A Prayer for World Peace

Dear God, thank You for all creation. In the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth and all teachers of peace who inspire the many faith traditions, help me and all the people of the world learn how to replace hate, war, oppression, and division with love, peace, freedom, and reconciliation. Help me to embody Your love in my relationships with my family, friends, strangers – even my enemies. I commit myself to this sacred task throughout my life. So let it be. Amen.

New Church Survival Guide: Comfort for Families with Small Children

With so many changes to our Church Building, we thought it would be helpful to our Parish Family to provide some suggestions and guidance on how to enjoy this faith-enriching environment. This "Survival Guide" will take many forms, from this column to a consolidated pamphlet and even walking tours of the church to help us all Finish the Church. Please join us in embracing these wonderful changes and prayerfully consider any support you can provide to complete this campaign.

When developing the new church layout and structure, we had several core precepts, some of which were: make the church as welcoming and accessible as possible and to find every conceivable place to squeeze in more seating. In order to try and make both ideas work simultaneously, we had to think outside the box. One box in the church that made sense to dispense with was the Cry Room. Not only did the room take up a significant amount of space in the Sanctuary, it created a barrier that many families felt separated them from the Sacred Space of the Liturgy and the Blessed Sacrament. We are, after all, a Parish Family, and every one of us, youngest to oldest, deserve to be near the Lord, and if we want to live by the above Scripture, we should not contain the children in a glass box.

By removing the Cry Room, along with the complete deployment of pews throughout the Sanctuary, we have significantly increased the amount of seating of the church to over 1700, which will assist us all during the busy times of year and our Seasonal Parish Family Members returning. It should also signal to everyone that the children of the parish are welcome at all times, even if they say "Yay, Jesus!" in the middle of the Consecration. We never want to make a family feel uncomfortable for their children, so we have created several mechanisms if a parent, grandparent, or guardian believes their child might be getting a little rambunctious and could use a break:

Narthex

We have completely redesigned the Narthex of our church (the entry-way/vestibule/"lobby") to become a space where families can still participate in the Mass while allowing their children to move around a bit and make noise. New full-glass doors separate (and provide sound dampening) the Narthex and Sanctuary, so viewing the Mass is easy. Our new sound system pipes in the Mass, and the video displays can be set to show the broadcast of the Mass, when we have our A/V Ministry there to operate it. There is seating and walking space in the Narthex, so families should feel free to utilize it when they feel it is appropriate.

Outside Spaces

The front of our new church has been outfitted with excellent speakers as well, which provide clear sound for any family members that may need to stretch their legs a little bit. The same goes for behind the church building, where we have speakers that provide the Mass to those walking through the Prayer Garden or around the veranda between the church and the Parish Activity Center. Please feel free to use these spaces for your children if you believe it would be effective for you.

Gospel Reflections with Father Tom

It was a beautiful July day. A man was sitting at his desk in an air conditioned room. The temperature in the room was a comfortable 72 degrees. He felt full of energy. From his window, he saw that the sun was shining brightly outside, and every now and then a slight breeze stirred the tops of the trees. It was such a beautiful day!

He was watching a teenage boy working on the grounds. Judging by the slowness of his movements, one would think that he was a prisoner doing forced labor. He rested frequently. "What's the matter with him? How can a young man be so lazy?" the man asked himself.

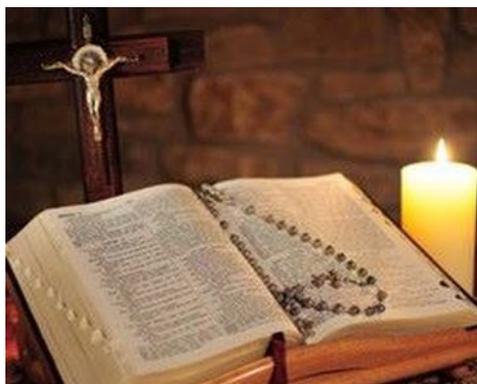

But later in the morning the man went outside on some business. As soon as he stepped outside, he was hit by a wave of heat which stopped him in his tracks. It was 90 degrees out there, and the humidity was almost as high. Now he realized what the boy was up against. And, given the kind of day that was, he was amazed that the boy hadn't fainted.

Though his world was separated only by the width of a wall from the world of the boy, those two worlds could hardly have been more different. Yet unless he left his own world and entered that of the youth, he would never have known the difference.

We can be within arm's reach of someone, yet be living in a different world from that person. But we'll never know the difference unless we leave our world and enter that of the other person. We will never understand it from the outside.

The rich man and Lazarus lived in opposite worlds, yet those worlds lay side by side. But the rich man never once entered the world of the poor man. He didn't see Lazarus as a human being, much less as a brother with whom he shared a common humanity. He was indifferent to him, and indifference is a great evil.

The rich man didn't do anything wrong – he didn't hurt or exploit the poor man. He was condemned, not because he was rich, but because he didn't show compassion to the poor man. He lived only for himself.

Sin is not only about doing wrong. It is also about not doing good – the sin of inactivity, of doing nothing, and worse still, of indifference.

