WORSHIP AID EDITION
To Know, To Love, and To Serve God in His Church and Our Community.

Celebrate Veterans Day with Saint John

We will hold our annual Veterans Day Mass, both in person and virtually, on November 11, 2020, at 9:00 a.m. Please join our Knights of Columbus and our Parish Family virtually or in person, to honor and celebrate those who have dedicated their lives to serve our country and protect our freedoms.

For many of our Parish Family, the church is the singular part of our campus they interact with, aside from the parking lots and walkways. We are much more than the church, which will always be the core of our community and our faith. As part of our continuing illustration of Saint John as an enlivening, inviting place for our parish and our community, I wanted to showcase some lesser-known areas of our facilities and grounds. Hopefully, you will get a chance to visit them the next time you come.

Jean-Paul Boucher, Business Manager

It is a stark and visceral image as you enter our church campus and park in the Front Lot. The “Lest We Forget” statue stands tall below the American Flag, the yellow and white Papal Flag with the Vatican crest, and our blue eagle of Saint John the Evangelist. This location is called our Veterans Memorial. This spot is one of my favorite places at Saint John. I take my Faith Formation classes there to have discussions sitting on the benches. I go there to reflect on the operations of our church and understand how so many have sacrificed to give us the opportunity to freely and openly worship and heal together. As a Veteran myself, it fills me with joy to be able to share this beautiful illustration of our faith, honor, and service.

For those who come in the side entrance and do not park in the front, I highly recommend you take a walk before or after Mass out the front of the church and visit this memorial. The first thing you will see is the amazing statue of Jesus embracing a soldier.

A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

While the Gospel is talking about rejoicing, the Second Reading is talking about grieving. Both are part of life and can be very close to each other. Today I may be attending a wedding, tomorrow a funeral. The early Christians believed that Jesus would return soon and take them all to heaven. This made it difficult for them to accept the death of some of their members before Jesus returned in glory.

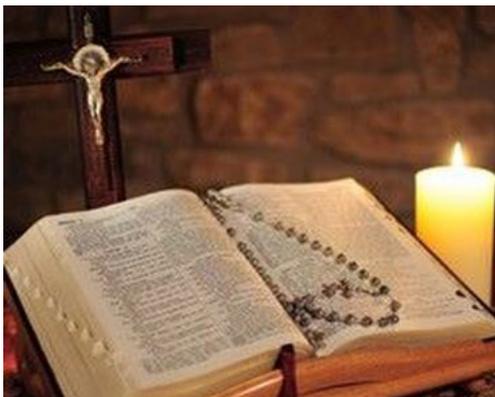

In the Second Reading, we heard Paul reassuring the Thessalonians. He tells them that as surely as God raised Jesus from the dead, Jesus will raise those who have died, and present them to God in the final showing of his Kingdom. But meanwhile they are grieving. What should be their attitude to grief? He didn't tell the Thessalonians that they should not grieve. What he said to them was: "Do not grieve like those who have no hope." Grief is not an easy thing to handle. You still find people who directly or indirectly discourage it. Vincent had recently lost his wife, and was now living on his own. He was still in the early stages of a very deep grief. Her death left not only a great void in his life, but a great silence, too.

To their credit, his grown children visited him regularly. However, they made sure not to bring up the one subject he desperately wanted and needed to talk about, namely, the death of his wife. They said they didn't want to upset him. So they acted as if nothing had happened, and expected him to do the same. Even though they meant well, they were not helping him. He had to do his grief-work. That grief was all the greater for not being shared.

Grief follows the loss of a loved one as surely and naturally as night follows day. Grief is one of the strongest emotions we will ever experience. Many people have a problem about expressing grief, and may try to suppress it. To suppress grief is dangerous, and can result in serious emotional problems.

To live fruitfully after the death of a loved one, people need to go through a period of mourning. The way to deal with grief is not to run away from it, or pretend it isn't there, but to face it and work through it with as much honesty and courage as one can. Those who do this will emerge enriched as persons. Grief has a great purgative value. God cannot fill the soul until it is emptied of trivial concerns. And a great grief is a tremendous bonfire in which all the trash of life is consumed.

Faith should not be used as a barrier against grief. Sometimes people say about someone who does not grieve, "What great faith he (she) has!" But even Christ grieved. To grieve over the loss of a loved one is a good and necessary thing. While faith doesn't do away with the necessity of grieving, it is a wonderful comfort and support at a time of death. Paul says, "We believe that Jesus Christ died and rose again, and that it will be the same for those who have died in Christ ... Comfort one another with these thoughts." Faith doesn't dispense us from grieving. What it does do is enable us to grieve with hope.

