The Beatification of Fr. McGivney is a Cause for Celebration for the Order

On Saturday, October 31, 2020, a beatification Mass was held in the Cathedral of St. Joseph in Hartford, Conn. Father Michael J. McGivney, the founder of the Knights of Columbus, was declared “Blessed,” and his feast day will be set. Father McGivney was the first U.S.-born priest who spent his entire priestly ministry in a parish to be beatified. This is a great boost to the priesthood and to the Catholic Church in America.

He was a central figure in the growth of Catholicism in America, and he remains a model today. Decades ahead of his time, Father McGivney had a keen sense of the layman’s unique vocation, needs, and potential contributions, and he drew his people into the life and activities of the parish.

This respect for the laity led Father McGivney to found the Knights of Columbus, a fraternal organization for Catholic men, in 1882.

Learn more about Blessed Michael J. McGivney on page 5.

The Continued Growth of the Order Depends on Active, Strong Chapters

This weekend, Knights from the St. John the Evangelist Council 11281 are at each of the masses to extend a special invitation to all men of our parish to consider Becoming Knights.

Details about becoming a Knight are on page 5.

Requirements are few; rewards are many!

Knights of Columbus®

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH

Sacrament of Baptism. The Diocese requires that parents seeking baptism for their child attend a baptism preparation class. To schedule a baptism class, please call the office at (239) 566-8740.

Sacrament of Matrimony. Those who wish to be married in our parish must complete the Marriage Preparation Program. The Diocese requires a six month notice. Tricia Schwarz: tricia@sjecc.com.

Anointing of the Sick/Funeral Arrangements. Call the parish office. If the office is closed the answering machine will provide an emergency phone number for you to reach a priest.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

To visit the great National Parks of America is an unforgettable experience. But to explore one of them is better still. There you will find carefully laid out trails for hikers and walkers. On those trails you will find lots of markers. In difficult uphill or downhill parts you will find steps cut out in the rocks. In marshy places you will find stepping-stones laid out. And in dangerous parts you will see warning signs posted.

Thanks to these well-made and well-worn trails, even amateurs can make their way safely through deep forest and rugged mountain terrain. As you travel these trails you marvel at the hard work that went into the making of them. And one thing becomes abundantly clear: without those trails the ordinary hiker would be completely lost.

The saints have done something similar for us. They have laid out paths for us. They have put down markers on those paths. They have travelled the way ahead of us, a great host of them. They have shown us what ordinary human beings like us can achieve when they avail of the grace of God. They have set us an example of determination, dedication, and sacrifice.

Christians have always turned to the example of the saints. Some saints went straight to the goal. Others fell, stumbled, blundered, before finally getting it right. But all have expanded the possibilities of human love and courage.

Such examples are not confined to the roll of official saints. All around us, even in our own times, there are men and women whose stories guide us on our journey – people in whom the two great commandments, love of God and love of neighbor, have been joined to an extraordinary degree.

We draw encouragement and inspiration from these men and women who have gone before us and blazed a trail for us. Each one has made the path that bit easier for the rest of us. And when we experience weariness and a sense of failure and futility, it's as if they are saying to us, "We are with you. Don't give up."

However, there is a tendency to put the saints on such an exalted pedestal that we feel justified in excusing ourselves from imitating them. In this case devotion to the saints becomes more of a hindrance than a help.

The saints serve as models for us precisely because they were sinners like us. They are reminders to us of what life is about. They inspire us, guide us, encourage us and give us hope. And, of course, they also intercede for us.

But they can't do it in our place. Nor will they provide us with shortcuts and ways of evading the hard slog and the narrow road. We must not expect others to do for us what we cannot discipline ourselves to do. We ourselves have to walk the path. We have to make the journey. The saints help us to dare that journey.

Thanksgiving in the Park

Thanksgiving in the Park 2020 Suspended Due to COVID-19 Pandemic Response

It is with a heavy heart that we announce that we will not be providing the thousands of Thanksgiving meals this coming holiday due to the COVID-19 Pandemic Response. We attempted to find a safe and healthy way to serve the community in Immokalee, but out of an abundance of caution for the volunteers and patrons of this service program, we will have to hold off this year. We will be back in the Park next year, God willing. Thank you for your understanding.

As a replacement to the constant generosity our Parish Family and the community have normally had during this time of year, we are asking that if you would like to assist in feeding those most in need here in Naples, you donate to the Saint Vincent DePaul Society, which includes Meals on Wheels Support and a Food Pantry. We will help stock their shelves this year to ensure anyone that needs food can find it.

Witness to Love

Witness to Love

Saint John the Evangelist Catholic Church Marriage Preparation Program – Witness to Love (WTL). Build a Relationship that will last forever.