May the Lord, who entered fully into our world, help us to enter the world of those who are in pain or in need. As people who stand in daily need of God's mercy and goodness, as people who pray with hands held out like a beggar's bowl, we should in turn try to be kind, generous, and merciful with others, because the measure we give will be the measure we receive.

Celebrate a New Priest of the Diocese

Deacon Carlos Encinas will be ordained as a new Priest in the Diocese of Venice, the only one this year, on Saturday, October 5, at the Epiphany Cathedral in Venice. Prior to his call to his vocation, Deacon Carlos studied at the School of Medicine in Argentina, where he was born and raised. Please join Deacon Carlos here at Saint John the Evangelist for a Mass of Thanksgiving on Sunday, October 6, at 9:00 a.m. His family is coming all the way from Argentina to celebrate this special moment for Deacon Carlos, and we will have a wonderful celebration for him, including a reception after the Mass in the Pulte Family Life Center 5 Saints Café.

Faith Formation Adds Music with Ms. Jennine

We are so Blessed to have Ms. Jennine to lead our children in music this week! Ms. Jennine, our Artistic Director here at St. John's, will be working with children in grades K-5 throughout the year providing musical instruction including parts of the Mass, as well as other uplifting and encouraging music. We are very blessed to have such a wonderful opportunity for the children in our Faith Formation program. This week, Ms. Jennine focused on the music of the Alleluia, the Gospel Acclamation that is sung as part of the celebration of the Mass. She encouraged the children to sing loud enough that all in Mass could hear their beautiful voices. And so many of them did!

The Children's Choir at St. John's is an optional for all children in our parish and rehearses on Wednesdays from 5:15-5:45 p.m. For more information and to join the Children's Choir, please contact Ms. Jennine at jennine@sjecc.com.

Our First Communion Enrollment Mass – Next Sunday, October 6th, at 11:00 a.m.

All children receiving First Holy Communion and First Reconciliation this year, should plan to attend. During the Mass, these children will receive a special blessing and First Communion Pendant to wear at Mass throughout the Faith Formation year. The Enrollment Mass is an important part of our preparation for First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion. During the Mass, children sit with their families until the time they are called up to receive their necklace. It is helpful to sit up close to the altar during this Mass.

Adult Faith Formation

Highlight on Two Adult Faith Formation Programs

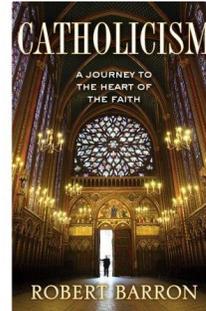

Women of the Word Begin a New Study This week The Book of Judges

If the theme of Joshua is national faithfulness to God, the theme of Judges is the exact opposite. Two verses drive home the point: 1) "The people of Israel did what was evil in the sight of the Lord" (Judges 2:11), and 2) "Every man did what was right in his own eyes" (17:6).

As peace turns to despair and faith into selfishness for the Israelites, we should recall the many times we have turned our own eyes away from God to fulfill selfish desires. In a powerful study of 600+ verses, Steve Ray and Fr. Mitch Pacwa carefully lead you through this distressing book with insight and clarity, urging you to remember that God is always faithful to his promises – and always ready to take us back with open arms.

Meet with other women of all ages and walks of life on Thursdays at 9:30 a.m. in the Alexandria Room of the Claussen Family Center.

What are You Doing Sunday Morning? You are invited to drop in to the CATHOLICISM program this week,

Lesson 4: Mary, the Mother of God

Bishop Barron masterfully correlates the Catholic Faith's testimony to the revelation of God in Christ with the vivid practices of reverence offered to his Mother. Mary is explained as "an on-going presence, an actor in the life of the Church."

By journeying from the humble remains of Mary's house in Nazareth, to the ruins of the ancient city of Ephesus and to the great Marian shrine of Lourdes and Guadalupe you will better understand the Church's teachings about Mary as the Mother of God, the Immaculate Conception, and the dogma of the Assumption.

IT IS NEVER TOO LATE FOR YOU TO JOIN THIS JOURNEY; each lesson stands on its own, so just drop in when you can.

Remember, you are invited to come to any one of the sessions on Sundays at 9:30 a.m. in the Nazareth Room of the Pulte Family Life Center. It's over at 10:45, in time for you to attend 11:00 Mass. Coffee is on the house.

*There is still time to join The Bible Timeline

To accommodate the later return to Naples of a few parishioners who registered for this program, it will now begin on Thursday, October 10, at 6:30 p.m. in the Rome Room.

Questions: Just email jack@sjecc.com or call (239) 228-3918 and leave a message. I respond promptly.

Our adult choir is currently inviting ALL SINGERS, ages 16 and older, to join our choir. Why join St. John's adult choir? We develop proper vocal skills, sing exciting sacred music for our beautiful liturgies and concerts, learn more about our Mass and Faith, gain a more personal and rewarding involvement in the worship, work together as a team, socialize as a family. You get the idea... and we have fun in the entire process! The invitation is open to all interested singers with some music reading skills! We rehearse every Wednesday in the Choir Room. Consider coming to a rehearsal. Try choir for one month or a season. Please contact Gary Prettyman or Jennine Fuentes at the Church Office during the week or after Mass for more information.