There's no escaping the work of grief, and there can be no economizing in that work. If we suppress it now it will burst out later, when there's another death to mourn or another anniversary.

We mustn't be afraid to cry, to let ourselves go. It's part of the healing. We have tears in our eyes but hope in our hearts. If we do the work of grief, we will wake up one morning, liberated and full of energy for life. The wedding feast to which Jesus invites us will be all the more joyful for those who have walked through the dark valley of grief, and emerged with the lamp of love still burning brightly.

Celebrate Veterans Day with Saint John

This is a poignant illustration of how the emotional and physical scars of war are cleansed through Christ's loving embrace, which is also the source of a soldier's strength. To truly experience the power of this statue, you need to walk all the way around it, seeing the expressions on both Jesus' and the soldier's faces. I have heard that people have come to our church due to the fact that we have the "Lest We Forget" statue on our grounds. Sculptor Timothy P. Schmalz, who is also responsible for our Crucifix in our Life Center and the Homeless Jesus Statue at the walkway to the Prayer Garden, is widely known for his religious artwork, and we are blessed to be a primary location for it in Southwest Florida.

The rest of the Veterans Memorial is just as touching. Benches for sitting can be found around the statue, with intentions carved into them. On the ground of the memorial, you will find stones that have been dedicated to parishioners and their families and friends. Many of the stones have the crests of their tours of duty, service branch, or division. These bricks illustrate the love and remembrance we all feel for the soldiers, airmen, sailors, Marines, and first responders who have protected us. If you have a desire to add a name to our Veterans Memorial, please contact me and we can set up a time to discuss it. The cost of a brick is only $150.

2020 "Bagless" Thanksgiving Food Drive

During this COVID-19 pandemic, we are not able to operate in the traditional manner for our Thanksgiving food drive. But people are still hungry and still coming to our food pantry. Saint John the Evangelist conference of the St. Vincent DePaul Society would like to suggest you make a monetary donation to our 2020 "BAGLESS" Thanksgiving food drive to enable us to replenish our food pantry.

Our goal is to collect $10,000.00 in honor of our founding pastor, Fr. Thomas Glackin, who died last year. He was the driving force to take care of the needy in our parish. St. Vincent de Paul Conference is honored to continue this work.

"For I was hungry, and you gave me food to eat."

Ways you can support this project:

1. Send a check made out to St. Vincent de Paul and write "2020 Thanksgiving Food Drive" in the memo line. Send check to St. John the Evangelist, 625 111th Ave. North, Naples, FL 34108.
2. Place the donation in the "Poor Box(es)" around the Church.
3. Go to St. John Evangelist website: <https://stjohntheevangelist.weshareonline.org/St.VincentDePaul>

Please note: Additionally, Thanksgiving Day Mass will be one of our major, traditional, annual events for the SJE/SVdP Conference. Your generosity, as always, will be much appreciated especially during this very difficult environment of Covid-19. Look for the St. Vincent DePaul envelope in your packets or contribute online as above.

Confirmation Gifts at the Divine Gift Boutique!

One special way to welcome a new member of the Catholic Church is to give them a religious Confirmation gift from our very own Divine Gift Boutique to signify this holy time in their lives. The Divine Gift Boutique is proud to offer a broad range of gifts for both youth and adults who are celebrating the sacrament of Confirmation. We offer gifts available online for safe curbside pickup, and we are now open Mondays and Tuesdays from 8:30-1:30 p.m. for in-person shopping!

60 Children Celebrate at Their First Communion Enrollment Mass

On May 1st, 2021, 60 children in our parish are looking forward to receiving the sacrament of First Holy Communion. Along their path to this special day, they will also receive the sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time. Last Sunday, the children attended a The Rite of Enrollment Mass that marked another milestone along their journey of faith. During the Mass, Fr. Tom blessed the children and gave them a very special necklace to wear to Mass each week leading up to their First Holy Communion. Please keep these children and their families in your prayers.

Across this great country and throughout the world, we pause this Veterans Day to honor the brave men and women who have underwritten our freedom by their selfless service. All veterans have given something of themselves to America and some have given all, laying down their lives to defend our freedom.