Witness to Love is a virtues-based model of marriage renewal and preparation that integrates modern principles of psychology and the virtues to help couples facilitate and talk about their relationship, all built on the rock of True Love that comes from God. What makes Witness to Love unique is that the engaged couple chooses their own mentor couple. This is a couple they both admire and see as a source of faith engagement. This mentor couple gives them a connection and integration into our Parish Family as well as provide encouragement long after the wedding day is over. Through the sharing of the mentor couple's own marriage journey, the engaged couple inherits a "lifeline" of support in their commitment to Jesus and His Church.

If you and your spouse feel called to become a Mentor Couple or assist the Parish Family as our Marriage Preparatory Coordinator, please contact Fr. Arun Paul at the Parish Front Office; 239-566-8740 or email: frarunpaul@sjecc.com.

Blessed Michael J. McGivney

Father McGivney's special vocation was to develop Catholic manhood, to bind into one conspicuous solidarity all the elements that make for strength of character, and to bring out that solidity of character prominently in its strength before the world. Thanks to his labors, the Society of the Knights of Columbus was organized in 1882. His example of charity, evangelization, and empowerment of the laity continues to bear fruit and guide Knights of Columbus around the world.

Father McGivney lived in times not unlike now. He died in the Asian Flu Pandemic of 1890. He is known to intercede especially in four areas of contemporary concern:

- Employment and finances. Just as parishioners looked to Father McGivney for help when "No Irish need apply" was often included in job postings, today many receive help when they are laid off or seeking a better job.
- Substance abuse. In Father McGivney's day, alcoholism afflicted the immigrant population, and many now find relief from drug or alcohol abuse after praying to him.
- Family reconciliation. Father McGivney helped immigrant families struggling to stay together and to make ends meet. Today, Father McGivney continues to respond to the prayers of families.
- Return to the faith. Father McGivney founded the Order to keep men from joining anti-Catholic societies. Today, many Catholics receive favors when calling upon him to help their fallen-away children return to Mass. (from Columbia magazine)

Our Strong Chapter Would be Even Stronger if You Were a Member

The Knights are looking for men who want to support their parish and give back to their community in any of a myriad of ways. As taught in our principle of unity, we can accomplish more together. Brothers join together to help one another become better Catholics, better husbands, better fathers, and better citizens. The work of the Knights combines community service, social activities, charitable fundraising, and support for the Catholic Church.

At St. John, members serve as volunteers in parish ministries, help with special projects, and sponsor parish events. They are most visible in annual parish events such as the Lenten fish bakes, Valentine and vocations dinner dances, Tootsie Roll drive for the disabled, and Christmas time collections of gifts and toys.

Brothers support our liturgies as greeters and ushers, lectors, Eucharistic ministers, and at special times with the Color Corps. And behind the scenes they support our priests and seminarians, fund multiple parish equipment and events, assist in activities and events for youth and young adults, and help the less fortunate with time and treasure.

Take a NEW look at the Knights; become active even if the time you have to give is limited.

Ask a Knight about becoming a Knight.

8th Graders Make Rosaries to Further Their Devotion to Our Blessed Mother

First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion: Enrollment Mass November 1st

Celebrating the Saints St. Jude of Thaddeus

For those children receiving the Sacraments of First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion this year, the Enrollment Mass will be on Sunday, November 1st at the 11:15 a.m. Mass in our Parish Ballroom. These students will sit with their families and come forward during Mass to receive a special blessing and necklace to mark the beginning of their preparation for the sacraments.

We are grateful for the following catechists who are helping to prepare 62 children to receive First Reconciliation and First Communion: Danielle Manzano, Melissa O'Brien, Molly O'Brien, Ania Ratskowski, and Carol Roberts.

St. Jude was one of Jesus' twelve apostles. He was also the brother of St. James, the Less, who was also an apostle. St. Jude is the patron Saint of Hope and Impossible Causes. St. Jude shared the Gospel with great love and enthusiasm, having great impact on those around him.

St. Jude is often portrayed as carrying an image of Jesus with him, a reminder of a great miracle when Jesus impressed an image of His own face on a cloth and gave it to St. Jude to go and cure King Abagar of Edessa, who was suffering from Leprosy.

