church.

If you and your spouse feel called to become a Mentor Couple or assist the Parish Family as our Marriage Preparatory Coordinator, please contact Fr. Arun Paul at the Parish Front Office; 239-566-8740 or email: frarunpaul@sjecc.com.

Scripture Readings

Reading 1

IS 45:1, 4-6

Thus says the LORD to his anointed, Cyrus, whose right hand I grasp, subduing nations before him, and making kings run in his service, opening doors before him and leaving the gates unbarred: For the sake of Jacob, my servant, of Israel, my chosen one, I have called you by your name, giving you a title, though you knew me not. I am the LORD and there is no other, there is no God besides me. It is I who arm you, though you know me not, so that toward the rising and the setting of the sun people may know that there is none besides me. I am the LORD, there is no other.

Responsorial Psalm 9-10

PS 96:1, 3, 4-5, 7-8,

R. (7b) Give the Lord glory and honor.

Sing to the LORD a new song; sing to the LORD, all you lands. Tell his glory among the nations; among all peoples, his wondrous deeds.

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

For great is the LORD and highly to be praised; awesome is he, beyond all gods. For all the gods of the nations are things of nought, but the LORD made the heavens.

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

Give to the LORD, you families of nations, give to the LORD glory and praise; give to the LORD the glory due his name! Bring gifts, and enter his courts.

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

Worship the LORD, in holy attire; tremble before him, all the earth; say among the nations: The LORD is king, he governs the peoples with equity.

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

Reading 2

1 THES 1:1-5B

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: grace to you and peace. We give thanks to God always for all of you, remembering you in our prayers, unceasingly calling to mind your work of faith and labor of love and endurance in hope of our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father, knowing, brothers and sisters loved by God, how you were chosen. For our gospel did not come to you in word alone, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with much conviction.

Alleluia

PHIL 2:15D, 16A

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Shine like lights in the world as you hold on to the word of life.

R. Alleluia, alleluia

Gospel

MT 22:15-21

The Pharisees went off and plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech. They sent their disciples to him, with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are a truthful man and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. And you are not concerned with anyone's opinion, for you do not regard a person's status. Tell us, then, what is your opinion: Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" Knowing their malice, Jesus said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin that pays the census tax." Then they handed him the Roman coin. He said to them, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?" They replied, "Caesar's." At that he said to them, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof,
but only say the word
and my soul shall be healed.