We are eternally indebted to the untold number of American Veterans, who chose to set aside their personal ambitions and dreams to assure the well-being of our great nation. We, the living, are indeed the beneficiaries of those who made the tremendous sacrifices to advance and ensure our liberty.

To all our veterans, we have a simple yet heartfelt message – thank you. Thank you for your unwavering service in peacetime and war, here in this nation and throughout the world. Let Us Never Forget that we cannot rightfully celebrate the joy of our freedom without remembering the great price paid for that freedom.

Scripture Readings for the Memorial of Saint Martin of Tours

Reading 1      Ti 3:1-7

Beloved: Remind them to be under the control of magistrates and authorities, to be obedient, to be open to every good enterprise. They are to slander no one, to be peaceable, considerate, exercising all graciousness toward everyone. For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, deluded, slaves to various desires and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful ourselves and hating one another.

But when the kindness and generous love of God our savior appeared, not because of any righteous deeds we had done but because of his mercy, he saved us through the bath of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom he richly poured out on us through Jesus Christ our savior, so that we might be justified by his grace and become heirs in hope of eternal life.

Responsorial Psalm      23:1b-3a, 3bc-4, 5, 6

R. (1) The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. In verdant pastures he gives me repose; Beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

He guides me in right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk in the dark valley I fear no evil; for you are at my side With your rod and your staff that give me courage.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing

I shall want.

You spread the table before me in the sight of my foes; You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Only goodness and kindness follow me all the days of my life; And I shall dwell in the house of the LORD for years to come.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Alleluia      1 Thes 5:18

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

In all circumstances, give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel      Lk 17:11-19

As Jesus continued his journey to Jerusalem, he traveled through Samaria and Galilee. As he was entering a village, ten lepers met him. They stood at a distance from him and raised their voice, saying, "Jesus, Master! Have pity on us!" And when he saw them, he said, "Go show yourselves to the priests." As they were going they were cleansed. And one of them, realizing he had been healed, returned, glorifying God in a loud voice; and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. He was a Samaritan. Jesus said in reply, "Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" Then he said to him, "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you."

Prayers

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault,

through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living, and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Communion Prayer

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Scripture Readings

Reading 1

WIS 6:12-16

Resplendent and unfading is wisdom, and she is readily perceived by those who love her, and found by those who seek her. She hastens to make herself known in anticipation of their desire; Whoever watches for her at dawn shall not be disappointed, for he shall find her sitting by his gate. For taking thought of wisdom is the perfection of prudence, and whoever for her sake keeps vigil shall quickly be free from care; because she makes her own rounds, seeking those worthy of her, and graciously appears to them in the ways, and meets them with all solicitude.

Responsorial Psalm PS 63:2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8

R. (2b) My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

O God, you are my God whom I seek; for you my flesh pines and my soul thirsts like the earth, parched, lifeless and without water.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

Thus have I gazed toward you in the sanctuary to see your power and your glory, For your kindness is a greater good than life; my lips shall glorify you.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

Thus will I bless you while I live; lifting up my hands, I will call upon your name. As with the riches of a banquet shall my soul be satisfied, and with exultant lips my mouth shall praise you.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

I will remember you upon my couch, and through the night-watches I will meditate on you: You are my help, and in the shadow of your wings I shout for joy.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

Reading 2

1 THES 4:13-18 OR 4:13-14

We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, about those who have fallen asleep, so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, bring with him those who have fallen asleep. Indeed, we tell you this, on the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will surely not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord himself, with a word of command, with the voice of an archangel and with the trumpet of God, will come down from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. Thus we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore, console one another with these words.

We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, about those who have fallen asleep, so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, bring with him those who have fallen asleep.

Alleluia

MT 24:42A, 44

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Stay awake and be ready! For you do not know on what day your Lord will come.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

MT 25:1-13

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "The kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were wise. The foolish ones, when taking their lamps, brought no oil with them, but the wise brought flasks of oil with their lamps. Since the bridegroom was long delayed, they all became drowsy and fell asleep. At midnight, there was a cry, 'Behold, the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!' Then all those virgins got up and trimmed their lamps. The foolish ones said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' But the wise ones replied, 'No, for there may not be enough for us and you. Go instead to the merchants and buy some for yourselves.' While they went off to buy it, the bridegroom came and those who were ready went into the wedding feast with him. Then the door was locked. Afterwards the other virgins came and said, 'Lord, Lord, open the door for us!' But he said in reply, 'Amen, I say to you, I do not know you.' Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour."