After Jesus' death and resurrection, St. Jude continued to preach the Gospel along with St. Simon. St. Jude died for his faith in Christ, and we pray to him today to intercede to Jesus for us. St. Jude's feast day is October 28. The color green is often associated with St. Jude symbolizing Hope. To send a prayer to St. Jude, please visit: <http://www.shrineofstjude.org>

Our Parish Celebrates Our Faithful Departed Monday, November 2nd, at 6:00 p.m., All Souls Day Mass

All Souls Day, November 2nd, is a special day that the Church remembers the faithful departed. St. John's will have a special Mass at 6:00 p.m. to especially remember our Parish Family and friends who have passed away since All Souls Day of last year, 2019. As a sign that our Church keeps our beloved in prayer and is always with the Lord, we have a beautiful ceremony where one family member or representative will light a candle at the foot of the Altar. If you wish to have your loved ones' name to be read and a candle to be lit, please provide: 1) the name of the deceased (include the phonetic pronunciation), 2) who will be lighting the candle, and 3) your email address to info@sjecc.com by Monday, October 26th. This Mass will be livestreamed for all who are unable to attend in person.

Verse 1)

The sun comes up it's a new day dawning;
it's time to sing your song again.
Whatever may pass and whatever lies before me—
let me be singing when the evening comes. (Chorus)

Verse 2)

You're rich in love and you're slow to anger;
your name is great and your Heart is kind.
For all your goodness I will keep on singing:
Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find. (Chorus)

Verse 3)

And on that day when my strength is failing,
the end draws near, and my time has come,
May my soul sing your praise unending:
Ten thousand years and then forevermore! (Chorus)

Verse 1)

Your love is devoted like a ring of solid gold
Like a vow that is tested like a covenant of old
Your love is enduring through the winter rain
And beyond the horizon with mercy for today

Pre-Chorus)

Faithful You have been and faithful You will be
You pledge Yourself to me and it's why I sing

Chorus)

Your praise will ever be on my lips
Ever be on my lips
Your praise will ever be on my lips
Ever be on my lips
(REPEAT)

Verse 2)

You Father the orphan. Your kindness makes us whole.
You shoulder our weakness. And Your strength becomes our own You're making me like You. Clothing me in white.
Bringing beauty from ashes. For You will have Your bride.

Pre-Chorus)

Free of all her guilt and rid of all her shame
And known by her true name and it's why I sing

Bridge)

You will be praised You will be praised
With angels and saints we sing worthy are You Lord
You will be praised You will be praised
With angels and saints we sing worthy are You Lord
(REPEAT)

And it's why I sing

Verse 1) Oh I love to hear the song of creation. The wind and the rhythm of the rain. Oh the thunder it speaks of Your power. But there's something in the sound of the saints.

Verse 2) I've been washed in the roar of the ocean. Found peace in the echoes of a cave. And the trees of the field they clap their hands. But there's something in the sound of the saints.

Pre-Chorus) From the lips of those You saved A redemption song will rise With a sound so full it cracks the sky Chorus 1) Whoa we sing hallelujah. Whoa we sing amen. Hear the sound of the saints as we march onto Zion. Singing alleluia amen. (Singing) alleluia amen.

Verse 3) I will hear the chorus of the angels. Forever a symphony of praise. I long to hear the voice of my Savior. And He hears us the sound of the saints Pre-Chorus) From the lips of those You saved A redemption song will rise Ev'ry tongue ev'ry tribe hear the Church Your bride Interlude) Whoa whoa

Bridge) Our hearts will rise our song shall be Jesus Christ our Savior King forever. Our hearts will rise the saints will sing Of Jesus Christ our Savior King forever forever

Scripture Readings

Reading 1      RV 7:2-4, 9-14

I, John, saw another angel come up from the East, holding the seal of the living God. He cried out in a loud voice to the four angels who were given power to damage the land and the sea, "Do not damage the land or the sea or the trees until we put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God." I heard the number of those who had been marked with the seal, one hundred and forty-four thousand marked from every tribe of the children of Israel.

After this I had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice: "Salvation comes from our God, who is seated on the throne, and from the Lamb."

All the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures. They prostrated themselves before the throne, worshiped God, and exclaimed: "Amen. Blessing and glory, wisdom and thanksgiving, honor, power, and might be to our God forever and ever. Amen."

Then one of the elders spoke up and said to me, "Who are these wearing white robes, and where did they come from?" I said to him, "My lord, you are the one who knows." He said to me, "These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the Blood of the Lamb."

Responsorial Psalm      PS 24:1BC-2, 3-4AB, 5-6

R. (see 6) Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

The LORD's are the earth and its fullness; the world and those who dwell in it. For he founded it upon the seas and established it upon the rivers.

R. Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

Who can ascend the mountain of the LORD? or who may stand in his holy place? One whose hands are sinless, whose heart is clean, who desires not what is vain.

R. Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

He shall receive a blessing from the LORD, a reward from God his savior. Such is the race that seeks him, that seeks the face of the God of Jacob.

R. Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

Reading 2      1 JN 3:1-3

Beloved: See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. Everyone who has this hope based on him makes himself pure, as he is pure.

Alleluia      MT 11:28

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest, says the Lord.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel      MT 5:1-12A

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him. He began to teach them, saying: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land. Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied. Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven."

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word
and my soul shall be healed.

Scripture Readings for the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed

Reading 1

WIS 3:1-9

The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them. They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead; and their passing away was thought an affliction and their going forth from us, utter destruction. But they are in peace. For if before men, indeed, they be punished, yet is their hope full of immortality; chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed, because God tried them and found them worthy of himself. As gold in the furnace, he proved them, and as sacrificial offerings he took them to himself. In the time of their visitation they shall shine, and shall dart about as sparks through stubble; they shall judge nations and rule over peoples, and the LORD shall be their King forever. Those who trust in him shall understand truth, and the faithful shall abide with him in love: because grace and mercy are with his holy ones, and his care is with his elect.

Responsorial Psalm PS 23:1-3A, 3B-4, 5, 6

R. (1) The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

or:

R. Though I walk in the valley of darkness, I fear no evil, for you are with me.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. In verdant pastures he gives me repose; beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

or:

R. Though I walk in the valley of darkness, I fear no evil, for you are with me.

He guides me in right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk in the dark valley I fear no evil; for you are at my side with your rod and your staff that give me courage.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

or:

R. Though I walk in the valley of darkness, I fear no evil, for you are with me.

You spread the table before me in the sight of my foes; You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

or:

R. Though I walk in the valley of darkness, I fear no evil, for you are with me.

Only goodness and kindness follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD for years to come.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

or:

R. Though I walk in the valley of darkness, I fear no evil, for you are with me.

Reading 2

ROM 6:3-9

Brothers and sisters: Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life. For if we have grown into union with him through a death like his, we shall also be united with him in the resurrection. We know that our old self was crucified with him, so that our sinful body might be done away with, that we might no longer be in slavery to sin. For a dead person has been absolved from sin. If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him.

Alleluia

MT 25:34

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Come, you who are blessed by my Father; inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

JN 6:37-40

Jesus said to the crowds: "Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and I will not reject anyone who comes to me, because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me. And this is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me, but that I should raise it on the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him on the last day."

Encounter on the Mountain: A Holy Hour of Praise and Adoration on Thursday, November 5, 2020, at 6:30 p.m. in the church.

The theme of the night is "Thy Will Be Done." We will also have confessions throughout the evening. This is a beautiful way to spend some time with the Lord and allow Him to speak to your heart. Rest in His loving presence.

Covid-19 Updates

SJE COVID-19 Response Updates for November 2020

We are blessed that so many of our Parish Family have continued to engage our faith together, both in-person as well as virtually, through this Pandemic. It is incredibly important that our church is a refuge and support mechanism for those in need, physically, spiritually, and emotionally. The isolation many are feeling is palpable, and Saint John is here to serve you and your loved ones through the COVID-19 Response and beyond.

We have been able to update some of our Policies and Procedures from the initial Public Attendance for Mass participation recently. A message was sent out to the internal Ministry leadership of the Parish to evaluate their Ministry's ability to meet again on-site. Some additional changes we would like to announce are:

Opportunities for Reconciliation Move Into the Church Building

For the last several months, the clergy of Saint John the Evangelist have been providing the healing Sacrament of Reconciliation in our Middle Parking Lot, rain or shine (including blazing hot summer mornings), for individual Confessions on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Saturdays. We are now authorized to provide Reconciliation back in the Church building, rather than outside. Beginning November 1, 2020, all Confessions will be held in the Inner Sacristy room immediately after the Daily Masses on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Saturdays still. Penitent individuals may wait in the Narthex (Church Lobby) socially distanced and the priest will come out and receive the individual to bring them into the Sacristy.

Confessions will start after the Daily Mass completes (around 9:00 a.m. on weekdays and 8:30 a.m. on Saturdays) until all are heard.

Pulte Family Life Center Expands to Saturday Hours

We are now able to allow individuals who have memberships to the Pulte Family Life Center to use the building on Saturdays from 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. for their personal health and wellness activities, along with our normal weekday hours of Monday – Friday, from 7:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Only members are allowed to enter the facility during these times and everyone must follow our Pulte Family Life Center COVID-19 Policies and Procedures while in the building.

Continuing Our Health and Safety Practices for All Activities on Campus

Saint John the Evangelist has instituted significant operational activities to ensure the healthiest environment possible for our Parish Family to attend Mass, Faith Formation Programs, and many other activities on our campus. We respect the life and safety of all who step foot here, and we hope our Parish Family and visitors also show their care for the life of those around them by following our Policies and Procedures, including:

1. Continuing to require wearing masks properly, including over your mouth and nose, during the entire Mass.
2. Staying a respectful social distance from other individuals and families while in the church building.
3. Providing your generous offerings to our Ushers at the Exit Doors of the Church as you depart.
